It seems that the new Tavern and Shop License Law is variously interpreted. Several parties were fined in Kingston for keeping their houses open after the hour of seven o'clock on Saturday evening, but they have ppealed. The opinion of their counse Mesars. O'Reilly and Draper, is, that the nagistrate has no authority in law to impose fines for any such cause, the closing of the places of business not being obligatory, the new Act having reference only to the sale of intoxicating liquors after the hour specified. The Act cannot apply to innkeepers without bearing also on shopkeepers where liquor is It is also argued that their must be proof positive of the sale of liquor after the hour named
