Epe Canadian Champion

THURSDAY MORNING

each week, at Milton, Halton County,

J. D. MATHESON.

OFFICE, ON MAIN STREET. Teams-$1 a year in idvance; or within Proprietor.

one month from the date of subscribing, if not so paid, $2 will be charged. RATES OF ADVERTISING. Eight :outs perlinefor the first insertion, and two cents per line for each subsequent, dusiness Cards of eightlines or tess 36 The unmber of lines to be reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid Minion.

A liberal liscount allowed on advertisements inserted for extended periods. Advertisements without specific instructionsins:rtedtill foroid, and charged ac-Any special Notice, the object of which sto promote the pecuniary benefit of any dividual or company, to be considered an vartisament, and tharged secordingly.

Bisiness Directorn. TATILLIAM LAIDLAW, BARRIS V ter, etc., Milton. Money to loan. 32

R. MITCHBLL, BUILDER AND Contractor, Milton, Ont. 16-tf. Licenson. O.Ree-Town Hall, Mil-HET H. YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR. west of Palermo. W . riage Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak- Zimmerman, February 27th, 1872.

D H. BIGGER, M. D., PHYSI-Co cian, Surgeon, etc., Milton, Ont. FAT G. MATAESON, B. A., BARRIS- | as Partner in my business, and the name of ter, &c. Office Corner of Main and the new firm is "HAGAMAN & JULL." hurch streets, Georgetown.

TOHN DEWAR, BARRISTER, Jonaty Crown Attorney, Notary Public, Sc., &c., Town Hall, Main street, Milton. WILLIAM A. AGAR, HOUSE PAINT. er, Glazier and Paper Hanger. Shop .ses 3 "teers, diel go.

DOBERT SWANTON APPELBE, BAR- BAR- BARory, Oskville. Official Assignee for the County of Halton. RS. D. & A. P. ROBERTSON.

Milton, Ont. Office at their Drug Store, Main atreet. D. ROBERTSON, M. D., OEOR JETOWN J. M. : A. P. ROBERTSON, M D J. C. TREE VE, BARRISTER AVD SCROOL . Attorn -v-st-Law, delicitor in Chanpery, Notery Public, &c., &c., Wellington square. Money to loan on mederate terms. B. WINN, M. B., GRADUATE OF . the University of Coronto, Haltonville,

Nassa saweya. Consultation day-every Thursday. R. LISTER, DIVISION COURT Je | Clerk, Com missioner in Queens Bench, scensed Auctioneer, Accountant, &c., Nasagaweya. Debts cellected on commission. DR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON, CON-Il sulting Physician and Surgeon. Office

m . daily. Consultation days - Tuesday foreneon and Saturday afternoon. McGIBBON, Barrister, Attorneyat-law, Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyancer, &c. Office-in Town Hall Milton, County Halton. "Money to loan

8. Dentist. Licentiate Sucreons, Ontario, will visit Milton on the last Tuesday of every month. Office in Chompson's Hotel, where he may be consulted by those requiring his profesional BASTEDO. Surgeon Dentist, No.

34 King Street West. Over Field's Leather Store, nearly opposite the Bank of Montreal, Hamilton, Ont. In Cash practice twenty years.

JOHN NEW LOAS 8048 WOOLEN MANUFACTURERS, LIMEhouse, Halton, Ontario. Custom Carding, GRINDING CORN IN THE EAR

Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done. Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Fulled Cloths, Satinets, of their own make, always on hand, for sale for cash or wool. October 25th, 1869. MONEY! MONEY! MONEY! John Wilson & Co.

TONEY to lean in sums to suich borrowers. No commission. JOHN DEWAR. Barrister.&c.. Town Hall, Milton.

Untel Cards. Fourturn Hotel. ZILBRIDE. Charles Rusherry proprietor. A well stocked larder

bess orands of liquors and cigars, and good DECLARACT HOLD

THOMAS CLARK. Georgetown, Ont. We GV. II bs of Sugar fil $1, USSES to and from the Station, regul Darly. Every attention paid to the ravelling public. Good stabling and atentive hostlers. Drumquin lie!el. THE subscriber having lately taken possession of this Hotel, respectfully bolicits a share of public patrenage. The best srands ofliquors and cigars Kept, and every attention paid to guests. JAMES MASON

Wallace Hease. TOHN WALLACE. PROPRIETOR. Main Street, Milton, Ont. The Wallace House is the best in Milton. Travellers and others can depend on superior accommodation. The best wines and liquors. A careful hostler inatt-adance. Stages leave daily for Bronte and Georgetown. Cana Han Hotel. TAVY STREET, OAKVILLE. Datario. Con mercial Travellers, Farmers and the travelling public generally will find this house just what they require. (Cal:

F. CROOKS.

COLASSCIAL MOLEI.

MAIN STREET. MILTON, GEORGE Clarkson, Proprietor. Best bran is of wines. liquors and cigare. For I stables and driv ing shed, and attentive hortler DARKSR'S HOPEC, WILLTON, GEO GARVIN begs to inform the public that be has taken the shave flotel, and hones he kee,ing none but the best brands of liquore sigars, and a first-class table, to obtain a fair share of natronage. Good Stabling and atsentive Hostler. Milton, February 15th, 1872.

Carlisle Hotel, GEVERAL STAGE HOUSE, JAMES DAVIDSON, Proprietor. First class liquors and cigars, good stabling and attentive

GENTS WANTED. $150 PER Svery Monday and Thursday.

Music Classes, and will visit Horaby requested to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—
when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprimended him—when he went off no united to pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts are pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts are pay their accounts and courses, and they represent the pay their accounts are pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts are pay their accounts and courses, and they reprime the pay their accounts are pay their accounts and courses Carlisle, May, 1872. MONTH. To sell the TINKER, the

AND COUNTY OF

NUMBER 29.

OF HALTON. THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1873.

J. D. MATHESON Proprietor.

CHARLES WAUGH. Wason Maker | [[]]]] GENERAL BLACKSMITH.

AND HORSE SHOER, MARTIN ST., MILTON.

Particular attention paid to horse shoeing and to the curing of corns and other diseases ' pion" Printing Office, or at my own O ice, of the foot All work done with skill and on Mill Street, town of Milton, will be strictisuatch. Charges very moderate. 6-ly ly attended to.

ZIMMERMAN

DEWAR, Isoner of Marriage CF ZIMMERMAN, ONTARID. 41-ly 8 miles south of Milton, 16 miles North of Hamilton, 71 miles east of Kilbride, 4 miles

DENTIST.

CARD.

I HAVE ADMITTED BENNET JULL W. R. HAGAMAN.

Oakville, April 11, 1872. General Grocer and

MAIN STREET.

Er Everything in the line kept Georgetown.24th Jane. 1868.

W. Barber & Bros., PER MINIFICATIONS! Goorgotown.

Printing and Wrapping Paper Constantly on hand and made to order.

hours-From 8 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2, and 7 to 8 WAND CARD G CLATH DEFYCIAL On the shortest notice Cotton Rags in any quantity will be received at their Paper M n return or cas : Highest price in cash paid

BRONTE

HAVE leased these premises for term of years. Thorough repairs have been made, and new machinery put in under my inspection, and the Mills are now in first class running order. Special attention given to gristing Flour, Feed, Corn Meal and Chop Corn for sale. Machinery in the mill for

JAS. SCOTT

GEORGETOWN,

Have on hand a large stock of

GROCKERY, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES,

Which we offer to the public Cheaper than other parties can buy them.

21 lbs. Cerrants for $1 00

And other goods equally cheap. No humbug about this, come and judge for yourselves.

TERMS ARE CASH.

LIQUOR DEPARTMENT.

Our Liquor Department is complete. We have all the favorite brands both in wood and bottle, such as Hennessy Brandy, Jules Robin, Martell, Belfast Old Lish Whiskey. Cincinnatti Old Crew, Scotch Mait and Old Bourbon. In fact all the Brands and Grades n the market.

JOHN WILSON & CO., Henry Wright's Old Stand, Ge rgetown, December 5th, 1872.

TRAFALGAR, ONT. IT'OOD WORKINGS OF ALL

lone on shortest notice, also turning and CHOPPING CHOPPED FEED FOR SALE.

kinds made to order Repairing

"cafalgar May 23rd 1872.

TISSMACKENZIE has resumed ber the firm of W. D. & R. A LYON are

JAS. A. FRAZER, For the County of Halton.

A LL ORDERS left either at the "Cham

Do you want money? I am Agent and Valuator for the Hamilton Provincial and Loan Society. Head Office, McInnes' Block familton, Ont. President, Adam Hope Vice-President, W. E. Sanford; Solicitor John Grerar ; Sec.-Treas., H. D. Cameros

Milton, March 6th, 1872

MERCHANT

Stock, which will be found complete in every respect, and which they are prepared to make up into suits on but when I think that the name of the shortest notice, in a style that for Worthington Brothers will be-disfashic a and fit.

In this Cou 'v Notwithstanding the rise it cloth. & H. will adhere to their la year's prices.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS

In great variety. Put in your orders BEWS & HALCRO

Milton, April 11th. 1872.

Georg town. AS now on hand a large and well assorte stock of the followin description of Watch es, in various styles and quali .ies-Ladies Gold atches.

Waltham Wateres. Runnell Watchen. American Levers. Straight Line Levers. Detached Levers. Stem Winders, Cylinders.

Also, a very large and handsome assortmen of Jewelry of all descriptions. He has been appointed a ent for lakarus, Morris & Co.'s celebrated Perfected Spectacles, whi h he now invites the public to call and inspect Georgetown, May 8th, 1872,

AND GENUINE

DRYGOODS

MILLINERY, CLOTHING.

Boots & hres

Groceries

AND HARDWAR

UALL AT

Main t., Milton.

ON AND AFTER THE

The subscribers will conduct their business strictly on the CASH PRIN-CIPLE, and dispose of goods only for ready pay. All persons indebted to

W. D. & R. A. LYIN

FLOWER OF THE DAISY.

A CHRISTMAS STORY.

It was just a week before Christ mas, and perched on his three-legged stool in the counting room of the great house of Worthington Brothers. old Joe Dailing, the ancient bookker-per of the firm, was finishing his

Saturday night's entries. he saw his old gray haired comployer.

"It is the last time, my old friend." aid the merchant, pointing to the ledger; the news this evening decides everything. Unless something happens before the first of January. Worthington Brothers must close doors, and wind up business, Joe!" these melancholy words, and a tremor ran through him.

Worthington, sir! he exclaimed. Brothers will suspend payment, sir ' 'Worse than that, Joe,' responded I see no hope of resuming. great failures in Europe have hopeleasly involved us -so that'-he stopped with a gloomy expression in his eves-'so that on or before t'e first of January.' he added, the house will Don't say that ' don't say that. Mr.

There the old merchant backe down Joe Darling seized his hand. and cried, in a trembling voice: 'Don't, don't !- don't may that, mir!

close its doors. I could bear that:

Don't use the word dishonored! is not so bad!" 'Rain! ruin! utter ruin!' groane the merchant. 'No. no : not rain! See here, sir

I-I-you see, I have saved a And old Joe drew forth from his market bank with unsteady hands. certificates of demosits in banks. 'Take it. air! It was made in you service! honestly made-there's not a direv shilling in it, sir. It is yours

He thrust the papers into the merchan's hand. But Mr. Worthington mished them back. 'No. old friend,' said the merchant. sighing deeply, but speating in voice of resignation-to, that is not the way Worthington Brothers do If we fair, it sha! be had tion. We will not drag down our friends, and you. Joe, our orders an hest. No. the house Kept fairle ami onor for fifty years. It rais comes we will go down alone. It is not or fault. I will do my duty and trust in God. Joe. to the end. As he spoke, the old merchant we it to his safe and took out a roll of inn notes Then he directed the virious early-alone-after honorable exer employees to be sent for, and paid them all up to the end of the week. He had a kind word for each, and an irenity about every man's family or corcerns; and then be turned to bi desk But the men did not go. .What are you waiting for, m friends? Can I assist you in an manner!' asked the old merchan. If you please, sir,' said the foremost of the party, 'we would like to leave our money in you. hands. And the speaker turned toward his companions who attered a hoarse murmur of assent. Jeave your money in my hands said the merchant. " ust so, sir.' was the reply. hear tell how cimes are hard wit Worthington Brahers, and the honse in difficulties Now, we don't wan our money as yet. Mr. Wormington. Eh! Do you!

And he looked a ound to those i Another growl of assent re 'All which,' the spokesman adde-'goes to say, sir, that we are not 1 want. Keep the money. Mr. Wor

The merchant gazed, with deep emotion, at the rough, honest faces. Thanks, thanks my kind triends he said. This proof of your friend ship touches me deeply—but I canno accept your effer. Such a small sum besides, would be of little service a me. No, no! keep it, and may God bless you and yours!' The employees retired on this, no dating, it seemed, to intrude turthe on the head of the house. 'Father in Heaven, I thank Thee munmured the merchant, and, turning away, he picked up the evening paper to hide his emotion. As his eye fel upon it. a paragraph astracted his at-. It announced the failure of the bank in which his old book-keeper's savings had all been deposited

With a sigh he handed it to Joe Dailing, and said : 'I deeply regret this, my old friend. My rain was chough!" Old Joe rend the announcement with a sinking heart, and echoed the sigh of his old friend. 'The 'ord's will be done, sir!' he mund said; 'you ought to have all-but am now pennileas Your trouble is fully at his brother, and then we greater than mine. Any letters, sir by to night's mail? Any resources or important intelligence? 'No resources, Joe. and bad -news almost worse than all.' ·Worse. sir! Yes, yes. You remember my so Charley: of course you remember him. You know he went about two years since to live with Van Zandt & Co., at Antwerp f' 'Yes. sir. what of him? Don't tell me he is dead, sir!' 'No, that pang is spared me. but have bud, very bad news of Charley. my old triend. I wrote recently, announcing our situation, and recommended his return, and Messrs Van o overtres uncle, dear. Del anybody letter. Zandt & Co replied that he left them ov T ?--"

Yes, yes. He had fal'en into evil b uncle John, bore the magical ced r when he went off, no ne knew where. to the centre of the table. house, but they must have miscarried. on the tree were It. As the fairy They ran into his arms, utterned institutions Nothing has since been heard of spectacle of many coloured baskets, cries and sobs. The sailor was home

low tone: "I had a son -a noble boy | baby spoon.

foundered, and the crew were lost, and mother ! it is lovely ?" fortunate fathers air!

was only by great sacrifices that the gan :

Christmas morning, and the soor was failing and the wind whirling around like mad. As thousand got lins seemed laughing and turnin somersaults and hailing each other as they sported around the gables a whistied through the keyholes as chimneys, wild with mirth at the coming of Christmas; and old Joe Dailing's small house. In a remote street of the great city, seemed esp-cially honored by the hobgoblins. who shook the windows till they rat

A great fire was burn ug, and the breakfast table was set, and old Joe was rubbing his hands in front of the blaze, and looking out of the window, when a voice behind him, with a rust of laughter in it, and sounding like a silver bell. exclaimed: 'A Chris'mas gift, father, dear! I've caught you." Old Joe turned round. As he di so a pair of rosy lips present cheek and two arms clung around his neck, belonging to a little fairy of seventeen

Why, you look like a sunbeam Daisy, he said. And indeed her face resembed one so brilliant was the light of her eyes, Daisy was small with a neat, cost figure, in a plain but pretty dress; and you naw at a glance that this was one of those little, nimble-fingered fairies who are the blessings of the homes which they rule. The father amiled, and passed his hand fondly over her hair. As he gazed at her be thought of his well righ penniless condition and heaved Poor little lady-bird! I have no thing for you!' he said. sighin

But Daisy did not seem to regathe circumstance as at all depressing On the contrary her face glowed, and turning per bright head toward one side, she whispered : 'I've got a Christmas gi't for you father dear.

'Have you? Now you've gone and worked your little flagers to the bone It's a cravat. or -' 'No, indeed. I've done nothing the sort—that is not your present The rush of joyous laughter in girl's voice nearly drowned her word-She seemed bursting to reveal some secret. Their talk wa interrupted however, by the appearance of Mother Darling and flock, with old Uncle John looking wise and secretive. Daisy h d progured, somewhere, the 'sandsomest Christmus tree im arinable -- a bushy cedar, full of light blue berries, and having returned from church, whither she went dati fully with the rest, she proceeded with the aid of Uncle John, her prime triend and favorite, to deck the wo drous tree with its brilliant orusments. As evening drew on it was anished, and erec ed on the sideboard -its paper packets, and presents an tapers making it a magical spectacle to the young Darlings, who gazed at Then the Christmas dinner appearoast turkey, and round of beef. an it with open-eyed wonder. ed, and riveted all eyes. The great flanking side dishes aroused wild enthusiasm in the young ones Old Joe devoutly said grace, and the youth members of the Darling family chir ing like a flock or birds, called each other's attention to the solendid ban-

All sat down. Old Joe looked 'I set it there, brother,' said Uacle in her hand.

invited some friend? No. brother, I thought of our Ed-The old book-keeper looked wist-

and held out I is hand to him

Thank you, brother, he said in low voice, returning to his seat. When the first nang had mased. seemed a setifaction to old Joe gaze at the vacant chair, and to think of his son as present and enjoying their happiness. And when at last the descert came and the wine was poured out, the old man looked toward the vacant chair as he raise the glass to his lins.

Suddenly the voice of Duist rang ont, half choked with laughter: "Wir. me are forgetting our tree." the cried : "we are really losing sight An I not waiting for "any bod" to re ny. Drisy started up and assisted

-he is dead, sirt Xon know my Ed. No. Pet." cried Daisy, wait till way full of joy and gratitude.

Darlings exhibited an astonded interest. As to Pet. his excitem int was beyond the power of words. His eyes its details the Act of Union may have last evening, to see if the afternoon resembled two anteers-his mont o sened to its utmost -and. in the excess of his attention. he very nearly awailowed his baby-spoon. No one ooked at Dasy. With one shading le eyes from the sight, and the other place i up in her breast, she looked at Uncle John, or fartively toward her father. Uncle John continued:

The moment was near when Bari zac would probably be compelled to strew dust upon his head, and wander through the streets of Bagdad, crying, Barilzac the merchant is rained! "This happened." continued Uncle on, and also of the great suffering of hi. wn for all of us must suffer, me ch dren. His only son had been lost at B. . and the heart of Alon bendarang was said. He returned to hold the fest v.t. of the order-tree, but so miserable." As he thus spoke, his daughter Parahanon appro ched him. name of Parabanon, my children signifies the Flower of the Daisy. She came now to Amus-ben-darling, and kissing him in the Easern manner, said: "O father dear! O. Ab m-bei darling! do not despair' Behold the teast is set, and the holy cedar tree Province point to the advisability of him up. the boughs of the wordrous tree!

Sileace. Pet! do not interract ben darling sighed when his darlin thus sinke.

is a gitt that our father will his name on it from a distant land. was trembling, and whose

Uncle John continued: Abon-ben-darling Where is this package, my child to which the Flower of the Daisy re-"Father dear, it is here! See, cedar tree, and give it to you!"

Here it is father dear" she cried. 'For whom, brother? Have you bursting into tears and laughter. pearly killed me not to tell your tike it. take it! Our Edmund is not in the next steamer. That was t

As old Joe grew faint. Pet andden. ly ran behind his mother's arron. uttering an appaling servan. At the door s'o da tall young min in i s neat box covered with evergreens. wi hat ferocious beard. "How are you. father and mother Night had come now, and the tapers and macle and Dilay "

the happy, blessed night-went on its an isfactory decision being arrived at mand' He was so handsome, so sister gives you yours! But first, A vest afterwards, strange to say. While this engaged a hand was laid spirited so bold; and he was lost at Unele John is going to tell a beautifu! Christmas came again! and saw the pointed for urveying the boundary on his shoulder, and, turning his head sea! He was on a whaler—the ship story! Will you listen, father dear, house of Worthings on Brothers pros. Intween Oprario and Quebec, and 'as perous, andold Joe hapny, and Charles | commenced its operations. the sole survivor of the firm, beside My point Ed unud! We are truly un. The rush of laughter in the voice the husband of the Flower of the made all look at Datsy. Why did Dalsy: And again the cedar tree was Public accounts shall be laid before

> "A merry, merry Christmas!" THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR'S SPEECH.

Legislative Assembly: -I rejoice that on meeting you again vince, I am able to congratulate you vice.

We have now hat six years' ex perience of the workin of the great measure of conted-cation, which the cepted, and from which they antici- and happiness of our country pated much advantage, and I am con-At his commencement, the young fident you will agree with me that their expectations have in a large measure been realized. In some done less than justice to this Province. and incidents to be regretted may have occurred, as in the first estab | cerning what she is pleased to term lishment of all new constitutions; yet ny "cold molasses style" the general effect on the local affairs moving around As she opened the of Outario has been eminently bene ficial. The administration of our to loody move quickly, prompt, emphatcal affairs is now in our own hands, ic' -that was all; but I heard some and our revenue has enabled us, with- | one bumping down the stairs in a out taxation, not only to detray althe charges of the Provincial Govern- | and I reached the door just in time other public works and improvements. but also to accumulate a surplus now amounting to more than four millions of dollars. The policy to be pursued with re- sition, and I started for monitoe. n me of our own family-and for a engage your attention during the ery sidewalk, strode two indepenistence of this fund will enable you to | vere talking over their plans for the place on a satisfactory footing the future, and, as I overtook them. Fund, and at the same time to do] instice to the rest of the Province. earnestly recommend to your atten numerous railway enterprises and

tion such measures for these purposes as may be laid before you The works on nearly all the rail ways to which, during last session. you approved of giving aid, have been. prosecuted with eight. Some hese ruilways have been so far com pleted that they are now open for and that if he did he would go among traffic; and extensive sections of the the theathen Chinese, and he was country have, by means of your really grateful for the interest grants, secured per naneat railway | nanifested. H invited me to a place facilities which already exercise at where ice never forms on the side most salutary influence on their in | walks. dustrial interests. The chains of other railways will be presented to comple on their way to hear Madam you during the present session. heart telt havy. "Aboutben darling hope it will be found that, without frozen together. Their hearts bent any unh althy stimulus being gi en as one. Said be: My own, I shall to railway enterprise, and without think nothing of hard work, if I can unwise expenditure on the p rt of make you happy. It shall be my municipal corporations, every part of only ain to surround you with com the Province may, at no distant fort; my sympathy shall lighten every period, obtain railway facilities adapt- | sorrow, and through the path of life !

d to its req thements. The benefits which have arisen your -he stopped. His speech was from aiding the diamage of swamp too flowers for this climate; and as and wet hands in different parts of the present them she was trying to life your considering further provisions for bringing, by this means, into profitable cultivation, an extende area of valuable lands. In the recess, I have adopted additional means for promoting an creased munigration of agricultural and I am happy to say that I reason to believe that the means taken will h ve valuable 'esults during the ensuing season. teaches us. How easily is humanity I recommend to your careful concontrolled by circumstances-and the sideration measures which will be attraction of gravitation. -What laid before you for the improvemen of our educational institutions; by most viding additional means for obtaining vent further accidents. a sufficient number of competent trained teachers; giving increased efficiency to the Conneil of Public 1 struction; and making various amenments which experience has shown be desirable in our School Laws Public and High Semuel Laws; a Bi for giving to the Graduates of the the Provincial University a direct educational measures to which your Epps & Co., Homosopathic Chemists. attention will be called.

idiot and imbedie costs which, I regret to learn is at nerous persons who by long indulgen e in prosphites. . . Yours very truly. habits of intemp a re have tost their self control, may have an opportudity of being restored by proper restricts and inflaences to the positions of as - ful members of society. for your attention, measures for oro- poses. moting the better administration of Since we last met, negotiations discures. Try them.

detre in favor of the boundaries claimed by Ontario has been accumulated which will, I hope, abundantly sufficient to secure a fa-

The Government of Quebec at!! maintains its objections to the award of the arbi guors appointed un er the Act of Confeder tion for the onthement of all questions urising beproceedings necessary to bring the

during the present year. A Joint Commission has been ap-

I have given directions that the was in excess of the sum estimated th t the expenditure has fallen short of the amount anticipated; and that a considerable addition has, in consequence, been made to the accumula-ed surplus previously in hand. The estimates for the paesent year Speaker and Gentlemen of the will be submitted to you. You will find they have been framed with every regard to economy compatible the efficiency of the public ser duties, in full confidence that you will apply vonreelves to the performance of them with patriotism and earnest-188. May the Almighty Ruler of all so guide your deliberations that they may result in promoting the prosperity

ON THE ICE. Maria Ann went to the front door, imper had come. She had been deliveri g a short address to me conloor she remarked. I like to see nost prompt and emphatic manner. ment, and to affo d essential aid to be my better half sliding across he sidewalk in a sitting posture. aggested, as she limped back to the loor, that there might be such a thing is too much celerity; but she did not wem inclined to carry on the conver-

Right in front of me. on the slip seard one of them say: I have only av two hands to depend upon: hat is fortune enough for any man vho is not afraid to work. I intend o paddle my own cance. I believe ! can make my way through the world -his teet slid out from under him and he came down in the shape of big V. I to'd him he co ld not make is way through the world in th t di rection, unless he came down harder.

Then I slid along behind a loving Anna Bishop Their hands were shall be your stay and your support;

ourt house next actracted my atten tion. Ah. said one, Judge Foster will ule that out. We must concede the first two points. We can afford to do is if the evidence sustains in it the third; but on that position we must laborers and others into the Province; Itake our firm stand. -his time was up. I left him moving for a new mused. What a lesson the co

Tvo lawyers coming from the sermon might be based-I got up and took the middle of the street to pre-BREAKFAST .- EPPS'S COCOA .--GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING .- "By a horough knowledge of the natural aws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a care-Bills for the consoli lation of the ful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa. Mr. Epps has for regulating the Technological Col- provided our breakfast tables with a lege, for which the Legislature has delicitely flavoured beverage which may save as many heavy doctors -Ciril Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk. o her Lich picket is labelled - JAMES

Landon." MA UPACTURE OF COCOA .- "We Deiay animng forward with the letter | the Asylum for the Deaf and Dunb, will now give an account of the process and of the Asylum for the Bind, will adopted by Messrs. Epps & Co., be submitted for your consideration. | manufacturers of distetic articles. at No provision has hi herto been made I their works in the Enston. Road. Lonin this Province for the truning of don."-Caseding " Guide.

enough to require on the part of the Loss of Voice. Orange Street. St. Legislature the same attentio which John. N. B., 1869. Mr. Fellows-Sir : has already been usefully given to I am bound to award the palm of merit other afflicted classes of the popula- to the preparation of Hypophosphites. ion. Experience in other constries discovered by your I had occasion to having snown that, by proper about use it myself in a case of Aphonia. the condition of these children may which would not yield to regular be greatly ameliorated. I command treatment, and am happy to say, it their case to your humane considerat proved to be all that you claimed for it, having acted with expedition and I recommend to your attention the entire satisfactions. I feel called upon propriety of adding to the Institutions to publish the fact, that the profess under Government care, an Institute im may avail themselves of a remedy Asylum, where those unfortunite in your Compound Syrup of Hypo-2 110)Bs. M. D.

> THEY EX COLUMN A ADMINISTRA Shash rices Vegetable Pills now superper'y engage coated cannot be excelled

. .. Pill contains the active properjustice in the Courts of the Province; ties of Mudrake and Dandelion, a for giving increased efficiency to the well as Colocynth and Extract of law for the trial of controvert dodec- Hy se cous. Test them for your tions; and for come lidating and over straffic in. One hox contains, amending the laws relative to our a our 23 Pills, and each Pill is a witherent dose for an adult in ordinary.

entertainment

whelmed in the sands of the desert oals be lest out the r in tree.

letter from her meket.

whether he was r ading a real letter. His even seemed closed; he uttered sigh, and would have frinted, had not Unc'e John caught 'In in his arma The letter was written to Daisy by her brother Edmund. He had been picked uninto Pucific and carried to the South Seas by a trading vesse! thence be had worked his way to Ca'i fornia, encountered Charles Worthington reaming about in the gold regions -they had speculated there and made. great fortunes, and were coming home the prince lived, ever since."

POOR

"Having told you, my dear children said Uncle John 'I continue: Abou "Truly, Flower of the Daisy," he said thy cedar-tree shines; but my more than all else-a package with They did not look at Daisy, who scarce possessed strength to draw take it from the boughs of the ho There's one seat too many,' he As Uncle John attered the word. Measures for the management of > Joe's nec's, she sobled moon his by som, while, with ever full of won der, he read the letter from his sor Asher adon, he seemed to doubt

COPY

Charley. I fear he has taken to more condy cornucoplas, and the presents of again, never to leave them more; and Government of the Dominion, having "vil ways still . He may be dead in | needle work, and books, and garlands as Daisy rested on her, dear brother's declined to recognize the award until deed! Unhappy that I am! All flashed forth in the ight of the tapers arms, with her rosy check upon his its validity shell be determined by connected with me seem to turn out -as this aplended Christmas tree breast, she said, laughing and crying: some comp text tribunal I have enbursted forth on the eyes of all -the | "Father dear, how do you like your | deavoted to expedite the preliminary The merchant uttered a groan. Old young Durlings attered a suppressed Christmas gift ? " Joe looked at him with deep commis | cheer, and "Pet," in curls and a pi mo | The windows shook as she spoke | marter before the Privy Council is Horte, made a reckless and desperate It was, donbriess, the merry cobiling England. Some progress to this en-I am more unfortunate than you attempt to climb upon the board and highly pleased with themselves and I has been under and I hope that no are, Mr. Worthington, he said, in a carry off the prize at the point of his everybody else, and the holy night | obstacle will be found to prevent a

There the conversation ended, and the child's cheek flish so, and why lit and aprend around its cheerful you. You will learn with satisfaction merchant and bo de-keepne separated | that dazzling light in her exes!" light, and langhed, and | that the Revenue for the past year Through the following week untir- But now Uncle John and lealy the merry goblins seamed to shout ing efforts were made to collect the rivited everybody's attention For resources of Worthington Brothers. the moment he was the centre of ex-But slight success crown d the mer- cited interest for the whole Darling chant's efforts to rescue the house. family. He seemed to f el the respon-Old Jue started as 'he listened to Friends of past years seemed to have sthilly resting upon him. He reflect. grown cold, and regretted their in- ed for a moment-miled dreamily: ability to render assistance; and it thumped on the table-and then be- Mr house succeeded in making all pay- "The tale I am going to relate, my And he dabbed his bald forehead with ments up the day before Christmas dear young friends," said Uncle John, to deliberate on the affairs of the Prohis old bandanns handkerchief as he In this, however, the firm succeeded, "I must inform you, is strictly true in spoke. Don't say that We thington and a Mr. Worthington locked his every particular. It was written d wn on the continued presperity which I now leave you to your important safe, and put on his hat, he drew a by the king of the genii. and then the Province has enjoyed during the long breath o' relie. Then taking caught up in the beak of a great bird his old book-keeper's arm. he wert called a roc - and the Prince Camailhomeward with a thankful heart, zaman, ha ing been ship wrecked on a and, as they separated at the corner, desert island where the bird came to feed, killed the roc and the story has people of Upper Canada frankly ac-Let us keep a good heart yet, old been in the p a o Biglad, where how the story came to be known. will next proceed to relate it for your "There once lived in the city of Bugdad an old nerchant whose name was Barilzie, which, being translated. is worthy m m. He had a clerk named Amas-sen during-not malike the ference to the surplus will, doubtless. long time Abou ben-darling served the present session. I hope that the ex | lent knights of St. Cris in. They vans brought to Bagdad all the treasures of the coast But misfortune debts owing to the Municipal Louis came. The caravana were over-

John. "just before the great festivity which comes on about the twenty-fift day of the month of Snows. About bordeling came home that day. tanking of the misfortune of his pa blizas; the tapers therein shine like stars, and many gifts hang down from Here Pet suddenly burst forth -Why, it's like out tre! he cried heart is dark, and there is no gift There is a gift for our father.' said Paribanon, or Flower of the Daisy and, as she moke, there was a curious uidden languter in her voice. There

And, throwing her arms around of l'here will likewise be submitte as a l'anily Medicine for general pur-