BASE BALL BADNESS -- Guesphowns the "champion" base ball club of Oakville Ontario. It is a good thing to have in a house, is a champion base ball club; and the town that own one is proud of it. It makes the people hold up their heads and talk about fly catches and foul bounds and things, and lets them know what "F. B." and "H. L." and "L. B." and many such things mean, and to look pityingly at folks who TOWNSIIP OF TRAFALGIR don't know. Guelph, as we have said, has a champion base ball club, and its people put on more airs about it than a hen over a brood of young ducks, and they patronize Torontonians, when they brag about their lunatic asylum, they brag about their lunatic asylum, the worst way. Guelph now stands Lalie Ontario on a par with Tonawanda, which possesses the "champion" pancake eater, and with Philadelphia, which glories in the champion rat-biter, and with-well, no, we don't think any DUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given place is very proud of Weston, the L that on the champion failure as a walkist. But the trouble with Guelph is that she is ambitious to be known as having the 1st DAY OF AUGUST NEXT, worst. She got up a match the other day between men who never played before, and the beaten side intends to challenge the Dominion if not the world for the championship of badness. But its no use gentlemen: we can pick a nine in Hamilton that can beat you all to smithereens. Such duffers you never saw. Other things may stick to their fingers, but a ball won't; they may get to their first base easily enough (anything that's base suits) them), but they will never get away from it. As for running, they are solemnly pledged to run for or from nothing but the constable; the only bat they know how to use is a brickbat; and each member habitually wears one in his hat.
