are holding out

e appreciated by the public. Their ble in Ontario. They import their er greater inducements to u r greater inducements to the con

CŁOTHING.

r the Fall and Inter Trade Department, ment of a

he market. HE WONDER OF THE COUNTRY.

BE COLD HEAP.

& MCLEOD'S

mmoth House

E RY.

WN Our daily nereasing ista To sav that were

We want 300 Kegs of Good Bur unt of Good Shipping Apples H M'KAY.

RAD'S

Cakville, Aug. 27th 1867. FOOT OF THE OFFICE AND RESIDENCE : Street, Hamilton.

T.B. WINM, M.B. THOMPSON HOUSE,

Magaweya, Nov. 1, 1866.

A. C. MARLATTE, M. D.

MINICIAN, SURCEON & ACCOUCHEUR KILBRIDE. DESIDENCE, -Over the Foun-

Kilbride, June 26th, 1857. T. RUSTON,

SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, NOTARY PUBLIC; &C.

Robert Swanton Appelbe, RARRISTER, ATTORNEY, and SOLI-CITOR IN CHANCERY.

OAKVILLE G. T. BASTEDO

$1 A-YEAR

"THE PRESS-The Palladium of the People's Rights,"

IIN ADVANCE

VOL. VII.]

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1867.

Business Directory. WILLIAM LAIDLAW.

MARRIAGE LICENSES, &C., Barrister & Attorney-at-Law. SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY. CONVEYANCER, &c., &c., &c. Office. - One door west of Wallaces' new

JOHN DEWAR, Jr., Barrister and Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, fa column for twelve months 15 SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER &c., Main Street, Milton.

BARRISTERS, AND ATTORNEYS-AT-Law, Solicitors hancery, Conveyancers, Notaries Public, &c. Office-Court Street, Milton. G. TICE BASTEDO.

Milton, May 29th, 1867. All advertisements intended for insertion JOHN LIVINGSTON, L.L. B. Barrister & Attorney-at-Law, SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &C., GEORGETOWN.

ROBERT FORSAYETH, Attornen-at-Anto, Solicitor in Chancery. Conveyancer Commissioner &c., OFFICE. - The building on Mill Street lately occupied by Wm. Barber, Esq.

Georgetown, Co. Halton, C. W. S. R. Lister, sioner in Queen's Bench, Lic-nsed

ed on Commission.

Nassagaweya, April 5, 1864. Edgar Bray, PROVINCIAL LAND SURVEYOR, OAKville. Letters addressed to Oakville r.o. will be attended to. Oakville, 1867.

E. DeGarmo, TRLINGTON HOTEL WELLINGTON Square. Comfort, moderate charges, and unremitting attention to guests still continue to mark the management of this first-class Hotel. The Stables and Yards are very extensive, and a careful Hostler is in attendance. Wellington Square, Oct. 24, 1867. 20 ly Victoria Hotel, Oakville, Best of Wines, Liquors, and Cigars kept constantly on hand. Good Meals, good stabling and a good Shed. Every attention paid to the travelling public. Oakville Oct. 4th, 1867.

PALERYO HOUSE, PALERMO, VANALLEN. PROPRIETOR. Returns his thanks to his numerous cus tomers for their past p tronage, and begs to assure them that he will still conduct his business in first-class style. Best brands of liquors and cigars, good stabling and attentive hostlers. Palermo, Oct. 4th. 186

TYRONE HOTEL. N.B. There is a Store in connection with this Ho-Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., kept constantly on

EXCHANGE HOTEL, BY THOMAS CLARK, GEORGETOWN, C.W.

BUSSES to and from the Station, regularly. Every attention paid to the entive Hostlers.

VILLAGE OF NELSON, C.W. J. E. BURGER, Propprietor

VERY attention paid to the traveling public. Good Stabling and an atten-Nelson. Jan. 27th, 1863.

GANADIAN HOTEL,

OAKVILLE.

N. B. -Railway Travelers can rely upon Binones, Scotland, Cottege of Surgeons, Omnibus Conveyance to and from the Cars. ABOUT HALF-A-MILE SOUTH OF MILTON Main-Street, Milton. Oakville, July 25th. 1866.

MILTON. CHARLES H. THOMPSON. DEGS to inform the public that he is in his New and Commodious three story Stone Hetel, on Main Street, where h will be most happy to wait upon his old customers and the public generally.

good Livery Stable in connection man in attendance. where Horses and Carriges can alway be had on reasonable terms. Milton. Feb. 24. 1864.

KILBRIDE.

A NNOUNCES to his numerous friends and the public, that he has fitted up this new commodious Hotel in First.

Kilbride, April 30th, 1667:

New Butcher

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES Main Street Millon. WILLIAM A. AGAR. HOUSE PAINTER

Robt. Dolmage

PALERMO.

Palermo, October 17th, 1866. 20-ly

J. B. Willmott;

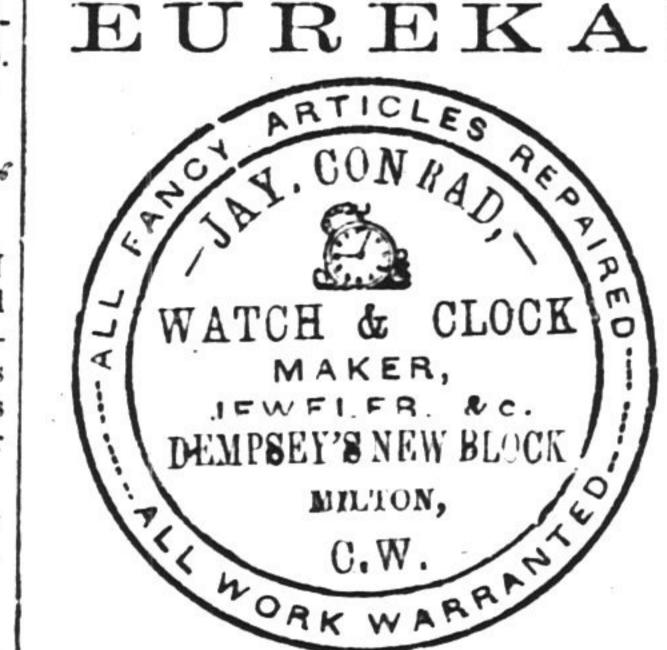

Glazier and Paper Hanger. SHOP on Martin Street, Milton. Orders lest at Thompson's Hotel, will be

P. B. ZIMMERMAN, Contractor for House Building, Valuator &c. Plans of Buildings drawn on short notice. Carpenter and Joiner work attended to at G-FREEN HIDES reasonable prices. Milton, May 26, 1864. D. McKINNON

General Blacksmith, Main Street. Saw-gumming, etc., done on short notice. WATCH

FROM TORONTO, MAN always be found at A. Galbraiths's Shop, Main Street, GEORGETOWN, where he is prepared to repair all descriptions of Watches and Clocks in such a manper as will ensure satisfaction, and at prices that will defy competition. Jewelry neatly Auctioneer, Accountant, &c. Debts collect-Watches, Clocks and Jewelry For Sale!

Georgetown, May 17, 1864.

Milton, March 14th, 1867.

W. Barber & Bros. PAPER MANUFACTURER,

Georgetown. Printing & Wraping Paper onstantly on hand and made to order WOOL CARDING

CLOTH DRESSING on the shortest notice. Cotton Rags in any Stage between Milton and Georgetown. Il a New House, and is fitted up in a comfortable quantity will be received at their Paper manner as any Hotel in the county. Good stabling. Mill in return for Cash. Highest price paid in Cash for Wool.

MONEY TO LOAN 10 000 On hand for investeDIU.UUU ment at 8 per cent on Security of Real Estate.

WILLIAM LAIDLAW. Barrister. &o. Milton, 18th April, 1867, 46-tf. N Good Farm Security.

traveling public. Good Stabling and at- Money to Loan. JOHN DEWAR, Jr, Milton, O .10th. 1865.

> J. E. HARRISON, VETERINARY SURGEON

Graduate of the Toronto Veterinary Col-Every attention is paid to the travelling of the Lower animals. His Office. for the present, will be at the residence of his father William Harrison, Terms moderate. Medicine for Horses and Cattle always on hand, and orders promptly attended to. Milton, March 21st. 1867.

Imposters & Humbugs Dislike it.

DERSONS wishing to have their Sheep cleansed thoroughly from Ticks and all diseases of the skin can do so by applying either in person or by writing fession skillfully performed. Artificial post paid to the subscriber. TERES.—Six cents per head with all

CHAS. PARKS, Lot No. 24, N. D. S., Trafalgar. REFERENCES:

Heart, Edward Sheridan, Walter Law- ploy him. rence, Finlaysons, Mr. Thos. Dearing.

TAXES.

B. JONES,

UNION MARBLE WORKS Georgetown

E, N. ORR,

All kinds of Marble Monuments, Headstones Tombstones, Ornamental Chains, writers. Posts, &c., constantly on hand. E. N. ORR.

Milton

THE Subscriber will pay the Highest Market Price in Cash, For any Quantity of

A Large Stock of Assorted Leather kept Constantly on hand.

Immediately. $4,00 a cord paid for Good SAMUEL F. TAYLOR. Milton, Oct. 30th, 1866.

By HENRY FALLIS, Stables-Opposite G. T. Bastedo's Office. Milton, Nov. 8th 1866.

THECELEBRATED STALLION

The Winner of the Queen's Plate,

TITILL Remain at his own Stables near W Bronte Station, for the remainder c the year. Parties wishing to improve their Stock can do so by applying to JAMES WHITE. Bronte, 7 uly 24th, 1867.

And General Stage House, MILTON, C. We envy not thy lordly tread,

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Public that he has moved to his new Hotel. on the corner of Main and Brown Streets, where he will be glad to wait upon his old customers. He has spared neither pains nor expense in making his House a firstclass Hotel, and all who favor him with their patronage will receive every attention. He would also inform the pub-

Stage, twice each day between Milton and Bronte. He also runs a daily

BRITISE union hotel,

STEWARTTOWN. A. BYAN, PROPRIETOR. ITAS recently refitted this Hotel, at a con-A siderable ost, and is now prepared to share of public patronage as he has heretofore received. Terms moderate, Stewarttown, April 4th, 1867,

IN ED WY Barber Shop.

ces that he has commenced busi. the Crimea, rose from his seat and self of your intimacy with my mother, kept her promise to Brereton is scarcely lege, is prepared to attend all the ailments ness as Barber, Hairdresser, &c., in struck him such a mighty blow that the with her, and with me, to substitute to be doubted, for the only society that

Milton, May 2nd, 1867.

MILTON.

Every operation connected with the pro- apologize to Brereton for his behaviour influence of some extraordinary delu- young gentleman may be considered teeth inserted in a Persons requiring these very useful sub- Brereton's right to interfere between stitutes for the natural teeth, are invited to call and examine specimens and quote pri-George Crooks, Esq.; Messrs. John complete satisfaction to all who may em-

Tailors Wanted.

TANTED, Two Journeymen Tailer to whom constant employment an good wages will be given. Apply to BARCLAY & McLEOD, Mammoth House, Georgetown. October 23rd, 1867.

of FENNINGS TAYLOB, Esq., Clerk of the Up- Mr. Ogd n to the fact that he was a re- DEAR CAPTAIN BRERETON, __ I be worse if we couldn't help it. Listen, per House, and a gentleman well-known jeeted suitor of the lady, and availed cannot tell you how grieved I was to to me new, Corney; I want ye to help

POETRY.

God bless the dear old country, may He defend her cause, May virtue guide her rulers, may wisdom make her laws;

God bless our gracious Severeign, and the Princes of her line, God bless her loving subjects of every race and clime.

press of the North; Pure offspring of high counsel, fair child of patriot worth;

The dear old flag is our flag, to bear through | Crimea once more. fame or loss-Britannia's flag of freedom! the glorious triple cross!

each patriot soul; Northern Pole; right noble is the royalty for noble men to sway.

POMPOSITY.

Hold not thy head too high my friend, For surely thou must know our first Dominion day.

The heaviest heads of wheat will bend The stalks on which they grow; And everywhere the loveliest flowers Bloom nearest to the ground-The sweetest songsters of the wood

Hold not thy head too high my friend, Though rich in land and gold, The throngs that on thy steps attend Speak not the thoughts they hold: Their true respect is only paid Where worthiness they see-

Unto thy wealth, not thee. Hold not thy head too high, my friend, Whate'er thy station here; For brains will triumph in the end-

Those deferential bows are made

Where then will be thy sphere? Nor at thy lot repine-We would not hold erect a head That weighs so light as thine,

The Lawyer's Story.

(Concluded.)

"Come, come, gentlemen," said Twysden, another barrister who was present, "don't let us have any dispute about a "You had better return as soon matter so utterly trivial in itself. you'll see that on reflection." "I don't see anything of the kind," said Ogden. "Captain Brereton has presumed to interfere, in a particularly

I had proposed. We all know why .- plainly." We all know how Captain Brereton "You have indeed. Harry Osborne, proposed to Miss Bessemer, and how what does this mean?" Miss Bessemer rejected Captain Brere-with a tipsy gravity. DEMPSEY'S NEW BLOCK, insensible. Brereton called for his hat possible insensible. Brereton called for his hat possible insensible in Ogden was assisted to a cab, and conby Twysden and others who had witden, and as Ogden had but a very vague my meaning?" recollection of the facts of the preced- "I know what you want me to say. OFFICE AT HIS DRUG STORE ing evening, he came to the conclusion Harry, but nothing will induce me to that the best thing he could do was to say it. You are speaking under the bread and receiving a stone, but the and all mandkind." on the previous evening. This he did sion, and I do not hold you responsible still worse treated when he asked for a in terms which expressed his regret for for what you say. When you are calm young lady's hand and got her father's pressions. the Crimea, denying, at the same time, you are in error."

> found its way into the columns of a the purpose?" morning paper. The paragraph ran

"AN OFFICEB AND A GENTLEMAN." between a 'gallant' officer in her Majes with the flat of the blade. private dinner-party at the Cl-r-nd-n and thrusting him on to the camp-bed. a downward slant that reminds one of Ht-l, is likely to give employment to "Sit down and listen. It is now my a victous cow with a board across her he; "Oh, I remember; at the line the barrister, G-rge Ogd-n, are, it is un- terrible one. Here are two lettersha for the Michampion ! B-ss-m-r, whose surpassing beauty was me. With the former I have nothing the theme of general comment at the to do-you may burn it or not, as you weight? Because he's a simple ton.

last drawing-room. The 'gallant' offi- please. But the latter you shall either never made a will !" on 'urgent private affairs,' after a singu- tent." ty, took umbrage at an allusion made by lows:-

rister's back being turned to him, to Mr. Ogden, and I am equally unable to guineas in gold if ye do what I hid ye. commit a most dastardly assault on thank you sufficiently for your kindness Ye know that ye were always reckoned of his legal adviser."

agraph, but busied himself with the know that. But, at the same time, you over into the house and get into the preparations incidental to his return to know how often it happens that when a bed. scandal he was on board her Majesty's ous man like Mr. Ogden, she lays her-tween Brereton and Ogden.

terrible state of mind, and in the bit- alterable love. terness of his sorrow he cursed the blind confidence that had reposed so sacred a trust in a man who was, to all appearance, utterly unworthy of it. He determined to hold no further communi cation with Lucy, and he actually destroyed, without opening it, a letter thathe received from that inconstant young lady a fortnight afterwards. Brereton arrived safely at Balaklava. and as soon as he had reported himself, hurried to Osborne's tent. He found that miserable young man smoking furiously on his camp-bed, and looking as wretchedly ill as a man whose dreams of happiness have been rudely dispelled, could look. . "Harry, my dear old boy, thank God me, old fellow? Hang it, Harry, what's insult another, and you have borne the insult as only a brave fellow and a gen times three deep around the walls, all 'm back again! Why, don't you know !

"I mean that you, Captain Edward that blackguard barrister." impertinent manner, with a toast which Brereton, are a liar. I have spoken confidence I was happy in the belief

"Harry Osborne, are you mad?-"If I am it is scarcely to be wondercer, who has returned from the Cr-m-a read, or hear read, before I leave this larly short residence in that warm locali- The letter to Brereton ran as fol ever was pleasing to the company.

him, and immediately beat a precipitate in vindicating me as you did. I am a the image of my father, and before he retreat. It is understood that Mr. Og very, very silly girl, and I have much was taken ill we were mistaken for each d n has placed the matter in the hands to reproach myself with. I cannot close other every day of the week. my eyes to the fact that I have received Brereton, satisfied with having silene. Mr. Ogden's attentions too favourably. getting frightned at the motion, without ed and discomfited his insolent antagon- I never intended that he or any one well knowing why. ist, took no notice whatever of this par- else should supplant poor Harry-you "Well, what I want is for ye to come the seat of war. In three weeks after vain and thoughtless girl indulges in a "Not beside the corpse?" said my the publication of the preposterous ball room flirtation with an unserupul- father trembling. transport "Racer," on his way to the self open to the charge of being spoken you're to pretend to be my father, and of as Mr. Ogden spoke of me. I have that ye want to make yer will before ye flirted with him, in spite of your warn. | die ; and then I'll send for the neighborn In the meantime Harry Osborne had ings, and, for the time being, I am and Billy Scanlan the Schoolmaster, and been doing his duty gallantly before Se- afraid that I forgot poor Harry. I am | ye'll tell him what to write, leaving a bastopol. The terrible winter of '55 doubly to blame, because you have the farm and everything to me-ye had been cheered by many letters both spoken of him so often and so nobly, understand. And as the neighbors will from Lucy and from Brereton, but in a that I can searcely plead his absence see ye and hear yer voice, it will never few months the letters from Lucy grad. from England in palliation of my con- be believed but it was himself that did Its flanks are mighty oceans, it's base the ually dwindled down from one a week duet. But I think that the occurence to one a month. He could not bring at the Clarendon Hotel has fully awak-"The room must be very dark," says himself to doubt her constancy, and ened me to the baseness of my conduct. my father. was willing enough to attribute their I will tell you what I will do. I will "To be sure it will; but have no fear May, he found a newspaper awaiting Harry returns. No consideration shall yer pen under the name.

non arrival to the postal irregularities leave London and go to live with Aunt Nobody will dare to come nigh the bed, consequent on the war. One day in Ruth, at Merthyr Tydvil, until dear and ye'll only have to make a cross with that it might not escape his notice. It little strength of mind to come to this er Tom said he'd not give him the was, of course, the journal that contain- determination, for aunt Ruth is not a rites; and that's lucky. Now! come ed the garbled account of the row be- pleasant old lady, and Mertbyr Tydvil along, now-quick-for we have no is deplorably dull. I have written a time to loose; it must be finished before of Lucy's silence was put an end to .- your long friendship for him and for at his toilet, for he just wrapped his big

My father did not loose much time He saw in Lucy an uncompromising me will induce you to plead my cause coat round him, and slipping on the gone some minutes; and then, in costume as light as my parent's, set out after them to watch the course of the cut, and be before them; but by bad lluck I fell into a bog-hole, and only escaped drowning b was, when I reached the house, the per up, formance had already begun, I think I see the whole seene this in stant before my eyes as I sat on a little window, with one pane and that a brok en one, and surveyed the proceedings

The fact that Lucy's letters dropped off to whiskey, which was supplied with one by one, and then that d-d news- more than accustomed liberality.

All my consciousness of the deceit and trickery could not deprive the scene of a certain solemnity. The misty distance of the half-lighted room; the highly wrought expression of the country people's faces, never more intensely excited than at some moment And he handed Brereton the paper of this kind; the low, deepdawn that contained the paragraph in ques breathings, unbroken save by a sich or a sob; the tribute of affectionate sor-"Harry," said Brereton, "on my soul Captain Brereton, you are an un- I never knew of this. You say you was thus foreibly brought back; these Let me were all so real that, as I looked, a tell you, old fellow, that, with the facts thrilling sense of awe stole over me and I

> A low faint cough from the dark corof the coat you wear if you had acted ner where the bed stood seemed to cause even a deeper stillness; and then, in a silence where the buzzing of a fly Well, the war at lenth came to an would have been heard, my father insensible. Brereton called for his hat and coat, and bowing to the other genopinion it is that of an unmitigated term of her banishment was at an each, the local attorney. But as soon as the quick; for I have to long time before term of her banishment was at an each, the local attorney. I die a good Catholic, though she hurried to Southampton to meet Father O'Rafferty won't give me tho her two lovers—the old and the newand it was not long after her brave musha, musha !" was now heard throng! the room; but whether in grief over the sad fate of the dying man, or the unflinehing severity of the priest, is hard

"I die in peace with all my neighborn We have all heard of asking for Another chorus of the company seem cd to approve their characteristic mean—the two potato gardens at Noo-

; and it is the elegant crop "Ain't you getting weak, father der '?" says Peter, who began to be (Cancluded on fourth page) leave him-that's Peter.

Che Canadian Champion

BATES OF ADVERTISING.

Bight cents per line for the first insertion, o cents per line for each subsequent The number of lines to be reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of liberal discount allowed on advertise-ats inserted for extended periods. Advertisements without specific instruc-Any Special Notice, the object of which mote the pecuniary benefit of any inidual or company, to be considered an trerisement, and charged accordingly.

YEARLY AGREEMENTS. The following rates will be charged to erchants and others who advertise by the , and in no case will exceptions be ne column for twelve months $40 for six months..... 25 Half column for twelve months 25

dinary business of commercial houses, and such it will not be held to include Auc-Sales, Removals, Co-Partnerships, Motices, Private Advertisements or indiall letters addressed to the Editor must m post-paid, otherwise they will not be then from the Post Office.

These terms will, in all cases, be strictly Business Directorn.

OFFICE-Two doors West of Willmott's Bug Store, Main Street. G Tice Bastedo, Esq. Milton, Nov. 1, 1866.

> CONSULTATION DAYS-Tuesday forenoon and Saturday atternoon. Milton, Oct. 19, 1864. Dr. George Dice, daily, and every Tuesday forenoon.

the late Dr. HUME. CONSULTATION DAYS-Wednesdays and Saturdays. DR. S. CARTER, (LATE OF NELSON)

MATATION DAYS--Tuesdays and Fri-HYSICIAN, SURGEON. & ACCOUNT eur. Office and Residence :- Corner of the Battle and the Brees. iety of the very best and Jewellery and Finey Article ish in the County free of charge.

wunce.

reliow was

N. ESQ. W. J. McDONELLS, ESQ. NIJ. ESQ. J. McGILLES, ESQ. A. M. BMITH, ESQ. A. M. BMITH, October 11th, 1866.

> wonen, Clerk of the Peace, die MILTON.

BESIDENCE,-Near Temperance Hall,

DR. T. CROOKER,

University of Victoria College, Canada; er of Royal College of Surgeons, England. centiate of Midwifery, Edinburgh, and day, and warranted one year.

Franted one year. Don't forget Hamilton June 12 '1867.

> pied by Dr. Rebertson. MHULBATION DAY—EVERY THURSDAY

themist and Druggiet, Dyestuffs, Seeds and THOS. G. MATHESON, B. A. MARRISTER AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW mould reach the office by noon on Wednesday at farthest.

W.H. Street, M. D. HYSICIAN, SURGEON & ACCOUCHEUR. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE-That lately occupied by Dr. Crooker. Milton, Oct, 10, 1866. D. ROBERTSON, M. D., C. M. Graduate of the University of McGill

College, Montreal.

MILTON, C. W.

RESIDENCE-On Mill Street, hext door to DR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON. Consulting Physician & Surgeon. FFICE HOURS-From 8 until 10 A. M.

PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, &C. MAIN STREET, MILTON. OFFICE-The building occupied by CE-Opposite Champion Office, Main-st., The Late Residence of T.

Morne and Dundas Streets, Oakville. Dakville, Sept. 4th, 1867. C. H. LUSK, M. D. HYSICIAN, SURGEON, &C.

Physician, Surgeon & Accoucheur, spesite St. Andrew's Church, James TRICE hours from 8 to 10, 2 to 4; and from 6 to 8. Patients with Disease of the live admitted on Tuesdays and Saturdays. T. Crooker is a Graduate of the Eye Glassies, high and low > duate of the University of Toronto. ALTOYVILLE, . - NASSAGAWEYA. AND RESIDENCE-That lately occu-

Main Rise-Over the "Champion" Office, Class Style, and is prepared to atter and the public generally.

> SANDERSON begs to inform the people of Milton and vicinity, that that date. he will call at their doors, three times a week, between 7 and 10 A. M., and trusts by keeping the best stock, and from his ong experience, to receive a fair share of Milton, Sop., 25th 1837.

TOTICE is hereby given that the ratepayers of the Town of Milton, who shalf pay their taxes on or before the 16th day of December next will be entitled to pay them in silver at par. No person shall be entitled to vote at the coming Municipal Elections, unless all taxes due by them have been paid on or before him and Miss Bessemer. Brereton J. B. W. is confident, after eight years tempt it deserved, and took no further awaken you to a sense of your position successful practice, of being able to give notice of it, or of Ogden. The latest and most approved means employed to lessen pain in the extraction as follows:-Milton, Oct. 30th, 1867.

> Collector. Per F. J. JONES, Deputy.

God speed the New Dominion, thus prays

In lowly shades abound.

"Because I'm sorry to see you here -you were better employed in Fig-Og- you can obtain leave, or you may den, you're clearly wrong. I'm sure that an intimate friend has taken advantage of your absence. There are instances of such treachery." "What do you mean?"

Under those circumstances, the compromising liar. You have taken best thing Captain Brereton (being de- advantage of my presence here to feated) can do is to beat a retreat. He dermine Miss Bessemer's affection was not long in learning that lesson in me. You left the Crimea in possession the Crimea; let him apply it to the of my fullest confidence. You were inpresent case, now that he is in London. timately acquainted with my engage. Yes, that is so, of course!" added he, ment to Miss Bessemer, and in my blind But his gravity was soon dispelled. that your presence in her society would Brereton, stung to madness by Ogden's keep the recollection of me more fully tain Osborne and Major Brereton—re- "Where's Billy Seenlan? I want to WILLIAM BROMLEY, announ- sarcastic reference to his return from before her. And you have availed your-> veyed to his chambers in the Temple Are you utterly, irreclaimably mad? nessed the disturbance. The next ed at. I tell you again, that you are a morning the real character of his con- liar and an unmitigated scoundrel. Hang duct was represented to him by Twys- it, will nothing awake you to a sense of , labour saved the applicants, except a Superior Style at Moderate Charges ! his allusion to Brereton's return from er, I will prove to you how miserably boot. And Brereton turned to depart. "You shall not leave me till I've intreated the whole affair with the con-flicted on you an insult sufficient and of mine. Hang it all, have I not The news of the fracas, however, used words that are strong enough for > "You fool!" exclaimed Brereton, the gentlemen of the long robe. The turn to speak. Listen to the revenge eyes." 'gallant' officer, C-pt-in Br-ret-n, and which I am going to take-it will be a derstood, rival claimants to the hand of one from Lucy Bessemer to yourself, the lovely and accomplished Miss L-cy and the other from Lucy Bessemer to him at Balaklava. He opened it, and induce me to return to town until my his eyes rested on a passage which had poor boy is ordered home. I think been industriously underscored, in order you will allow that it requires some He read the disgusting lie it contain- letter to dear Harry, which I must ask day breaks." ed, and all further doubt as to the cause you to convey to him, for I know that and in Brereton a treacherous with him, if the terms of my letter do He returned to his tent in a not suffice to convince him of my un-

"Believe me to be. "Dear Captain Brereton, "Ever yours most gratefully "LUCY E. BESSEMER." Harry Osborne read the letter from beginning to end without saying a word. When he finished it, he folded returned it to its envelope, and sat "Harry-," said Brereton "Don't speak to me—let me think—I am trying to find something to say to It was a large room, at one end of which you—something that will express in was a bed, and beside it was a table some measure my horror at my detest- with physic bottles, and spoons and tea able behaviour. Dear old Ted Brere- cups; a little farther off was another ton-the oldest, best friend I have-I table at which sat Billy Scanlan, with don't ask you to forgive me. I have all manner of writing materials before insulted you as grossly as one man can him the matter? Why don't you shake tleman could. You can't forgive me, intently eager and anxious for the com Ted, but you can, perhaps, make some ing event; Peter himself went from place allowance for the awful state of mind to place, trying to smother his grief, I've been in for the last three weeks .- and occasionally helping the company > when I was miserable with apprehen-"Newspaper paragraph. you mean, old boy?" "Why; this; about your row with can't ask me to forgive you. before you, as they presented themselves actually shook with fear. to you, you would have been unworthy boy's return that Harry Osborne and Lucy Bessemer were massied. And the old lover was the bridegroom's

'Good morning, Mr. H, said a Penn- decenter !- have you that down? sylvania printer, in search of female bequeath unto my son Peter the who "Then d-n you; will that do it?" ting a dellar a week. 2nd small boy. Luary fields, with the Lime kiln; And, taking down his sword, he You might have known that by the way that reminds me that my mouth is j -A fracas which recently took place struck Brereton across his bage chest fellows come scoping me for to give them dry. Let me taste what ye have in A country editor describing the bon, hearty pull, and seemed considerably well known on the H-me C-re-t, at a wrenching the sword from his hand, nets now in fashion says: "They have freshed by it.

> Why is a lovely young lady like a nais Well; Because she is something to grow there." Why is a fool like twenty hundred-

BY JOSEPH S. PRITTS.

"Oh, Mr. Peter, what's the matter "Fair that's what he is; for he's "Glory be his bed! when did it hap-"About an hour age," said Peter, in No. XXVII. a voice, that even I, from my corner, could perceive was greatly agitated. "He died like an old hathen, Con., and

"That's bad," said my father, for he was always a polite man, and said what-"It is bad," said Peter, "but it would as one of our most finished Canadian himself of the opportunity of the bar- hear of the dispute between you and me in this business, and here are five

"Aman I said my father; for he was

"By no means, but by yourself; and

"And the priest?" said my father." "My father quarrelled with him last week about the Easter dues; and Fath-basket and listened until they were adventure. I thought to take a short

A general chorus of muttered 'Oh !

"I bequeath unto my son Peter and never was there a better sen, or compositors; have you any daughters of my two farms of Killimundoener that would make good type setters? and Knocksheboora, with the fallow 'No, but I've got a wife that would make meadows behind Linch's house, the forge and right of turf on the Dooran The way of the world.—Ist small bog. I give him—and much good not boy. I say friend, they say you're get- it do him-Lanty Cassarn's acre, and Here the dying man took a Duggan & Burus.

ation of property. Lower Ports, New Brunswie ctable insurance Company. JAT. SYDNEY CROCK