A CARD.

S the business we have carried on so satisfactorily to ourselves and the public for the last seven years has now changed hands, we cannot let this opportuni pass without returning our sincere thanks for the patronage which has been so liberally be stowed on us. Our aim has always been to sell goods cheap, without loss to ourselves, and where we bought cheaper than others (as was often the case), we gave our customers their share of the benefit. By doing business in this way, and by dealing justly and honorably with the public, we have increased our business to an extent hitherto unknown in this par of Canada. We can confidently recommend our successors as men who will do business to the full satisfaction of the public, and with further thanks for all past favors.

> We remain, &c., BARCLAY & McLEOD.

Georgetown, January 10th, 1871.

EFERRING to the above card, we beg to say that in purchasing the business of Messrs. Barclay & McLeod, we do so with a determination to uphold the reoutation earned by them, and to obtain and deserve the esteem of the public. Action speak louder than words, and we only ask the public to give us a trial. We are at present clearing out the balance of our winter stock at reduced rates in order to clear our shelves. our resident buyer in Europe having advised us of the purchase of several lines of spring goods. We offer special bargains in Silks, Furs and Cottons, of which we have large stocks We have also piles of Dress Goods, Merinos, Flannels, Cloths and Clothing; these we offer chean for CASH. NO SECOND PRICE. We have only one word more to say-we enjoy all the advantages possessed by the late firm in capital and business connections ; we can sell goods lower than most houses can buy them. This excites the envy and malice of petty dealers, who do all they can to injure and break down our trade; but as we know the pub lic have full confidence in us, we only say that we are satisfied to please them without trying to injure others, and we hope the liberal patronage accorded to our predecessors will be con-McLEOD, ANDERSON & CO. Georgetown, January 10th, 871
