He said :- " The time is coming, fellow countrymen, when we will have access to the ballot box and when the public schools will be thrown open to our children. Why should not we send our children to the public schools as well as the Irish? But do not mistake me in this. Do not imagine that because my child went to school with a poor Irish boy, that I would allow him to associate with the poor Irish boy at home. (Immense applause.) No, At S.F.
