Touching Story.—The St Louis Democrat prints this little story: "There is a covered bridge at Peoria 500 feet above high-water mark. A drover recently attempted to drive a thousand sheep across it When about half-way over the bellwether noticed an open window, and recognizing his destiny, made a strike for the glory and the grave. when he reached the sunlight he at once appreciated his critical condition, and. with a leg stretched toward each card of the compass, he uttered a plaintive 'Ma-a!' and decended to his fate. The next sheep and the next followed, imitating the gesture and the remark of the leader. For hours it rained sheep. The erstwhile placid

blood of moribund mutton, and not
