

Reform Candidates Halton, 1867.

For the House of Commons:

JOHN WHITE, Esq., M.P.P. For the Legislature of Ontanio: ROBT-MILLER, ESQ., REEVE OF NELSO:

excellent representative for the French! | been a member of the Hibernian Societhat all the words after "That" to the public will be rather guarded in believ. will in all probability have to be ampuend of the Question be left out, and the ing his sterling integrity yarns. Your words "the Report of the Committee of Supply he recommitted to a Committee own assertion, Mr. Chisholm, cannot of the whole House, for the purpose of now be received. leaving out the Resolution appropriat. So hard up is Mr. Chisbolm for an- Tothe Editor of the Champton. ing ONE THOUSAND POUNDS nexation material, the old stories being TO THE PARIS EXHIBITION commission material, the old stories being gobbled up by that naughty "Cham-

sented at the Great Exhibition. He that we might enumerate, and decide that Mr. Chisholm should be absent from the first Confederate Parliament. ____

THE CONTEST.

certainty as human foresight can make just as reliable as statements. but the clamour, the parade, and the Again he asserts that there was heads in shame, and well they might for Out upon such Charlatanism time will side issues industriously raised by the "valuable pine" on it. There was some seldom sinks a chief so low. Chisholmites, deluded for a time the unwary, and induced some waverers to believe that they were going to be the winplode their cries, and to disprove their whelm the slanderers, and teach them that honesty is the best policy and that although wrong doins may enable them attnough wrong doing may enable them attracted from it. Suspicion has been at prolonged contest. These stories approal content in the matter with the most of these howls were got an a few months with the matter. We see a stories at the months were got an a few months which filled the house affair of the season. The which the dot book and half-a-dozen or more papers which the last name of the letter and the book and half-a-dozen or more papers which the last name of the letter and the book and half-a-dozen or more papers which the last name of the got of the season. The season of the letter and the book and a first paper or the first paper or the got of the season of the letter and the bo these how is were got up a few months to early, they would have been excellent we capons for one week before the elections but they now fall as harmlessly upon the electors as did the Siren's song upon the stopped ears of Ulysses, and his the stopped ears of Ulysses, an the electors as did the Siren's song upon the stopped ears of Ulysses, and his on the stopped ears of Ulysses, and his fellow marines. The lower schools will be examined and not paying his gambling debts. Mr. White responded the electors as did the Siren's song upon the stopped ears of Ulysses, and his of the lower schools will be examined and not paying his gambling debts. Mr. White responded the minutes, shaking hands, smiling ignorance of good English.

The lower schools will be examined and not paying his ignorance of good English.

The Dill mentioned was similar to the bowing and whispering to a man with a acknowledgement more complete? Yet on the stopped ears of Ulysses, and his fellow mariners. They have become as from 9 a. m., to 101, after which ar Camptiresome to the honest yeomanry of Hal- bell's department w. be examined.

This statement, at Cumminsville, he enhealed, and that we once more present a united front to the creamy, whe are welcome stitute are directed to meet at the Town

The production of its own of the second pointers and the statement of the sponsible for the appointment of the sponsible for th united front to the cuemy, who are welcome stitute are directed to meet at the Town edge the truth. So at Cumminsville in ocive so many epithets are directed to meet at the Town edge the truth. So at Cumminsville in ocive so many epithets are directed to meet at the Town edge the truth.

Mr. White's men drawing a saw log for the opinions of our correspondents. from Mr. McDonald's let in Nassagaweys in 1861, and the inference from To the Editor of the Champion.

How can Mr. Chishelm justify this ty! But this style of making charges In this stirring little village is all the gro 3 act of injustice to his constituents; is part of the Sterling Integrity dodge. go, where two or three get together .making us pay for Lower Canada elec- Mr. Chisholm asserted that Mr. Ma. The population here are somewhat ditions, while we pay for ours in addition! gill, of Hamilton, at the supposed anBut perhaps this is a way of showing nexation conversation, turned his back white and Miller men. sterling integrity, and undoubted Loyalty on Mr. White and said he would not trate has power to take such trivial direction.

would not pay for the land." Was quiet missionary from Printing House

Not Sour Krout. Zimmerman, March 21st, 1867.

TO BE REGRETTED.

beneath it. His followers bent their out of his hands and he is briefless. (great laughter.)

What (to be mild) is more disingenuous electors of Halton. Square" ever charged Mr. White with "Gambling and not paying his gambling To the Editor of the Champion.

we may the rollowing two votes by our mis-representative Mr. Chisholm, on two mis-representative Mr. Chisholm, on two with the had five well known Fenians pilling lumber for him in Oakville, and white had five well known for him in Oakville, and white had five uping lumber for him in Oakville, and that they possessed a power and force tried to get out of it by saying suspected
tried to get out of it by saying suspected

was particularly commendable, showing difficulty he drives into a greater.— Baron Munchausen himself could not that Mr. White in one speech had called have accomplished a greater feat than "Mr. Hartman moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Aikins, That all the words after "That" to the That all the words after "That" to the villo may remember that he with coward and poltroon. He read cal operation of sewing his horse together with coward and poltroon. He read the words after it had been two affidavits, the parties sworn, stated whether he would come up to that humbur entirely to the trimmers words "the Report of the Committee of piling lumber for him at Oakville, and ucation, by several references to indivi- er with willow twigs after it had been to Supply be recommitted to a Committee that he would give them rope and not duals of eminence and note, who by the cut in twain. So Mr. Chisholm drives that Mr. White had used treasonable Cakville. Long before the hour named of the whole House, with an Instruction to amend the same, by leaving out the to amend the same to a the total and the same to those the total and the same to those the total and the same to the same to the total and the same to amend the same, by leaving out the same, by leaving out the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) assemble, and in a short time there was sum of TWO THOUSAND POUNDS ing, if he did not assert they were Fetress. He also pressed upon the Trustees the trees standing as they did fifty years the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) assemble, and in a short time there was luctuarily called upon to deal and would are not to be depended upon. And the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) assemble, and in a short time there was further trustees the trees standing as they did fifty years the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) assemble, and in a short time there was further trustees the trees standing as they did fifty years the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) assemble, and in a short time there was further trustees the trees standing as they did fifty years the gentleman to mount his (Patriotism) as far as consistently with his duty to his family and the great public at large are organizing in the constituencies most hundred. their being merely suspected. And it tees gave also each a word of en-LOWER CANADA IN 1855" insert turns out that the persons referred to, instead thereof."

How do we find Mr. Chisholm voting? In fivor of this amendment? No. He is found among the nays, in company with his dear moutons of Lower Canada No wonder, Mr. Bowes said there moutons of Lower Canada No wonder, Mr. Bowes said the more reckless or will as the country map, said by in the gallery reminded hin, that the persons referred to, unconscious to the present that the trees stood fast and firm in the undisputed stood fast and fir the trouble? Mr. Chisholm quite as the great confederation, and Mr. Chishready in this case as in the last, promptly olm took his seat, amid some cheering. of Bobby and Bobbs, Millor Dec. ready in this case as in the last, promptly olin took his seat, amid some cheering. of Reb'y and Robert Miller Esq., nomi- ed somewhat incoherently about Annex- will continue to have great influence still responds, "The map was not published We don't know what others cheered in 1859." Electors look at your maps him for, but we cheered him for the the gallant Colonel, "That letter you Mr. White of the Hamilton Spectator Milton on the 19th inst. On the left retired rather cast fallen and discommend are the more astonished to find our cowhite and miller men.

Acoldents.

Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few

Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few

Acoldents.

Acoldents.

Mr. Particle of the chair was G. K. Chisholm, Esq., the first was not written until after having been called upon, rose and spoke the first was not written until after having been called upon, rose and spoke the first was not written until after having been called upon, rose and spoke will, and to the purpose of the obair was G. K. Chisholm, Esq., while the impatient audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried while the impatient audience cried while the impatient audience cried while the impatient audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried while the impatient audience cried while the impatient audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried while the impatient audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried while the impatient audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried the more astonished to find our co-the desired audience cried th to French Domination.

But on the same page is another ambient. Here it is:

Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few behalf of Mr. Chisholm was not in Quebec and the country.

Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few behalf of Mr. Chisholm he said little or the opposition. On the platform I behalf of Mr. Chisholm was not in Quebec and many the no-party independent candidate of the opposition. On the platform I behalf of Mr. Chisholm was not in Quebec and much less a prejidiced person, in Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few behalf of Mr. Chisholm he said little or the opposition. On the platform I behalf of Mr. Chisholm was not in Quebec and much less a prejidiced person, in Mr. Babcock, got badly hurt a few minutes, but having a combination of party leaders in the Government, for carrying of Confederation of the opposition. On the platform I behalf of Mr. Chisholm was not in Quebec and much less a prejidiced person, in Mr. Magill as Mile Creek, and Mr. Watson's son had in 1861. And the first letter purports much less a prejidiced person, in Mr. Watson's son had in 1861. And the first letter purports much less a prejidiced person, in Mr. Watson's son had in 1861. conduct. Here it is:

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger,

"Mr. Patrick moved in amendment to the Question, seconded by Mr. Bigger, and misleading representation of the audience for the the audience for the the Audience for the Audience for the Audience for the fair play and good order, which had been maintained throughout the whole of the Audience for the fair play and good order, which had been maintained th point at issue, but the case. Surely this is a very style in which he delivered his speech, Gallant Colonel; he beards the truth was in such strong contrast to the Esq., John Alton, Esq., Donald Mcwhen wiser men would speak it. Also, monotonous melody, more like an Irish Craney, Esq., of Bothwell, and many for the Queen, which were give with a out far more of a Cabinet Coalition than the lamentation which had wearied us for others whom I did not know. at Cumminsville, he produces a paper lamentation which had wearied us for from the Registry Office to prove how an hour before that we cheered him At about half past seven the chair- form Candidate which were given with a stituencies it never had any existence form Candidate which were given with a stituencies it never had any existence for which he was agent, and then for the Mr. Kerr having been called for, excellent and ably delivered speech in and most successful Reform meeting in unless the Hamilton dinner affair of first time we get the location of the lots leaned his length against the chairman's which he reviewed at some length the Oakville, the Errong hold.—Communi- last fall may be held to have done duty referred to in the John S. McDonald desk, and drank a glass of water advantages of confederation, shewing CATED. communication. In 1861 he writes to which the chairman filled, (cries the imperation necessity of the Re-McDonald that White is committing of Johnnie fill up the bowl); and said, form Party of Ontario, maintaining its How did Mr. Chisholm vote on this? perate dedge of getting extra judicial It is to be regretted that in Mr. depredations on his land, and that he that he believed Mr. White had called full and complete status in the Federal affidavits for Mr. White's enemies, Chisholm's meetings that gentleman had been up examining and making en- him a catamount or something like it, commons and local Assembly; he then he had just given away $8,000 for Lower both political and personal, to prove should have such a disregard for the Canada Elections, he will surely vote half that he said something after dispose in Canada Elections, he will surely vote half that he said something after dinner in truth as to place himself by his repeated it appears that White was making a fine see the point). He then went on to say, and exhorted the country and exhorted the country and exhorted the country and exhorted the information he gave J. S. McDonald it came from, defer the country and exhorted the country and exhorted the information he gave J. S. McDonald it came from, defer the country and exhorted the information he gave J. S. McDonald it came from, defer the country and exhorted the country and exhorted the country and exhorted the information he gave J. S. McDonald it came from, defer the country and exhorted the country and ex that sum for the purpose of placing this the Bronte Hotel 1 Mr. C, reads them country on a par with other nations—show the world our resources, and enshow the world our resources, and enthe case, as the justice applied to courage imigration. But no! he has would not take them, as they varied so debts." "It was," says this paragon of MR. EDITOR :- We (Editorially,) at- laughter.) the subject is mentioned, vindicates the platform and announced that the time nay!—Did not like that Bill I sup-If We abstain from any discussion are circulations to John McNaughton, Eq. Our opinion is that the local Parkinganis met it would have to more mention as the the local Parkinganis met it would have to have the pleasure of announcing that the coursels will prevail. We hope next week to have the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the apparent breach in our ranks has been and the pleasure of announcing that the pleasure "meek and quiet missionary" from the had arrived to elect a chairman. We pose?"

Yours, &c., SUBSCRIBER, Milton, March 28th, 1867.

stating he approved of every vote Mr. friends who had signed the requisition tion, and government stores, and were the opportunity has come when he could tion of South Wentworth, with Mr. Bob. Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

This charge Mr. Miller in his reply demolished in the following words, "Gentlemen, which had been accused a little about his past career as a political man, said he had been accused of having voted for Nunperies and Mouker-pupils attending Zimmerman School

The public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the pupils attending Zimmerman School

To the Editor of the Champton.

Sir., A public examination of the public exami

The Classes acquitted his day book at Oakville that all the pine had been cut seven years before, and sold to F. Campbell, and credit and paid to the estate by authority of the great pains had been taken by the Teachgeneral, and the County of Halton in could hear through the hubbub was some point of etiquette or veracity which parties that is talked of by some, and The Canadian Champion

The Canadian Champion must nave gone to the give you an idea of how matters stand but Mr. King diffident and blushing, not igenes are not defunct and but Mr. King diffident and blushing, not igenes are not defunct and but Mr. King diffident and blushing, not igenes are not defunct and blushing, not igenes are not defunct and blushing, not igenes are not defunct. Wellington Square, March 23, '67.

two affidavits, the parties sworn, stated

Mr. Cotter. Mr. Chisholm has prove the estimate put upon it by the told us that he has made votes which he is sorry for.

Mr. Chisholm, -"Only one, only one, don't put words in my mouth.'

bands as Mr. Miller, charging him with the same position, but to oblige 1100 loyal people, who received arms, amoni- appointment for thirteen years but now "what about the Conservative Associa- ter.

he county of Halton" at a meeting held in down the house. like Mr. Chisholan in and so on. This is most true, and we.

man called the meeting to order in an vim, and one more, thus ended a great at all, not the shadow of a shade of it; would not take them, as they varied so education he is less excusable. His ex- pine was out off that land in 1854 and boy, wanting care and nourishment— thus astic cheers and in an elequent ad tinction of Torv and Reformer was no given so much to Lower Canada that he given so much to Lower Canada that he more, and the control of the whole country, and as far as he given so much to Lower Canada that he given so much to Lower Canada that he was afraic ample is contagious, if he escapes understand in an elequent and told us of our vast resources, of dress held the undivided attention of the whole country, and as far as he were obterated, and an an elequent and told us of our vast resources, of dress held the undivided attention of of the whole country, and as far as he was concerned, the Province go unreprewas concerned, the Province go unreprewas concerned, the Great Exhibition. He

sented at the Great Exhibition. He

ty of the agent of the owner, and the fixed system of the owner, and the fixed system of the owner, and the fixed system of the agent of the owner, and the fixed system of dants'—those disinterested souls who dants'—those disinterested souls who partyism' look foolish, will quickly volation and its baneful influence is felt in every and the fixed system of the great exhibition. He ty of the agent of the owner, and the fixed system of dants'—those disinterested souls who partyism' look foolish, will quickly volation and its baneful influence is felt in every and the fixed system of the great exhibition. He

ty of the agent of the owner, and the fixed system of dants'—those disinterested souls who partyism' look foolish, will quickly volation and its baneful influence is felt in every and the fixed system of the great exhibition. He

to suit ourselves in choosing our representation which enabled the domsented at the Great Exhibition. He And notwithstanding this fact of the Thus far, all had gone well with the incering spirit of Lower Canadians, profess to have no politics, but to be considerable interior which enabled the dome with the incering spirit of Lower Canadians, profess to have no politics, but to be considerable interior which enabled the party ism' look foolish, will quickly volationally and discipate into the construction which enabled the construction which enabled the party ism' look foolish, will quickly volationally and the construction which enabled the construction w past, in 1861 "the open manly counter- one party, and scemed for a moment as whenever aided by a few recreant them- only "for the good" of the country, sir," boots and dissipate into space all the on- selves liable to punishment. Oaths Mr. Chisholm, at his Campbellville ance" heams again upon these logs if it were about to end well; some one bers from Upper Canada who forgot are, no doubt, profoundly disappointed on ance" heams again upon these logs if it were about to end well; stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time these amendments of the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stituents he had not had "urgent private business," at the time the stitue business," at the time these amendments came, and we suppose the contract of the general tone of the Western Reform realm.

Solve the showled by the showled eame up! we should be thankful that he was absent on 133 divisions in 1857, Chisholm informer in chief! What a lands As M. White did not read to press, we are on the eve of about as good in an old-fashioned party contest as we have a pretty bright red. ment is unnecessary, inen again this way to the door, seemingly confident show the different expedients respected an old-fashioned party contest as we have not been as he would have swelled the Lower Canintelligence of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of the people of Halton if papers he became bolder. He had never the acceptance of the people of the pe a lian majority if he had been present!

Let the honest electors of Halton reflect on the had been present to the Commission of Crown on the honest electors of Halton reflect on the had been present. Had been present to the Commission of Crown on the had been present. Had been present to the Commission of Crown between the Leader and the Free Press to one side or the other. By about the party an immense favour were they just the thinks they are to be gulled by such the efforts of Cantain Robertson and Mr. Cotter of Press to one side or the other. By about the party an immense favour were they just time the House of Commons gets to known their acceptance was the result of Chisholm a question, (cries of platform, written as these. If the part Lands. Bolder still: Let Mr. White Let the honest electors of Halton reflect on these two votes, and hundreds of others that we might enumerate. and decide Claim on such evidence the disloyalty of his neighbor, is it done from politiof his neighbor, is it done from politithe desk, and defies him to prove it,— can he justify his conduct to the Omagh himself of his great coat, in such a man bor the indebtedness of its proprietors which we are again to be plunged. But In all cal or selfish motives? Is it not plain let him produce his papers—and his fol-

that his language is, stand saide, I am more loval than thou! As the Reevel with the residence of the continuous and the residence in the chair local assembly who are in no way dependent and the residence in the chair local assembly who are in no way dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves to the simple dependent and the residence are overwhelmingly facts—confining ourselves to the simple facts—confining ourselves more loyal than thou! As the Reeve lieve the man, and they rejoice in his he chooses, It is to be hoped he is an or on Mr. Chishelm on his right. He ent upon Government favors. He then on his right. He ent upon Government favors. He then much so that it is plainly destined to still exist as before. The discussion of the chooses, It is to be hoped he is an or on Mr. Chishelm on his right. exception to our public men, for few in asked Mr Chisholm in what particular alluded to the fact that he had advo prove of but very small practical account. ing our readers from personal ob- White is as loyal as Mr. Chisholm, with Less than forty-eight hours after Mr. so short a time could have heaped up way we were to be benefitted by the cated and done his best to have the There is one feature in the case so reservation and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and for being and for being and from reports from all points their difference he is not paid for being and for bei servation and irom reports from all points of the County that Mr White's election for "Glorious Old Halton" by an servation of the County that Mr White's election for "Glorious Old Halton" by an servation of the county that affidavits have been sworn, but "manly open countenance" is sneering a man seeking parliamentary of the county that affidavits have been sworn, but "manly open countenance" is sneering a man seeking parliamentary of the county that that affidavits have been sworn, but "manly open countenance" is sneering a man seeking parliamentary of the countenance of the for "Glorious Old Halton" by an overwhelming majority, is as much a that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused overwhelming majority, is as much a that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused of the English Church but that their theory, it they can. The Tory ment and society end that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused the present occasion. Accused the present occasion. Accused the present occasion. How can then the present occasion. The Tory ment and society end their theory, it their theory, it they can their theory, it they can the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the selfish course of Mr Chisholm the selfish course of Mr Chisholm the selfish course of the English Church but that their theory, it they can the selfish course of Mr Chisholm the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the recommendation and little to do not seem to take it up on their own that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the recommendation and little to do not seem to take it up on their own that makes no difference as they were at the present occasion. Accused the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers do not join in the no-party cry; the papers ters are produced in his own handwrit- His antecedents are bad. His past wont him of having acted unfairly with the people of the town. He said that he account. How can they, indeed, when certainty as human foresight can make

This, we have conceded not only by

This, we have conceded not only by Again Mr. Clisholm asserts that Lot with confusion he tries to explain, and bury the past."

The cold shoulder to for his nomination, as they were the prosperity of Oakville, but he depyshould not only by

No. 15. in Nelson. was all rock. the Reformers, but acknowledged by num- No. 15, in Nelson, was all rock, the in the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the charge most appearance of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the charge most appearance of the presence of over a score who which he gives to truth is disgraceful.— Conservatives, he should have thanked of the charge most appearance of the presence of the presen bers of Conservatives, whilst the small land was valueless. To this we reply heard his denial of these letters the prewers or commerced the majority they profess to claim, is a vitmajority they profess to claim, is a vital acknowledgement of defeat. We

> Mr. Cotter, -- Well, you made one Volunteer company, and charged that correct apprehension too, we believe, on & McLeod, who were invited guests, vote which you were sorry for—and a he had said at a meeting in Campbells their part,) at the impending general made appropriate speeches, which were sorry which the people of Halton ville that he (Mr. White,) had five election? The point we wish here to replied to by one of the employees, when the company which the people of Halton ville that he (Mr. White,) had five election? The point we wish here to replied to by one of the employees, when the company which the people of Halton ville that he (Mr. White,) had five were sorry for." (Loud and prolonged Fenians in his employ, piling lumber, at make—and we beg of the no-party men dancing was again resumed. The ar-Oakville. He charged Mr. Chisholm to meet us squarely on it if they can— rangements throughout were complete e with knowingly recommending to the is that the faith and profession of a truce and the committee of management were holm's speech was that Mr. White was pupils attending Zimmerman School be a man of truth, and on my honor as the cheering, during which Mr. Chishoun ball seems to have opened, and it seems to have opened to have opene made against him but because of him their convention, and nominated Mr. who made them and borne down by Chicholm before the Reform mosting having the accumulated responsibility of Chisholm before the Reform meeting thirteen years cast upon him so entirely took place. Ex uno disce omnes; as unprepared, didn't have much to say with one, so with all; and the County He began by saying that he believed that of Halton furnishes a logical instance some one had said, or if it had not it of very general application. We repeat On Saturday night last, I attended a might have been said that a good speech our assertion, that the Tory press most was that which conveyed the most meanor not, but at all events would try to b that humbug entirely to the trimmers extended the shield of charity to vir Soon after seven Wm. Wass, Esq., as Chishoim who on this as on every occa-

Party Organization.

everybody knew,' that he had imported of Tory candidates, of course. Any fool of sixty couple sat down to a splendid e largely to improve the breed of the knows that, it may be said. Why then repast, in the school-room, furnished by stock of the County. He spoke of his blame Reformers for organizing when the ladies of the Mammoth. After the opponent, claiming something which he Tories are at it already, as if it were party had done ample justice to the was not cutitled to, in relation to a neck or nothing with them, (a perfectly delicacies of the season, Messrs. Barclay

White had made against min as take inated the spectator, however, pondents reports of the Wellington Square but he steered entirely clear of the re-

The Wesley

MR. EDITOR,

intrusion on your s

time, but I feel so me to speak.

very kindly feeling

so has the Gallant

the Methodist in q

Ralph, I accept th

the epithet Broth

intends it as a slur

it, and as such I suits his or their

and sneer at our fa

membership, at ot

tion of Class-Meeti

ers, what they gal

ions. But all we churches, heal th

mind their own n

own disciplinary

tend to ourselves

assistance of the enon. Brother h

the "Wesleyan"

on the Gallant Co

for the phenomen

dent to suppose s

objects to the su

of "style" which whenomenon had

which he has not known with as m

had seen the part communication.

Will that do ?

it. Is that suffic

convenient to sur

a paltry fling at th

was suspended for a former election

about as near the

enon ever gets or

Truth is not his

detraction have b

stock in trade.

from church men

have been a mer

It is true that af

Mr. Chisholm w

the hatred of h

knew no bounds.

Mr. Thomas Boy

eignate as "old

false representa

a charge against the first two wit

of another chure

baseless, that M

and said he was preferred it, for

fact, for it is eas

upon any act,

the board (who disproved it.

strong political and I met it.

emphatically does not subscribe to the generally in advance of the Beformers.

that can be said of it. In that constituency was there "fusion of parties" enough to cause Tories to vote for Reformers who supported Confederation i Our cotemporary cannot fail to "see the point" of the cases of North Ontario and North Wentworth. The Leader clings to the pleasing delusion that the Coalition has at all events lasted long enough to leave behind it no inconsider-

Conference) ord nected with it fo not the semblan pear against me his friends can that refutation ! the slanderer ar Betts the Superi if he dare, and for in our body the Church of r in it from a lad it till I die. omenon he can Brother Ralph Circuit, the les sufficient for thi But does the p that the Gallar Hon. Mr. Aik going about the Local Preacher ter think again Chisholm did s it, it has not yes recollection. lemans reply to considered him a position, but talent to be a l consider it one that could be appointed to s Chisholm will what statemer this canyass so he has not den treatment is co excepting as and certainly plimentary fre brother of the far as I am co the phenomen say only one. a little, to giv a wanderer as return to trut his continuar months at md ger Mr. C lage, obtained

Ho dren might be BYMPROMS OF

true cause of ranged appea offensize brea nose grinding om times'cor blings, cougi frightful drea away of flesh. pletely cleans away with th Cas of oil or Each bux cons

&f Ngrttfop & are the sofe tu Holloway's W other. Sold and medicine