ER GONE .- The ords the death of b, a native of it, in his eightieth at Mr. Alexander waship of Caledon, Mr. McNab. who IcKellar, M. P. P., with a few others 4, and settled in boro, where he, in fellow emigrants , trials and privalife in the bush. able perseverance, ncy, and for many and comfortable Chief," a name by sively known among. of whom will shed at " The Chief" is nfortunate mistake clerk in Brooklin was over-dosed and was arrested, but seem to indicate p. Squibbs." Why cian have prescribed Mixture?" Had k would have made ight not have been prescription, but it uch more beneficial tances. The unforthat he is familiar quibb's preparations. e is so much more ther, when taken in does seem as though an might have sacritead of his patient. RT .- We doubt the stablishment of this inion, and earnestly of this nature will til the people have he press and their they are not averse that novelties of this ested before adoption, lity may remain for ike the great Shos-Consumption, Liver For sale by all was induced to use d Syrup of Hypo-e effect was wonderfelt the benefit of half a bottle I was ny complaint, disease to this day have not a return of it. SARAH LENT. Co., N. S., Feb. 10, bottle; 6 for $7.50. ies and by F. Cundilla agents, Montreal.

IRCULAR. day, noon, July 8, 1870.

seem almost stereotyped, se "situation" in better aging accounts from the er hand, keep up their no more disposition now to yield to any concesmaterial enough, in the nce, to make up a good he great absorbing ques-ect." To make use of m all parts of the coun-Madison and Oneida k age gave a promise of ow counted among the na may be said of the t of Sauk and Monroe June 17th. With a conges of the grub and cut-to estimate the yield of ales, or a little less than ek, 242 bales. iding week last season, e season, 1,416 bales.

ast week, none, ding week last season, he season from the port pondent favors us with date of June 26th :last week, we can re-highly satisfactory, the g tended to refresh the hope of an abundant Continental reports and the growers everyons of a large yield."

TET WELLS, . 59 Pearl St., N. Y. The New Candidature for the Spanish The Last Sensation in Corklown

Prince Leapold of Hohenzollern Sigmaringen is the son and heir o. head of the youngest branch of that House of Hohenzollern of which King It was an English ladye bright (The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall), William of Prusia is the head. The branches of Hohenzollern-Hechingen, And she would marry a gallant knight, For love will still be lord of all. which is the second, and of Hohenzollern.

Sigmaringen, which is the third of the family scions, abdicted all their ulterior as groom lived, and yet lives, for all we know rights and claims to the Prussian crown to the contrary, a young Englishman name in favor of the reigning Prussian house Walter P-tch-r, whose rosy cheeks testified Old England, and whose stalwart appearance prevously to this act of abdication, the and manly figure were the pride and admiradaughter of Stephanie de Beauharnais, tion of the female portion of the community and the adopted child of the first Napoleon and the aunt of the reigning Emperor of all his jealous rivals. In spite of the wily attentions of the fair sex he lived for a long time in a state of single bless.

The daughter of Stephanie de Beauharnais, and the blind, who in the Town of Milton, in the said County of Halton, on Wednesday, the 27th day of July, lived for a long time in a state of single bless. His second son, Charles, born in found a valmerable place in his bachelor ar-1836, was elected Prince of Roumania mour, and he perceived that at last he had in 1866, and now rules that inchoate found nation as well as circumstances will permitt. His eldest son, Leopold, born in 1835, 1861 the Princess Antonia of Portugal, a younger sister of the reigning Portuguese sovereign, Dom Luis. Prince Leopold consequently is now in the very prime of life, but thirty five years old; he has three such that his election would throw upon purpose on the side of the Rhine.

be done for Spain, and done quickly.

The Emperor Napoleon meets the crisis with his favorite proposition of a congsess of Europe. The abdication of Queen Isabella has taken one serious difficulty out of the way of such a congress; and it is by no means improbable, if the candidature of Prince Leopold is pressed in earnest, that such a avert a modern and more mischievous congress may be found necessary to Spanish Succession."-N. Y. World.

The Silver Nuisance.

abate the American silver nuisance.

the exportation of American silver,

took no adequate means to suply

Canadian coin, and hence we hear com-

permitted to issue bills of a less denom mination, must be supplied by the Government, But the American silver replaced with a sufficient quantity either of Government notes or Canadian

Francis Hincks is himself the sole cause of this difficulty, and has, in this in-the head of the Finance Department .-

Anti-Chinese.

----

affer, and our agony will be prolonged for at least two terrible weeks. Any uch a detestable nuisance upon man-

Newspaper Changes.

Hamilton Times.

folds of "the banner of beauty,

coinage, and hence the complaint repetition of that dismal episode young children, all sons; and, though he has never been distinguished by any special brilliancy of mind, he has a fair reputation as a well-conducted person for a prince and a titular colonel of cavalry in the Prussian service. His matrimoniol connection with Portugal would naturally make him not unwelcome to the partisans of an Iberian union, while it is too slight and indirect to be alleged as a serious objection to his candidature by the enemies of that Whom he could truly love. The maiden's horrible business more cheaply, not gone some very severe tests, but has alproject. With so many and such name was Annie Th-mps-n. Finding him spending more than £900 per man. ways been triumphant. obvious claims upon the attention of self bound hand and foot in the chains of the the king makers of Spain, it may seem amorous god, Walter poured the burning Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and an adapted for Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office and Danish war extinguished 3,500 lives Office a surprising that Prince Leopold should words of love into the ear of the lady. He at an average cost of about £2,000. effects are quickly felt in a more strikhave been thought of at so late a day. came, he saw, he conquered; he saw, he The campaign which ended at Sadowa been difficult to heat without a very But there are many reasons for believ- wooed, he won. In the words of the old must be reckoned, considering its short large amount of fuel. They can be used

ing that his nomination would from the rhyme. first have been objected to, as the cable The wedding day appointed was, The wedding clothes provided; informs us it is now objected to, by the one Great Power which Spain is com. And on Thursday last they were duly joined societies expend what would be a compell d most carefully to consider and to together in the bonds of wedlock. The groom propitiate in her choice of a monarch. was appropriately attired in an elegant clawmen on the destruction of onc. The relations between the Prussian hammer coat and a pair of kids, purchased prince and mighty kinsman at Paris are at the establishment of the Emperor Napoleon the odium, without insuring to him the advantages of BEWS & HALCRO. nepotism. Europe would credit the The bride was arrayed in a rich toilette master of the Tuileries with intriguing white and cerise satin. The underskirt, for the elevation of a Bonaparte, while white satin, was trimmed en tablier, with The conduct of Prince Charles in Rou- three graduated flounces of lace, headed with Prussia would profit by the operation. fifty feet west of the Monogahala susmania has by no means been such as to white satin surrounded the long train. Waistfrom Carson street crosses the Pan make France eager for the establishcoat bodice of cerise satin, with waistband and Madrid. The traditional purpose of basque, edged with white satin. Fichu of tulle illusion and lace, forming a square ty feet above the level of the Pan Haninsure her control of the two frontiers of the Pyrenees and the Rhine. One the chieron. The bridgemaids warm dressed to the chieron. The bridgemaids warm dressed to the rest of the rest of the ran Handle Railroad track) by means of an iron bridge one hundred and sixty feet long. sovereign of the House of Hohenzollern the chignon. The bridesmaids were dressed This bridge is supported by ten inch with equal magnificence, regardless of expense. columns, made of wrought iron a quar-It Indeed, so brilliant an appearance did the assemblage of "fair women and brave men" height of the hill at this point is three height of the hill at this point is three the would be asking too much to expect semblage of "fair women and brave men" that France will smile prompt acquies. occupying back seats, unaccustomed to suc ence in the establishment of another scenes of splendor, were so dazzled that they sovereign of the same house on the side found it impossible to look steadily on with of the Pyrenees. Still something must out blinking a little. Me list not at this tide declare The splendor of the spousal rite, How mustered in the chapel fair Both maid and matron, squire and knig Me list not tell of owches rare, Of mantles green, and braided hair, And kirtles furr'd with miniver; What plumage waved the altar round How spurs and ringing chainlets sound And hard it were for bard to speak The changeful hue of Annie's cheek-That lovely hue which comes and flies,

As awe and shame alternate rise!

-[HIGHLY ORIGINAL.]

The streets leading from the church to the European history, the "War of the esidence of the bridegroom's brother, where a recherche repast was spread, were lined with an immense crowd of admiring spectators, all wire rope and are provided with a safe given anxious to catch a glimpse of the happy pair ty cable which runs idly except in case Though the silver nuisance is abated, as the wedding procession passed by. After of the breakage of the principal cope, another difficulty has taken its place of the wedding breakfast had been ably disposed when the drum about which the safety Milton, July 6th, 1870. another dimension has taken its place of an number of toasts were proposed and rean exactly opposite character, and this sponded to with becoming enthusiasm. The bridge, thus preventing the accidental insolvent Act of 1864 and 1869 foresight on the part of Sir Francis toast of "The Ladies" was responded to by descent of a car. - Scientific American. Hincks. When he took measures to the special commissioner of the Herald in a neat and exceedingly witty speech, which elicited roars of laughter. The honors done have been received by the French Minto "The Press" were duly acknowledged by ister of Foreign Affairs, and the com- In the matter of William Burthe Zimmerman correspondent of the Argus, mander of the French fleet off the coast place with a sufficient quantity of circuwhile the Bohemians of the Comet and CHAM- of China will take energetic measures to lating medium, either of paper or PION, not being provided with swallow-tailed punish the Chinese. Such a course, coats and feeling themselves at a loss in the the London Morning Post says, is fa- the said Court for a discharge under the said plaints from every part of the country midst of the brilliant and gay assemblage, vored by the Great Powers of Europe. on this account. The Banks are not all the back kitchen. At last the hour arrived change, whether paper or silver, required for business purposes below that deno- blushing pair were whicled away in has well nigh disappeared, without being covery, will be suitably rewarded. Ontario," which he purposes at some future which embodies the following beautiful sentistance, as well as in a hundred others, shows that he is utterly unfit to be at ments:

THE BRONTE STAGE,

"Blue are thy waters, blue as bottle glass, Behold them stretched thar; Thar the red Injun once took his delight-Fished, fit and bled; Now the inhabitants is mostly white,

And nary red!" We are unalterably opposed to the In the evening the bridal party returned, immigration or importation of Chinese and a large and select number of their friends HAS AT LAST SECURED THE SERto this country. Our opposition is assembled at the stately mansion, when danc-based upon no fine-spun theories of ing was proceeded with in fine style to the labor or political rights. We take high music of the Cerktown Quadrille Band, under The want of which the people of Milton and moral ground upon this question. The the leadership of Mr. Hugh McCutcheon. surrounding country have long felt. His cusalmond-eyed Celestials invented fire- Our photographic artist was promptly on the tomers can always rely on having their work July infliction of which horrid com. tuous swell," took this picture (by moon-

Confusion to Confucius and all his descendants ! - Cincinnati The "voluptuous swell" is the individual i the foreground embracing the lovely female with his left arm. The festivities were prolonged until a late, or rather an early, hour. and over many a jovial glass, health and hap- kinds promptly executed at the lowest rates. White, publishers of the Spectator piness was drunk to the youthful couple so A call is respectfully solicited. All work warnewspaper, of this city, have sold out auspiciously launched on the sea of matrimony. ranted. their interest in the establishment to We expect by next week to be in possession of Messrs. Lawson and D. McCulloch, and a full and revised list of the guests and of the

that the Messrs. White will shortly different toilettes worn on the occasion. take possession of and publish the The happy possessor of a big dog out Montreal Gazette. We have the information very direct and on good author- west being denied passage for him on Cummins, Miss H. ity, and, therefore, have no doubt that the cars' chained him to the rear brake Hammond, H. S. the changes above indicated will be of the train. After an hour's journey Persons calling for any of the above letters made, and the arrangements be all com- he went back to look at him, and found will please say they are advertised. pleted in the course of a few days .- the chain and collar all right but the dog was pretty much towed away.

Insolvent Act of 1869.

In a recent speech by Mr. Pease, M. for South Durham, he remarked IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE COUNthat in a very instructive volume lately TY OF HALTON. published in France, a careful estimate

(compiled from authentic documents) was made of the cost in lives of recent European wars. The Crimean war was PLAINTIFFS stated to have cost 784,900 lives; the war in Italy in 1857, 45,000; in Sch-JAMES McGUFFIN, leswig Holstein, 3, 500; the American DEFENDANT war, 800,000; the Prussian war, 45, Mexico and China, 65,000-

Loss of Life in Modern Wars.

Pease,) supplied some very curious really surprising to see how much money is spent for every man killed on the

A Steep Railway.

Pittsburgh, Pa., to carry passengers to Coal Hill, which overlooks the city and the country around to a great distance.

pension bridge. The roadway starting

Handle Railroad, and reaches the face

the track eight feet by eight feet.

top of the incline. It is three feet high

"T" pattern, and substantially fastened

STRAYED

TROM the premises of John Wallace, Milton, about the 1st of July, a lightish RED AND WHITE COW, heavy in calf.

giving such information as will lead to her re-

Milton, July 14, 1870.

Delivered at the Lowville Mills.

Lowville, July 8th, 1870.

The plane is located two hundred and

And besides all these, there were the be held at my Champers, in the Court House, raines" (the work alluded to by Mr. A. D. 1870.

THOMAS MILLER,

statistics about the cost of war. It is 3-3t W. J. STEARN

£433. On the other hand, the maxium of cost was reached in the American Which are the best in use as proved by civil war. Each one of the 800,000 certificates from parties in all parts of deaths (though this is a small estimate, the Dominion. For simplicity of conwe should imagine) was purchased by struction, efficiency in heating and an expenditure of £3,345. The It is no new thing but has been before belligerents in South America did the the public for some years, and under-duration, to have been expensive. on every description of Stove, cooking Every life cost nearly £1,500. It is a as well as others, and the sizes are strange policy which makes civilized adapted to rooms in which they may be fortable maintenance to three or four Stove-Pipes and Tinware

Always on hand, at LOW PRICES. W. J. STEARN. A railway has been constructed in THE THE WAS THE Milton, Oct. 7th. 1868. and from the top of what is known as

ONTARIO of the hill (which at this point is nine-

GEORGETOWN AND ORANGEVILLE.

hundred and thirty feet, giving the plane a length of six hundred and fifty Would respectfully solicit those in the Marble feet, and an inclination of thirty five line to give him a call, as he is prepared to degrees. The roadway consists of two give as good and cheap an article as any tracks, each five feet gauge, with two in the business, having personally selected cars—one ascending while the other United States, and will continue to give descends. The cross ties on the bridge satisfaction. Having on hand a splendid The strings are also yellow pine, six by Monuments, Headstones, Tombstones, eight feet, and the ties on the balauce of Posts, Table Tops, Mantlepieces, and everything named in Marble.

pine railing auns from the base to the and quite fancy. It is to be painted, probably white. The rails are of the T WILL pay 12 per cent. to any person I lending me two hundred and forty dollars The cars are to be hauled up by a until the end of the year. Ample security

Boyne P. O.

In the County Court of HE subscriber would beg leave to inform the inhabitants of the surrounding coun-

ON Monday, the 18th day of July next, the undersigned will apply to the Judge of Zimmerman, June 2nd 1869. C. CRAWFORD W. Barber & Bros.,

PAPER MANUFACTURERS! Georgetown.

4-tf Printing and Wrapping Paper

Constantly on hand and made to order. Glasgow Spring Wheat, WOOL CARDING & CLOTH DRESSING

Nelson.

Spring Waggons,

Lumber Waggons,

quantity will be received at their Paper Mill JAMES HARVEY. 4-2t in return for cash. Highest price in cash paid

GEORGE BURROWS NOTICE. HE celebrated Thorough-bred horse "Touchstone,"

JOHN WALLACE.

He has proved himself a good stock getter, and breeders would do well to patronise him. Guelph-Robert Cuthbert.

of Jewelry, he has just received a large and well selected stock of Watches, Brooches of all kinds, Gold Buggies, and Silver Chains,

SCARF-PINS, violin and Guitar Strings, Work-Boxes, &c., &c. A nice selection of

GEORGE BURROWS.

REMAINING in the Georgetown Post DIVISION COURTS FOR THE VELL

Mar. May. July. Sept. Nov. NELSON, NASSAGAWEYA, ACTON, ....

EPHRAIM CHAPMAN.

ADVERTISEMENT.

GEORGE OWN.

ARE NOW

facturers hands in Britain for our Georgetcwn, 14th June, 1870.

And we must make room for their arrival here.

S. F. M'KINNON & CO.,

NELSON

COLORING, &C.

ikewise, manufacturing all the different kinds of goods that may be required by the farming community: Also on hand a good stock of TWEEDS AND FLANNELS various descriptions, to be sold for Cash or exchange for Wool at the usual prices.

BEWS & HALCRO,

SPRING STOCK,

Which will be found to be of the Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN

and the aunt of the reigning Emperor of the reigning E # number of men was got together at very close quarters. Between the Russians and the Allies there were of a million of each of them at the price of On the other hand, the maximum. MILTON, BEGS to announce that he is prepared to manufacture any quantity of PATENT DRUM HEATER. REDUCED PRICES! BARGAINS REDUCES!

EXTRAORDINARY

One Hundred Thousand Dollars' Worth of

GOODS,

MILLINERY, MANTLES, CLOTHING, CARPETS.

HATS AND CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES,

To be sold at tremendous reductions, especially Spring and Summer Goods. Irrespective of the puffing, blowing and bombastic assertions of minor places, we are the A 1 house of Halton. Why?-Because we have the largest stock-sell the most goods-have the most varied assortment and the

ARGE ORDERS ARE NOW BEING PLACED IN THE MANU FASHIONABTE STYLES,

And sell the cheapest in the Province; and on this occasion we shall vie with our former reputation in selling goods as advertised. Ladies and gentlemen, And sell the cheapest in the Province; and on this occasion we shall vie with the enormous increase in our business this last season warrants us in making a further effort in enlarging and increasing the same, and you may rely on great bargains, as we shall continue this great sale till an effective clearance is made.

PECIAL

We have in Stock a Beautiful and Varied Assortment of Fancy Silk Dresses, together Great Bargains will be given for the next with Black Grograins, Black Glaces, Drap de France, Drap de Lyons, Gros de Suez.

> Celebrated and unsurpassed in all our manufacturing departments. Ordered Clothing, Millinery, Dress and Mantle Making.

June, 23, 1870.

BARCLAY & McLEOD.

MCNAB & PARKER!

THOMAS YOUNG, Georgetown, Ont.,

BABBIT WELLE. Paints, and Oils, Belting, Blacksmith's Bellows and Coal, Bent Cutter and Buggy Stuff, Hubbs and Spokes, Lasts and Pegs, Coal Oil and Lamps, PAPER AND WINDOW SHADES,

JACK SCREWS, CLOTHES WRINGERS,

Full particulars of the Pekin massacre PROVINCE OF ONTARIO. The County of Halton.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO. The County of Halton.

The County Groceries. CARDING ROLLS, SPINNING, FULLING, AND FINISHING,

Teas and Tobaccos of the choicest brands. Goods marked in plain figures. No second price. While thanking his customers for the liberal patronage extended to him in the past, the subscriber invites the public to call and examine his goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere, as he is fully posted up in the wants of the country, and no effort will be wanting on his part to give satisfaction.

> THOMAS YOUNG Main Street, Georgetown.

PROCLAMATION!

NEW AMALGAMATION OF

McMASTER, LILLI

LATE T. F. ELLIS & CO.

The above firm announce to their old friends, and the public generally, that they have been making extensive improvements in their establishment, and have added an immense, choice and well selected stock of

Groceries, Wines & Liquors, CHINA, GLASS AND EARTHENWARE.

Further, they have assorted up the former stock of Fancy Goods, with all the latest novties. Also, School Books, Stationary and General Literature, &c., &c.,

The public can rely on getting the very best value for their money in or out of this County. as the above goods have been purchased on the most advantageous terms, and in the cheap est markets. They hope, by a course of fair, straightforward and honest dealing, to merit large and prosperous share of public patronage.

SPECKAL.

Come all and be Convinced.

ELLIS & MCMASTER.

N. B.-Parties requiring Wines or Liquors for medicinal purposes can rely on getting them pure and unadulterated. Georgetown, March 7th, 1870.

Milton, March 30, 1870.

('all and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Insolvent Acts of 1864 & 1869. List

REMAINING in the Post Office, at Milton, In the County It up to the 1st July, 1870. CANADA, Loggie, Miss Irene McDougall, Mrs. Co. of Halton. McGillon, John IN THE MATTER OF EPHRAIM CHAP- Begs, Robert

Nassagaweya, July 9th, 1870.

Melosh, George Ponson, William AN INSOLVENT. Disher, Chas. Perkins, William Weatherald, J

ON Wednesday, the tenth day of August ) under the said Acts.

next, the undersigned will apply to Gardner, John the Judge of the said Court for a discharge | Isbister. Malcolm Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say they are advertised.

Work Warranted. Send on your orders to PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, T. D. HARRISON, Nelson P. O.

&c., &c.