From the Hamilton Times.

Not only has no requisition been presented by the constituents of Mr. Glass. asking him to resign because he condemned Sir John Macdonald's action. but we find from yesderday morning's Free Press that an address has been presented to him expressing strong approval of his action. The address was signed by several members of Mr. Glass's committee and over eleven bundred of the electors of East Middlesex. In so far as the figures go Mr. Glass then stands as follows:

EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF SOMNAMO

BULISM. - A singular instance of sleep-walking occurred at Woolwich. Since the Fenian outbreak a non-commissioned officer guard, belonging to one ! of the intantry regiments quartered in Woolwich, has regularly been stationed at the powder magazine in the Abbey Mandrway, at the extreme end of the Royal Arsenel. in the Plumstead Marsh. A tew days since this guard was composed of men belonging to the 2nd Battalion, 4th Regiment, who are each in turn placed on sentry for two hours. In the early morning, when the time arrived to change sentries, the soldier who had completed his two hours was tound to be missing, he having, it appeared, fallen asleep at his post and walked the marshes and over Bosol hill to Bexley-heath, a distance of four is miles from his post. When opposite Butler's buildings, Dover road, Bexleyheath, he was met by a policemen on i duty, who accested him, found he was asleep, and lawoke him. The some nabulist was very much astonished and alarmed when he found out where he was, and at once asked the police man to telegraph to Woodwich to let the anthorities know a hatchad become of him. after which, accompanied by the policeman, he retraced his steps to: Woolwich. The soldier, who was in full uniform, and carried his knap-yick to and rifle, and had six round of am munition with him, on his arrival was
