Much amusement was created in Court by Mr. Boulton's remarks on the luxuriant whiskers of the younger defendant. Verdict for plaintiff for $255.

QUEEN vs. ANTHONY CAMPBELL.

This was an indictment for obtaining money from R. Thompson of Cumminsville upon false pretences with intent , to defraud. The evidence for the prosecution showed that Mr. Thompson was a mortgagee of a lot in Nassagawe it for about $300, and that Anthony Campbell and Thomas Campbell were prior mortgagees for about $1200, and interest. An abstract from the Registry office was prod seed, and the title explained, and it a peared that so far as the County records were concerned Cayuga Junior Mowing Machine. season. the mortgages to the Campbell's were good subsisting mortgages; but that Abell, Woodbridge, and are nearly new. by a proceeding in the Court of Chancery they might have been foreclosed 51-2t. and declared to form no incumbrance on the property.
