A Sailor's Description of a Dance.

Haven't had any fun with the landlubbers till Friday night, at a dance. When I arrived at the Hall found 'em under way on a Spanish dance. Took my station in line with Susan Tucker -fell back and filled, then shot ahead two tathoms-hauled up on the star board tack to let another craft pass, and then came stern on another sail. spoke her, and bore round against the full chase. Passed twenty sail on the full chase. Passed twenty sail on the same course, and when half across to the other shore, dropt astern--fell back-couldn't fill, so let go anchor and hauled up for repairs. Next time I was drawn into the current by a cowtillion, but didn't make much headway -shot ahead with Betsey Stark, and sailed over to the other coast. Took a turn opposite range abreast twice towards other crafts, and back astern again-moved round to starboardpassed near partner's lights, and made sail for berth. Third time ran me into port to the tune of the tempest, the Yankee tar's favorite. A few weeks since the Rev. Dr. Mpaster of the High Church Baptist congregation, in one of the thriving cities of New Jersey, received the following note: "Dear Doctor,-You would greatly oblige one of your parishoners if, at at an early day, you would preach on Ecclesiastes iii. last clause of the 4th verse-' A time dance." On the following Sabbath evening the Reverend Doctor created quite a sensation in his congregation; by reading the note, and adding: "When I shall have become fully satisfied that the important duty of dancing is neglected in my congregation, rest assured I will give all needed admonition on the subject."

TE would embrace this opportunity of respectfully tendering our sincere thanks to our customers and friends in Halton for past favors, and would advise that our stock is now complete in all the departments, and will be renewed during the season by fresh importations every fortnight. During this season we have changed the mode of conducting our business by abandoning the old worn out credit system. We will run no book accounts, but will sell for cash only (or exchange for farmer's produce) and by this means we will be able to sell goods from 5 to 10 per cent, cheaper than on the credit system. We feel satisfied that our stock, as a whole, will compare favorably with that of any other house in the trade this season, and we have also succeeded in procuring some lines, which are extra value, that cannot always be obtained. Dur stock of Clan Plaid Dress Goods is choice, and varies in price from Se to 65c per yard : Red Flannels from 25c to 50c; Winceys from 8c to 45c; Scotch Fin. ering Yarns, all shades, at 10c per skein; Zephyr Nubias from 25c to 31 50; all wool Tweeds, good at 60c per yard Best Tea 95c per lb; 11 lbs Sugar for $1. In Millinery, Mantles, Shawls, Flowers, Feathers, Ribbons, Fringes, Laces, Velvets, &c., our stock is second to none in the County. We invite your careful inspection before making your selections elsewhere.
