e to his nerally assort-

ES

ADE

offered ai n -an;

44 tf

00L.

iplique,

d from the siacture of big in his ms.

dara-

Tenus—$1 a year in advance, or within month from the date of subscribing, if not so paid, $2 will be charged. RATES OF ADVERTISING. the cents per line for the first insertion, dire cents per line for each subsequent Business Cards of eight lines or less $4 per annum. The number of lines to be reckoned by espace occupied, measured by a scale of A liberal discount allowed on advertise esteinserted for extended periods. Advertisements without specific instruc-Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any individual or company, to be considered an dertisement, and charged accordingly. YEARLY AGREEMENTS. The following rates will be charged to erchants and others who advertise by the war, and in no case will exceptions be

One column for twelve months $40 for six months 26 for three months..... 15 telf column for twelve months 25 " for six months 15 for three months ! ester of a column for twelve months 15 for six months.... 10 for three months .. . This agreement is to be confined to the disary business of commercial houses, and such it will not be held to include Aucsan Sales, Removals, Co-Partnerships, Notices, Private Advertisements or indidel members of firms, Houses to Let or all letters addre-sed to the Editor must be post-paid, otherwise they will not be aten from the Post Offics, Ill advertisements intended for insertion hould reach the office by neon on Wedneser at farthest. these terms will in all cases, be strictly

Business Directorn

W. H. Street, M. D., HISICIAN, SURGEON AND ACCOUCH-Office and Residence-That lately upied by Dr. Crooker.

D. Robertson, M. D., C. M., MADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF Mclill College, Montreal, Milton, Ont. Mee and Residence-One door South of the Post Office, Foster Street. Wilton, Sept. 10, 1863.

T. B. Winn, M. B., filton, Oct. 10, 1866.

CADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF Terento, Haltonville, Nassagaweya.ace and Residence-That lately occuied by Dr. Robertson. Consultation ay-Every Thursday.

BEATTIE, M. D.,

door to Fountain Hotel, Kilbride.

Matheson & Dixon, BARRISTERS, &C.

OFFICE-In Town Hall, Milton.

Kilbride, March 19th, 1868.

JOHN DEWAR, Jr., MISTER AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW ry Public, Solicitor in Chancery, weyancer, &c., &c., Town Hall, Main

George Dice, M.D., C.M.,

S. R. LISTER, COURT CLERK, COMMIS

er in Queen's Bench, Licensed Aucer, Accountant, &c. Debts collecttagaweya, April 5, 1864.

madian Hotel

TEETER, PROPRIETOR. shotel has lately been extensively. and the proprietor is determined to it a First Class House mors of the best brand kept al-

E. DeGarmo,

mitting attention to guests still conlington Square, Oct 24, 1867. 20 ly

ERMO HOUSE, PALERMO, ms his thanks to his numerous cus-for their past patronage, and begs ness in first-class style. Best of liquors and cigars, good stabad attentive hostlers. 10, Oct. 4, 1867.

MAS CLARK, Georgetown, Ont.

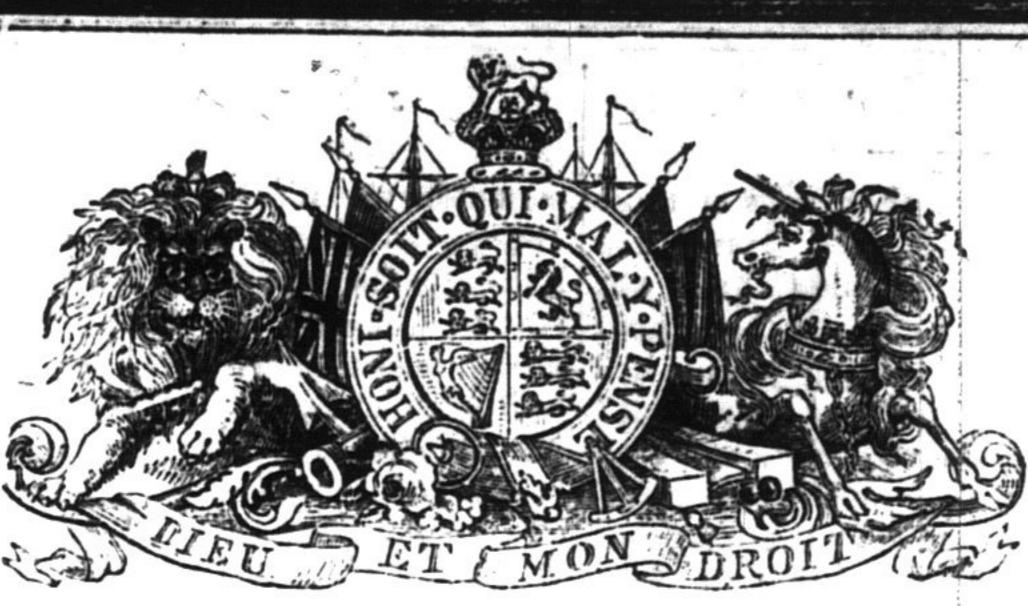

ES to and from the Station, regul-Every attention paid to the public. Good stabling and ac-

Ryan Mrs C Reefe D E Stewart Robert

McDonald Miss M Robinson Mary Jane Robinson Mary T Wright Henry are advertised.

F. BARCLAY,

Postmaster.

#1 A-YEARI

"THE PRESS-The Palladium of the People's Rights."

[IN ADVANCE]

VOL VIII.]

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1869.

[No. XXXIX.

Business Directorn.

G. ORGE ULARKSON,

BEGS TO ANNOUNCE TO HIS numerous friends that he commenced business in the Albion Hotel. Commercial Street, Milton, where he will | Shop, Main Street, GEOnGETOWN, be found ever ready to attend to the where he is prepared to repair all descripwants of his customers.

Milton March 18th, 1868.

DONALD MCNAIR, COUNTY AUCTIONEER, Nassagaweya Georgetown, May 17 1864 P.O., having had seven years experience, he flatters himself he can give the very best satisfaction. All orders promptly attended Nassagaweya, October 7th, 1868.

D. McKinnen,

ming, &c . done on short notice. Main Street, Georgetown. T. Rusion.

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST. SEEDS, Dye-stuffs, Stationery &c. Main Street,

Georgetown. Robert Swanton Appelbe,

BARRISTER, ATTORNEY, AND SOLIcitor in Chancery, Oakville.

J. B. Willmott, ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES, Main street, Milton.

William A. Agar, HOUSE PAINTER, GLAZIER, AND PAper Hanger. Shop on Martin Street, Milton. Orders left at Thompson's Hotel will be attended to. P. B. Zimmerman, 14-ly CONTRACTOR FOR HOUSE BUILDing, Valuator, &c. Plans of Buildings drawn on short notice. Carpenter and joiner work attended to at reasonable prices. Milton, May 26, 1864. TYRONE HOTEL, HORNBY EAST, BY THOMAS McCALlum. This is a new house, and is fitted up in as comfortable manner as any Hotel in the County. Good Stabling. Every attention paid to visitors. There is a Store in connection with this Hotel. Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., kept constantly on hand.

Money to Loan. Kingston; Physician, Surgeon and Ac-JUUU Interest at eight per cent JOHN DEWAR, JR.,

Barrister, &c. Milton, March 30th, 1868.

Money to Loan.

$5,000 To loan, on good endors-ed notes and mortgages

Apply to MATHESON & DIXON, Barristers &c.

PALERMO. Palermo, October 17th, 1866. BRONTE STATION HOTEL.

(Formerly of the Canalian Hotel, Oakville.) REGS to announce to his numerous friends that he has rented CHURCHE'S HOTEL

BRONTE, where he hopes by careful attention to merit a continuance of former favors. Bronte, March 11, 1868.

W. Barber & Bros., APER MANUFACTURERS! Georgetown.

Printing and Wrapping Paper Constantly on hand and made to order. Comfort, moderate charges, and WOOL CARDING & CLOTH DRESSING to mark the management of this On the shortest notice. Cotton Rags in any class Hotel. The Stables and Yards quantity will be received at their Faper Mill very extensive, and a careful Hostler in return for cash Highest price in cash paid them that he will still conduct Gentlemen's Silk and Felt Hats Dressed.

J. BASTEDO,

The Highest Market Price paid Change Hotel in Cash for all kinds of RAW FURS. April 6th, 1868.

Official Assignee WITHIN THE COUNTY OF HALTON.

THE undersigned has been duly appointed to the above office. R. S. APPELBE, Oakville, Co. Halton.

REWARD.

T OST, between Smiley's Corner and Peru, on Friday evening last, a parcel containing 31 yards of Drab Tweed with Nelson. strip. Any person returning the same to NASSAGAWEYA, ... W.D & R. A. Lyon will be suitably re-Milton, February 10. 1869

. J. WHEELER, WATCH

FROM TORONTO!

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry For Sale!

ANGUS CURRIE.

GENERAL BLACKSMITH. SAW-GUM- BOOT AND SHOE SHOP!

Next to Thompson House, LARGE and well-selected stock of the Latest Styles of BOOTS ept constantly on hand at lowest cash prices. All

A. CURRIE.

MEN'S

BLACK DRESS HATS

$2 50, $3 50, and $5 00, LATEST NEW YORK STYLES.

> YOUTHS, BOYS' &

Stiff and Soft

King Street. Corner of Bond, HAMILTON.

J. FIELDING.

Graduate of the Toronto Veterinary Colege, is prepared to attend all the ailments of the Lower animals. His Office, for the present, will be at the residence of his father William Harrison. ABOUT HALF-A-MILE SOUTH OF MILTO:

Milton, March 21st. 1>67.

promptly attended to.

(Established 1825)

With which is now united The Colonial Life Assurance Company.

Head Office for Canada: Montreal-standard Co.'s Build ngs. No. 47 Great St. James St.

DIVISION OF PROFITS. The Eighth Division of the Company's Profits is appointed to be made at 15th November, 1870, and all Policies now effected Bruce's will participate. The fund to be divided will be the Profits which have arisen since 15th Novem-

The Company's business year will close on 15th November, 1868, and in order to secure the advantage of this year's entry to the Profit Scheme, proposals should be lodged with the Agents on or before that

Agent for Milton and Neighborhood, GEORGE SMITH, MAYOR.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL, KILBRIDE, W. F. MILLS,

(LATE OF CARLISLE.) Kilbride, February 1st, 1869. 。是是

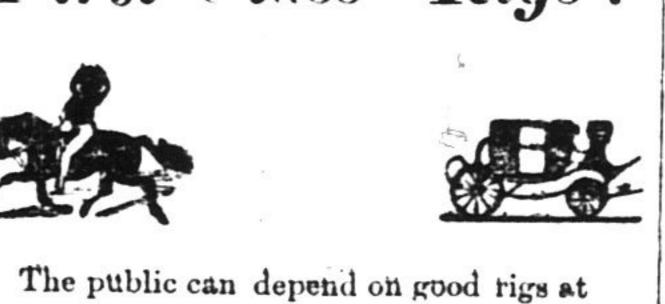

Tuesday 2nd. Wednesday 3rd .Friday 5th. .Saturday 6th. Monday 8th.

The subscriber begs to announce that he has

BOUGHT OUT

LIVERY.

And has added thereto some

REASONABLE

Milton, February 20th, 1868.

THE COMMERCIAL

SATIN NAPUNION ASSURANCE CONY.

19 and 20, Cornhill, London, England. CANADA OFFICE.

385 and 387, St. Paul Street, Montreal. CAPITAL-Two and a half Millions

FIRE AND LIFE. FIRE DEPARTMENT .- Property of almost every description Insured against Loss or Damage by Fire at Moderate Rates o Premium, Promptitude and!iberality in the settlement of claims may be fully relied on. Losses adjusted in Canada without refer eace to the En lish Directors. LIFE DEPART IENT .- The Capital one of the largest amongst Assurance Companies, thereby guaranteeing unquestion able security to the Assured, and large profits to raiticipating Policy Holders. Forms of Proposal and all information can obtained at the Chief Office of the Company, in Montreal, or from any of the Agents, MORLAND WATSON & CO., General Agents for Canada. T. C. LIVINGSTON, P. L. S.,

Lispector and General Supt. FREDERICK COLE Secretary. MILTON AGENCY. J. B. WILLMOTT, Agent

MEDICAL REFEREL-DR. STREET.

New Butcher by keeping the best stock, and from his ferocious and blood-thirsty. Even ong experience, to receive a fair share of Milton. Sep., 25th 1867.

lic that he has moved to his new Hotel. men. He has tasted human flesh, and very high on the chances of my getting line. The late Rev. Dr. James and Cattle always on hand and orders nor expense in making his House a first. lass Hotel, and all who favor him with their natronage will receive every attention.

Well, that was my lot exactly. All kinds of Marble Monuments. Head | may understand what a monster he was. | bounds, by the side of which a runa-

E. N. ORR. deep in the woods, as a rule.

WING MACHINES. I could even attempt to defend myself leap at me. He couldn't jump to ed farmer granted with much alacrity set, the cow is drowned. Now, has the with in case of attack. Georgetown, Sep. 25th, 1868. 17-tf ter from Martendell's were full of the beast. You must know that there is a broad woods—a vast waste without water vegetation, and only here and there tree. But it would not afford me

Estimates may be made either for brick or distance, a noise which I knew at once tude in the branches of the tree was action. The baffled highwayman fired Trafalgar. The trustees do not bind them- were all of a tremble owing to the ex- overstrained muscles. I felt myself succession; none taking effect Trustecs of S. S. No. 1, Trafalgar.

"FORGIVE AND FORGET." Forgive and forget," were the words that he Only three words, but how bitter to me, Filled with a dirge for the hopes that are soat-And the bright visions that never may be How can he ask it, and I in my sorrow, POETRY.

Hopelessly wishing we never had met, How can I banish his image forever, I may forgive, but how can I forget. "Forgive and forget," and the lights they are Through the broad windows of Allorly Fairy like feet, keeping time to the music,

On the rich carpet so daintly fall.

Through the broad windows I see him beside She with the dark eyes that sparkle like reach me. My only chance was to every sound, conscious of only his prey adopted, and engrossed on the minutes, And when I think of the vows he has broken, Forgive and forget," does he think it so me there. When I have loved him so well and so long, To test from heart and relinquish forever.

Can I forget the bright days that are vanished I can forgive, but how can I forget. John Marshall. "Forgive and forget;" did the words as he the carob tree. Wake in his heart but a wish for the past, 1

> Never a sigh for the days that are past. Why did he not send me some charm that Tender remembrance and bitter regret? For loving him once I must love him forever, I can forgive, but I cannot forget.

IN DREAMS I LOVE THEE STILL

I vowed to sigh and pine no more, Nor give one passing thought to thee, I'd be high hearted as before. And cold as thou to me : But when soft slumber's golden reign Has freed the heart from reason's will,

In dreams I love thee still. Again I think how false thou art, The vows cast off without regret And sternly chide my wayward heart, The false one to forget But when the night's calm hour returns And slumber leaves the heart at will. My firm resolves it idly spurns, In dreams I love thee still.

generally, is like other wild animals in this respect—that he don't prey on human flesh. He preys on animals and fish, and only fights a man when he is true of some particular ones, you see. When one of them has once met a man he will call at their doors, three times a and fought with him, he is not the same week, between 7 and 10 A M. and trusts beast for the rest of his life—he's more the man escapes this is true.

ed, and the jaguar eats him up-ah, that's a dreadful misfortune! Of course it's always a misfortune for a human being to be killed. understood, but it's a misfortune becomes from that day a hunter found out there is no other so sweet. He watches for men night and catching and eating eleven men up to wild screech that made me shiver, and -for you know the jaguar lives very uncomfortable feeling under my waist | ing from the tree to be eaten up. coat that I struck into the wood-for issued a call to the huntsmen of York Grand River White Plas- maneater. So of course my thoughts dying day shall I forget. I lived years abrupt change in the conversation, but which all other thoughts refer; a hope > desert between San Blanco and the across it as fast as I could in order to get into the woods.

distance off. My flesh almost crept change my position without great dan- girl.

when I heard that long, terrible screech ger of falling; and I began to mutter Carried. -a noise such as no other animal to myself like a man who is going makes, and enough to set your teeth on crazy.

track. How was I to escape? At dream. low hanging branches he could easily whose blood he thirsted for, deaf to inspector of taverns be received and reach a carob tree which stood all alone and his rage at being baffled so long. out in the desert towards the town. Perhaps the jaguar would not follow cumber me, I began to run. I am a away from the tiger's blood red eyes, Words whose soft echoes are haunting me good runner - I never saw many men and beheld my deliverers.

> The rears became more frequent and "Saved, comrade, saved! louder as I ran, and at last, looking down and slay your enemy." back when I was about half way to the I slid out of the tree like a monkey tree. I saw "The Murderer" springing I whipped out my knife and approached over the ground, gaining on me at every the juguar. bound. Nevertheless, I did reach the "Pull, Juan," I cried; "pull Petree in time. It was tall and slim- dro. therein lay its value, you comprehend. Drawn thus at opposite sides by two There was only a nest of branches at lassoes, the jaguar reared helpless, the top, and none but a good climber his hind legs. I took my knife and could ever have got up. It was far plunged it into his side, and bounded from a strong tree, and my climbing it back out of "The Murderer's" way. be empowered to sell the timber on the made it shake and sway, but it was of He fell dead at my feet.

> Did you ever see a bird light on a hollyhock stalk. Then if you have, you know how the stalk will sway and quiver under the bird's weight. Well, what that bird was to the hollyhock I conscience. So is the parent of vigor- Matheson for printing bills, &c., amountwas to that carob tree. It swayed and ous, happy children. So is the editor shook under my weight just like that of a good paper, with a big subscriphollyhock under that bird. But I tion list. So is the clergyman whose knew the tree was tough, and I didn't feel afraid-not at that-my thoughts were on something else, very much more dangerous.

Yonder the jaguar came, bounding along on my track, smelling the ground now and then, like a pointer dog, and in life, whether she ever meet him or then setting up that appalling roar that no living man can hear without his his hand on his heart, can say, "I have flesh creeping. That's a fact, whether the man is afraid or not, it's a curious and well known effect of the jaguar's roar, that it makes the nerves tingle in track He got off to the one side and But ing around at last in a fierce fury of the time it is able to understand lantrack, and then-well, I could not bid harshness, under the name of discipoff I assure you. He was in a fine Alexander, in one of his published letpassion by this time, and in his circling ters, remarks: In managing my chiland woe to the man that crosses his about, kept drawing nearer to me in dren, in rebuking my servants, in quel-He was a magnificent specimen of his great and small, I find that want of crossed the track of a man-eater whose kind-about two feet and a half high, love causes failure. Often, for the moand six feet long without measuring his ment, everything seems against this; try. The hardiest hunters would tail; his hide a fierce yellow, spotted but events always bring me back to it. first known? In the time of King tremble at the sound of his name—for all over with dark rings. At last he I hope I have more disposition to yield, Pharoah, when the Egyptians received he was so celebrated that he was known got the trail again, and being by this and give up even rights, for love's a check at the bank of the Red Sea. far and wide by the nickname of "The time perfectly furious from being so sike. Murderer." He had succeeded in long balked of his prey, he set up a edge of the great South American show. A minute more, and he saw and grabbed the tree with his huge at the highest market figures. The taught, I think, sir."-" Whew! may Well, about the time I am speaking paws, and was standing on his hind product of the sale amounted to $120, be it is so, master, for you teaches me,

I had no more deadly weapon than my slender trunk, the jaguar got down, vidual, who requested the privilege knife—no gun, no pistol—nothing that drew back a little, and gave one great riding, a request which the kind heart- down stream, and on its passage is upwhere I was, though. But he struck making room on the seat beside him. There were rumors that "The the tree high up, and for an instant They rode along for some distance con- the boat, or the man that owns the Murderer" had been seen within a few clung to it, bearing it over with his versing, when suddenly the stranger, boat got to pay for the cow? days in the neighborhood; and in fact weight, till I thought-"Ah, may the without a moment's warning, presented fell down in a heap to the ground. latter had in his possession. Mr. Bas | in secret, which can be a star in sor-return to me, and the film that was an indigent person.—Carried. This and a good deal more ran gathering over my eyes to break away. through my head like lightning, when "Oh, Father in heaven," I breathed. Easterbrook, that the By-law regulating I heard that far-off scream; I knew he "save me from the jaws of the terrible first I thought of going up one of the And all the time sat the jaguar, his great salid trees which were around me; gaze riveted on me-his eyes seemed and third times and finally passed. but then I remembered that the jaguar absolutely red with gore-blind to is a skillful climber, and that with their everything in the world but the man Mr. J. Kean, that the report of the

"Ah, my prayer is heard." There came the swish of a lasso. which went over the beast's neck sud. audible, and I was no longer in doubt. from the other side, drawn tight. The love, I had thought, was fasthful and Throwing off everything that could en. Then for the first time I tore my gaze

> " Juan! jaguar! I never had any idea of do- aloud, and fell to laughing immoder-next .- Carried.

The man with good, firm health coat the little children of his parish pluck, as he passes them on their play. So is that wife who has the whole heart of a good husband. So is the maiden whose horizon is not bounded by the "coming man," but who has a purpose So is the young man who; laying treated every woman I ever saw as I should wish my sister treated by other men." So is the little child who goes to sleep with a kiss on his lips, and for whose waking a blessing waits.

Whipping Children. paused, uncertain He put his nose to extent. It is but seldom that a child the ground, snuffing eagerly, and dash needs the rod, especially if taken from when he don't escape - when he is kill. rage at having lost my trail. He guage, and firmly yet kindly treated, Mr. Easterbrook, that the Reeve and lashed his body with his long tail; he and given to know that No and Yes Clerk be and are hereby directed to bounded about; he rent the air with mean-No and Yes without any shad: correspond with municipalities, who are screams of anger; and I thought he ow of turning. It is a question, too, or may be issuing debentures, for the would have been a splendid sight to whether those who have unfortunately purpose of loaning the Clergy Reserve look at, if I could have felt safe. But come up, instead of being judiciously Funds in the Banks belonging to this this case, for this reason: that jaguar I knew he would presently get on my brought up, are ever made better by Municipality, or to advertise for the the tree, though he had lost my trail. ling refractory boys, in everything ing Circumstances.

investing of said funds .-- Carried.

When were banking transactions UNWELCOME AGREEMENT.—A pom-

Suppose a man owns a skiff; he fashis horses to jog along at an easy pace, cow gets into the boat; turns round and eats the rope; the skiff thus let loose, with the cow on board, starts a seven-shooter at the head of the far-"How sweet it is," to have one dear But it was only for a moment. He mer, and demanded all the money the treasure which the heart can feed upon in the two hours of horrible suspense remarking that he supposed he must from which all other hopes arise, nurs. currender, drew himself up as if to take ed in the solitude of happiness, Love, Down under me the jaguar roared his wallet from his pantaloons pocket. young passionate love. " How sweet > is a notification on the part of the wearers that they are not engaged. If it is extremely long, the wearer is supposed to be very desirous of getting spliced at once; if only moderately long, it shows that only good offers will be entertained; an extremely short, meagre ringlet indicates that the wearer is very particular as to who she secepts, but nevertheless shows that she is not y t engaged.

Nassagaweya Council. The Municipal Council met pursuant to adjournment on Saturday, the 27th day of February, 1869. Members all present. The Reeve in

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Mr. Easterbrook moved, seconded by Mr. B. Kean, for leave to introduce a By-law for the regulation and guidance of Tavern-keepers in this township, and that the same be read the first time.-

By-law read accordingly. Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that the time for removing the timber purchased by Henry Cargill, on road division No. 47, be extended until the first day of March, 1870 .-

Mr. J. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that the sum of $10 be granted

Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr houses of public entertainment of this township, be read the second and third

Said By-law was then read the second

Mr. Easterbrook moved, seconded by and that the Reeve and Clerk sign the required certificate to each of the parties named in said report on their signing the required bond .- Catried.

Said report was received accordingly. recommending the following as fit and proper persons to receive licenses for the present year :- David Lishman, of the Town Line Inn; Wm. H. Spiers, of the North American Hotel; Michael Lyons, of the Haltonville Hotel; Wm. Easterbrook, of the Campbellville Inn. and John Coote of the Farmers Arms. Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. J. Kean, that the time for the collector to make his return be further extended utill the 15th day of March

Mr. J. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Easterbrook, that the taxes of Mrs John Gaut be restinded, she being a destitute widow .-- Carried. Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Easterbrook, that George Irving provement of said side line .-- Car-Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by is rich. So is the man with a clear Mr. Easterbrook, that the bill of R. ing to $1.50 be paid .-- Carried.

> pointed Fence Viewer in place of I hos. Hopkinson, resigned .-- Carried. Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Easterbrook, that James Weir be appointed Overseer in division No. 4. attending during the Winter months

On motion, the council adjourned to meet on the second Monday in April next, at the usual time and piace. JOHN EASTERBROOK. Township Clerk.

and Moses crossed it. Cool Conduct of a Farmer under Try- pous parish clergyman felt his dignity mightily offended by a chubby faced lad who was passing him without mov. Last week a farmer named Bassitt, ing his hat. "Do you know who I am. living at Cassville. Wis., went down to sir, that you pass me in that unman-The next instant he sprang forward Galena and disposed of a load of pork, nerly way? You are better fed than man that owns the cow got to pay for

IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—It is a fact perhaps not generally known, but inter-

STABLES.

(YAN always be found at A. Galbraiths's tions of Watches and Clocks in such a manner as will ensure satisfaction, and at prices t'rat will defy competition. Jewelry neatly orders entrusted to Mr Currie will be promptly attended to, and done in a workmanlike manner.

FASHIONABLE

Milton, Nov. 11, 1868,

STRAW HATS.

MILTON, ONT. Terms moderate. Medicine for Horses customers. He has spared neither pains

> JOHN WALLACE. Milton, Feb. 231d, 1864 E, N. ORR.

Georgetown. stones Tombstones, Ornamental Chains. Posts. &c., constantly on hand.

I' AGENT FOR London Patent Premium

PLASTER.

Mills, and Paris Gray For sale at Bronte Station. Apply early Bronte, Feb 3rd, 1869.

CEALED TENDERS will be received by at A. Willmott's, Lot No. 9, 2nd Concession selves to take any tender except satisfactory. AUSTIN WILLMOTT, JAMES BIGGAR, SAMUEL PETTIGREW, Though I forgive him, how can I forget.

Can I forget the sweet words he has uttered,

Never a thought of the true heart forsaken,

I find my waking vows are vain,

A BRAZILIAN SMUGGLER'S TALE. true of the jaguar in general, it is not creeping the time I ran across him, and so you no mistake. On he came, with great He would venture forth nearer to the way horse wouldn't stand the least forest than any other beast of his tribe me.

that very day the provincial justice saints save us! my time is come!" district to gather on the following day, and set out in pursuit of this terrible Then began a scene which never to my sitt was of course taken back by this row, and a flower in joy; a thought to

I had gone but a little distance into there, his red mouth gaping wide, er his balance, Mr. Bassitt had lashed let, which floats from so many waterfalls, the dark forest, looking about cautious | showing his jagged rows of teeth, and his horses into a vigorous run, and was ly. when I heard, away off in the his tail beating the ground. My atti- soon a safe distance from the field was the jaguar's roar. My nerves such a one that it began to tell on my after him a volley of six shots in quick citement I was in, and this, added to growing weaker and weaker. The yond wounding one of the horses slightthe fact that I was waiting every min. jaguar's eyes were exerting a sort of ly in the leg. ute in fear of that very sound, made fascination over me, you see, as a ser-

edge, even if he didn't mean death. horrible death, too. had sniffed my blood, and I imagined man-eater, save me, save me!" him crashing through the woods, his It was all that I could mutter, for tail flying, and his eyes blazing on my was like a man who is sinking into

The screaming was now distinctly d nly, and was drawn tight. that could outrun me—but I outrun a ing it. Still I thought I might reach ately.

tough wood, and I managed to get into attacked himself. But though this is that quivering way that we call flesh When he had got within about fifty rods of the tree he seemed to lose the of, I got into trouble in San Blanco, legs, staring up at me with his huge which sum he placed in his pocket, as but I feeds myself." and was obliged to take to the woods red eyes. The little tree trembled any other sensible man would, and for safety till my companions could under the influence of the beast's started for home. He had accomplish- tens the skiff to the shore with a rope join me. It was not without a very weight, and I felt like fainting and fall. ed half the distance, and was allowing made of straw; along comes a cov; Finding that he couldn't climb such a when he overtook a burly-looking indi

He swept round and round the tree, his The ready compliance seemed to throw it is," to have the bosom made a Parared eyes fixed on me with an unrelaxing the robber off his guard, an opportunity dise by thee, life lighted by thy dearest a vigilance. Tired at last with this, he which Mr. Bassitt improved by plant- smile. safe biding place, and so I had to hurry crouched down under the tree roaring ing a tremendous blow between the felwith fury at being thus tantalized, low's eyes, knocking him out of the fixing his red eyes on mine and sat sleigh. Before the robber could recovme hear it when the beast was a great pent does over a bird. I couldn't

All of a sudden I began to pray, But it did mean death to me, and a and as I prayed my strength seemed to for the support of Sophia McKendry, a times and passed.—Carried.

side line between Lots 10 and 11, in the 5th Con. of this township; the proceeds thereof to be applied to the im-

Mr. Elliott moved, seconded by Mr. . Kean, that Henry Watson be ap-

Mr. B. Kean moved, seconded by Mr. Elliott, that whereas owing to representations made by the school teachers of this township, the competitive township examination has been postponed. Resolved, that the said examination be held at the Drill Shed, on the first Saturday in June next, and that the members of this council together with the Superintendent, arrange a programme and regulations for said examination; and that all the children it that he

ve Deuler ;

LEBRAT-