BTREET, ETOWN

in the line kept in istie & Co. Coal Oil at 30c four gallons for one d it to their interest to

E. N. ORR.

Proprietor. 1870 46-tf

Time is scarce, and

spare to get up an ad-

bowd keeps rolling in to BONNETS and Ducks

ISTIE & Co's.,

on and Campbellville.

every person seems

ow D. D. CHRISTIE

Yarns, &c., heaper than other peo-

y buy in the cheapest

nd Quick Returns

because every person

D CHRISTIE & Co.

& Shoes

Campbellville.

groad to wealth.

in the cheapest.

FECTION

AT LAST!

KMAN

MACHINE,

Bowman & Co

PERFECT,

EWING MACHINE

where. This is abundantly oven by the nted Popularity!

ttained in the short time

capacity for various kinds

SE OF MANAGEMENT,

ther Essential Quality,

MILY SEWING MACHINE

tands equal to any of the

nary Simplicity,

to learn its use in a very se who have spent weeks and intricacies of ordinary ma-less and cumbersome having

as a much neater and more class machin - made. The hee, and has less weight than'

Thread Regulator,

ng machine. Being patent-on no other machine, with-ine will sew the heaviest and

ics, with coarse linen, fine

Agents for Halton.

ned still continue to mau-

n, near Wallace's Hotel.

SCOTT BROS

paired on short notice.

reads, with equal ease.

RBER & BIGGAR,

MPS.

eir establishment,

nging on our rights.

ciate this advantage.

before the public.

TY OF FINISH

quired to make

Family Shuttle

FACTURED BY

LTON, ONTARIO.

s well as the

est First-Class

out doubt one of the red that

and get the discount,

articulars of route, &c.

able funds. ampbellville. AL PRIZE ROAD.

I halebone," of 1870 in this County. aumber of first prizes,

TOOBERT DOLMAGE, ISSUER OF A Marriage Licenses, Palermo.

o riage Licenses, Main street, Milton. TIT H. YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR-W. riage Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak-ville, Ont. WALLACE'S NEW HOTEL

W. STREET, M. D. PHYSICIAN, Surgeon and Accoucheur. Office and residence—opposite new Town Hall, Milton.

L lic that he has moved to his new Hotel,
on the corner of Main and Brown Streets, where he will be glad to wait upon his old customers. He has spared neither pains nor expense in making his House a first-G. MATHESON, B. A., BARRIS-, | class Hotel, and all who favor him with their |

TOHN DEWAR, Jr., BARRISTER, County Crown Attorney, Notary Public, &c., &c., Town Hall, Main street, Milton.

RUSTON, CHEMIST AND DRUG. gist. Seeds, Dye-stuffs, Stationery, etc. Tain street, Georgetown. TITILLIAM A. AGAR, HOUSE PAINT er, Glazier and Paper Hanger. Shop on Martin street, Milton. DOBERT SWANTON APPELBE, BAR.

County of Halton.

U sulting Physician and Surgeon. Office hours-From 8 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2, and 7 to 8 p. m., daily. Consultation days-Tuesday forenoon and Saturday afternoon. J. C. GREENE, BARRISTER AND spring of 1867, extended to my knees, and eery, Notary Public, &c., &c., Wellington | that I could not walk, but was confined to uate of the University of McGill Col- medicines of different kinds, prescribed by lege, Montreal, Milton, Ont. Office and resi- friends, but of no avail. 1 continued to dence, one door south of the Post Office, Fos- get worse and worse, until the summer of

B. LENNON, ATTORNEY AT LAW. | Shoshonees Remedy and two boxes of the Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyancer, pills, and I am entirely restored to health.

Q R. LISTER, DIVISION COURT friends; and to any one afflicted as I was,

D tioneer, Nassagaweya P. O., having had seven years experience, he flatters himself he can give the very best satisfaction. All or ders promptly attended to.

JOHN NEWTON & SONS. WOOLEN MANUFACTURERS, LIME. case, it has acted almost like the perform-house, Halton, Ontario. Custom Carding, ance of a miracle. Satinets, of their own make, always on hand, for sale for cash or wool.

October 25th, 1869.

20-tf

COMMERCIAL HOTEL,

MAIN STREET, MILTON, GEORGE ing shed. and attentive hostler.

CROWN HOTEL, HORNBY EAST, BY GEORGE GAR-

JOHN WRAY, tinuance of former favors.

Trafalgar, November 11th, 1869. E. DeGarmo, BURLINGTON HOTEL, WELLINGTO is in attendance. Wellington Square, Oct 24, 1867. 20-ly actually been on crutches for years, in of Liquors and fare for the table, as well as rop & Lyman, Newcastle. careful hostlery. Travellers call and try. JAS. CAMPBELL.

Acton, March 1st, 569. East, Toronto, commodation at the Terrapin.

Ehe Canadian Champion

HALTON INTELLIGENCER.

HALTON, THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1870.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

EPBRAGE BO

I lic that he has moved to his new Hotel, A large quantity of Seeds on hand, which will be sold at prices that will defy compe

GROCERIES.

He has a large quantity of Crockery in stock, which he is determined to sell at any price to get it all sold.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF

BLINDS AND To Messrs, Chamberlain & Sills, Conway P. O., County Lennox, Ontario, Canada.

MINES FIBB FIGGOBS

Square. Money to loan on moderate terms. my chair. For about two years, while this call at J. A. DePotie's store for it, as he, getting it direct, can give it pure and unwards, I sought medical advice, employ-

> 1868, when I was induced to try the Great A LARGE QUANTITY OF FINE SALT Shoshonees Remedy by reading the cures performed, in a pamphlet. At this time I

> > ON HAND, AT $1.75 PER BARREL.

&c., &c., Wellington Square. Money to loan I never expected to get better, but simply on real and personal security; sales of land tried the medicine as a sort of forlorn hope This case of mine was not a private one

He has got a few of those celebrated Victoria Spinning Wheels on hand, which will be sold at prices never before heard of. Parties purchasing large orders will get Hastings, this ninth day of February, 1869. I hereby certify that I have known Mrs. Cash Paid for nearly All Kinds of Produce. no one there, but she heard a childish Mary Ann Doughty for the last fifteen years; she is a woman of probity and Remember the stand of truth. I have known her before, during, and since her illness. I believe her cer-

J. A. DePOTIE, GEORGETOWN.

Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done.

Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Fulled Cloths, Satinets, of their own make, always on

N. F. Wood, J. P.

Warden of the County of Hastings, Prov
REDUCTION IN STOVES.

THE CONTRACTIONS

The subscriber wishes to inform his customers and the public generally that he is sel ling off the balance of his

THE following remarks on Testimonials FALL STOCK of STOVES

the most skeptical that the Great Medical Compound, yearned after for ages, is now accessible in the GREAT SHOSHONEES REMEDY. Which he will sell at COST. He has made great reductions in those $18 STEEL Millie of the little Eva, when Hetty stranger. HOTEL, MUNN'S CORNERS, where he | For Disease of the Throat, Lungs, Liver | PLOUGHS, he is selling them for $16 during this month, farmers had better call early | was out of the room. before they are all gone. He would call particular attention to his

Large Stock of Tin and Japan Ware,

Peter C. V. Miller, of Erenstown, C. W., of | Which he will sell as cheap as any in the County. Peddlars that buy for cash will it to their advantage to purchase their stock of the subscriber, as he will sell at the lowest city wholesale prices. Terms Cash, current funds.

> P. McDermott. Milton, March 3rd, 1869.

MILTON

the wants of the travelling community, that he will make his house one of the most popular in the County of Halton. No pains the County of Halton.

HE subscriber begs to announce that he has purchased the above Livery Establishment. and is prepared to Supply Good Rigs to all who may Require them on the Shortest Notice.

Apply at his Office, East Wing of the "Halton House,"

JOSEPH WETHERALD.

POETRY.

THE HYMN OF THE WILTSHIRE LABOURERS, 1846.

"Don't you think that we have a great farm, because it joins some of his lands, need to cry out to God to put it in the hearts of our gracious Queen and her members c Parliament to grant us free bread?"-Lucy Simpkins at Brem Hill.

me to know about it."

likely to marry a poor girl?

lars in bank stock.

lands and returned.

Then to him:

Oh God, who by Thy Prophet's hand Didst smite the rocky brake. Whence water came at Thy command, Thy people's thirst to slake; Strike, now, upon this granite wall, Stern, obdurate and high, And let some drops of pity fall For us who starve and die!

The God who took a little child And set him in the midst And promised him his mercy mild. As, by Thy Son, Thou didst; Look down upon our children dear, So gaunt, so cold, so spare, And let their images appear Where lords and gentry are! ..

When our poor infants droop, Are weakened in our trust in Thee, And how our spirits stoop; For in Thy rest, so bright and fair, All tears and sorrow sleep; And their young looks, so full of care,

Would make Thine angels weep!

Oh God, teach them to feel how we,

The God who with his finger drew. The judgment coming on, Write for these men what must ensue. Ere many years be gone! Oh God, whose bow is in the sky,

Let them not brave and dare

Until they look (too late) on high And see an arrow there! Oh God, remind them! In the bread They break upon the knee, These sacred words may yet be read,

"In memory of me!" Oh God, remind them of His sweet Compassion for the poor, And how he gave them bread to eat. And went from door to door.

OUT IN THE RAIN. afford, without some reason, to lose his none."

Sprinkle! rain! shower! right down | drel?

by a thin shawl, nothwithstanding the Ben. Who was Ben? Two or three may it bring you a curse with it, now $700,000. besecching glance of the prettiest pair enquiries had amounted to nothing. and evermore! But while it is in my Bayard Taylor, who made his first of hazel eyes that ever looked up to a The children spoke as though every hands, I'll kick you from it, you das journey over Europe on foot because he When Millie came to a large white he an uncle, cousin, hired man or what?

farm house she very gladly and rather Evidently somebody very old, by the hastily—for just then there was a heavy way Hetty spoke of him. [But she peal of thunder-opened the gate, and shrugged her shoulders as she looked went up the flower-bordered path to the out at the still pouring rain. house, and as another peal of thunder was heard, accompanied by a vivid flash of lightning, Millie entered without ceremony. She took in at a glance the contents of the room, plainly but neatly book-case filled with books and sheet music; the violin in its case in the corner, the vase of faded flowers, and the with a long breath of relief. ornaments on the mantle. There was voice in the next room, and again knocked. A bright eyed girl of ten of T. -: I sell a part of the land I may. in pretending that I haven't heard what Chair for the Monthly, and other litertwelve years opened the door. Millie It will be a hard pull, though." explained why she was there. With the ease and good manners of one much ed a chair near the stove and took from the back way. He stopped in sur- tions?" Millie's dripping hat and shawl.

"I was just beginning to get dinner; that was the reason I didn't hear you knock. It'll be a long time before the some one standing at the table, with arms bare to the elbow, mixing flour. It must be Martha.

Ben at first looked surprised and haughty, but her kind, straight forward manner disarmed him. He bowed as sent.

Grace Greenwood writes as follows:

—At the land office, the other day, manner disarmed him. He bowed as sent. shower is over, and you must stay with No-those fair, white arms are not "What is the amount of this mort- valuable cabinet and museum, showed us to dinner. It will be ready by the Martha's, neither the slender, graceful gage?" time Ben comes—but that will not be figure. As he came nearer, he could "Two thousand dollars and interest," -a head dress of the most frightful tums," lisped and laughed a little girl of Hetty, and evidently giving her direc far L?"

The older child, whose name was was gazing on her, absorbed and eager. and." Hetty, resumed:

"I can't get a very good dinner. I her high chair, working at a piece of " No." ain't quite old enough, but Ben says I dough. myself. But I think I am large enough ward and opening the door. and hungry. I can't make buscuit-I he came in what she had in store for wish I could, for Ben likes them ever him. so much—but Martha, who comes in to "I is made a tate for you. I is." make bread for us, says she will teach

"We is got no mother but Ben." the Ben." little one lisped. When Hettie came Millie said :

"Now I have got warmed, and my Ben, and is staying until it clears up. his visitor. ner. If you like I will make some cuit." short time."

Hetty was delighted. on and learn how?

uainted over the biscuit. She said at the street door. presently, trying a potato with a fo.k: Hetty went to the door, came back tent." the water off so, and then put them on Johns." again to dry. That will make them Millie drew quickly back from the the money," he said ironcally. except taking it up."

little Hetty as she ran over the items in in the suave tones she was accustomed raised the money?" butter, cucumbers, milk and water. poor child said, apologetically-

we used to have a good many things for verer measures." and Squire Johns said he had a mort- "you are very much mistaken. It is lease.

lose everything, we had to do without a piece of land I partly expect to do, and great many things, and we are very I hope, with some other money coming you! Of a piece with your conduct to poor now, and Ben is afraid now we in, to be able to pay it." the Hazells!" she ended.

(TERMS .-- $1 in Advance. Credit $2.

from Squire Johns, for he is very hard mortgage—you can see for yourself that who loaned the money to them?" to the poor, and he always wanted our it is the 18th." " Let me see it."

where he wants to build. I heard all "It reads so, certainly, but I can't about it when one of our neighbors was understand it." talking with Ben, though he didn't want He went to the desk.

"Here is a memorandum my father with that same queer little smile on her Millie had listened to this with a cu- made of the circumstance, and it is the face. rious mixture of feelings, for Squire 28th, and he was a very sure, methodi Squire Johns rode a long distance out Johns was a declared lover of hers, and cal man, and would not be likely to of his way, six months after, to avoid a though she had not yet accepted him, make a mistake that would be fraught | wedding party just returning from she had been pleased with his attentions with very important and evil conse- church—Ben Hazell, and Millie, his and had frequently given him encour- quences to him. I believe," a sudden wife-which he came very near blunagement. Moreover, he was to receive suspicion coming into his mind, as he dering upon. his final answer in three days from that detected a lurking triumph in Squire time, and she was not sure the answer Johns' eye--" I believe there's some reserved and laid away for that time villainy about the matter, and that you was "no." True, Millie was not in are at the bottom of it," he exclaimed, love with him, but she had waited so fixing his eye upon the lawyer, who long in vain for that ecstatic state of charged color in spite of himself. feeling she had heard and read about, "Be careful what you say, young $5,000,000. that she thought she was not capable of man, or you may get yourself into love, and that to like any one was as trouble," he said, angrily.

much as she could expect. But she "Yes, sir, I believe you are a base at $25 a week, is at present sole owner certainly liked Squire Johns as well, it villain; I remember that you are the of the World, valued at least at $500; not better, than any one, and his love lawyer who made out the mortgage at 000, and has an income of $75,000 a must certainly be disinterested, for he the time, and I know that you have for year. could not know that -but now Millie years been aching to get hold of this | Henry J. Raymond, at the time of . stopped. Could he not? Might he not property. If there is any justice in law his death, was worth. $300,000, and have found out some way? If this you shall be exposed!" story was true, would such a man be "In the meantime you had better have the money ready," coolly and in- ness of and sovereign indifference to For Millie Warner was really an sultingly replied Mr. Johns. heiress in a small way. She was sole "That is impossible you know. You though he made his entry into the meinheritor of a small unencumbered farm know very well that I could not raise tropolis a poor printer's boy, with all laid your diabolical plans." But the farm was two hundred miles "Then you know the consequences." south of this town, where she was visit- "And what is to become of my young tates valued at more than $150,000 ing a cousin, and nobody knew of it; sisters?" and during her visit she had helped her "I neither know nor care. That is owners of the Express. cousin in her work as she had always your look out."

pable, industrious little girl that she passion. This story agreed with things she pay this debt I expect."

for even at that the next morning they be ready day after tomorrow, or I take lar weekly for $1,000,000. were smoothed over; for Squire Johns possession. I might have shown you Henry C. Bowen, after failing as a was a rich man, and people could not mercy but for your insinuations, Now merchant, turned his entire attention to Could he in reality be such a scount you know it. You never showed mercy $100,000 a year from it. on Millie Warner's tasteful little hat She could judge better about the gotten wealth by robbing the widow and than journalists, William Cullen Bryin your life. You have wen your ill. As to men of letters purely rather and graceful shoulders, unprotected save truth of the story when she had seen the fatherless. If you take this property ant's estate is estimated at $600,000 to body must know who Ben was. Was tardly scoundrel!"

> as a coward, and while he was being ig. from the proceeds of his writings. He nominiously ejected from the house by is not rich, for he lives generously; but the angry and excited young man, Hetty he may be set down at $70,000 to $75,was crouched down close to Millie. Young Ben Hazell, out in the field, pitched up the last hay on the load, leaned his pitchfork up against a tree, to describe her feelings. and took off his straw hat to cool his furnished—the cane seated chairs, the moist forchead. His gaze followed the for some time, and when he did he look- though not legally bound for them, like hay cart and then went over the broad through hastily, as if to escape notice, he is. It is only two or three years "The hay has all gone in," he said, when Millie, straight-forward and busi- since he discharged the last of these ness-like little girl that she was, began: obligations. He now has a salary of "I could not afford to lose one load now; I don't know that I can do it, but a few minutes. There would be no use editorials for the Weekly, the Easy you and Squire Johns have been saying, ary work, and is at least pecuniarly in-The young man followed the cart for I have heard every word. I think dependent. - Correspondent Chicago into the barn. The storm was at its I know some one who can help you - Republican. lder, the child bade her welcome, plac. height when he went towards the house but first may I ask you a few ques prise, as he saw through the window Ben at first looked surprised and Grace Greenwood writes as follows:

distinguish the sparkling, piquant face. was the reply.

tions for what she was making. Hetty "My father valued it at ten thous- long, wild tufts of buffalo hair. De-Little Eva was sitting at the table in ... Are there other mortgages?"

do nicely. He puts it on, and I see to By and by there was a spattering of know some one who will loan you the was once the property of Tall Bull, a it. But he does not allow me to take water heard in the next room by Hetry. money. I am Millie Warner. Call on Cheyenne chief, who was killed in a off kettles, for fear I will burn or scald "Ben has come," running hastily for me to morrow at my cousin', Ur. Stand- fight with the U.S. Fifth Cavalry and ready for him when he comes in tired one, clapping her hands, and lisping as night with mortgages and hazel eyes. this chief, who was a gigantic savage, suspense and as xiety, and early in the wife and child on a pony, and sent evening found him at the Standfords', them within our lines, telling them to her a kiss, while she laughed and shout- self. "Where is your mother?" asked ed, but his eyes were seeking the The next morning, accompanied by a said that when her husband told her neighbor, he called on Squire Johns. she must give herself up, she urged

An angry light shone in Squire Johns' entreaties, and rushed back to into the dress will dry just as well at work as She has been so kind as to help me get "How dare he come?" I warrant, speedily killed, and these are his sitting still; so I will help you get din- dinner, and has made some splendid bis though, the chap ain't so high and remains. In this same engagement mighty as he was the last time I saw another Cheyenne woman, young and biscuit, and we will have dinner in a They both stood mute a minute, she him. Humble enough this morning. remarkably handsome, came dashing with surprise at the real Ben, young, I will hold out hopes of mercy until he into our raks, with two children strapped handsome and well-bred-he with ad grovels and begs my pardon-grovels to her pony. But she did not com Ben would be glad. Might she look miration and a strange new feeling he low as he laid me, and then I'll be re- to surrender. She came like a fighting could not define. He had hardly made venged. To morrow this splendid farm fury, armed with a long knife, with Millie was young and frank and gay, her welcome, with a return of his self- added to my other property, will make which she struck frantically right and and the children soon became well ac- possession, when there was a loud rap me a rich and happy man indeed. I left. At last seeing herself about to be "The potatoes are done. I will pour pale, and whispered to Ben-" Squire "You are early this morning, young and perished-a Medea whom there is man. I conclude you have come to pay no Euripides to immortalize.

mealy. In a few minutes I will peel half-open door. Ben went in to his "That's my errand," said Ben coolly. The last keresene explosion in Cincinthem, and then dinner will be all ready visitor, closing the door after him, but Squire Johns started back aghast and natti was ghastly. The woman every word was distinctly heard by thunderstruck.

her mind—potatoes, peas, pork, biscuit, to hear, but loud and peremptorily. "I do, and I have brought Mr. Fos- explosion followed, covering her with "I am in haste, young man; I just ter to prove that it is all right. There the fiery fluid, and she ran down stairs She wanted to make tea for her visi- stopped to say that the time for the pay- is two thousand. We have each count- enveloped in flames. At the curbstone tor, but she declined decidedly. The ment of the money due me being day ed it. There is the interest. And now she sank on her knees, screaming for

Still he could hardly believe he heard aright, when to his suit she gave a rompt, uncompromising "no." He urged; she was firm. He threat. ened; she flashed out, brave and indig-MATHESON & KEELING, Proprietors. nant, something of what she knew and felt, and spurned him and his suit with ontempt and loathing.

"Such a great threat is worthy of can't have enough to pay for it; and "You are laboring under a singular "To the Hazells! what do you know they all say we may look for no mercy mistake, young man. Here is your about them! Perhaps you are the one

"Yes, it was I. I went in there for shelter from the rain !"

The Squire uttered curses low and deep, but Millie did not stay to hear them. She only saw him ride away.

WEALTH FROM NEWSPAPERS.

James Gordon Bennett, who began the Herald with $200 or $300 borrowed money, in an Ann street cellar, writing on a board, is now worth over Manton Marble, who ten years ago was a task writer on the Evening Post made every cent of it out of the Times. Horace Greeley, with all his carelessmoney, could be sold out for $150,000, from her father, and five thousand dol- so much money in two days when you his fortune in a small bundle of clothes swung on a stick. James and Erastus Brooks have es-each, all made from their earnings as Robert Bonner, not long since a prin-helped her mother when at home - ca- The young man strove to suppress his ter at the case, making, with very hard work, $30 a week, boasts of possessing "Squire Johns, by the 28th I can $200,000 worth of horses; has an annual income from the Ledger of nearly had heard hinted at, but only hinted at, "That will do you no good. It must $100,000, and would not sell his poputhe publication and management of the favor. She remembered it all now. "That is false! liar! villain! and Independent, and realizes $90,000 to could not afford to travel otherwise, has The squire was a small man, as well long been in comfortable circumstances pale and frightened. Eva was sobbing George William Cuttis, who was a in her lap, and Millie, it was difficult sileut partner with Putnam when the house failed years ago, and lost all he Ben did not come out of the room had, resolved to pay certain debts. ed haggard and ag d, and was passing the high-minded honorable gentleman "Mr. Hazell, I want to talk with you $10,000 from the Harper's for writing

An Indian Romance.

has collected a remarkably curious and us a singular trophy of Indian warfare pending from it was a tail of inordinate length, also tinseled and tufted, with He caught her in his arms and gave where he was received by Millie her- to surrender to the whites. The Indian woman, who was kindly received, Hetty said prettily-" My brother "He is at breakfast," the servant him to go with her, but that he covered his ears with his hands to shut out her "This lady got caught in a shower, cold gray eye when he heard who was fight, which was the last she ever saw of her lamented Tall Bull. He was will tantalize him to my heart's con- captured, she stabbed to the heart first one child, then the other, then herself, thought to quicken the fire at which The dinner seemed very meagre to Millie, for Squire Johns did not speak "Do you mean to say that you have she was cooking her husband's supper, off and the flesh stripped from her gage on our farm and that we had got not due till the 26th. It is now but There was no trace of the violent pas- hands as she wrung them in her agony. to pay every cent the day it was due, or the 18th. At that time I shall sell the sion to which the Squire gave free li- She-lived four hours.

VOLUME 10. NUMBER 4.

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Eight cents per line for the first insertion, Motel Cards.

and two cents per line for each subsequent Business Cards of eight lines or less $4 The number of lines to be reckoned by BURGER'S HOTEL, PALERMO. the space occupied, measured by a scale of | T E. BURGER, PROPRIETOR. THIS

THURSDAY MORNING

OFFICE, ON MAIN STREET.

if not so paid, $2 will be charged.

TERMS-$1 a year in advance, or within

A liberal discount allowed on advertise- Mr. Addison Hagar, has been thoroughly rements inserted for extended periods. Advertisements without specific instruc- a continuance of the patronage bestowed upon tions inserted till forbid, and charged ac- his predecessors. The tables will be well furnished, and the bar stocked with the best

Any Special Notice, the object of which brands of liquors and cigars. is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any individual or company, to be considered an Exchange Hotel advertisement, and charged accordingly.

Business Directorn.

TAC MILLS, FIRE AND LIFE IN- travelling public. Good stabling and attentive hostlers.

J. SOVEREIGN, DENTIST, HAM-Anglo-American. Nitrous oxide given for B. WILMOTT, ISSUER OF MAR-

AMES A. FRAZER, LICENSED AUCtioneer for the County of Halton. Resi-THE Subscriber begs to inform the Pub ter, &c. Office-Corner of Main and patronage will receive every attention. Church streets, Georgetown.

It rister, Attorney and Solicitor in Chancery, Oakville. Official Assignee for the TR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON, CON-

ROBERTSON, M. D., C. M., GRAD- ing, at different times, three doctors, and

. the University of Toronto, Haltonville, Nassagaweya. Consultation day-every Thursday.

O. Clerk, Commissioner in Queens Bench, I have only to say try the Shoshonees Licensed Auctioneer, Accountant, &c., Nas-Remedy; I believe it will cure you. TONALD MCNAIR, COUNTY AUC-

Dentist, Wellington Square. He will continue to visit Oakville every know that while ill her case was declared month. Rooms in Canadian hopeless; and I know that she has, since Hotel. All operations carefully performed. | her recovey, always attributed her recovery

Motel Cards.

Clarkson, Proprietor. Best brands of wines, liquors and cigars. Good stables and drivvin. This is a new house, and is fitted up in as comfortable a manner as any Hotel in the County. Good Stabling. Every attention paid to visitors.

Bronte, begs to announce to his numerous friends that he has bought WILLIAM'S unremitting attention to guests still confirst-class Hotel. The Stables and Yards are very extensive, and a careful Hostler ROSSIN HOUSE, ACTON. the public that he has the above named I. R., and from his experience in Hotel at- vourselves. attendance, both in England and Scotland shall be spared in providing the best brands and J. B. Willmott; wholesale by North-

TERRAPIN RESTAURANT AND BIL-LIARD ROOMS, 87 and 89 King St.

plied at all hours. Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the finest brands. Shell and can oysters in every style. Parties visiting Toronto for a day will find every ac-

• well known Hotel, lately occupied by fitted, and the proprietor respectfully solicits

THOMAS CLARK, Georgetown, Ont.

the painless extraction of teeth. T. T. Har-

MILTON, ONT

Milton, Feb. 23rd. 1864

JOHN WALLACE.

Madoc, County of Hastings,

Province of Ontario, Feb. 9th, 1869.

This is to certify that during the winter

1866 I was taken with a weakness of had begun to feel the weakness in my hands-in fact I was getting almost helpless. I have taken two bottles of the but was known to all my neighbors and Sworn to before me at Madoc. County o tificate to be true in every particular.

to the Shoshonees Remedy. Whatever medicine, one thing is certain, that in her

MARY ANN DOUGHTY

A. F. Wood, J. P, &c.

v3.39-1y

J. A. DEPOTIE

Is selling goods at figures that we really think he must not be aware of whatthey cost him People say he must have

E TO IL BUSSES to and from the Station, regularly. Every attention paid to the Them to sell them at the prices he does. Why, we heard a party remark the otherday that the tea they got there for

Was the very same tea they had been paying $1.00 for at other stores.

Timothy and Clover Seed.

the ancles, which gradually, during the Attorney-at-Law, Solicitor in Chan- on up to my hips, and I became so weak Sold wholesale on terms and at prices that will compare favorably with any house ir Toronto. Parties wishing to get anything in this line for sickness, would do well to

As they may require, as there is a small quantity of them in stock yet.

Georgetown, March 23rd, 1870.

may be the peculiar properties of this GREAT ince of Ontario, Dominion of Canada.

STOP AND SEE

great remedy has never been equalled Where was there ever such a cure as that ton, C. W., of Consumption; or that of of Consecon, C. W., of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint; or that of John Hosey, o mentioned had we space. Call at the Drug-store and get a Circular of unquestionable certificates on the Great withn 150 yards of the Acton Station, G. Shoshonees Remedy and Pills, and satisfy Price of the Remedy, in large Pints, $1.00.

spite of all treatment heretofore, and i now well. Scores of such cases might be

J. E. HARRISON,

Terms moderate. Medicine for Horses and Cattle always on hard and orders promptly attended to. Milton, March 21st, 1867.

of most wonderful and extraordinary cures in Canada by the Great Indian Rem-They are stern, undeniable and hopes by careful attention to merit a con- Digestive Organs, Kidneys, &c., as well as Scrofula, the various Skin Diseases, Hu-40c22-tf | mors, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood, we boldly state that this Square. Comfort, moderate charges, and in the person of Wilson Storms, of Brigh-Napanee, C. W., of Rheumatism, who had

William Harrison,

THOS. CARLISLE, Proprietor
The most elegant, spacious and comfortable Restaurant in Canada, Meals supplied at all hours. Wines Liquors and present, will be at the residence of his father.

Graduate of the Toronto Veterinary College, is prepared to attend all the ailments of the Lower animals. His Office, for the present, will be at the residence of his father.

TEAMS FOR THE ACCOMMODATION OF MERCHANTS CARRYING GOODS.

"When father and mother were alive be obliged immediately to resort to se. Johns."

and diabelical description. It was "Es, dinnie'll be weddy when Ben She was laughing and talking with "What is the total value of the composed of buffalo horns and skin, a lorned with wampum and tinsel, and small sleigh bells running all the way "Very well, I am quite positive I down it. This unique accoutrement their Pawnee auxillaries, under Gen. to do that. I like to have everything "Ben has tum," echoed the little Ben's dreams were mixed up that Carr, sometime last summer. When The next morning was a long time of saw that the day was lost, he put his by pouring oil on it from her can. An after to-morrow, if it is not ready I shall I will take up the mortgage, Squire help, with the flames flaring high above her head. A large crowd of men and dinner, and Martha, the bired girl, used "Impossible!" exclaimed the young Squire Johns was compelled to yield extinguishing the fire until the poor to get them all; but when they died, man, in a surprised and excited tone; the mortgage and execute the usual re- woman's clothes were burned entirely

Livid and trembling with passion, boys collected, but did not succeed is