McGuffin, because White would not settle with him unless did abandon; I believed my brother's statement that the debt was due from the firm; I altered books in 1854; the chattel mortgage was abandoned shortly after this; have been in business 15 years in Milton; my brother owed me $300 when mortgage was taken; don's know the amount of the mortgage;

never saw Stewart write; have no receipts signed by Stewart. To Court.—Don't know who wrote Stewart's name on back of receipt; did not tell McKindsey that I had receipt until after I had told Stewart .-(The receipt was endorsed "D. Stuart"

instead of "D. Stewart." JAMES CLARK-Knows Stewart; boyrowed money-in January 1868-from Matheson & Dixon's office among Bas. him; applied to Bastedo for $200 to tedo's papers; they gave me liberty to get it from Stewart; he said he would get it for me; mortgage was drawn for nearly $200, and Bastedo must pay it; this was about the 14th of January, 1868; I afterwards got amount from Bastedo, on the 27th February, 1868. To Mr. Cameron—I applied to Bastedo for the money and he said he could get it for me; I was to take it in silver made he said he would get it from Stewart; had not seen Stewart about it Stewart, Bastedo said "then go;" I went to Stewart and he told me he had none; he said " Bastedo must pay it as I have a note of his and the Sheriff's with a balance of nearly the amount;" we called in at Gould's, but could not get any money; Stewart said to Bastedo "What about this mortgage;"

"take this note and make the amount of nearly that amount." Stewart said, " If you don't pay it I will go to the Sheriff at once;" I said I must have it first under "Me.," and did not find it; thought it had been paid long ago ; then through "G"-I found this re- Stewart produced a paper but I did not Kindsey had been tried.
