A liberal discount allowed on advertisements inserted for extended periods, Advertisements witnout special instructions inserted till forbid, and charged accord-Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any

TETI LIAM LAIDLAW, BARRISter, etc., Milton. Money to loan. 32

YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR W . ciare Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak-

Church streets, Georgetewn.

HN DEWAR, BARRISTER, 191117 'cown Atterney, Notary Public, er, Glazier and Paper Hanger. Shop on foil trait, fiton.

RS. D. & A. P. ROBERTSON. Milton, Oat. Office at their Drug Store, Main attect. D. BOBERTSON, M. D., M. : A. P. ROBERTSON, M.D.

I.C. GREENE, BARRISTER AND . Attorney at-Law, Solicitorin Chand-ry, Vitary Public, &c., &c., Wellington ware Money to lean on moderate terms.

MiGIBBON, Barrister, Attorneyat-law. Solicitor in Chancery. (Conveyancer, &c. 4) Sice-in Town Hall, between Thomas Little and Wm. Payne is Milton, County Halton. ". "Money to loan. about to be dissolved by mutual consent as

JOHN NEWTON & SONS.

Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done. Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Firlled Cloths, Satinets, of their own make, always on hand, for sale for cash or wool.

ONE's to : lean in sums to suit borrowers. No commission.

JOHN DEWAR. Barrister. &c., Town Hall, Milton. CHISHOLM & LIIDLAW.

BARRISTERS, HAMILT N. SMANCH OFFICE - MILTON.

from Life or Phot BRIDGMAN & FOSTER. 39 King St. West, zoaaaso Hotel

1. 10 MAS CLARK, Georgetown Ont. ...tive hostlers

Main Street, Million, Ont.,

JOHN WALLACE . . THE WALLACE HOUSE IS THE best in Milton. Travellers and others ean depend on superior accommodation. The BIG MORT

A Careful Mostler in Attendance" boot wines and liquors.

Canadian Hotel,

Ontario, Commercial Travellers, Farmor sand the travelling publicgenerally willfind this house just what they require. Call F. CROOKS, Manazer.

commodious stabling. Attention to guests

SHERIFF'S

estate of the said Defendant, William Smiley, the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious

G. CRAWFORD McKINDSBY,

Showiff's Office, Milton, 190 July, 1978.

COUNTY OF HALTON

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1873.

TERMS .-- $1 in Advance. Credit $2

Ontario

ACADEMY.

HE UNDERSIGNED BEG 10 inform the inhabitants of Halton, Wel lington and Peel that they have purchased the interest of E N. ORR in the above Marble Works, which they will continue to Monuments, Headstones, Tombstone: and anything in the Marble Line. executed in the best style. Granite Monuments imported and Finished up to order. G. MANHESON, B. A., BARRIS. Freestone for building purposes finished to ter, &c. Office-Corner of Main and order on the shortest notice. No apprentices and none but first-class workmen kept. HENRY J. ORR,

HENFY'H. SPIERS Georgetown March 6th, 1873, 36-ly

the large and commodious house lately D BERT WANTON APPELBE, BAR- occupied by the Rev. N. Burns, and is now The rister, Attorney and Solicitorin Chan- prepared to accommodate a large number of ery. Oakville. Official Assignee for the boarders-for terms apply on the premises. CHARLES CRAIG, Proprietor. Milton, Oct. 15th, 1873;

ACRES IN GOOD CONDI I tiony subject to unerpired lease part of lot 6 and 7 on 10th con., Esquesing. GEO, BRAIN, Hornby P. O.

NOTICE.

Mr. Little is retiring from busine s. Al hands of the Clerk of the Court for collecof Boyal College of Dental smiths shop being the property of Mr. LITTLE AND PAYNE,

> Qmagh, 29th_Oct., 1873. JAS. A. FRAZER,

For the County of Halton. LL'ORDERS left either at the "Cham-A pion" Printing Office, or at my own O nce. on Mill Street, town of Milton, will be strict-any other grocery in the county.

AND ALWAYS FRESH. A FIRST CLASS LONDON BAKER the province as a bread maker.

ACTON Planing Mills.

MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF

M uldings do.

ALL KINDS OF

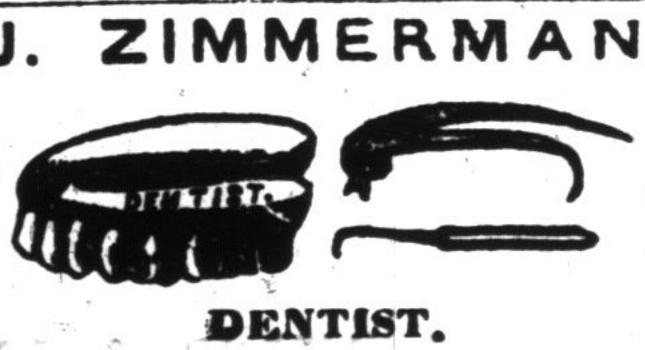

Lumber Dressed to Order

IN FIRST-CLASS STYLE.

Also, manufacturer of

IMPROVED SUCTION PUMPS

Which are delivered on short notice and on reasonable terms.

Zimmerman, February 27th, 1872. W. Barber & Bros.,

Georgetown.

Constantly on hand and made to order.

ro · male DWELLING HOUSES.

FOR SALE

WELLINGTON SQUARE,

TOGETHER WITH THAT

SWINYARD PLACE.

Centains 475 acres of really choice land very beautifully situated, fronting on Lake Ontario, opposite Burlington Canal

and at the junction of Burlington Beach with the main land; a part of the Brant farm). It is immediately at the terminus of the Hamilton and Northwestern Railway, and where in all probability the Wellington Square station of this road

one or more farms to suit purchasers.

The land is in a high state of cultivation.

well fenced and nicely watered with cattle, &c., and two small houses for workmen. A large young Orchard, con-teen bundred Pear, and several hundred choicest varieties, some of which are already in bearing, and the orehard of taining about two thousand Apple, six

Peach, Plum and Cherry trees of TERMS. - Bay one-third cash, with interest as may be agreed upon at

The Aldine, while issued with all

BENJ. EAGER.

475 ACRES OF LAND, Can't you even induce Bridget to

Commercial and Mental Arithmetic, Business | MAGNIFICENT KNOWN AS THE CHISHOLM ANDREW

the Village.

will be built.

the farm. There are

Law, Medicine, Surveying, &c.

AND SHORT-HAND WRITING Taught by pushing teachers

Room for any number of Students, male All the work of the most proctical nature. J. Tait Principal. Teacher of Classics, English Grammar, etc.

A. D. Campbell, Teacher of Penmanship Drawing, et .. M. McCo mick, Assistant English and lassical Teather. F. Dunn, leacher of Telegraphy.

Mrs. F. Dunn, Teacher of Music. Send for Circular.

Central Grocery!

E, HA HAM. AVING BOUGHT THE GOOD will of the old established and popular Baking and Confectionary Business

so long carried on by E. Booth, has added | time of sale. a well assorted stock of FAMILY GROCERIES,

& GLASSWARE And respectfully solicts the patronage of the people of Milton and surrounding country He can and will sell Groceries lower than any other House in Milton. In this department all he wants is a trial.

leas from ten to twenty percent, lower than the regularity, des none of the tem-ITS WHOLESALE & RETAIL povary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an ele gant miscellany of pure, light and has charge of the takery-second to none in graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of Remember the place .- Booth's Old Stand. | artistic skill. in black and white. The a world wide reputation, and in the come, but I must be a little hospit- Creighton, I hate you!" art centres of Europe it is an admitted atle, I suppost." taste winch recognizes the advantag s ef superior artistic quality with great. Eria.

Every subscriber to The Aldine for painted in oil for the publishers of The Colorado picture was purchased by under the sun and earth did the familiar with her history?" THOMAS EBBAGE. Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The sub in The White Mountains, New Hamp-similes of the originals. preference for a figure subject, the pub- found fault as usual, and Lillia be- able!"

chromos free. For 50 cents extra, the chromes will be sent mounted, varnish

The Aldine will, only be obtainable by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser without responsibility to the publishers.

CANVASSERS WANTED, Any person wishing to act permanent ly as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying ventings. The owner is requested to pretty picture as they rove property, pay charges and take Greyland's library.

LILDIA'S TRIAL.

BY CORA CHESTER.

"My dear, this coffee is abominable. The fastidious gentleman pushed his never knew you had married " tip of his teaspoon. "Better get your eye-glasses. Ralph," coming a married man!" retorted a weak fretful voice behind the coffee urn. "although your eyes to you, Mollie! Did you think your are generally sharp enough to discover refusal had crushed me utterly for your own and Lillia's saire. be careall the little deficiencies of my house- ever f" graph offices, wharf and business part of Isn't the steak overdone, or the muf- called herself foolish to attach import-

. The house has been thoroughly re- tonet hard f" moddled throughout and is commodious, "Your tongue is sharp enough, at of the demon jealousy did she discover half of ground nicely laid out in lawns, sweeter temper !- Lillia."

THARM any other trifling orders this morn- with intense hungry eyes.

try the temper of a saint with your sareantic tongue!" He finally tasted of his coffee again made a wry face. and ended by drink. ing it all and reaching "for a second Then feeling absently in his pockets, he tossed a letter to his wife and soon forgot his ill-humor in the

The property will be sold en bloc or in morning paper. While Lillia is reading her letter we will look across the table at her pale little face opposite Ralph; and al ally forced upou her. several spring creeks running through though my heroine had appeared to - encounter, she had loving dark eyes, BARNS a sweet winning mouth, and can be a morning called Ralph to her.

very charming woman when she STONE BASEMENTS UNDERDRAINED chooses. Before marriage she was regarded by the gentleman opposite as an angel, sphere; vet this same angel must now be able to bake pies and cake, and teach an ignerant Irish girl the mysteries of cooking. With pretty child- Jou mend it ?" ishness Lillia had confessed her in-About three miles from Wellington Lillia, always petted and spoiled the broken bauble.

> happiness of two lives. "Whom was your letter from ?" ask- golden curls tell-upon Ralph's hand ed Ralph, in a pleasanter tone, after and whispered, tremulously: glancing over the money market, and seeing that his pet speculations were in a fair way to succeed.

"Cannot you be a little more ex-For reply she tossed him the letter, and went on munching her toast.

"A friend," answered his wife, lacen-

"So you are going to have a visitor, Raiph. It you object, I will write mouth, seathing tears and outraged and tell her that we don't care to see love, which threatened to befray njured tone. "You can have your she has wounded me." number or volumes for ten times its very particular friend, is she not ?" "O, one of the dear five hundred I met at school. She has married since as with bowed head she listened to his

his wife in the excitement of buying street, and made his way to his office

"What a fool was to marry Ralph breakfast ?" different, and I titiuk, nay, I know that | Ralph.

sorrowful don't-carish figure. madly! and what has my hero, whose | uce, we were lovers once."

If any subscriber should indicate a much as this one had done. Ralph none other of the mascoline sex availfeminine loveliness stood upon the wild cry of his heart Ralph knew that upon the floor.

my victims, poor fellow!"

her best chamber, and watched her and baby tears. At last there came a the snuny south parlor. The windows orisp white necktie, and talked in a flowed freely into her coffers, and in the fruit trees, and red yellow maple the blue eyes, pink cheeks and dimples greenbacks into her pocket-book. carpet and lay in the beams CAME TO THE PREMISES OF THE quite bewildered her silent auditor. For six months Madam Mollie flaunted shine upon the floor. Lillia subscriber. let 10. 7th con., N. S., Down stairs they went together, with in fine laces, cashmere shawls and to a large chair, and Ralph buildings are about the Nelson, about the 1st Nov., two red arms twined about each other, quite velvet robes; then like wild fire the her towards the window, but she of the town, and well situated for steers and two red and white heifers. in schoolgirl tashion. They made a news flew shout town that fom but she was not prepared for Mollie's vorced man who had deserted his wit start of surprise. nor for Ralph's that he might follow this modern Circe thervous grasp of her efriend's hand, when the news reached her.

and the sager:

"Why, Mollie Moore! this you?" pleasant surprise, to be sure; and p from him in diagust, and viewed a! "And I never dreamed you were little of the nauseous liquid upon the Lillia's husband," laughed Modie, "The idea of Ralph Greyland ever be-

"Why, does it seem such an anomal

Fronting on Lake Ontario, within one keeping without them. Are you quite The question was asked in a light minute's walk of the Post-Office, Tele- sure that that is all this morning? laughing tone, and although Lillia tally called himself a fool as he reflus neavy, or the cream sour, or the ance to it, a new weight seemed crush. poured into Mollie Creighton's car. ing her heart, and only by the presence

Mollie seemed utterly unconscious are blessed indeed!"

One night the bitter truth was parti- from his brow, nor children's imme "Contemptible little firt!" she mutvery poor advantage in the morning's tered under her breath, as Molie, door-step late that night, a new whom she now cordially hated, one solve was in his heart. He had con> not. Mr. Greyland? Well, here is a for Lillia had returned to him. test for your ingenuity."

"More easily than I can a broken Mollie Creighton came to destroy our shone with anger. itself will shortly be a large source of ability to her lover, yet, after the wed heart," muttered Ralph Greyland. happiness I was fault-finding and "No. Ralph Greyland, the time for ding-day, forgetful of this, he had hoarsely, taking the perfect marble hateful. Lillia, poor child, grew dis-

Square, with about 40 acres cleared and seemed in a fair way to degenerate "What nonsense!" laughed Mollie fenced, 20 acres of which is planted with into a disagreeable sarcastic woman. with a long side-glance at Lillia he-Love had almost departed from this neath her golden lashes. But Lil'ia's all in the future." and deluded couple, and all for insignifi- eyes were bent resolutely upon her balance in six to ten yearly payments, cant foolish little causes, too small, one work, and as they stood in the back would think, to be able to destroy the parlor, Mollie concluded she beard. She leaned over until > "They are less difficult to connec than the links which bound gether in the years gone by." He raised his eyes to meet Mrs. Creighton's tender down-cast glance. The mad infatuation which years before had bound him as ber slave again seized him. Forgetful of his wife, he bent and left one long fervent kiss upon the delicate blue-veined arm. Lillia's back was towards them now. "That depends entirely upon you. but it was to hide the trembling "Contemptible little flirt!" "Don't make me out a brute," in an muttered; "she shall not know that possessor of a complete volume cannot house full of company, for all I care. Both Ralph and Mollie, after a glance grance caused the pale vision above duplicate the quantity of fine paper Mollie Creighton," with a glance at at the quiet figure, looked relieved and engravings in any other shape or the letter, "pretty enough name. A Mollie escaped to her room, and Ralph: faintness. But Mollie was all encom- Liff's," he was gonesia made a hasty exit from the house. "O Ralph ' Ralph !" Zoobbed Lillia

The those days, and is a widow now, I be- retreating footsteps, "you loved me Illustrations of The Aldine have won lieve. It will be a bore to have her once, but she has subbed me! Mollie But, will unknown to Lillia, Ralph's Her husband noticed the weary tone, eves were being opened, and consci-

> When there, he found his old-time Lillia ascended to her room, and backelor triend. Launce Hartwel Are you siways on the mark after Greyland! Our dispositions are so "Not always so prompt," laughed, and Mollie turned to meet the advanc-Chromos. The original pictures were frowsy black hair, soiled wrapper, and with you, is she not? That is, the the watcher above. world calls her charming, but to me Aldine by Thomas Moran, whose great, "No wonder," she nighed. Wby she is unmasked. Of course you are comer, taking Mollie in his arms, "we of Lillia's house. "Break the truth shire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green every wish was to be law to me, be- "You mean that you were her lover with me to morrow, and in Europe River, Wyoming Territory. The differ- come in my eyes? Well, to be truth- once." corrected Launce. with a bitter shall be safe to live for you and love ful, he has degenerated into a fretful, cynical laugh. "That is Mollie Creigh you. Mollie will you make this sacri selves is pleasing contrast, and affords a overbearing. fault-finding husband; tou's speciality, alturing new victims. fice for one you profess to ove t some display of the artist's scope and enough to drive one at times to the She cares not whether they be marti- would think only of the dagrace of ast! Ah, if she could have recalled coloring. The chromos are each worked verge of distraction! Nothing like ed or single, sid or young, rich or such a step, but I would lay down my hose cruel words she would freely have ZIMMERMAN, UNIARIS, I lishers will send "Thoughts of Home," came daily more careless, fretful and lishers will send "Thoughts of Home," came daily more careless, fretful and lishers will send "Thoughts of Home," came daily more careless, fretful and lishers will send the door, and covered the dead face kiss him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered times with the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the dead face him passionately several times with kisses. The sight of her anguish the door, and covered the door, and cove inches, representing a little Italian exile, when one evening a carriage stopped Hartwell was too noble to descend to then, with a wild cry of, "O, oh. filled Lillia with sudden strength, and whose speaking eyes betray the longings at their door, and a dazzling vision of malicious backbiting, and against the Ralph!" she fell in a senseless teap as the men entered the house and laid?

he was listening to the truth. surprise, though ? I didn't tell when gery and suicide by her folly and mad home to find death waiting in his wife's I should arrive, for fear I couldn't extravagence," went on the stern stlent chamber.

Greyland shall be presented, and an- Parisain rebe or love of a bonnet was Father of all heard his petition and swer for his personal appearance him- beyond his means, she would sulk and answered it. She conducted Mrs. Creighton up to to distraction by his recriminations Ralph took Lillia in his arms down to way, while her devoted husband fairly mined leaves had blown

She expected a friendly greeting, tin e, with a Colonel Raymond, a diseemed conscious-stricken, for I wil do her the justice to say that she lovr 'ed Fom Creighton next to her cothe:

and flattery, and fore around in regu lar stage style. Their she gaverup society, closed her house, and disap penied one night, no one knew where I hadn't heard of ther since until she turned up as your guest She is s dangerous woman, Ralidi, and for

Ralph flushed crimson, and he then membered all the silly flattery he had-"Forgive me, chum." continued his friend, in a gentler, sadder tone; "but riage. What a bewitching, dazzling with feeling. Lillia's heart and

Greyland, and with such a wife you no wife's loving hand to smooth prittle to cheer vis handsome home As Ralph Greyland stood and his

"Poor darling!" he murmured, as ed terribly from the pat of daty and thoughtful liusband; for even before male cheeks with earmine, and her eyes commenced a perfect system of com- like arm in his hot nervous hand, and couraged, and ceased her childish late now to ask my forgiveness. Go > herself lately, but I must atone for it But Ralph little dreamed how his and said :poor wife had spent the restless terrible hours of his absence. To avoid Lillia." Mollie she had kept closely to her room all the warm afternoon, but pity had you or Mollie Creighton apon towards evening a restless desire to me during my days of illness ! You find out what her dangerous guest was triumphed in your disgrace before my about seized her. She heard Mollie !. at ging in the garden, and with an effort she left her bed, staggered to the window, and peered out into the sultry August night. Not a leaf stirred, and long years afterwards she remem> and the choking sensation which siezed her as she gasped for breath in the Mrs Creighton was beneath the robe of thin material. Her white and tell nia Thay may may hands grasped quantities of tuberoues in ber palms watil heir intense fra- ful face haunted her. He waited in stairs to shrink back with sudden scious of this. and thinking that she her clear sweet voice a verse of an We have met in scenes of pleasure, We have met in halls of pride, have seen the new-found treasure, I have gazed upon thy bride. I have marked the timid lustre Of thy downcast ha py eve; I have seen you gaze upon her, Forgetiul I was by. grieve that ere I met thee, Fain, fain would I forget thee, Twere folly to regret thee;

Farewell, farewell forever !" The last tremulous note died away. This anxiety is killing me !" ing figure. It had grown dark, and but many coming towards her. Their Delivium ensued. and one spasm Mollie's side, and almost dragged her "Why, Lillia, darling. isn't this a "She drove Tom Creighton to for- followed another. Ralph entered his from the dead.

engagements, you know. So my little earlier part of their married life and But the little life lingered only a few canary bird has been getting married, know that I speak the truth. She moments on earthly shores, then winged wild weeping eyes, and the happy man is an Adonis, no actually tried to make a victim of me, its way back to the God who gave it. doubt. I knew a Mr. Greyland once, but found I was of sterner stuff, and Weary days followed, days of agony to drawn features of the dal but he wasn't a bit handsome; one of gave me up a cross-grained old bache- Ralph, who never left the bed-side of my victims, poor fellow!"

Ior. Tom worshipped his bride, and his wife, but fought the fell destroyer come one's arms.

Could it be? Ralph, her loved how. except in cases where the certificate is monsensical as ever. I see, although ne was on a cieral salary, hours of watching he prayed as he had bend, clasped her to her heart and given, hearing the fac-simile signiture of Mollie," laughed Lillia; "but come, gave her every indulgence and gratithis very coldness piquet her into light fell across the golden hair sin perfect features. She came to the andow and threw some Incious redchecked penchessinta fullia a tap. "What a devoted has will Ralph!"

norning ? S'e looks like a pirit with that interesting pailor." addition shirt bed as Mollie deamed in take window to biss bet should roin bes. Ail conceed her factowith with this bands. She doubt not bear

Dita telepont bet elimite fremental and annum caresses Perhaps Ralph or as id the truth the said quietly: "Lillin is a xeriable and mercons yets the Creichton, and their of you not excite the Main would call me owise to boing her down to day."

"A limit for me to go" langhed int ie. "Well. good he cherie, and of back the roses soon." Ralah took his wife's white hands in s and strove to search her face. "Denrame, can you not forgive my oNA f I have been weak but not juilty. Lillia. Will you not say that on still care for me, and that the

dear old days of our early love show come back to us? You can nev know-how bitterly I have repented he past. Will you kiss me, my wife. and tell me we are friends?" His voice was low and tender.

prevented Ralph would even then be abroad with Min lie Creighton in her slace! Never! He had formken her then most she needed comfort, and ov. with his guilty love under her rey-rout, dared to come to his wrongoutling d wife and plead for for-she closed her eyes to crush back in tears, and before her rine the old secure she had raved about in her de himm, and which haunted her evenis her dreams. She seemed to again hale the perfume of the tuberoses. and Ralph, with Mollie in his arms. district morkingly before her vision. crimps he was seeking for a reconcitiation now that he night the more asily carry out his plans for flight in the future without exciting suspicion. The thought, already become a cerafoty in her mind, maddened her. tried to draw her towards him; but plaining often without sause, until vainly trying to connect the links of caresses and kisses. Ah, it I could but to your early love and seek for consol thun; I can never forget or torgive

> Her voice was strangely cold and dry. Ralph hid his face in his hands "I have sinned, but have pitty, "Pity:" with a hard laugh, "What very eyen, and killed my little c iid! Why didn't you kill me, toof Deathwould have been too mercitul." "Lillia, you are killing me now with your cruel words att I have grownhateful to you I will leave you. bered the sickening odbr of tuleroses. have business out of the city, but will refurn to morrow and make arrangem uts for a reputition. You are > word from you will take this load of He knelt down beside her chair, and vain for her to speak. then with a choking, "God bless and forgive you

dearer than ever to me now, and one

For a moment she sat where he had heard Ralph's step upon the gravel left her, then, with a will cry of, behind her, she commenced singing in Ralph couse b ck ! I'll forgiv-you "" she fell to the floor. Then with a weary sigh of pain she crept into bed that night, and consciousstricken lay thinking of her last cruel words to Ralph. Then with the thought, ·I will see him to morrow, and ask him to forg ye me," she sank into a troubled

All the nex day Lillia was restlate for Ralph's resurn, and as evening drew on she sat by the win.lew and watched the road that led to the depot with anxiou ey .. "I was sure he would some upon this train. O, why dosen't he make haste?

It gently to her, Hartwell, and den't tell Lillia sat gazing out upon the bloody body and covered head with pale fixed ace and staring eyes.

"His wife is here," said one, with ler,

d stock of

PLATE

ANY

PEAS

quare

STEDO

10-3up

EMISES

th Con.,

eer, one

ded on where-

or Public

ton,

1873

s, and on for first

, 1873,

sly given

y Inspec-of their examina√ el by the haracter,

21-61

17 77

FROM

imported in several

be better

all parti-

ery Nice

leal Lace ular pri-Wholesale

50 Pieces

Empress ll assorted ll sold at w in price.

rship as best of nination.

ame place

 $\nabla \mathbf{n}$

Of each week, at Milton, County of Halton, Ontario, by NUMBER 23. Eight cents per line for the tirst insertion. cents per line for each anbsequent Business cands of eight lines or less, $5 per The number of lines to be reckened by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid individual or company, to be considered an advertisement, and charged accordingly. Bisiness Wirectorn.

DEWAR, Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Office-Town Hall, Mil-

T. BIGGER. M. D., PHYSIeian, Surzeon; etc., Milton, Ont.

t: Cova Hall, Main street, Milton. WILLIAMA. AGAR; HOUSE PAINT.

S. Dentist. Licentiate tion. Surgeons, Ontario, will wisit Milton on the Little is either for sale or to rent, with or tast Tuesday of every month. Office in without the blacksmiths tools, l'hompson's Hotel, where he may be conulted by these requiring his professional Brices ranging from $35 to $60. Motel Cards.

OUSSES to and from the Station, regulbarly. Every attention paid to the velling public. Good stabling and at-

- Proprietor.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL. TAMES DARRAH having leased this popular hotel respectfully solicits public patronage. Table and bar well kept and

COUNTY OF HALTON, DY VIRTUE | daily asked. "What is the cause of the County Court of the County of tialton, and the cause of disease, and the patient reto me directed in the suits of William Scott, TERST" Our answer is, that they remove the CARDING & CLOTH DRESSING given, bearing the fac-simile signiture of James Surren & Co. Plaintiff, vs. William Smiley, Defendent, covers his health. They are the great

John Martin's survey of partof said Town of Which property or the interest therein of VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, said Defendant, William Smiley, I will offer for sale at my Office in the Town of Milton, on Monday the 19th day of January, 1874, at tive, and Anti-Bilious.

VOLUME 13

carry on in all its branches.

BOARDING HOUSE

FARM FOR SALE.

TOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the partnership lately subsisting debts not settled at once will be placed in the The dwelling house and black-

Debts collected and returns promptly made. De you want money? I am Agent and Valuater for the Hamilton Provident and Loan Society. Head Office, McInnes' Block, BI

Vice-President, W. E. Sanford ; Solicitor ;

John Grerar ; Sec.-Treas., H. D. Cameron.

Milton, March th. 1872.

Ont. President, Adam Hope:

Drug Store, CHREES MANDER, Proprietor. A large and varied assortment of

Just received and opened out. Some extra. fine samples of COCHINEAL, MADDER, Aniline Dyes Crystals.

HORSE & CATTLE ALDICINES A Specialty All calls day and night promptly attended to.

Sign of the

Comps, Brushes, Soaps and Perfumery,

AT GUBLPH PRICES.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable tive herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost J D of two several unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITa perfect Renovator and Invigorator

The properties of DR. WALKER'S

R. H. McDONALD & CO.

Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, California,

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

and cor. of Washington and Charlton Sts., N. Y.

COMMERCIAL COURSE: Book-Keeping by Single and Double Entry.

GEORGETOWN

Penmanship, Ornamental Penmanship, Busi ness Correspondence, Commercial Law, &c. TEACHERS' COURSE:

All the subjects required for the highest grade

CLASSICAL COURSE: Students prepared for Matriculation in Arts,

FANCY AND ORNAMENTAL COURSE:

Vocal and Instrumental Music, French, Ger man, Grayon Drawing, Pencil Drawing, Oil Painting, stc. WELL. TELEGRAPHY

TAIT & CAMPBELL. Georgetown, March, 1873. 39-tf And arranged with stables for horses revenue to the purchaser. Also, 100 Acres of Land in East Flamboro. choice varieties of fruit trees.

An illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest Periodical in the world. Not for sale in book or news stores.

cost; and then, there are the chromos

PREMIUMS FOR 1874-

of his heart.

If the highest perfection ever attained. and languid half sick manner, but ence was how knocking at his heart. The common prejudice in favor of merely looked annoyed, and with a Almost choking with his mixed "steel plater," is rapidly yielding to a few more remarks left the house, pro- emotions of guilty love and bitter self more educated and discriminating ceeded down town, and soon forgot contempt. Ralph had burried into the cuts of The Aldine possess all the deli- with a sob threw herself upon the awaiting him. cacy and elaborate finish or the most bed, and indulged in a good old-faish- 'Ifalleo, Greyland! up to time, eh costly steel plate, while they afford a joned cry. better rendering of the artists original.

ence in the nature of the scenes themcoloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in love."

The chromos are each worked marriage to take the glamour off poer; anything for flattery or conquest. Iffe for you, and if you will fly with liven her life! works are bloods love."

While she sat incapable of moving ed, and prepaid by mail.

JAMES SUTTON & CO., Publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York

be is growing to hate me!" Then, "And, if Mrs. Grundy is to be trust- although Lillia stared intently at the steps were slow, and as they neared to with a glance at the mirror, she saw ed, your home is more alluring than pair, she could not see their fares, but house she saw that they bore a ghastly the year 1874 will receive a pair of her own reflection, the red eyes, ever. Charming Mrs. Creighton is their voices rose clear and distinct to burden between them.

The wext few days passed very and would flirt with a stable-boy were in " come up to time. I never do keep accuser. "I was there during the That night Lillia's baby was born comfertable and complete in all its any rate," muttered the gentleman, how deep and trac was her love for your wife is looking far from well. arrangements, with over an acre and a irately. "Do try and cultivate a the husband she had She has faded terribly since her mar she grave face had grown lun grown to hate. full of ornamental and fruit trees, vege- "Thanks, my dear; I will endeavor Ralph became strangery silent and little fairy Lillia Lee was! With the her hasband's appeal, and she full of ornamental and fruit trees, vegetable and fruit trees, vegetable and fruit gardens, Driving House, Stables, &c., &c., all in first-class order.

Thanks. my dear; I will endeavor to obey the commands of my lord and distrait after Mrs. Creighton's cirtual, often sitting in a corner for hours to me to see her miserable. You have pride and love cried, "No." Should won the priceless gift of her love, she forget that if her sickness had not be with intense hungers are.

> "I declare, Lillia, you are enough to of this scruting, for she continued her | Ralph studied Lanuce Hartwell's childish coquetries, be wildering toilets fate with surprise. This then, was and tendet leve sougs, quite as if no the wom. in hater the cynical bachesuch person as Ralph Greyland exist- flor, who had never be wed at women ed in the world. Lillia, pale and shrine! He had discovered quiet, watched the pair; but she could friend's secret, and Ralph would never wiveness. not read Ralph's beart, and failed to gon't wonder, with the rest of Lun cedetect whether Mollie Creighton's in- Hartwell's friends, why he had passed nocent unconsciousness were feigned through life solitary and alone, wi quered his mad infatuation for Mollie-"You re quite a genius, are you Creighton, and all the old tender leve She held out her dazzling milk-white her sad pale face with its sorrowful a spirit too heavinly for our mundane arm, from which hung a heavy chain eyes rose before him; "I have wander- Ralph's arms were around her, and he "Some of the links are broken, and I true love. I see the past more clearly with weak thembling hands the pushed am .o anxious to wear it to-night! Can now, and I have not made a tender him from her. Excitement tinged her > live it all over again! Dear wife, she is sick, and has o erdone close sultry air. window, dressed in a flowing snowy mi ery away. Be merciful, darling, and geraniums, and she crushed them long afterwards the pleading sorrow-

"Darling," exclaimed the new pitying voice, as they stopped in front are safe from all intrusion here. East" and "The West." One is a view me for a wife? I leved him, O. so Yes, partially. To be truthful. Lad meeting, and this secrecy is becoming Innbearable. Say that you will do