OFFICE, ON MAIN STREET.

Proprietor.

TERMs-$1 a year in advance, or within one month from the date of subscribing, if not so paid, $2 will be charged. RATES OF ADVERTISING. Eighteents perlinefor the first insertio and two cents per line for each subsequent

Business Cards of eight lines or less $4 solid Minion. A liberal-discountallowed on advertisemontsinserted for extended periods. Advertisements without specific instructionsinserted till forbid, and charged accordingly Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any adividual or company, to be considered an dyertisement, and charged accordingly.

Business Directorn.

DOBERT DOLMAGE, ISSUER OF Marriage Licenses, Palern o.

TILLIAM LAIDLAW, BARRISter, etc.; Milton. Money to loan. 32 R. MITCHELL, BUILDER AND . Contractor, Milton, Ont. DEWAR, Issuer of Marriage

Licenses. Office-Town Hall, Mil HIT H. YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR-W. riage Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak-

MURRAY, Stewarttown, Agent for the sale of Marriage Licenses. anuary 17th, 1871. BURROWS, Licensed Auction-fice-Martin St., Milton. TO H. BIGGER, M. D., PHYSIcian, Surgeon, etc., Milton, Ont. G. MATHESON, B. A., BARRIS- I also specially request all parties indebted to ter, &c. Office-Corner of Main and me to call and settle their accounts. Church streets, Georgetown.

TOHN DEWAR, BARRISTER, County Crown Attorney, Notary Public, &c., &c., Town Hall, Main street, Milton.

WITTLLIAM A. AGAR, HOUSE PAINTer, Glazier and Paper Hanger. Shop on Mair street, Milton.

DOBERT SWANTON APPELBE, BAR. rister, Attorney and Solicitor in Chancery, Oakville. Official Assignee for the County of Halton. RS. D. & A. P. ROBERTSON. Milton, Ont. Office at their Drug Store, Main street. D. ROBERTSON, M. D., C.M.; A. P. ROBERTSON, M.D. J.C. GREENE, BARRISTER AND · Attorney-at-Law, Solicitor in Chancery, Notary Public, &c., &c., Wellington Square. Money to loan on moderate terms.

dence, one door south of the Post Office, Fosfer street B. WINN, M. B., GRADUATE OF

L. the University of Toronto, Haltonville, Nassagaweya. Consultation day-every Thursday. R. LISTER, DIVISION COURT Registry office, Milton, and has been very J. Clerk, Commissioner in Queens Bench, acensed Auctioneer, Accountant, &c., Nas-Debts collected on commission. TR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON, CON-U sulting Physician and Surgeon. Office hours-From 8 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2, and 7 to 8 p. m., daily. Consultation days-Tuesday forenoon and Saturday afternoon. McGIBBON, Barrister, Attorney-Conveyancer, &c. Office—in Town Hall, Milton, County Halton. . Money to lean.

JOHN NEWTON & SONS,

house, Halton, Ontario! Custom Carding, Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done. Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Fulled Cloths, Satinets, of their own make, always o hand, for sale for cash or wool. October 25th, 1869.

Motel Cards. Fountain Hotel,

II ILBRIDE, Charles Rasberry proprietor. A well stocked larder, best brands of liquors and cigars, and goo

ExchangeHotel

THOMAS CLARK, Georgetown, Ont. DUSSES to and from the Station, regularly. Every attention paid to the travelling public. Good stabling and at-Drumquin Hotel.

THE subscriber having lately taken possession of this Hotel, respectfully belicits a share of public patronage. The best grands of liquors and cigars kept, and every 25-ly JAMES MASON

Wallace House. TOHN WALLACE, PROPRIETOR, of Main Street, Milton, Ont. The Wallace House is the best in Milton. Travellers and The best wines and liquors. A careful hostler Plantendance. Stages leave daily for Bronte

Canadian Hotel,

TAVY STREET, OAKVILLE, Ontario, Commercial Travellers, Farm. ers and the travelling publicgenerally willfind this house just what they require. Call

F. CROOKS. Manager.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL, MAIN STREET, MILTON, GEORGE Clarkson, Proprietor. Best brands of wines, ing shed, and attentive hostler TARMER'S HOTEL, MILTON. GEO CGARVIN begs to inform the public that he has taken the above Hotel, and hopes 1 keeping none but the best brands of liquors cigars, and a first-class table, to obtain a fair share of patronage. Good Stabling and attentive Hostler. dilton, February 15th, 1872.

Office promptly attended to. Milton, February 14th, 1872.

dwarfied in the ii Champion # will please say they are advertised.

VOLUME II. NUMBER 40.

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON, THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1872.

J. D. MATHESON, Proprietor.

TERMS .-- $1 in Advance. Credit $2.

Bronte Stage.

MARSHALL BROS., The number of lines to be reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of Mr. John Bell in the Bronte Stage, respectfully ask for the patronage of the pubtion on the arrival of the trains at 9:45 a.m. and 5:45 p.m.

TXPEDITIOUSLY and properly se-Cured in Canada, the United States and Europe. Patent guaranteed or no charge. send for printed instructions. operation ten years. HENRY GRIST.

Ottawa, Canada, Mechanical Engineer, Solicitor of Patents, and Draughtsman.

have disposed of my store and 'premises | and stock in trade at Cumminsville, to Messrs. Hawkins & Little, who will continue the business in the old stand, and in retiring beg to tender my numerous friends and customers my grateful acknowledgments for their liberal patronage, and I respectfully solicit for my successors a continuance of the confidence and favor which I have enjoyed. ROBT. THOMSON.

Cumminsville, 30th November, 1871. N. B. -Being desirous of realizing the balance of my assets for investment in other usiness. I offer for sale, at a great bargain, my FLOURING MILL at Cumminsville.

driven by water power, with two run of stones, and now in excellent running order. ROBERT THOMSON

Being part of east half of Lot 12, in the 5th Con., Esquesing, containing 50 acres more or less. The above land is well wooded with Maple, Beech, Black Ash and some Oak. For particulars apply to PETER MACPHERSON

CHARLES WAUGH,

Georgetown. P. O.

Wagon Maker

GENERAL-BLACKSMITH,

MARTIN ST., MILTON. ROBERTSON, M. D., C. M., GRAD- and to the curing of corns and other diseases order to enable such persons who desire to

TRS. LITTLEJOHN,

A competent and trustworthy female nurse for the sick, (married ladies in particular,) is now in redness to attend those who require her services. She resides opposite the successful in her services for so far.

ZIMMERMAN

DENTIST.

PRACTICES HIS PROFESSON AT IF ZIMMERMAN, ONTARIO, 8 miles south of Milton, 16 miles North of Hamilton, 71 miles east of 'Kilbride, 4 miles west of Palermo. Zimmerman, February 27th, 1872.

INSOLVENT ACTOF 1869.

CANADA, PROVENCE OF UNTARIO.

County of Huron. IN the County Court of the County oril next the undersigned will apply t the Judge of the said Court for a Discharge R. MILLER. under the said Act. Dated at Oakville, this Twenty-seventh day of February, A. D. 1872.

JAMES ELLIOTT, Lby BENSON & MEYER. His Attorne s ad Litem.

For the Township of Nassagaweya. give notice that the Court of Revision and Appeal for said Township, will be held at the Town Hall, on Monday, the 8th day of April next ensuing this date,

Of which all parties interested are hereby requested to take notice. JOHN EASTERBROOK,

Township Clerk. Nassagaweya '18th March, 1872. 38-3t

THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS FOR

Sale, on Lot No. 3, 2nd Concession, N.S. Nelson, 400 Bushels of Prime Six Rowed

WILLIAM WILSON. Nelson, March 18th, 1872.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

MONEY to loan in sums to suit borrowers. No commission. JOHN DEWAR, Barrister.&c., Town Hall, Milton,

I IST OF LETTERS Remaining in the Georgetown Post Office n the 1st March, 1872.

McLellan O W Duval Margaret Shanhan Mrs M Jelly Edward V Smith Andrew Moot Mrs. Christeen Wheeler Andrew Persons calling for any of the above letters

GEORGETOWN, lic. Stage leaves Milton daily at 5:45 a.m.. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

DEALER IN Patents for Inventions Pianos, Organs,

> MELODEONS, Flour, Feed, Corn Meal and Chop Corn for From the celebrated Factories of R. S. Wil-

Change. Sewing Machines,

Of most reliable makes, as the Singer,

Clothes Wringers and Mangles, Odell's Royal Canadian-best in use.

(A large assortment). Books, Stationery, News, Music Books, etc., Fancy Goods, Wools.

Threads, etc., etc. W. LESLIE.

Georgetown, March 18th, 1872. HARD WOOD LAND FOR SALE. Where he will constantly keep on hand a I must not die of gloom—Waiter! a glass of porter!

Reduced Rates on Special North Carolina Tickets

Land Buyers,

Via New York Central and Hudson River Railway, and Northern Central

AND HORSE SHOER, TO MEET THE NECESSITIES OF Carolinas, the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. Co. have placed on sale at their Agency, 11 James Particular attention paid to horse shoeing | Street, Hamilton. Tickets at reduced rates, in U uste of the University of McGill Col- of the foot. All work done with skill and purchase Lands in the South the opportunity. lege, Montreal, Milton, Ont. Office and resi- dispatch. Charges very moderate. 6-ly 'at little expense," to make their own selec-

The following Reduced Rates will take effect on and after February 17th, 1872. Suspen, Bridge to Norfolk, Va., Am. C'y 318 75 Norfolk & Return " " Richmond, Va.,

Raleigh, N. C. Greensboro, N. C. " 36 45 Floor Cleaner. Return Tickets Good until used.

do and Return

For Tickets apply to CHAS. E. MORGAN. General Union Railway & Steamship Ticket

Office, 11 James Street, Hamilton. Agency for the following first class Lines. National Steamhip Company.

New York Central and Hudson River R. B. Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway. Also, J. &J. Taylor's Fire and Burglar-11 James Street, Hamilton, Ont. .. 37-3m

Farm for Sale

THAT VALUABLE FARM, BEING 10-46 parts of Lots 7 and 8. 2nd Concession, N. D. S., Nelson, containing by admeasurement 150 acres, more or less. First-class buildings TARM FOR SALE. and a good young orchard in capital bearing order. Twenty-five acres of pine and hard-Huron, in the matter of James Elliott, an | wood, the remainder cleared and well watered by a running stream. Terms easy. Ap- 181 ply to the undersigned. A. McBRIDE,

On the premises.

March 12th, 1872.

Nelson P. O.

NOTICE.

A S JOHN WILLMOTT IS ABOUT A to make a change in his business, he offers his stock of . House Furnishing Goods 29-3m* All parties indebted to him will please cal and pay up before the let of April. JOHN WILLMOTT.

Milton, March 20th, 1874. MAKER,

WATCH& CLOCK Georgetown.

A large and well assorted stock of WATCHES AND JEWELLERY Of all descriptions, constantly on hand. . All work guaranteed to give satisfac-

PAPER MANUFACTURERS!

Georgetown. ! Printing and Wrapping Paper

Constantly on hand and made to order. WOOL CARDING & CLOTH DRESSING Tuesday, 23rd of April, 1872 On the shortest notice. Cotton Rags in any quantity will be received at their Paper Mill Next, at the hour of TWELVE O'CLOCK.

DIVISION COURTS FOR THE YEAR 1872.

Jan. Mar. May. July. Sept. Nov. GEORGETOWN 30 NASSAG'EYA, 29

BRONTE

I HAVE leased these premises for a The wary, wise, and witty politician, term of years. Thorough repairs have To be fooled by Yankees, and cajoled by been made, and new machinery put in under Half-a-dozen unpretending Englishmen. my inspection, and the Mills are my win first | Perish my wits! I have forever lost class running order. Special atteff on given All that I ever cared for-my renown sale. Machinery in the mill for GRINDING CORN IN THE EAR.

GREAT

F. W. MILLS | minion | will be hurled from place and power for

Has given up hotel-keeping, and has opened-a TIN-SHOP

AND HARDWARE STORE IN Cumminsville

Stoves, Tinware, Glassware, Coal Oil and Hardware,

At the lowest cash prices. Chas. Hemmingway, Foreman.

F. W. MILLS. Agents,

Look at this.

Armstrong's Patent

Also, Agents wanted to cial Rights.

To whom liberal inducements are offered Apply personally to the undersigned, or, i v letter, to Bex 86, Milton P. O.

A. ARMSTR ING. BEING LOT NO. 5,

Containing by admeasurement 200 acres, more figure that wore it, for the freedom of for me, in case of a head-ache, and For terms and particulars apply to

THOMAS TURNBULL,

7th con., NS, Nelson

en that the Court of Oyer and Terminer and new plan. General Gaol Delivery, and Assizes, and Nisi

W. Barber & Bros., Court House,

WILL DE HOLDEN AT THE

ed a dreadful hardship to her, ed are required to take notice, and at-

G. CRAWFORD MCKINDSEY. SHERIF'S OFFICE, Milton, 13th March, 1872.

tend to:do and perform all duties which ap-

POETRY.

The Memorseful Solitoquy of Sir John

"Mrs. Davenport and mother are recat and bird live together as happily at the disrespectful manner in which as brother and sister," said Tolly, his engagement was treated, tried to turning to Maud who devoured every assume a superb air of indifference, O why signed I that treaty? I. John A. For cleverness. All men will henceforth snew, 'There goes the celebrated "Great Out-

Cash paid for Wheat. "O why left I my home?" Except for this I might have now retired from public life With some remaining shreds of dignity And haply with my country's gratitude. What am I now? No use to mask the word-A TRAITOR to the land which hourished me My countrymen confided in me.

JAS. SCOTT. What men term "oute." My former doubtful Were for the time forgotten. I at least Was a Canadian; and as Scotsmen say bird will seldom 'file it's ain clean nest.'" Alas! I am that loathsome bird: I've sold My country's valued and invaluable rights For scarce a decent mess of Yankee pottage t is a fatal blunder. Nothing now Can save me from my quick impending doom. Nor I alone! my colleagues, faithful dogs

> A few whore days, and like two mighty who quite burned to be known as a the eager thirst for knowledge of col Clad in the armour of the people's wrath Will come Mackenzie, and victorious Blake To finish me. Before the assembled House I will be called to answer for my treachery, And 'mid the rejoioungs of the whole Do- the first stops were taken. Besides, I

Has turned against me, and the name Mac-Stinks in the nostrils of both Grits and Tories. Ah! now I see, but see when 'tis too late That rectitude of conduct. after all. Is ever most successful, Edward Blake

AN OLD-FASHIONED GIRL.

while the rest hovered near, waiting fast and tea, quite independently. for a chance.

It was good to see her put both arms, interest in the affair. about his neck, and gave him a tender | "Thank you, but I don't need anykiss, that said a great deal, for grand- thing, for I brought all sorts of home how gray and old he had grown. If Tom had any thoughts of follow- goods and chattels, in a farmer's cart.

"I'm very glad to see you, Polly," she added, "I kept wishing I could parties will be quite out of the ques-Township, County, or Provin-ladding to himself, as he looked at the meet you, just to see your horrified face in the modest little bonnet: face when you saw me sitting on my little sofa, with boxes and bundles There was something more than round me, a bird-cage on one side. mere prettiness in Poll's face, though fishing-basket, with a kitten's head Tom had not learned to see it yet. popping in and out of the hole, on the The blue eyes were clear and steady; other side, and jolly old Mr. Brown, in the fresh mouth frank and sweet; the his blue frock, perched on a keg of white chin was a very firm one, in apples in front. It was a lovely

"Don't you dreadat?" asked Fanny, small boy sat on a fence and whooped. twenty, and he says I must treat him. "Not much; "why should I?" an- It was great fun, I do assure you." "Well, I don't know; . it's a new not because she shought her adventures | Maud, who regarded her brother as a thing, and must be a little bit hard at amounted to much, but from a wish to venerable being. first." stammered Fanny, not liking to cheer up her friends, who had struck say that working for one's living seem- her as looking rather dull and out of Polly, taking the news as a joke.

independence will be delightful, and if "Oh. Polly, you do tell such interest- surprise, while Tom struck an impos- The objects, as stated by the chairman I can save a little to help Kitty along ing things!" sighed Maud, wiping her ing attitude, and affected absence of at the organization, are to foster a Polly's face shone as if the prospect "I wish I'd met you. I'd have given was full of pleasure instead of work. you three cheers, for it must have been whisked round the corner when you and make them interesting in the sight saw me coming, or have stared straight perfectly satisfied," announced Mrs. before you, atterly unconscious of the "Who have you got for pupils?" young woman in the baggage-wagon.' asked Mrs. Shaw, forgetting her nerves Polly named her list. and took a used to do, when she said that, and in happiest man alive?" asked Tom.

said Mrs. Shaw, sitting erect in her

"The Davenports have been away word she said. some years, and I forgot all about them to set me going, so I just wrote and sation to him. asked Mrs. Dayenport Kashe would help me. She came and saw us and about; her brothers appreciate their pupils for me. like a dear, good wo- tone.

man as she is." wordly wisdom, Polly?" asked Mr. ma'am." answered Tom. Shaw, as his wife fell back in her chair. and took out her salts, as if this dis- to college?" broke in Polly, to avert cocoa, Mr Epps has provided our

I was covery had been too much for her. "I learnt it here, sir," answered Polly, laughing. "I used to think patronage and things of that sort very disagreeable and not worth having. but I've got wiser, and to a certain extent I'm glad to use whatever advantages I have in my power, if they can be honestly obtained." "Why didn't you let us help you in won't overwork himself and get. sick, the beginning? We should have been as so many boys do," Said simple glad to, I'm sure," put in Mrs. Shaw. Polly, with such a respectful belief in joint patroness with Mrs. Davenport. legians as a class, that Tom regarded "I know you would, but you have the deluded girl girl with a smile of all been so kind to me I didn't want lofty pity, from the heights of his yast

O, 'tis sad! Even my own old borough you like me well enough as plain And Tom's eyes twinkled as they turn it over or put a cushion on it "My dear, of course I would, and we want you to take Maud at once, and teach her sweet songs. She has > a fine voice, and is really suffering for A slight smile passed over Polly's face as she remembered a time when Mrs. Shaw considered her "sweet songs" quite unfit for a fashionable young lady's repertoire.

"Where is your room?" asked "My old friend Miss Mills has taken me in, and I am nicely settled .-Mother didn't like the idea of my going to a strange boarding house, so Miss Mills kindly made a place for me. "You dear thing, when did you You know she lets her rooms without come?" cried Fanny, kissing both the board, but the is going to give me my blooming cheeks with real affection, dinners, and I'm to get my own breaklike that way, and it's very little "I came yesterday, and have been trouble, my habits are so simple; a getting my nest in order; but I bowl of bread and milk night and

"Is your room comfortably furnish-"My Polly always brings the sun- ed? Can't we lend you anything, my cied that he felt a man's pity for her shine with her," and Mr. Shaw held dear? An easy chair, now, or a likle patient love for a mother who had tired." said Mrs. Shaw, taking unusual ma had died since Polly met him last, comforts with me. Oh, Fan, you and she longed to comfort him, seeing ought to have seen my triumphal entry into the city, sitting among m ing his father's example, something in Polly's laugh was so infectious that Polly's manner made him change his every one smiled and forgot to be mind, and shake hands with a hearty shocked at her performance. "Yes," forehead under the little curls had a mensely, for we had all sorts of "Oh, tell about it," begged Maud. lines and curves which can make even when the general laugh at Polly's ing into it the beauty of a lovely "Well, in the first place we forgot character. Polly had grown up. but my ivy, and Kitty came running after she had no more style now than in the me with it. Then we started again, days of the round hat and rough coat, but were soon stopped by a great sipation as is good 'or me." for the was all in gray. like a young shouting, and there was Will racing Quakeress, with no ornament but a down the hill, waving a pillow in one her excellently, and one never thought and explained that our neighbour, old of the dress, looking at the active Mrs. Dodd, had sent in a hop-pillow or less; 130 acres cleared, senced and under her childhood gave to Polly that good, pie to begin house-keeping with.premises a good BRICK HOUSE and good full of the vigor, grace, and case too late that Will promised to get them thought of, thank you." out-buildings; also a young orchard, and which nothing else can so surely be- to me, if he ran all the way to town. two never-failing wells. The above property stow. A happy soul in a healthy The pillow was easily disposed of— tion of Polly's face when she said when doctors flourish and every one is ed in every part of the wagon, and beyond that black silk she had deill. and this pleasant union was the never stayed any-where. I found it termined not to go. Fanny said no successful practitioners of his time, "It does seem so good to have you just on the point of sledging off a she planned to give her a pretty dress cess of this article in the cure of here again," said Mand, cuddling trunk into the road, and at last it for a Christmas present, so that one Polly's cold hand, as she sat at her landed in my rocking-chair. Such a excuse should be removed. feet, when she was fairly established remarkable pie as it was, too, for in say, Polly, won't you give some Johnson not less favorably, if less between Fanny and Mr. Shaw, while spite of all its wanderings, it never of us fellows music lessons? Some- widely known, than that of Louis Tom leaned on the back of his got spilt or broken, and we finally ate body wants me to play, and I'd rather Napoleon. mother's chair and enjoyed, the pro- it for lunch in order to be left in peace. learn of you than any Senor Twanky-Next my kitty got away, and I had a

"How do you get on? When do chase over walls and brooks before I conversation interesting. you begin? Where is your nest? got her, while Mr. Brown sat shaking COUNTY OF HALTON, | MOTICE IS New tell all about it." began Fanny, with fun to see me run, We finished. It hereby giv. who was full of curiosity about the off by having the book-shelves tumble honestly want to learn, and will beon our heads as we went down a hill. have yourselves, I'll take you; but "I shall get on very well, I think, and lesing my chair off behind as we shall charge extra," answered Polly. for I've got twelve scholars to begin went up a hill. A shout made us with a wicked sparkle of the eye. County of Halton, I shall give my first lesson on Mon-

sorts, especially Mr. Shaw; and when 'Trix; why, didn't you know it?" "It will be tiresome. of course, but she saw him lean back in his chair with Town of Milton, I shall get used to it; I shall like the the old hearty laugh, she was satisfied. event of national importance, exercise, and the new people and places and blessed the unlucky pie for "No. Is it true, Fan?" and Polly I must see will amuse me. Then the amusing him.

"No. "you wouldn't; you'd, have hersel secret satisfaction in seeing the im- spite of the doubt cast supon his wondering if it could be pitty which pression which certain names made courtesy. Tom rather liked it, though he saw in the steady eyes fixed on he had nothing to say for himself but him.

"True, nevertheless. You must come and see my pets, Maud, for my turning to Maud who devoured every "That's not saying much for them," But when I was making my plan. I muttered Tom, feeling that Polly knew I must have a good name or two lought to address more of her conver-

"Polly knows what she's talking was very kind, and has got these sisters," observed Fanny, in her sharp

"And Polly appreciates her knowledge of the natural laws which "Where did you learn so much brothers-don't forget to add that, govern the operations of digestion and the rising storm.

pride themselves upon. "I think he will, he is so fond of Also, makers of Errs's Milky Cocos study, and is so auxious to improve (Cocoa and condensed milk). every opportunity. I only hope he to trouble you with my little plans till and varied experience.

used to do, when he planned his boy- Fit up a smoking apartment on the guide, if various rumours I've heard Bring out your baggage, take a check

"Base slanders; I'm as steady as a your means will permit, all, the luxur clock, an ornament to my class, and les of railroad travel, but don't get of a model young man, ain't I, mother?" that fence to enjoy them. So shall And Tom patted her thin cheek with you die a natural death, and the good a caressing hand, sure of one firm wife shall not expend the farm fightfriend in her; for when he ceased to ing the life insurance companies over be a harum scarum boy. Mrs. Shaw your cold corpse. You're in the right began to take great pride in her son, of that thing, old rooster! and he, missing grandma, tried to fill her place with his feeble mother.

"Yes, dear, you are all I could isk;" and Mrs. Shaw looked inp at him with such affection and confidence in her eyes, that Polly gave Tom the first approving look she had vouchsafed him since she came. Why Tom should look troubled and turn grave all at once, she couldn't understand, but she liked to see him stroke his mother's cheek so softly, as he stood with his head resting on the high back of her chair, for Polly had much to bear with him. "I am so glad you are to be here all the winter, for we are to be very gay, and I shall enjoy taking you round with me," began Fanny, forgetting Polly's plan for a moment. Polly shook her head decidedly It sounds very nice, but it can't done. Fan, for I have come to work, hos forme." "You don't intend to work all the time, without a bit of fun, I hope?" cried Fanny, dismayed at the idea. "I mean to do what T've undertaken, and not to be tempted away from my purpose by anything. shouldn't be fit to give lessons i were up late, should I? And how far would my earnings go towards dress, carriages, and all the little expenses which would come if I set up for a young lady in society? I can't do both, and I'm not going to try, but can pick up bits of fun as I go along, and se contented with free concrets and lectures, seeing you pretty often, and every Sunday Will is to spend with me, so I shall have quite as much dis-"If you don't come to my parties, Newcastle, Out., proprietors for Cana-I'll nev r forgive you." said Fant y, as | Polly paused, while Tom chuckled inwardly at the idea of calling visits from a brother "dissipation."

It was charming to see the resoluupside down among the books; then would relent when the time came, and Anodyne Limment. The great such > and lungs, will make the name of dillo," said Tom, who didn't find the "Oh, yes; if any of you boys with respect. Besides, he's engaged. Polly had run on in her lively way. and does put on such airs." broke in > answered Maud, as if it had been an turned to her triend with a face full of been started in the city of Hamilton.

"Who is the little girl!" asked

"I forgot to tell you in my last letter; of country among Canadians, and to it's just out, and we don't like it very advance the Canadian character genwell," observed Fanny, who would erally. have preferred to be engaged first "It's a very nice thing, and I am

Shaw, arousing from a slight dozo. "Polly looks as if she didn't believe Polly laughed in his facerjust as she it. Haven't I the appearance of 'the

"How the duace slight a nian look her sober reception of the grand news eyes turned away from Tom, who was the picture of a complacent dandy from the topmost curl of his suburn hair, to the tips of his aristocratic "Tommy's quenched. It agree" Wiff

4, Polly! I never liked Trix. Wild. hope it is only a boy and girl fancy. that will soon die a natural death." said Mr. Shaw, who seemed to find it difficult to help falling into a brown udy, in spite of the chatter going ou

Shaw, jun., being highly incensed and finding that a decided failure, was about to stroll out of the room with a comprehensive nod, when his mother called after him:

"Where are you going, dear?"

TO BE CONTINUED. BREAKFAST .-- EPPS'S COCOA .-- Grateful and comforting .- "By a thorough nutrition, and by a careful application "Did I tell you that Will was going of the fine properties of well-selected breakfast tables with a delicately "Hope he'll enjoy himself," ob. dayoured beverage which may save served Tom, with the air of a man us many heavy doctors' bills."-Civil who had passed through all the mys- Service Gazette. Made simply with teries, and reaced that state of sub- boiling water or milk. Each packet lime indifference which juniors seem to is labelled-" James EPPs & Co., Homeopathic Chemista, London."

STICK TO THE FENCE. For fifteen years daily at Stainford. onn., a man has sat on the feuce an watched every railroad train as it passed .- Exchange. He is probably trying to make up his mind if it would be safe, to ride in "Guess he won't hurt himself. I'll the cars. Old fellow, you stick to didn't know that you would like to bee that he dont study too hard." that fence. If the top rail is sharp, next panel, if you like, and rig a luxu-"I'm afraid you can't be trusted as a rious couch on the next one to that. are true," said Polly, looking up at for it, and hang it on the post. Buy him with a wistful expression, that a ticket, and punch it yourself. A caused his face to assume the sobriety yourself the distance to the hext station, and ret insulted. Secuter as

> QUITE CORRECT -- The Indian medieine known as the Great Shoshopees Remedy and Pills will be found to b the most reliable curative and blood purifier when spring, after a long and inclement winter re-opens the pores of the skin and an alterative is required to transfer the impurities from the body through the natural outlets. The Remedy and Pills can be confidently recommended as the safest. surest, and easiest means of attaining this desirable end, without weakening the most deficate or incommoding the weakness, and was learning a son's most feeble. When from frequent chills or impure air the blood becomes foul and the secretions vitiated, this medicine presents a ready and efficient means of cleansing the former and correcting the latter, it may fairly be said of this celebrated Indian Medicine that it radically removes all correst

> > To Owners of Horses. It is a well-attested fact confirmed by the experience of thousands that 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy' for horses is superior to anything of the kind now or ever known. We know that it has been used in many cases where the horse has been considered almost worthless, with the most satisfactory result, the horse having been restored to perfect sound ness or so much benefitted that the complaint could scarcely be observed; Many such horses have afterwards been sold for from $50 to $100 more than they would have previouly brought, and were well worth the difference; let all the interested consider this. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co, is on

la. Sold by all medicine dealers.

"TIRED NATURE'S SWEET RE-STORER, BALMY SLEEP." But there are times when this "Renewer of Strength" is denied us. times when our minds and bodies have been so over worked and are so worn out that we "woo the drowsy god in vain."

Bronchitis and all diseases of throat

THE Ottawa Citizen is our authority or stating that Mr. John Dewe, Chief Inspector of Post Offices for the Dominion, will leave for Brilish Columbia in a few days, for the purpose of perfecting the Canadian postal system in that Province.

On Tuesday evening while the re-

A talented colored Georgian placed the butt of his gun in the fire while he looked down the muzzle, and went and disordered elements from the not play; to save, not spend; and each package. Northrop & Lyman.

The public are hereby assured, "Any small party, where it will do through the columns of the Champion. to wear a plain black silk. I can come that Parson's Purgative Pills contain good state of cultivation; the remainder well gift, health, and every movement was She seemed so disappointed at being to; but the big ones mustn't be no injurious principle, but that they timbered with hardwood. There are on the could be administered to children and may be administered to children and the most weak and shattered constitutions in small doses, with great cor-Dr. A. Johnson, one of the most

> The Peruvian Syrup (an Iron Tonie). renews our strength and makes our rest sweet and refreshing.

A YOUNG Canadian Association has national feeling, to encourage a love vival meeting was going on in the M. E. Church, Napanee, some young scoundrel threw a handful of cavenne pepper on the store, almost necessitating the stopping of the meeting. A large portion of the congregation had to go out of the church.

Te cer for the County of Halton. Of WILLIAM BURGER, LICENSED also, General Agent for the Milton Agricul-tural Works. Residence—Wailace's Hotel, nd Georgetown.

Sheriff County Halton

Endorsing me (their brain) must share my (Whose star already more than dims

CHAPTER VIIL Continued.

couldn't keep away any longer, so I morning, with baked apples or someran up to say 'How do you do?' 'au- thing of that sort, is all I want, and swered Polly, in the cheery voice that can have it when I like." 'did one's heart good to hear. out his hands to his little friend, for couch, so necessary when one comes she was his favourite still.

"Prettier than ever. by Jove!" spite of the dimple; and the smooth bright day, and I enjoyed the ride imbroad, benevolent arch; while all adventures." about the face were those unmistakable a plain countenance comely, by breath- picture had subsided. blue bow at the throat and another in hand and a squash pie in the other. her hair. Yet the plain suit became How we did laugh when he came belongs to the estate of the late Joseph Brown. boidy is a rare sight in these days, but that pie! I do believe it was stow- that; for she know her weakness, and charm which Polly possessed without in my lap; then on the floor; next. more, for she felt qute sure that Polly invented what is now called Johnson's swered Polly, stoutly.

with, that will be best of all." and the hearty goodwill with which an imposing spectacle." said Tom. n return or cash. Highest price in cash paid NOON, of which all Justices of the Peace, she undertook the new task, seemed Coroners, Constables, Jurors, and all others to dignify her humble hopes and plans, > upon ber hearers. "How in the world did you get the a reproschful" Now, Polly, that's too 'No. I don't think you have," she Davenports and the Greys, my dear ?" bad."