J. D. MATHESON.

Milton, 13th January, 1872.

I O THOSE IN ARREARS.

settle the same,

TRAVELLER'S GUIDE.

GRAND TRUNI	K TIME TABLE
Trains Leave Georgeto	un Station as Folk
GOING EAST.	GOING WES
4:05, A.M.	8:53, A.M.
8:35, A. M.	5:03, P.M.
11:51, P.M.	7:15, P.M.
4:45, Р. м.	3:25, A.M.
	§0
GREAT WESTI	EI'N RAILWAY.
Trains Leave Bron	te Station as Follow
GOING PIET	1 COING WIE

9:45, A.M.

12:03, A.M.

4:12, T.M.

8:05, P.M.

The only Reform Journal in Hilton.

MILTON, APRIL 4, 1872.

REFORM CONVENTION.

Wednesday, 27th ult. The delegates present were as follows:

TRAFALGAR, T. II. Willmott, John Commings, T. H. Harrison, W. Henderson, John Buck, Ezra Bray, Mahlon Bray and Absalom Book.

George Agnew, John Kean, S. R. Lister. A. Campbell. Wm. Reid and John Hay.

Baker, John Campbell, R. Husband, Donald Campbell, T. Baxter and W. J. Donglass.

Wm. Moore, James Hume, Asa Hall, Charles Symon. James Shaw, John get Warren and John McDonald. MILTON, Dr. Robertson and J. D.

Matheson.

Joseph Barber. OAKVILLE, unrepresented.

The Hall was well filled with some of the staunch Reformers of the County, and a fair sprinkling of Conservatives, and great interest was could easily be elected. manifested in the proceedings.

attention of the meeting, stated the was opposed to having the same mem- ter that they took in hand: they gave The present position was an important fidence in me expressed by this conreason for which it was called and re- ber so long. why give him credit for us a better land policy, immigration one, and he hoped it would be duly stituency for the last twenty years. Anested all delegates to hand in their the good he has done, and try some scheme, abolished dual representation considered. He saw a number of Con- am ready to sustain the record of that credentials to the Secretary. He resorther person. As Mr. White evident- and assisted railway measures, doing servatives in the Hall, who would time when called upon to do so, marked that these Conventions had by did not want to be nominated equal justice to those who did or did hurrah for Sir John A. Macdonald (cheers). Some of my friends in your met with general approbation in again, it was hardly far to press a not support them. This, too, in six Speak of as good a man as you may, ranks have not been sufficiently pru-Halton, where the business confided nomination upon him and force him to weeks, and in the face of the most fac- these Conservatives always set Mac- dent; but I shall say no more of that. and unanimity would prevail in the plenty of material, if there was not, Confederation was made a fact, and what their fathers owned. One of have voted with the Government; but worse than its older rivals. proceedings of the day. He hoped why set to work and make it. Mr. the first Parliament of the Dominion them spoke of carriages, horses, I only did so where I found that i purpose of securing some gentleman mittee had invited Hon. Alex. Mchere to-day, for they had undoubtedly ed him the night before to say that it proved to be the best method for would be impossible for him to be to centre their minds upon some proper Young. M. P., for Waterloo, also the individual, and then by using every worthy member for the Local Legis!aproper step and means, and by tion at Toronto, who he was glad to working above board render it im- say, was fairly with them. years. He was acquainted with the were united whole political entropy of Mr. White in the cause. [cheers]. That man in were barely over when the Conservacarried out their duty with fewer objectionable features than he .---(applance). There were actions of his the Conservatives for helping tions, which, were believed to be donald's Government and there was no particular part and therefore he believed that the county should be re- pect."

On the suggestion of Mr. A. Camp- Thomas Hume. pointed scrutineers.

not be a sufferer, it is very necessary that a man of experience should be in the Government at Toronto, and to ed to call at the Office at once, and held that Mr. White or any other member had a perfect right to exercise his own judgment in that way .-When he examined Mr. White's votes for 1867 he found that he had supported Messrs. McKenzie and Blake, five out of every six votes he gave. (cheers). O hers complain that he has supported Sir John A. Macdonald, but it must be remembered that Mr. White was elected under peculiar circumstances in 1867; Confederation had just taken place, and The Canadian Champion, come out again, ne (Mr. B.) believed that he ought to be elected once more,

In our last issue we merely gave the Local House, he would nominate him result of the Convention held on now for the Commons, for as he had done well for Ontario, he would certainly do well down below .-

> (laughter and cheers). Mr. Barber said that he was glad to his great attainments. [hear]. and prolonged applause].

NELSON, R. J. Senclair, Francis and proper person Mr. John R. Barber. side; I refer to J. S. Macdonald and who briefly acknowledged it. The country wanted intelligent mem- Mr. Richards, late in the Government. The candidates were now heard, tell you this that I am willing to abide Address or refusal. bers in the House, and now was the They claim to be Reformers, but may not Mr. John Hay said he had no notion by the decision of the Convention, and ESQUESING, Robert Hill, S. H. Mc- our interests in such a manner as to some Republicans who were returning in which he found himself. He want- twenty years, and understand what to 6:15 o'clock. Naughton, R. S. Hall, John McKinnen, deserve re-election. He hoped that from a political meeting, when they ed a man as a candidate for whom an expect, you may believe me that I am member. [Laughter].

Campbell, of Nelson. Lyon, who was a well known and have the symptoms very bad. place. He would caution his friends dressed the audience as follows; satisfactorily tried Reformer of Halton. [cheers and laughter]. We may re- to be up to any of the dodges which On a previous occasion I was sincere ground and he believed that Mr. Lyon last triumphed. In the short Session, in last time he had a chance of speaking again be a candidate, and I assure you there would be no interruptions, and Hay was a good man and all would be is drawing to a close. Upon the wealth etc.; but the other little one would be for the interests of the stated that the speakers had been satisfied with him. [cheers]. The record they have, the Government and opened her eyes with pride as she country (cheers). I am a free trader nomination was seconded by Mr. its supporters are going to the said, "I guess we've got something in principle, but so long as our neigh-

Stewart and Neil Campbell were ap- | bell. the nominations were closed.

served this constituency for twenty a difference; it was altogether about and he could say, that there were very the last House had proved himself the few who could declare that they had right man in the right place. and he [the chairman] believed thanks of the Reformers were due to with which some fault had been found. | putting Mr. Barber there. [laughter but he (Mr. C.) would ask had they a and cheers]. There was reason to bebetter man? The state of the sountry lieve that he had been instrumental was being agitated by several ques- in turning out John Sandfield Mac-injustice to certain parts of the to see so many old and familiar faces time, over an unknown country, and be so piedged. not be felt as greatly as in the lower were many who believed that I gave arrest, the embracing of Riel by Gov. lution: -- We, the candidates, having (cheers). Liberals are at one with ing here which created sympathy with so when we closed up business at the traitor were facts which even honest assembled and believing that they continuance of connection with the Decamped.—The career of Mr. them; redress for them should be end of the term, I was behind Conservatives deprecated and lament- fairly represent the Reform party of mother country. While we have the Willcox, watchmaker and jeweller of secured if possible. There were other in the shape of a small balance; but ed. The other day he had met one of Halton, do hereby agree to abide by British form of Government, British this place, has been a brief but we they, too, do not approve of them. | years, and when I state that I have manner in which it had been strug- resolution. begged to nominate Mr. While. (loud that we ought to thank the Conserva- done for the base purpose of rendering take place.

benefitted on all proper occasions and manner if I left it at all," (cheers). Mr. Barberthen referred to the change

Nobody laughs, nobody cries; Where he goes, or how he fares, Nobody knows, nobody cares.

[great laughter]. But I will call your attention to Mr. Blake, a politician ported, I should not be surprised honesty of purpose is quite equal to approbation. However, he could the return to party lines again. The ernment will go to the wall, [cheers] had, and he must say, therefore, that banner, and the bakers' dozen of Con- for an hour, took his seat amid loud tion binding him not to oppose the wait that time. he was not a candidate to-day. [loud | servatives beneath that of Mr. Camer- | applause. time to select them. He desired to be Conservatives. It puts me in mind of being proposed, and was con- will give my word for that, (cheers). three for the candidate and three for knew how these men had conserved of a story I heard the other day, of sequently unprepared for the position You know my record for the past the chairman the meeting broke up at the electors would all attend the polls observed a drunken man lying in the overwhelming majority could be always in favor of liberal measures

Mr. James Hollinrake seconded the him. He is a Democrat." The hoped that the whole party would jection to the tenor of the resolution. nomination, and observed that any drunken individual, being given to stick together and not alless them- The room having been cleared, the man could do as well as the present joking, and being just sufficiently selves to be split. [cheeks]. He with- delegates ballotted for the candidate, awake to see one, cried out. " I am not drew from the nomination. Zimmerman, nominated Mr. Peter have the symptoms very bad." been expecting such an honor, but he then made unanimous, and Mr. White [laughter]. And so I would speak of thought that there was plenty of good being informed of it, he again came Mi. R. Knight nominated Mr. W. D. these two, if they are not Tories, they material in the county, to supply the forward, amid great cheering, and adwhich Mr. Blake's Government came was when he had uttered some stric- that I have not changed my mind. Mr. John Ramsay seconded the into power, the leaders were unpre- tures upon Mr. Barber last year; he thank you for this mark of your connomination. There was plenty of pared; yet see how much they accom- had hit hard and he believed that it fidence, and assure you that my am tions opposition ever heard of. I donald up and boast of him every. You are intelligent people, and, like country for a verdict of the people. you haven't got. We've got a Skunk bors will not carry this out in a true means secure a piece of that 12; cents bell, Messrs. Duncan Campbell, John On the suggestion of Mr. A. Camp. At the last elections the Fremier ap under our barn." [uproarious spirit, I will advise and support a cotton. pealed to the people to regard the new laughter]. It was just the case with policy in accordance with that of our Nominations having been called for. The chairman said that before state of affairs, forget the differences, Conservatives for they think there is neighbors (loud cheers). We want a Mr. Archibald Campbell rose and said calling on the nominees to Beak; he Government a faint to John A. [laughter]. policy that shall be just and eventhat they were once more met for the would state that the Central Com-selecting and electing a candidate. here. However, he had an excellent portunity to do good, yet, it I have obliged for the honor done him. He privilege? But they do not, they The duty of the delegates was simply substitute in the person of Mr. James read aright, never has there existed a had long been a worker for the party charge a heavy duty, this in addition to worse administration than that which and they could depend on his aid, but the cost of carriage and export. It is stands at Ottawa ic day. Nothing he did not wish to run, and so would highly unjust. On this head I differ was clearer than that they istended to withdraw. tive flag was raised. Mr. Young re ambition was, to be something higher give me time to consider it, and make scriptions, for the support of the ferred to the manner in which Howe than a private in the House. Should up my mind. With respect to other Church. had acted, and yet he was taken into he be elected the people would know questions. I am apposed to the Washthe Cabinet, and then reviewed the where to find him. He, of course, had ington Treaty, as it now stands the Col. Grey scandal. He also allud- by his leaders. He believed in British | Members will be there and give it their evening last, the tollowing officers known, they bear down all opposition ed to the Intercolonial Railway, which connection and wanted to die under attention, but for my part, I must say were elected for the coming season, for them has attention and wanted to die under attention, but for my part, I must say were elected for the coming season, for them has attention and wanted to die under attention, but for my part, I must say were elected for the coming season, for them has attention and wanted to die under attention and wanted attention attention attention and wanted attention attentio he showed would cost $14,000,000 be- the Union Jack. He hardly knew how that public opinion condemns it. The doubt but that he would be equally fore it could be made to earn anything. he would be supported, but would interests of this Province and Domin- viz: President, Samuel Cook; Vice last twenty years, until now the sales 40-3 were subjects which interested the willing to do the same for John A's. This he attributes to the necessity of stand. [cheers]. Dominion as a whole, more than any [cheers]. Every one admits that these gratifying Langevin and Cartier, who M. Baxter moved that all the reject- However, explanations may be given through the second boxes per year. Eminent members of Dissolution of Partnership. as Mr. White had long represented and in this cas I must say that they taxation $328,000: so we are to be find so many strong men arrayed to obtained by the liberal party. (cheers).

CHAS. F. KEELING pare favore's with that of any Re- not want to be read out of the Reform 5,000 employees to keep it open; the and may work to my disadvantage— He thought the wise way would be to suthorities are exerting themselves to form member in Parliament. Ontario ranks. I did not desire to be driven wages would be $2,000,000; $1,000,- all I ask is equal justice, and I think let his acceptance of the nomination is interested in all the legislation out of the party in any such way. I 000 would be needed to pay wear and that I deserve it. (hear). In regard rest a while; They all knew where going on, and in order that she may be wished to leave it in a far different tear. That it certainly would cost to comy position five years ago when I he would be found, were a contest to diseases. make and equip the road no less than made the statement attributed to me, I arise. (cheers). They would find $100,000,000. Our national debt is believed that neither I nor any other him as strong as ever and able to give now $85,000,000, but when this road is man had a prescriptive right to repre- hard blows in defence. If the Con-All Parties who have had Accounts sent to Ottawa, Mr. White is that his vote on the Credit Valley Railway or whose Subscriptions to divided himself, and has not a prescriptive right to represent the Consequence of the Country, and, would make it hard fighting for them. rendered them, for Job Printing or man. It is rumoured that he has Bill, and resumed his seat, amid loud travagance of the Government. and indeed, in this room, who have as (applause). Of the members from to Mrs. Graham. After adjourning the then vigorously criticized the Washing- good a claim to be your member as I Ontario who were in the House trial several times, a bench of Magis-Mr. James Young, of Galt, was ton Treaty, by which the country had have, and as I find that others have in 1851, he was one of the five left.equally well received. Having been sacrificed. While John A. also expressed themselves thus I He advised them to select another trates, composed of Dr. Freeman, W.

perate contest of 1867, and believe it may, to some extent, be rectified by as well as my opponents. have no doubt that if unanimity prevail in your ranks, that you are destined to achieve a far greater success have that Conservatives have is that rise of the Reform Administration. and secure his election. When the as I believed to be bad.—You have anticipate at present.

depends the weal or the woe of this country for the next five years. If after what the members of the present o Mr. Robert Knight seconded Mr. who is not only able, but whose Blake and other honest politicians do faction, I feel that I am not ju tified not retire altogether from public life. If the Provinces send good men and know that his action in the Toronto agine that when we saw this change in true to Ottawa, there is no doubt but House had met with such general the Legislature that we could observe during the next Parliament the Gov-NASSAGAWEYA, David Wheelighan, spare time for no more duties than he Liberals arrayed under Mr. Blake's Mr. Young having spoken eloquently > and vote for the best man they could gutter. As one was about to assist raised, and had no doubt but Reform and principles, being perfectly in uni him, another exclaimed. "don't touch principles would win the day. He son with them, (cheers) I have no ob-

Mr. Thomas Baxter, after the ex- go farther than that, and tender them In British Columbia the Civil Service by saying, that:—"It is now thirty local affairs, and instead of being at the valuables had been taken away— her services. She resides opposite the Registry office. Milton, and has been years. austive effort of his friend, had little my sincere thanks (great laughter). would cost our Government $586,000 years since I began to labor in the the mercy of a sister province as we and so sundry persons, amoung whom successful in her services for so far. Washing lise to say. He endorsed all Mr. I have always done my best to get per annum, while the revenue was cause of reform, and work beneath were before confederation. All these we count ourselves, are left to mourn or cleaning. Campbell had said, and believed that them to work in the right direction, only $258,000 leaving us to raise by the standard of the party where we great advantages have alone been the absence of the false one.

the county and had, on the whole, saw their duty and worked with a taxed at that rate for the addition of day. Whilemy whole course is before We have now no family compact. no ed John Thompson, formerly a OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT acted in consonance with the great will that surprised me (uproarious the Partnership heretofore existing believe and party, and laughter). In fact, they worked first tion. But this was not all: the nity, it is needless for me to draw your has been a severance of Church and tween the undersigned, under the name, would have supported a Government rate, (cheers). If it had not been for Government have undertaken to attention to any one portion of it. State, and all are traceable to that last five years living in Toronto, reetyle and firm of Marneson & Kreine, as formed on such principles for which them, I fear that I would have been build a railway two thousand miles It is open for your inspection, and I party. Now that we have these we turned to that village on Friday last, Carriage Printers, Publishers and Proprietors of we had all struggled for years, he felt left at home. When I left the House long, through for the most part an unneed not dilate upon it. I am sorry should conserve them in true conservations suffering from small-pox, and died this day been dissolved by mutual consent. It would be only proper that Mr. at the close of the first Parliament, I known country. Mr. Young had late- to hear that certain gentlemen in my tive manner. Among the vast re-All persons indebted to the said firm are White should receive the nomination. was decided not to come forward by read the statement of Mr. Sanford absence. have given expression to scourses of the Dominion, Mr. White hereby requested to make payment at once During the past four sessions—although again as a candidate, but the Globe Fleming, which calculated that it statements derogatory to me as a mem-referred to the mineral wealth recently, same day a child of Mr. Smith Travis R. HAWTHORN to J. D. Matheson, who is empowered to Mr. White has thought he was serving and other papers pitched into me, and would require ten thousand men, five ber of the Commons; they should discovered at Thunder Bay. to the died of scarlet fever. There is, we give receipts, and all accounts against the said the best interests of the country by people abused me so much that it got or six years to build it. After it was have waited and made them in my rapidly increasing railway facilities to believe, no other case of either voting occasionally with the Govern- my spirit up and I took hold again. constructed, it would need 470 loco- presence, when I might deny or con- Manitoba as a centre for immigration ment of the day-his record will com- (laughter). I assure you that I did motives, and 6,000 cars to run it; fute them. I claim that this is unfair, and other matters in laudatory terms. disease in Georgetown, but the town > thanked the audience for this. and Macdonald is a supporter of the believe it is better for me to retire. man, and placed before them the D. Lyon, and S. Center, finally met on BUGGIES, &C. other honors, he proceeded to say: Treaty, his colleagues have denounced Under such circumstances I will carry names of J. B. Willmott, Robert Tuesday night, and fined him $35 and "I am to some extent conversant it as a comedy of errors. However, out my intention expressed then, not Miller, Thomas Baxter, Archibald with the political incidents of the Great Britain has left it to the ratification contest the constituency again, and Campbell and J. R. Barber of Georgeriding. I am also aware of the des- tion of the Colonial Parliaments, and thus be compelled to fight my friends town, who were all men good and true at the last sitting.

> > and support them more to your satis- at once. He pressed for one. in appealing to your sympathies, and notice that he would not stand > > promises would lead you to expect." any action. I must be free, but I tell would in one month contain with the result of five to one for White at hand in a few days. Dr. Winn, seconded by Mr. Daniel a Democrat, although I must confess I Mr. Peter Campbell, neither had against Barber. The decision was He was a man that was not loosing joice that Reform principles have at might be used at the elections. The when I announced that I would not favorably. Dr. Robertson, having secured the good material in the county, and as he plished. They made everything bet- had done good. [cheers and laughter]. bition is gratified by the tokens of con-

Governments were alike in every respect."

Would have it run through French ed candidates agree to support the modify this opinion.—

Something has been said to the effect of the delegates also do so. Mr. J. R. that I was favorable to the Conservation, Jas.

Would have it run through French ed candidates agree to support the modify this opinion.—

Something has been said to the effect of the delegates also do so. Mr. J. R. that I was favorable to the Conservation producing such beneficial results.

Which may modify this opinion.—

Something has been said to the effect of the conservation and that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results. presented by an experienced person. In referring to the Washington Treaty, mense cheering, which, having subthe Government in their Manitoba
The chairman stated that candidates measures, but I wish to disabuse their Though several members of last year's Sold by all druggists and country have instructed W. W. Ros, Esp., to sell by he believed it to be very unfair to this sided, he made a few remarks. He and British Columbia schemes, the and delegates were pledged to support any victory in my election, (cheers), first nine have left Milton, there is dealers at 25 cents per box. to the letter, it would prove of great meet so large an audience to-day, and of the Pacific Railway in a limited Several of the delegates refused to except in the support of measures still plenty of good material in the Dominion in particular. He thought before me. The occasion is far difto benefit small communities. He this treaty should meet with the ferent from the one when I stood becompared Manitoba to a small French very strange. He asked what would charged me with not being practical having for their object the good gov- club, and we hope to see them give a strongest opposition, and that it should fore you about one year ago. [hear]. Commune. and laid it all to the ac- justify candidates from withdrawing in politics and extreme; if my action be prevented from ever disgracing our When I was elected in 1867, it was tions of Cartier, and a briefless lawyer from this well understood obligation. had induced this I don't understand it. Statute books; or at least, it should plainly understood that I should give he had sent up there. Scott's marder Mr. Baxter, seconded by Mr. Camp- (applause). They are strong and extract from the Meaford Monitor, not be placed there without great re- the government a fair trial; in my opini- and the impotant objections offered bell, moved that candidates and dele- active, but they are weak when you relates to a man well known in Milton. sistance. InOntario its provisions would on I did so and nothing more; but there to the demands for his murderers' gates subscribe to the following reso- in an united body oppose them. It will be seen that Wilcox is at his provinces, but there was a fellow feel- them too much fair trial [laughter]; Archibald and the escape of the arch- full confidence in the delegation here Conservatives when they ask for a old tricks again.

questions in which the action of the I am glad to notice that my conduct these, who stated that the connection the decision of the Convention and laws and justice we are enjoying cannot say a brilliant one. A couple MRS. CLOUSTON IS NOW PRE-Ottawa Government did not meet his during the past session has been satis- of Cartfer with the Cabinet must be pledge ourselves not to oppose the privileges best adapted for us. (cheers). of weeks ago he left the village putapprobation—among them the Mani- factory to you and that now we stand broken up. [tremendous cheering] nominee of this Convention." Mr. J. I ask Liberals to be true andhelp to ting a card on his door, "gone to Embroidery, Braiding, &c.; also, Feathers old; 1 colt, foaled in 1871- very fine; 1 yoke the Reformers at the approaching men here to-day who have fought in rewards treason. Mr. Young spoke of Thirty delegates voted for, four frown down independence or any thing day came but brought no word of the Embroidery done to order. clections would show the country that the Reform ranks for more than thirty representation by population, the against, and three not at all on the other than to work out the constitu- absent one, and certain of his creditors (cheers). He had not the least doubt, stood among these very men. I think gled for and the way it was trodden Mr. John White having been sent who is loyal to the Crown is loyal to his personal safety, especially as it tion that we now have. Any man naturally began to feel anxious for if Mr. White was elected that he you will believe that I am too old a under foot by the Government in re- for, and having arrived amid loud ap- the people. We have in the last ten was rumoured that owing to the preswould do his utmost for the cause, and servant to do the party any injury. gard to the representation from Col- plause, was called upon to address the years made vast strides, and among sure of his creditors in Toronto he serve the Reformers faithfully. He (hear). The chairman has remarked umbia and Manitoba. This had been Convention before balloting would the valuable additions to our rights had departed for the "land of the the valuable additions to our rights had departed for the "land of the that we have obtained, I am proud to free." When the office was opened for the sick, (married ladies in particular,) is well. & T. H. WILLMOTT, tives for putting me in again. I will their seats in the Cabinet more secure. Mr. White, amid loud cheers began notice the great improvement in our by the landlord it was found that all now in redness to attend those who require that in no constituency in Ontario, was them. In regard to the coming con- Having said this, I don't think that the party. He was very sorry to see and deserving of the remembrance of the conflict so severe as in Halton. I test in this county, he had nothing to I should let my name appear before that the most important portion of the give your views a better elucidation. faction if the decision could be made a habitable condition.

Mr. White stated that he had given taking the advantage of you and they wished him to, he would promise acting in a manner other than my an answer this day month. Mr. Campbell recommended Mr White's prudence, and believing that on. There were, however, two others On motion of Mr. Baxter a vote of "I will sign no document that will and not political ones in view .-Mr. Geo. Smith proposed as a fit who do not class themselves on either thanks was tendered to Mr. Young, in any manner bind me hand or foot to However, the papers for the county

After three cheers for the Queen.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. D. D. CHRISTIE & Co's second imporation per S. S. Sarmatian, will be

TRY D. D. CHRISTIE & Co's Tea. having relinquished a large and lucrative TOWN HALL, NELSON, and that perfection Syrup, and by all practice here, for a larger sphere.

ion have been sacrificed in this treaty. President, George Wilkinson; Secre- average over one hundred thousand

THE following paragraph which we

MAGISTRATES' COURT .- A charge

Public School.-The examination of tined to achieve a far greater success hope that Conservatives have is that made sacrifices, and am willing to him desire that they would give him and Thursday last. We had the plea. federation had just taken place, and at the approaching elections than then, he stated that while he was opposed to Coalition Governments, yet he coalition is considered to Coalition political events which, while they have the man he wants, and that the with me for giving the Dominion Gov- reply at an early period. Were he to witnessing the examination of the dehave been painful to some, have been only way is that the minority must enument the partial support I did, decline another convention could be partments under the charge of Miss brought down. Mr. Baxter read from a copy of the journals of the House, a number of Mr. White's we will see one that has been particularly votes. Although Mr. White had votes and Mr. White had votes are quite a secondary matter, the first being the principles of the party, trial. This I did in the manner that Angust upless there was a change in Scholars evinced great readiness in anlarly agreeable. I refer to the down- "Principles not men" should be the I supported such measures as I August, unless there was a change in scholars evinced great readiness in ancandidature and that he would not had be best man you can get, thought were good and opposed such the Government which he did not swering the various questions propoundthat he ought to be elected once more, and there was no doubt that if he received the nomination, that he would ceived the saving that it was conventions, and their instructors. There is one mater and push on the was persent.

Of the late Government, I have little choice is once made, sink all minor matters and push on. He was persent the same votes were to come up under the sam ceived the nomination, that he would be triumphantly returned. (loud cheers).

Mr. Geo. Smith said that last year he had had the honor of nominating may be said of the hero of the old epitaph:—

Serived the nomination, that he would confine myself to saying that it was conventions; so it was in his Riding at Waterloo, they choose a man, and having nailed his colors to the mast, he had had the honor of nominating as of the hero of the old epitaph:—

Serived the nomination, that he would confine myself to saying that it was conventions; so it was in his Riding at Waterloo, they choose a man, and having nailed his colors to the mast, onistic to some of our party on the hero of the old epitaph:—

Serived the nomination, that he would leave the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the same. I hold views antaging the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the same votes were to come up under a disadvantation of the Trustees, and that is fight on to victory. [cheers.] Upon distinct on the party laboring under a disadvantation of the Trustees, and that is fight on to victory. [cheers.] Upon distinct on the party laboring under a disadvantation of the party lab you and the electors of this Province I believe that free trade, out and out. dividual opinion, He believed Mr. state of the school building. Something

SUPPER.—A few of the friends of W.

H. Street, M. D., took the occasion of his leaving Milton, to go to London, Ontario, to entertain him to a farewell Being asked to subscribe to a resolu- he would do as he said, agreed to supper. Accordingly they assembled to the number of about forty, at the Thompnominee of the Convention, he said Mr. White had personal objections son House, on Monday evening. Thos. Miller, Esq., County Judge, performed the duties of chairman, and Geo. Smith, Esq., filled the vice-chair. Among those present we observed Mr. Sheriff Kindsey, John White, M. P., D. D. Christie, D. McGibbon, Dr. Bigger, H. and others. The supper was got up in the usual style of such affairs at the 40-tf Thompson House, and reflected great credit on the caterer. After the usual Court of Revision for Trafalgar loyal toasts, the chairman in fitting and complimentry terms alluded to the deep BROKE HIS LEG-We are sorry to hear regret that was felt in the community Is hereby given that the Municipal Council that Mr. W. J. Stearn had the misfor- on account of the departure of Dr. tune to slip and fracture the small Street. He then performed the agreebone of his ankle. He is progressing able duty of presenting the Dr. with a On Monday, the 6th day of very handsome ebony cane with a suitable inscription, and concluded by pro-RAILWAY VOTE.—The vote in the posing the health of the guest of the And hold a Court of Revision. Western section of Toronto Township evening, which was received with imon the by-law granting a bonus to Mr. mense applause. After Dr. Street's Capriol's Streetsville and Port Credit response, a number of toasts were given Railway was defeated by 144 majority. and replied to, and the proceedings terminated at about 12. We in common THE "MAIL."-We are glad to wel- with the remainder of the citizens regret come this long looked for Toronto Daily, that Dr. Street is about to leave Milton. which made its first bow to the public His skill in his profession, his usefulness as managed for the good of the county. Mr. John R. Barber proposed Mr. never feel prouder of being a Refor- where. They think there is nobody such, accorded me a certain line of last Saturday. Its typographical ap- acitizen, and his social qualities combine He was glad to see so many reformers John Hay. who, he believed, was a mer than when I contemplate this. like John A. It put him in mind of action, and yet you have condemned pearance is very fine, but we do not perpresent, and wished that a fair spirit good man. He thought there was [cheers]. It is now five years since two little girls who were boasting of several of my votes. It is true that I ceive that it is either much better or however, that he may succeed in his new and Appeal for the said Township will hold field, and that he may never regret

A DESPATCH received by cable from Monday, the 6th day of May Next, London refers to the intended recal of MILITARY FUNERAL.—On Saturday the Governor General of Canada, and To hear appeals from the assessment of 1872. last the members of No. 7 Co., Milton states that the Earl Dufferin has been time Ontario sustained him, [wrongly to run, stick to him and put him in. trampled upon at will by either party. Company of Volunteers, attended the appointed as Lord Lisgar's successor. 40-4t to represent this county in the House | Rot he regretted to have to | Rot he regretted to have to | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Duchy of Lancaster. His Lordsnip, | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the title on the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the | Thomas McMaster. The deceased was | Who succeeded to the | Thomas McMaster. | Thomas with a clean slate and a large majority. Mr. W. D. Lyon had no intention of come in free to this country, why very highly esteemed by all his ac- death of his father in 1841, is 46 years Never had a government a better op- offering himself, but he was much should not they allow us an equal quaintances and the funeral was very of age and is well known from the Remaining in the Oakville Post Office up account he published of his visit to up to the 1st April, 1872, famine in 1846 '47, and also from his Blade Patrick VESTRY MEETING.—The Easter Ves- interestibg book entitled, "Letters Corey Sarah Miss from some of our party. I voted with try Meeting of Grace Church was held from High Latitudes" containing a Coyne Mrs E Solve all the offices they could. The Mr. John R. Barber was very high the Government on several of their on Monday evening, and Messrs. Thos. description of a yachting excursion to Hale James working above board render it im- say, was fairly with them. [loun] "no party cry" resounded. It was by pleased with Mr. Young's speech. It was by pleased with Mr. Young's speech. It was by pleased them in asked that party lines should be ob. In his candidature he feared that his others. Under the circumstances. I Iceland. He was British Commissioner | Parties calling for any of the above letter. who were eligible was John White. there was a difference, some people literated from the country; yet if we ago would work against him, yet he think it is wiser that I do not accept ed Church Wardens. Mr. Rixon was tions of the Christians in the East, 40-3t wrote from a sick bed in London, to clans had all started when they were other gentleman who may be more in Synod. It was resolved to adopt the ment. He has also filled the office of Esq., M. P., a gentleman who has called it a split, but anyway there was can believe the letter McDougall was willing to try. The best politi- the nomination; therefore find some also chosen Lay Delegate to the and was made a K. C. B. for his ser.

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonie on the 1st April, 1872. waters in curing Coughs, Colds, and Cook Thomas Mrs BASE BALL.—At a meeting of the all other Bronchial affections, and Garson Robert Nova Scotia "better terms", and the no parliamentary experience, but he before the public (cheers) escillated that have arisen, and are likely at first would use no ideas of his cwn. pecially as it relates to this Province.

Sycamore Base Ball Club, held at a proverb. In the United States, Miller John cheering the afflicted, has passed into King Benjamin to arise from their being granted, and but would do exactly as he was desired Parliament meets on the 11th. Thompson's Hotel, on Tuesday where these marvellous Wafers are McGuire James for them has steadily increased for the SALE REGISTER.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6TH, Lot 45, Glenwilliams, belonging to the Estate of the late Dr. Laidlaw, at 2 P.M. TUESDAY, 9TH APRIL, Farm Stock and Implements, &c., of Wm. & T. H. Willmott, MRS. CLOUSTON. Milton, March 18th, 1872.

STAMPING.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MILTON

Boots,

Work &

nage heretofore bestowed upon him, becs to intimate that he is still manufacturing at his

COMMERCIAL STREET,

All descriptions of Very Best Material!

FIRST-CLASS WORKMEN.

All the latest improvements and newest R. HAWTHOPNE.

ASSOCIATION.

TORONTO, PRESIDENT, The Finance Minister of Canada.

VICE-PRESIDENTS,

Hon. W. P. Howland, Lieut.-Governor; Hon. Wm. McMaster, Senator. BANKERS, The Canadian Bank of Commerce.

This Association issues Government Savings Bank Endowment, and Ordinary Life Policies. A Participation in in the management and (at least) nine-tenths the profits guaranteed the Mutual Life Policy Holder atson, Dr. Robertson, D. Henderson DR. ROBERTSON, JNO. K. APPELBE. Medical Adviser.

of the Township of Trafalgar will meet at PALERMO.

Oakville.

May next,

JOHN K. APPELBEB. Township Clerk. Trafalgar, 2nd April, 1872.

Court of Revision and Appeal For the Township of Nelson.

its first sitting at the

McArthur Miss Ann 2 Sanderson Willie

Remaining in the Georgetewn Post Office

Peteese Albert Rafferty Patrick J

Persons calling for any of the above letters EXTENSIVE

Public Auction,

TRAFALGAR,

Without Reserve, on Lot No. 19, 2nd Con-

Lot No. 10, 2nd Concession, N. S., Tra-falour W. W. Roe. Auctioneer. Tuesday, 9th of April, 1872, Their entire lot of Farm Stock, Implements, etc., consisting of the following, viz:

oxen-very fine : 10 cows in calf : 3 heifers in calf : 1 brood sow-Suffolk : 8 store pigs wagons, sleighs, and all the necessary imple-A quantity of peas and Norway oats, Sur-38-4t prise oats, and barley for seed. TERMS :- All sums of $8 and under, cash over that amount, 9 months credit, on furnish-

> Proprietors. W. W. ROE,

Trafalgar, March 27th, 1872,

BEGS TO CLOVER.

Milton.

SEED

For t

MAT APO

ESTABI

All of which

ESTAB

THE LIS will be 30TH And assurers tain a large ding this very Forms of A Tables of Rat the Company A. G. RAMS

IST OF REMAININ up to the la Coulson G A Collier Jose Ewing Will Hallworth (