DS

Matheson & Keeling,

Proprietors.

if not so paid, $2 will be charged.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

and two cents per line for each subsequent ments inserted for extended periods.

insertion.

Eight cents perline for the first insertion,

Business Cards of eight lines or less $4

tions inserted till forbid, and charged ac-

Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any ndividual or company, to be considered an Avertisement, and charged accordingly.

Business Directorn

TAC MILLS, FIRE AND LIFE IN

DOBERT DOLMAGE, ISSUER OF

TITILLIAM LAIDLAW, BARRISter, etc., Milton. Money to loan. 32

THE H. YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR-

o for the sale of Marriage Licenses.

VV . Surgeon and Accoucheur. Office and

• ter, &c. Office-Corner of Main and esidence, at his drug store Main-st., Milton

TOHN DEWAR, Jr., BARRISTER

County Crown Attorney, Notary Public, &c., &c., Town Hall, Main street, Milton.

WITILLIAM A. AGAR, HOUSE PAINT.

Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyancer,

TOOBERT SWANTON APPELBE, BAR-

It rister, Attorney and Solicitor in Chancery, Oakville. Official Assignee for the

J. C. GREENE, BARRISTER AND

. Attorney-at-Law, Solicitor in Chan-

Office-In Town Hall, Milton, County

er, Glazier and Paper Hanger. Shop

McGIBBON, Attorney-at-Law,

11 Marriage Licenses, Palern e.

surance Agent.

January 17th, 1871.

Church streets, Georgetown.

on Martin street, Milton.

Halton. * Money to loan.

forenoon and Saturday afternoon.

extracting teeth without pain.

hand, for sale for cash or wool.

October 25th, 1869.

Zimmerman, Nov. 1, 1870.

DASTEDO & SOVEREIGN, Sur-

Dentists. 34 James Street, lover

M. D. Healey's Dry Goods Store), Hamilton,

JOHN NEWTON & SONS.

WOOLEN MANUFACTURERS, LIME

ZIMMERMAN, DENTIST,

Still practices his profession at Zimmerman (Nelson Township). Persons at a distance will please address him a few days before

Motel Cards.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL,

MAIN STREET, MILTON, GEORGE

Clarkson, Proprietor. Best brands of wines, liquors and cigars. Good stables and driv-

Bronte Station Hotel.

E. DeGarme,

unremitting attention to guests still continue to mark the management of this

MILTON, ONT

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Pub

on the corner of Main and Brown Streets

L lie that he has moved to his new Hotel

JOHN WALLACE

ing shed, and attentive hostler.

brands of liquors and cigars.

is in attendance.

sentive hostlers.

Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Fulled Cloths,

Ont. Nitrous Oxide Gas administered

County of Halton.

THURSDAY MORNING of each week, at Milton, Halton County,

INTELLIGENCER. HALTON

TERMS-$1 a year in advance, or within | VOLUME 10. one month from the date of subscribing, NUMBER 39.

MARCH 23. 1871.

Motel Cards.

Drumquin Hotel.

The number of lines to be reckoned by THE subscriber having lately taken the space occupied, measured by a scale of possession of this Hotel, respectfully solicits a share of public patronage. The best A liberal discount allowed on advertise- brands of liquors and cigars kept. and every attention paid to guests. JAMES MASON.

Advertisements without specific instruc- 25-ly ROSSIN HOUSE, ACTON.

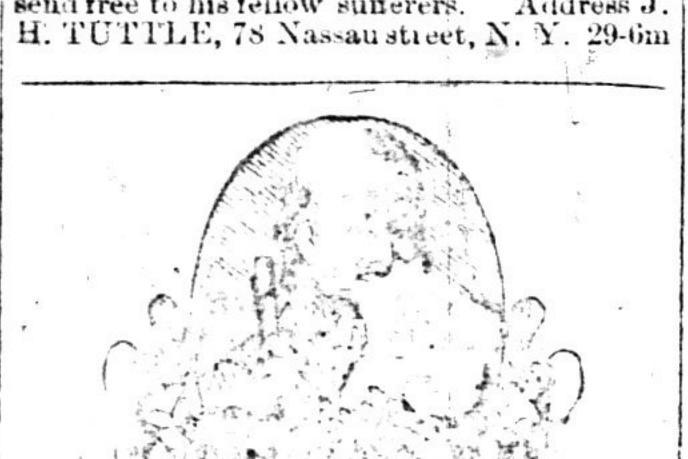

HE SUBSCRIBER BEGS TO INFORM the public that he has the above named withn 150 yards of the Acton Station, G. T. R., and from his experience in Hotel at- for Wool attendance, both in England and Scotland, flatters himself that by strict attention to the wants of the travelling community, that he will make his house one of the most popular in the County of Halton. No pains shall be spared in providing the best brands of Liquors and fare for the table, as well as careful hostlery. Travellers call and try. JAS. CAMPBELL

EVERRAPIN RESTAURANT AND BIL-LIARD ROOMS, 87 and 89 King St. W . riage Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak- East, Toronto,

Acton, March 1st, 1869

THOS. CARLISLE, proprietor TAMES A. FRAZER, LICENSED AUC. The most elegant, spacious and comforttioneer for the County of Helton. Resi- able Restaurant in Canada. Meals supplied at all hours. Wines, Liquors and Cigars of the finest brands. Shell and can E. N. ORR, Proprietor, MURRAY, Stewarttown, Agent ovsters in every style. For Parties visit-30-ly commodation at the Tarrapin. H. STREET, M. D. PHYSICIAN, Toronto, April 28th, 1870.

G. MATHESON, B. A., BARRISsend free to his fellow sufferers. Address J

TURE OF BRONCHITIS.

cery, Notary Public, &c., &c., Wellington Square. Money to loan on moderate terms. C. CHAMBERLAIN, Esq. - This is to cer tify that about three years ago I became afflicted with Bronchitis, which lasted about ROBERTSON, M. D., C. M., GRAD- eighteen months. I was so afflicted for the BEST U. uate of the University of McGill Col. want of breath that it was very difficult for lege, Montreal, Milton, Ont. Office and resi- me to speak, and in the night time frequently dence, one door south of the Post Office, Fos- throwing the clothes off and raising in the cheaper machines. The Feed can be raised B. WINN. M. B., GRADUATE OF Northumberland for about a year without re- desired pressure, without which you cannot L. the University of Toronto, Haltonville, ceiving any benefit. In fact I continued Nassagaweya. Consultation day-every getting worse all the time. At last I was I bought a bottle and took it, and when it Q R. LISTER, DIVISION COURT was finished I began to feel a little better.

Clerk, Commissioner in Queens Bench, continued to use it until I had taken three its place. It makes very little noise—doing a Licensed Auctioneer, Accountant, &c., Nas- bottles, when, to my satisfaction, I found clarger range of work than any other. See it. that I was as well as ever I had been previous try it, test it. Satisfaction guar teed. to my illness, and have been so ever since. DR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON, CON-

Sworn before me, at Smithfield, this 6th sulting Physician and Surgeon. Office hours—From 8 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2, and 7 to 8 J. M. WELLINGTON, J. P. p. m., daily. Consultation days-Tuesday

WONDERFUL CURE OF LUNG DISEASE. BROOKLYN, April 5th, 1870. J. C. CHAMBERLAIN, Esq., STR, -This is to certify that my wife was very low with Lun; 52-ly Disease. The doctor had given her up. said her lungs were tubercled, and medicine could not help her. As a last resort, I pur-Remedy. At the expiration of two days her house, Halton, Ontario. Custom Carding, symptoms were decidedly better. She con- GEORET CATA Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done. tinued to improve so rapidly that by the time she had taken one bottle she was able to sit Satinets, of their own make, always on By the continuance of the remedy she

You may publish the facts for the benefit of season.
those similarly afflicted. r. c. brown,

STOP AND SEE HEfollowing remarks on Testimonials of most wonderful and extraordinary cures in Canada by the Great Indian Remedy. They are stern, undeniable and incontestible facts, sufficient to convince E. BURGER, PROPRIETOR. THIS Compound, yearned after for ages, is now moderate.

well known Hotel, lately occupied by accessible in the Mr. Addison Hagar, has been thoroughly re fitted, and the proprietor respectfully solicits | GREAT SHOSHONEES REMEDI his predecessors. The tables will be well fur- For Disease of the Throat, Lungs, Liver Digestive Organs, Kidneys, &c., as well as nished, and the bar stocked with the best Scrofula, the various Skin Diseases, Humors, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood, we boldly state that this great remedy has never been equalled Where was there ever such a cure as that HATTER & FIRM of the Lake View Hotel, Wellington Square, begs to announce to his numerous in the person of Wilson Storms, of Brighfriends that he has thoroughly refitted the ton, C. W., of Consumption; or that of Bronte Station Hotel, where he hopes by Peter C. V Miller, of Erenstown, C. W. of careful attention to merit a share of their Consumption; or that of Ambrose Wood, patronage. The best brands of Wines, Liof Consecon, C. W. of Dyspepsia and Livquors and Cigars at the bar, and a well stocked er Complaint; or that of John losey, Napanee, C. W., of Rheumatism, who had actually been on crutches for years, in spite of all treatment heretofore, and i now well. Scores of such cases might be BURLINGTON HOTEL, WELLINGTON Square. Comfort, moderate charges, and

Call at the Drug-store and get a Circular of unquestionable certificates on the Great, Shoshonees Remedy and Pills, and satisfy first-class Hotel. The Stables and Yards are very extensive, and a careful Hostler Price of the Remedy, in large Pints. $1.00.

Wellington Square, Oct 24, 1867. 20-ly Bronte Stage. ExchangeHotel MARSHALL BROS.,

THOMAS CLARK, Georgetown, Ont. | AVING purchased the interest of Mr. John Bell in the Bronte Stage, USSES to and from the Station, regul. Stage leaves Milton daily at 5:45 a.m.. arly. Every attention paid to the and 2 p.m., and returning, leaves Bronte Station on the arrival of the trains at 9:45 a.m.

Wallace's New Hotel DIVISION COURTS

FOR THE YEAR 1871. Mar. May. July. Sept. Nov.

Judge Co. Halton, tion.

APER MANUFACTURERS! Goorgetown.

rinting and Wrapping Paper

W. Barber & Bros.,

Constantly on hand and made to order.

On the shortest notice Cotton Rags in any house for a term of years, which is situated quantity will be received at their Paper Mill

ONTARIO

Marble Works

GEORGETOWN AND ORANGEVILLE.

ng Toronto for a day will find every ac- TYTOULD respectfully solicit those in VV need of anything in the Marble line to give him a call, as he is prepared to give as good and cheap an article as any in the business, having personally selected his marble from the best works in the VOID QUACKS .- A VICTIM OF | United States, and will continue to give early indiscretion, causing nervous de-satisfaction. Having on hand a splendid bility, premature decay, &c., having tried in assortment of all kinds of Marble for vain every advertised remedy, has discovered | Monuments, Headstones, Tembstones, a simple means of self cure, which he will Posts, Table Tops, Mantlepieces, and everything named in Marble.

Georgetown, Mar 17th, 1869. 40-tf

THE BEST BY ALL ODDS IN THE market; has more good features, gives better satisfaction, and has a larger sale than any other ever made. It sews almost twice as fast as the Howe and cheaper machines, while its bobbin holds nearly double the amount of thread. Its Works are Neatly Encased, So as to save a vast amount of cleaning, making it run easier and wear longer-worth. easily $10 to a sewing machine. Its Presserbar, Needle-bar, Shafts, Shuttle, Feed-dog. Throats, etc., are of the REFINED STEEL Not made of the saftest iron wire as in the We fondly hope the lov'd and loving pair

ITS STITCH REGULATOR For, though we now dwell in this wished-for

W. LESLIE, Georgetown HUGH M'KAY

General Grocer and

MAIN STREET,

Everything in the line kept in Georgetown, 24th June, 1868.

ITAVING leased the Blacksmith Shop for-II merly occupied by W. R. Brown, on Guelph Street, Georgetown.

Is now prepared to do all kinds of general

Carriage and Waggon Making.

He has also secured the services of FIRST-CLASS HORSE-SHOER

All work warranted. Georgetown. Februarv16th, 1870.

MILTON,

Has just received his Consisting of

in mink, and all other kinds, At low prices.

Cash Paid for Raw Furs. by calling forth little exertion save J. BASTEDO. Milton, January 2nd, 1871

MAKER,

Georgatown. A large and well assorted stock of AND JEWELLERY Of all descriptions, constantly on hand. * * All work guaranteed to give satisfac-

POETRY.

The Royal Marriage.

WRITTEN FOR THE "CHAMPION. Swell high the theme, how legendary thrall, By Britain's noble Queen, is rent and torn; How lovingly, before the nations all,

She yield's Louisa to the Lord of Lorn. His graces caught the mother's tenty e'e; Punctilious Prussia now may vainly frown. Though subject born, a consort prince he'll be

The wall of demarcation's broken down. in return for cash Highest price in cash paid That wall, all reckless of true-hearted love, Has rendered many a royal maid forlorn; It may not henceforth adamantine prove-

Well may the Campbells toss their bonnets | this Christmas ?"

Their Chieftain's son weds near the British

A breach is entered by the man of Lorn.

Nor would we seek their triumph to decry, For exultation is not all their own.

Yes, proud may be the great McCallum More, And proud may be the lowliest of his clan, And proud may be auld Scotia's western shore, Since royalty adopts a Campbell man.

Yet not alone in Inverary's halls, Do wassails hold, or plaudits rend the air,

For choicest blessings on the happy pair. o rival clanship scowls with envious frown; The tartans all blend in a generous sheen; nd Celt and Saxon pray that pure renown May grace them as it has the Mother Queen. ask ?"

True patriots glory -faction's voice is hushed, As the high actors play their several parts, And tyrant Custom on the ground lies crushed, As Cupid welds his chain round loving Jack, with innocent coolness.

An Empire joins in wishing health and peace of course," answered Tom, rummag-To fair Louisa and the peer of Lorn; hat with them mutual love may still increase, nat no domestic strife may intervene l'o cast a shadow o'er their future lives, To mar the hopes of our most virtuous Queen, That best of sovereigns and that best of

And princely virtues both their lives adorn.

I we Canadians, from our distant wild, wives.

A loving lord—an Albert o'er again. Will visit this Dominion of the throne.

That Lorn may prove to dear Victoria's child

And aid to save the chain from rust's impair That binds us to the land we call our own.

Enjoying all the rights of Briton's free,

With joy we'd hail the daughter of our Queen, And gladly welcome, too, the lad or Lorn;

Who gave Louise the husband of her heart.

Which men of Saxon blood can never tine, Though oft 'tis dampened by politic ire.

Through all our borders, reaching far and There's sweet remembrance of the mother low fill the "quaigh" to fealty bold and true, And let the toast right through the sea be Canadian Scotsmen, in pure mountain dew,

MAGGIE'S SECRET.

Drink to "Louisa and her Lord of Lorn."

receipt of thirty stamps. Name. age, and sex must be given, with a slight description of personal appearance. Address Signor Morgani, &c., &c."

"And this is your advertisement, Morgan! Ah, well —I suspect your swer such an advertisement?" dupes are principally old maids and school-girls." vou do me a favor!"

paper with a peal of laughter. He was very handsome, with fine dark eyes, that sparkled beneath the long himself from about a dozen, he laid it lashes with almost boyish glee. The person addressed, known in the advertising columns as the Signor Morgani, was no other than a certain plain Tom Morgan, a regular slipshod, careless fellow, who, after trying his hand at various trades, and failing in all had finally hit upon the above mode, which gratified his indolent disposition, his father. The young men had grasped hands with her pretty head a little on one and clinging crepe, shivering with state of mute resignation. Nothing art the thief, or thou couldst not have cordially enough when they recogniz- side, was trying the effect of a scarlet fright at every wail of the wintry he could say would astonish her now. ed each other, and soon after adjourn- geranium among the ambrosial puffs wind howling round the house. ed to the lodgings of Morgan, to have of hair. Of course Miss Barton wore a "Oh that I had never written to only answered. "Do I?"

a talk over old times.

confided to his friend his present mode of living, with strict injunction to keep it a profound secret; "as of course, of course, it a profound secret; "as of course, of course, it a profound secret; "as of course, of course, of course, it a profound secret; "as of course, o prove my ruin if known."

thing scamp, Tom," said he

"And you were always a lucky dog, to associate the stripling of grand- heart, Maggie st and shivered another Jack." returned Tom. "By-the-by, father's picnic with the elegant, mouswhat are you going to do with yourself tached young gentleman before her.

style at the jolliest place in Christen- top of which reposed the most stylish dom," replied Jack. "They have not of Newmarkets, in company with seen me at Barby Holt for eight years, graceful vase with drooping flowers. and I expect grandmother and the an ample curtain, and a bookcase fill rest of them will go mad with joy ed all with the gems of literature, com when I make my sudden appearance posed the background. Miss Maggie

With this flattering conclusion Mr. | tion. Jack Carleton elevated his legs till his Throughout fair Scotland, peer to peasant feet reposed on the mantle-piece.

"Only that I had a letter from there of the girls know it. Of course I am another. to-day," replied Ton.

"Why, concerning my advertisment

ing among some papers. "Ah, one of my grandmother's guests, I suppose in for a lark," said tween the pages of a copy of Lara, and Jack. "What's his name?" hastened down.

"It is not a man," replied Tom; There were merry doings at Barby "she signs herself 'Maggie Barton'" Holt that night. Sqire Martin Barby, and Miss Barton, with the awful secret It was a short letter, in a girlish or Grandfather Barby, as the young locked in her breast, went too, for handwriting, describing herself as tall people-children of his many sons and fear of exciting surprise. and slight, with golden hair and haze | daughters - always called the old gen-With every nerve would echo back the eyes, and requesting to be favored tleman, and Lady Ursula, his highwith a carte-de-visite of her future hus- bred genial dame, always gathered a in his element. All the time he was girl Jack Carleton would have chosen band, by return of post of course. En- large company around them at Christ- joining in the dancing and games his for a wife, if he had waited to form an

Carleton held the letter up before and who could make such mince-pies pondent. A dozen times he thought occasion to repent, for Maggie was his eyes after he had read it. The and turkey-stuffing as grandmother's he recognised her in some fair yellow- the sweatest and tenderest of wives. writer's name, "Maggie Barton," was old housekeeper at Barby? associated with a pleasant picture in Well, as I said, there were grand feature altered his opinion. "I'm sure this young man's mind. Long ago, on | doings at the Manoron Christmas Eve. | I should know her," he said to hima bright summer day, in the woods, Lady Ursula in her black velvet and self, "though all the girls are exactly the sunlight glancing through the Mechlin lace, and the squire in his low alike." Of those who erewhile crossed the raging boughs, fell on the gay figures of a pic- shoes and silver buckles, led off the Mr. Carleton's eyes, therefore, did nic party. One figure in particular stately country dance from the top of double duty; and presently, when a seemed very plain in his memory; it the hall; the married sons and daugh- pale girl, with a drooping geranium in was that of a girl about twelve years ters came next, then the young people, her hair, entered in the rear of a We'd show with pride our vastly sylvan scene, old, with her golden hair falling from the children, and "Grandfather's dozen, more, down went Mr. Carleton's A boy being praised for shaewd-And "couthy homesteads from the forest under the broad brim of a sun-hat guests," as all who were not relatives glass of sherry; and forgetting the ness in replying, a person remarked with blue ribbons. He could see her were styled by the rest. And loudly would we raise the grand refrain distinctly now. The graceful figure The dancing was at its height; the an energetic. "That's lier!" burst quently turned out that in after life That echoes from her Empire's every part— raised on tip-toe, to reach some un- holly and ivy quivered on the pannels, from his lips. "God Save the Queen," and happily may she attainable flower or fruit. the white and the oak floor was becoming more arms reaching high, the beseeching and more slippery; when unannounced. inquired his astonished companion. eyes under the shadow of the hat-- and with a powdering of snow on his "That's? Why-she-will you joined the boy. Our cousins, too, who live besouth the line, and this was Maggie Barton! Then cloak, a tall figure dashed among the take some negus, Mrs. Allerton?" he The method of making a bowl of Would straight call up the ancient smould- he, a tall lad of seventeen, easily dancers, seized the squire's hand, and said, suddenly recollecting; but his oyster soup that can be retailed for reaching the coveted treasure, caught wrung it violently, fell on Dame Ur- eyes were following Miss Barton, and five cents, four of which will be profit,

Would welcome get o'er all Columbia's claim it?" Jack," was the careless reply, as she after the first moment he returned the spree! Lemonades? Yes, madam, broke away and joined her compan- grasp with a hearty "God bless you. I'll fetch you some." And he dared

But the very next day Jack depart- come to Barby, grandson," said the to that part of the room for some ed, without a kiss, for a continental kindly voice of Dame Ursula, albeit time education; and as you see, Maggie some tears of joy shone in her soft Barton's name was almost one of the eves. first to cross his path on his return.

And so she was one of his grand- from twenty mouths, and the favorite father's guests at Barby, and he (Jack) grandson threw aside his cloak, and lady standing near the fire-place and would see her in less than forty eight flung away his hat to shake hands talking to my grandmother?" "MARRIAGE.—The great astrologer, hours; and standing there, with her with all the aunts and uncles, and Signor Morgani, will return a correct letter in his hand, a scheme entered many of the guests who remembered sir that's Miss Barton, sir. She recently, one of which was an the most skeptical that the Great Medical And will guarantee satisfaction. Charges likeness of your future partner upon this young man's head worthy of him. such a reckless fellow as he was.

"I'll do it," he thought, "I don't care for anyone else. and of course she is not engaged; why did she an "Morgan," he said suddenly, "wil

The speaker, a young man about "Anything you like," replied the five-and-twenty, threw down the local | Signor, in a preoccupied tone. Jack drew an envelope from his pocket, and selecting one likeness of

> "Morgan" said he, "I want you to send this to Miss Barton, in answer t her application; and I mean it shall come true, old boy."

the exercise of that literary ingenuity forthcoming ball. She was tall, and prophecy. the exercise of that interary ingentity of which he possessed a large share. you would think stately, till you saw Not the folds of her crepe dress himself. He was apt to be carried having had a bag of eagles (coins) He had formerly been a school friend her face; and the piquant expression looked whiter than her face; all the away by poetical enthusiasm at times. stolen from his counter while he stepof Jack Carleton's, who, an hour or two laughter of the lip led you to suppose for her, and a sickly feeling of super. While the rest were pressing around before the eneming of this story had laughter of the lip led you to suppose for her, and a sickly feeling of super. before the opening of this story, had laughter of the lip led you to suppose for her, and a sickly feeling of super- while the rest were pressing around WATCH & CLOCK fallen in with him on his return from she was more than dignified; and if stitious terror possessed her, and the the burning dish, Jack made a bold a prolonged Continental tour, under- your observation extended to her con- spirited girl was now a faint, drooping strike. taken nominally for the benefit of his duct for a whole evening, I am sorry figure, with only just strength enough "Do you know you owe me a kiss, health, but more possibly to help to to say you would be compelled to to creep up stairs to her bed-room, Miss Barton?" get rid of the large income left him by acknowledge her just a little "fast."

you see, old fellow," said he, "it might and drew from beneath a book-cover he is not terrible for he looks very nice. were all consumed, it seemed the

"You were always a good for-no- ory; and even had she remembered good care they never do." the name it would have been difficult With this thrilling secret at her

In truth he was elegant. Leaning rushing in. "Why to spend it in the jolliest against a carved pedestal, upon the

Barton surveyed it with satisfac-

"So this is my future husband according to the astrologer," said Miss "Barby Holt Manor, in Nottingham- Barton. "The gipsy woman said I "He's the son of grandfather's Contibent, Mr. Carleton took Miss shire?" inquired the Signor, sud- should marry a curate. Pshaw! what eldest daughter, and she is dead, so Barton in to supper, and joined in the an idiot I am to have written such a the old gentleman thinks worlds of festivity just as if nothing had hap-"The very same, old boy," said fool's letter! I daresay 1 am duped him," said a matter-of-fact young pened out of the common: He was companion. "Why do you along with many others. I wish I had lady, adjusting her chignon. "I have a dupe, and I suppose the very exis-"A letter! What about?" inquired tance of this piece of elegance is a a regular jolly fellow, Mary. I never myth. More fool I." The carte was held off to be viewed anxiously around, one would think he > good, certainly." With another look she placed it be jollier Christmas than at the Manor my boy! welcome home!" and "Wel- away, fully determined not to return

"Cousin Jack! Cousin Jack!" came

And one of these guests, seated under the holly decorations of a great oak panel, leant her white, terror stricken face against the wooden work, and pressed the slender gloved hand against a heart beating strangely

"Wha! can it mean?" she thought. placed him at her side. "Miss Barton handed, a beautiful young lady whom -"Why am I so struck at the appearance of an utter stranger?"

TERMS.--$1 in Advance. Credit $2. MATHESON & KEELING, Proprietors: chignon,—all young ladies do, now-a- that terrible astrologer, that horrid, It was during this talk that Morgan days—and a long curl behind her left mysterious man! Fancy the very came more reconciled to the existing a carte-de-visite and the gentleman Oh, it is dreadful? I have heard of Jack, however, did not see how his on the card was Mr. Jack Carleton. | Such things as fates in the stars, told Mr. Carleton to place her hand upon friend could be in a greater state But, of course, Maggie did not know by wise men, but I never believed it. ruin than he appeared to be at this. The very existance of such a I do now though. How fortunate it is person had long ago escaped her mem- that nobody knows it? I will take > twenty minutes. Then came footsteps, followed by a troop of girls been?" cried one. "We wanted you for a cushion dance."

"Oh Maggie, where are you? Have you seen grandpapa's pet-such romantic stir when he arrived!' exclaimed a rosy girl, with forget-me-nots in her hair. "And he's adorable!" said a third. "He's a dear," chimed in another. collected manner, acquired on the not written. It is a good thing none heard he is a terrible scamp," said "Rubbish!" said another. "He is saw such eyes; and gazing so in a more favorable light. "Very was looking for somebody."

And he was, you know, reader. The girls' fingers had been as busy as their tongues, and wreaths being settled to their satisfaction, they made a move to go down to play snap-dragon;

Meanwhile Mr. Jack Carleton was lessness, she was hardly the sort of a closed in the envelope was the fee of mas. And where could you spend a eyes were diligently seeking amongst opinion; but he acted upon impulse; the guests for the signor's fair corres- and, strange to say, he never had haired lady, till some unfamilir But her secret was her secret for ever-the wilful beauty by the hair, saying, sula's neck and gave her a hearty kiss he scarcely heard the reply. "That's is as follows: Take five Baltimore "You owe me a kiss for this, Maggie. before any one had time to think her !- yes I'm sure of it. How scared oysters, photograph; add five gallons of JOHNG. HARLEY, Victoria, and her sons and daughters dear. Will you pay whenever I choose to what the disturbance could be she looks!—There's something unpleasant on her mind, I wonder if she "I'll pay you a dozen, if you like, But the squire's eyes were keen, and got my carte. Ha! Ha! what a dislike to the species of conversation

A servant was standing near the door and Mr. Carleton addressed him

"What is the name of that young "With the red flower in her hair.

Jack worked his way dexterously peared the editor was horrified to see round the room, and by the time he the obituary notice headed "A Good was within ear-shot of the young lady Joke," while the funny anecdo'e was there was a cry to put out the lights prefixed with the caption, "A Sad for shap-dragons; and while they went out with a whiff, a sharp spring A wealthy backelor married, off

-Maggie-how do you do?"

And yet it was not a stranger. The fire, just enough for him to see the within forty rods of the stove departface of the favored grandson was the shiver his words caused. She raised ment for the crowd of pretty girls. one whose image lay between the her dark eyes, with a shade of dis- The following words actually formed leaves of her Lara, up stairs. Ah, pleasure overcoming her fear; but of the peroration of the counsel's plea Maggie, it is dangerous to have course he could not see that, and he for his client in an assault and battery dealings with astrologers. Here was continued to murmur nitelligible no- case in Athens, Alabama: "Let the the girl, who had answered a my- things, till in common politeness, she humble ass crop the thistle of the sterious advertisement for mere fun's was bound to murmur intelligible valley! Let the sagacious goat browse It was Christmas Eve, and Miss sake, astonished and terrified beyond nothings back again. But of course upon the mountain's crown, but, gen-Maggie Barton was putting the last measure at what seemed the sudden the ice had to be broken. "I shal tlemen of the jury, I say John Gundl touches to her evening toilet for the realization of the astrologer's mute arrive at the deep waters of friend- is not guilty." ship by-and-by," said Mr. Carleton to where she crouched down before the The experience of the last few so to this remarkable question she

"Do you? Why yes, Mag Don't you remember Jack Carleton?" "Are you Jack Carleton ?" Cume from lips that were returning to their atural colour.

altered?" Perfect astonishment and silence-"And you owe me a kiss." Jack continued; "you remember that don't you, Maggie? I'm going to was taken in the dark, while the rest were burning their fingers, and then shricking in the usual senseless way endured. Here was the young gentleman—a stranger for years—taking the most complete possession of her; and all the time his likeness was in her "Why, Maggie. where have you Lara as that of her future husband; so of course, when after about two golden hours, spent in each other's society, he requested the honor of her a hand what could she say but "yes;" -for was it not her fate as told by the > quite satisfied for his part. Maggie Barton was the prettrest girl in the room, an orphan with three hundred pounds a year in her own right, and the ward of Mr. Francis the husband fast young men call a "stunner." She was a pretty dancer, could sing songs ringing soprano voice, and play all the waltzes of the season. She was a good skater, could sit square in her salidle, handle a gun, or hit the bull's eye three times out of four at an archer's meeting. In fact I believe with all his care-

GLEANINGS.

they become dull and sturid, and vice water, season to suit the taste. known as "tattle." Once, when sitting in his room among some trifling visitors who were discussing the weather and such like interesting subjects, he burst forth with a-"We had pork for dinner to-day !" Dear! Mr. Puscoli what an odd remark!" exclaimed one. "Why," replied he, "it's as good as anything you've been saying for the

A Troy paper published two articles Announcement."

he caught inspecting cook-stoves at There was a little glow from the he fair. Since then you can't get have it now." Quick as thought an impromptu kiss that people do in these days.

> A Quaker brother in New York in his office, carelessly asked. "Have"

most natural thing in the world for his arm and march her off to a quiet corridor for a tete a tete, while the company in the great Hall were flying up and down to the tune of the Fiddler's Wife." What can't be cured must be carte by a wonderful astrologer? Of course she said yes. Then, in a perfectly cool and of the squire's second daughter. She -Miss Barton-was the sort of a girl of the "Barney O'Hea" school in a

The coming man- the boy baby. A cool proceeding—Skating. Best Potatoes for Planting-Raw lady by his side and Lindley Murray, that when children were sharp it fre-"That's who, Mr. Carleton!" versa. "You must have been a very sensible child, Sir, I should think," re-came with Mr. Frances and his obituary notice and the other a funny daughters. She was here last Christ. anecdote. The headings accidentally got changed, and when the paper ap-never mentioned the loss to anybody, but quietly bided his time. Several months afterwards, a neighbor being you ever heard anything about the bag of eagles that you lost?"-"Ah, She had dismissed her maid, and, fire, crumpled her mass of white lace hours had already reduced her to a John;" exclaimed the Quaker, "thou known anything about it!" The shrewd old Quaker was right, and the gold was restored, with interest.