murian Syrup, a Protect-Milion of the Protoxide of so combined as to have acter of an aliment, as inested and assimilated Glood as the simplest Witalizing from in the blood, and Great ills," simply Un. Invigorating and the System. The endized blood perpart of the body auges and waste. morbid secre-

my nothing for of the wondills remedy in d. Liver Com-6 Pronic Diarous diffections. Cers. Humors. distruit Vigor. Linens and Complaints. . .. iginating in blood, or acwillty or a low Beingfree are not felexponding reacmunent, infujon, and new

of the system. ap an Iron Conhave been changed of this remedy, from de sufering crealong, healthy, and en and women; and cannot reasonably hes-

d ouch Bottle has PERU-

UP lelburn in the glass. Camphlets Free. DINNIHORE, Proprietor, 0.36 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

U. tario

Walle Works. GEORGETOWN.

HINED DEG 1C Milits of Halton, Wel at they have jurclased (ill in the above will continue to

> " Marble Line, We. Granite Inpurited and . miss s finished to No apprentice INLY J. ORR. ATY II. SPIER

ies. Tombstone

tore. Allin, Propriete.

et. Some extra promptly

AIDER, s Ulystals. Still Patinery

MELHINES

()111111 THE ACTON.

IMPLEATINTS J. R. Mitchell

JOHN WATSON,

the derign mal. For the sale of all kinds of

ALSO TO

STRONG & GREYS.

Orders respectfully Solicited.

Samples to be seen at my

Shop in Milton

JONATHAN BLACK,

WATCHMAKER & JEWELER,

MAIN STREET, MILTON.

All work done promptly, and war-

Entrance through Mr. Hanbam's shop.

J. R. MITCHELL.

Agricultural Implements. The special attention of the Farmers of Halton is called to his

WALLACE GRAIN CEU IIFI.S.

Main Street, Milton, Ont.,

THE WALLACE HOUSE IS THE best in Milton. Travellers and others can depend on superior accommo lation. The best wines and liquors.

Stages leave daily for Bronte and Gerge-

Canadian Hotel, Ontario, Commercial Travellers, Farm- of our customers who had previously been for life under the will of her late husband, wand the travelling publicgenerally willfind doing business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a doing business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a doing business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a long business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a long business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a long business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a long business on the old style of long business this house just what they require. F. CROOKS, Manager.

FOUNTAIN HOTEL.

commodious stabling. Attention to guests a Kilbride, Nov. 12th, 1873,

AND COUNTY OF HALTON INTELLIGENCER.

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON. THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1874.

DENTIST. PRACTICES HIS PROCESSON AT ZIMMERMAN, ONTARIO. Zimmerman, February 27th, 1872.

DRESSMAKING " Done with neatness and despatch at

Miss Cartmer's Rooms above Isaac Cartmer's Grocery A large supply of Dress Trinings will be

E. HANHAM AVING BOUGHT THE GOOD will of the old established and popular , Baking and Confectionary Business so long carried on by E. Booth, has added a well assorted stock of FAMILY GROCERIES, And respectfully solicts the patronage of

He can and will sell Groceries lower than any other House in Milton. In this depart-Teas from ten to twenty per cent, lower than any other grocery in the county.

BISCUITS WHOLESALE & RETAIL AND ALWAYS FRESH. A FIRST CLASS LONDON BAKER has charge of the bakery-second to none in the province as a bread maker. Remember the place-Booth's Old Stand.

Money to Loan. . Attorney at-Law, Solicitor in Chan-IN sums to suit borrowers, only on first mortgage on Real Estate. Apply to the undersigued at his office, Court Honse, Sheriff's Office, Isaac Cartmei General Grocer.

and extensive stock of

GROCERIES, Crockery, Glassware

BOOKS AND SHOES, of Green, Japan and Black article at a reasonable price. All kinds or Full in every line.

TERAS

HAVING LEASED THE HOTEL lately occupied by Mr. George Garvin, respectfully solicits the patronage of the farmers and travelling public. Good wines. liquors and cigars, and first-class stabling and Of all kinds. Our

Men's Stogie Boots, Men's Kip Boots

Men's French Calf. Sewed Boots, Men's French Calf, Pegged Boots,

Men's Sewed Calf Gaiters. Men's Pegged Calf Gaiters, Men's Cloth Gaiters and overshoes,

Women's Misses' and Youths' ware, com plete in every particular. this branch of the business, we are confident valuable property, in one parcel, vizn soliciting the patronage of the public of Having advocated the

The Philosopher's Stone-"Pay as

ISAAC CARTMER, Milten, Nov. 17th.1873.

and, after the facer I got at Newmarket; at least; but I wouldn't have you go too to find that the rumor is talse?" 206 Terauley St., Toronto. I looked down upon him with the > seat. "Upon my word," I said. be bothered with it. But theu, you money, and I might look forward, for know, it costs me next to nothing."

for your election?" "About seventy-five is the usual spooney on Hilda Ruddock then) were our reconciliation is sincere." corner of Ontario and Jones streets, with a figure," I replied; "and upon my word, going for the winter. large two storey frame dwelling, and driving I get the worth of it in butter and eggs the Village Glenwilliams. And parcel No. again. "Well you ought to put down equal annual instalments, with interest at I'm in for six, at least. You won't? eight per cent, to be secured by mortgage Hard-hearted old brute, farewell." Next morning I had a letter from our determined for diss." (A thing everybody had known about a week.) your tents, O Israel!" "I'd a particular reason for not arrangements. As for Gimball, that policy to be plain and straightforward in would account for that. a thing. Why, my father had been the see him at once, and put it to him plain of the jackass and the lion who was making of Gimball, and to think of and plump: "Are you going to stand sick ?"

I had been a lucky fellow. I had been were at grass, and I had no saddle horse you'd come home with me, left an orphan early, and came into the down here. The nag that was kept for Richard." nader the provisions of Act Chap. 7. 36-5t the interim, and had accumulated a get ready his trap. fine fund of experience.

a favorite residence of mine. It is a Evans' little pony scrambled up and cellent wine. Both Miss Gimball and damp and gloomy house, surrounded down the hills at a capital pace. We her aunt were good musicians, with SYSTEM W. WASS I'AS BEEN IN- green mould, and is a dozen miles from leading into the domain of Bryncoed: pleasant evening Next day we went by ancestral trees that seem to distil came, in about half an hour, to a gate beautiful voices, and I spent a most structed by the Executors of the estate anywhere. It is very little changed | there was no lodge there, and as Evans' | out in the yacht, had a delightful sail of the Late John Buck, Esq., to sell on the since my great grandfather's time; the was driving I jumped down to open the lunched on board, and reached home premises, lot No. 25, 1st Con., N. D. S., furniture is of his date, I think, and gate. I was about to swing it to when tired as dogs, just in time to dress the rooms of that period-dark and Evans had driven through, but was stop- dinner. Couldn't go home that night Thursday & Friday, March 26 & 27 dull. The hall is the only decent place ped by a hail from behind me in the house, and is hung with the | "Hullo! young man, hold hard!" The portraits of my ancestors, I haven't speaker was a young girl, mounted on a much respect for my ancestors-I handsome black horse, who had just conbelieve they were a coarse, raffish lot, tered upon the turf. "How de do and ate and drank a good deal more Evans?', she went on nodding in a then was good for them or their de- friendly way to my ste vard. Way You've scendants. But there are some good got your boy home then, have you?

E have now the pleasure of adverse, 7 months credit by furnishing approvious portraits. Sir Whipple Walwyn, by vertising the arrival of a very large of int notes.

Vandyke, a man with a peaked beard, this is Sir Richard, Miss Gimball! Vandyke, a man with a peaked beard, this is Sir Richard, Miss Gimball!" But Also wil be sold at the same time and place and hair hanging down over his she had cantered away without listenshoulders-the courtly painter has ing to the explanation. "What an subdued the glowing tint in his nose, extraordinary thing, Sir, to take you but there it is, nevertheless -the family | for my son, Sir." Gwendolen Walwin, a court beauty of pretty, piquantelooking girl, and wonder-Charles II, time-a decollete, simper- ed how it was I had not made her Also the north half of lot. No. 25 in the 1st ing beauty, who first introduced good acquaintance before, till I remembered Sir Peregrine, by Hudson, in a tie wig, a few days at a time for several years. blue velvet coat and white satin waist- during which period Miss Gimball ha coat, and the glowing red nose, no doubt emerged from the pupa state characteristic of the family, that makes of short frocks and frilled trousers. one think that Lady Gwendolen, his It is a pretty place, that Bryncoed, mother, was perhaps a good deal built on a green lawn sloping right Joshua, is the charm of the collection, estuary of the Tyv; a bright looking was killed in a duel about her, and who ed bolted afterwards with the survivor. were lying on the strand: the cheerfu a week in the family vault at Penwalyn. I've the greatest possible objection to earnestly with those Persian fellows. a house in which their parents have died, pull it down and build another. the sun disappeared behind a cloud, the guild another. music ceased suddenly, the voices and I got to Penwalyn next morning at eleven or so, and sent for my steward Roland Evans, who lives just on the outskirts of the park; the queerest looking fellow you over saw. He wears a tall, fluffy hat stuck on the back of his head; his eyes are long and narrow. and he generally keeps them half closed; he has a hooked nose, and a mouth that is always buttoned up Court, by Mr. JAMES A. FRAZER, at tight into an expression of care and anxiety. He is dressed in gray Welsh MR. JOHN WALLACE'S HOTEL, tweed, and carries in one hand a volu minous umbrella, in the other a square basket, opening with a couple of flaps park, the only pleasant one in the house put his hat on top of that, and balanced had done this he came and accosted me wordly matters. She passed very warmly. Rowland has known me handkerchief lightly over her eyes. ever since I was the size of your thumb

I suppose," said I carelessly; "But we're all right down here." don't know; there's no bounds to the presumption of some people."

much by what I say. Sir."

called upon for a considerable sum treachery as trying to supplant me in

"Lucky fellow, you! said my friend | Sardonyx, as we left the House together easy compassion of a man with a secure don't care two pins about it, the county will have me, or I'd just as soon not "There you go," said Sardonyx, sa- sojourn at Penwalyn, enlivened by invagely. "Costs you nothing! O you cessant canvassing and entertaining all the sick-room. lucky divil? Why. I duresay you won't the county side. And I had hoped to the people send in honor of the event." "Ugh!" cried Sardonyx. groaning a couple of thousand, at least, at the. Carlton, as a thank-offering; or, perhaps, you'd better hand it over to me no end of a nuisance, always leading one into expenses and bothers. Then he was "Dear Walwin,-I may tell you in very active as a magistrate, and as he extreme confidence that the chief is didn't care about shooting himself, not knowing the stock of a gun from the barrel, he was always letting off poachers "You're all right at Cadnant, I suppose; and generally bidding for the applause but keep your eye on Gimball. To of the mob. But I never suspected him of such

was with great reluctance that I order-COUNTY OF HALTON,

The next is a lady-Lady I had observed that she was a very

A sweet girl's face, by Sir down to the brink of the charming window opening on the law 1. I heard the sound of voices and laughter. A very cheerful looking servant open ed the door and took my card. looked more serious when he returne laughter-but I was blind to the ome.

"too ill to see anybody, Sir." ment?" I whispered to Evans." "Mrs. Pendergap, his sister, Sir," re-

"Take my card to Mrs. Pendergap. and ask if I can see her." I was presently shown into the draw-oppose you. Now, poor fellew, "Dear me," I said. quite distressed and is, I believe, sincerely attached to that I had intruded my affairs into "How do you do, Master Richard? Is there danger?"

"O, dear, Sir Richard; well now I the sight of my enemy thus laid low. all this?"

"But nobody would oppose me in my differences of parties and sects appear! reproachfully. Haven't you been stay- first in the field, and in that case if own county; the thing's impossible, I'm glad to see you, and shake you by | ing at his house all the time that he would be ungentlemanly on my part the hand. If I have ever said or done has been canvassing the county, and to interfere with him; so I went back "Tis that distressful Gimball, Sir, that anything offensive to you, Walwyn, never a word from you against him? and told about that leopard. I was we have no fear; none other for sure. forgive me." There is no bounds to his folly and as- "Don't ment on it." I replied; "by- ants have promised him; for they after, and I gave the niggers who siew

"O, Walwyn," he whispered, "do I This coincided very disagreeably with seem a likely man to oppese anybody? my good fellow." what our "whip" had told me, and I was I have had opposition enough; a good deal annoyed at the intelligence. should like to make my peace with all didn't fear the result of a contest but I the world now." found myself all of a sudden likely to be conversation wasn't particularly lively, have been on one's guard against such a the next three months, to a constant and I was glad to make my way from ruse among a tribe of savages.' "You'll take your luncheon with he's sure to go in." spend more than a couple of hundreds have been able to slip away to Italy, them," he said, as I went out; "do. it

I was hungry enough, and glad to Gimball was a retired lawyer who had have luncheon. Miss Gimball had efforts to retrieve my position, and and fish, and saddles of mutton, that made a great fortune—with all kinds of come home from her ride, too, and was spent money like water; but it was all rascality I've no doubt-and settled delighted at having treated Sir Richard down in Cadnant, where he built a house Walwyn as the steward's son. twice as big as any other in the country. were capital friends directly, and I wyn 8.257. As he was constantly giving dinner- felt altogether so comfortable at Brynparties and so on, he had become rather coed that I thought with a shudder of The election cost me six thousand popular in the neighborhood, and he was returning to dim Penwalyn, the ghosts | pounds, and that, on the top of other always ready to head a subscription, and the family portraits. After whether it was for a chapel or a church, luncheon a message came down from or to repla e Morris Pug's pig that was the sick room: "Ask Sir Richard to send for his traps, and stop the night." Well. I hated the idea of sleeping Penwalyn so much that I was tempted to stay; and certainly Gimball's was a very jolly house, and everybody tried to make me comfort.

Old Evans didn't like it a bit. He ed Accra, writing from Cape Pa'ma. sent for me before he started home. says:and when I went out to speak to him. ed my man to pack my things and meet | The best thing I could do, as I thought, he pointed gravely to the wheel-tracks OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN me at Euston for the five o'clock was to beard the man in his own den; on the principal drive. There was express. There was no fear of anybody it might be that all this was only idle certainly a good many of them; but coming forward against me; but I felt rumor, and that I was disquieting my- the doctor, and the parson, and the that I ought to go down to make self for nothing at all. It's the best lawyer, and sympathizing inquirers was absurd. He'd never dare do such these matters. Yes, I'd drive over and "Do you remember, Sir, the story

> Evans; poor old Gimball isn't likely to distance a trifle, not more than six There was a little difficulty about eat me." Hitherto, as Sardonyx had told me, conveyance at first. The carriage horses "Well, Sir-well, indeed, I wish estate at my majority, with a fine ac- the use of the house had gone dead lame, I wasn't going to be put off a cumulation to start with. I had tound and I should have had to send half a pleasant evening by Evans' nonsense a seat in Parliament waiting for me, dozen miles for post horses. Evans kept I believe he'd like to sit in the middle without trouble or expense. Certainly, a trap, I knew, and I asked him to drive of my hall at Penwalyn and drink I speedily got rid of the accumulation me over to Bryncoed. Mr. Gimball's strong ate to the sound of the harp, as and had dipped the estate a little since; place. He was quite overpowered with my forefathers might have done, with low, flattish, open country sprinkled but I enjoyed myself eausiderably in the honor I did him, and started off to the cook, and kitchen maid, and Mrs. Richards, the house-keeper, joining It was about six miles from Penwalvn in chorus. Penwalyn, my place in Wales, is not to Bryncoed, rather a bad road, but Gimball had a capital cook and exeither. The best of it was, I telt so secure about the election. Nobody but Gimball could run against me with shadow of a chance. Gimbail safe. I might enjoy myself as I like for the next few days. Then I might thank about business; about getting ou my address and making arrangements for the walk-over. Next day I went home very reluctantly. I was desp rately smitten with | walkee cross him.' Where's Beulah, Lucy Gimball, and I would have made then?' 'Oh, Beulah live other side her an offer then and there but for one him big hill.' pointing to a hill on the thing-I couldn't quite get over her ap- distant horizon. My heart sank with o reat heartlessness. She didn't seem in me, but soon we were on the edge o care a button for her father's illness; of a broad marsh, and had to plunge except for a minute, when reminded of in and cross it, now up to our knees, perhaps she'd put on a grave face, now up to the middle, now only ankle and then she'd be as jolly as ever next | deep. At last, after twenty minutes' oment. Now if she didn't care for wading, we are across, with the black er father she wasn't likely to care much | mud oozing from our garments as we made me haul off a bit. I had a horrid bad night at Pen- shape of curlew and snipe, so we did e family vault, my funeral attended quite dark, and we followed the guide y all the dead Walwyns—all sorts of in solemn silence, and damp, dismal, ream that a good deal impressed me, longer we were on the marsh I cannot was so vivid and real. A venerable tell; it seemed to me an age, but at peared before me; he had a very angry our blacks indulged in various un- an scowling face, and after looking stern- earthly shricks, which were before Silly boy, what it costs the souls of groans, and behold the glories of men and trumpery!' There was some- we found to be built of mind. Its grandfather whose portrait hangs the drawing-room over the big buffet- remainder left open to the breeze of the park. It was a charming morning. The sun had just risen, and the sky was filled with pink, gauzy vapor, which, in constant movement change, parted here and there, revealing purple mountain ranges, glowing peaks and pinnacles of rocks. neart smote me when I thought of my neglect of this, my own country. running after foreign gods.

nade half a resolution to amend and ake to better ways. Just at that moment I came to a spot where the road the principal drive to the house, is cu through a range of rocks, leaving on each side of it a scraped, precipitous face. Trees growing from the rocks above unite their branches over the The road itself is almost choked with bracken, ferns and wild weeds. and when you have penetrated this tunnel of greenery, there opens upon you pleasant vista of the river valley beyond, with a strip of sea in the distance. Great was my astonishment to see

They were printed in double columns, overcome our fortitude. I was too his gate as I reached it.

Why, Sir Richard, half your own ten- glad to hear he was trapped three days fear he means to try. So I have heard, oppose me for the county. I'm glad with Mr. Gimball; and I had no in- Upon returning to the palatial resistruction from you, Sir.'

TERMS .-- $1 in Advance. Ercdit.$2

J. D. MATHESON, Proprietor.

'O, Sir, then you've been deceived by in the river teased him, so he got out, him. He's been scouring the county I think we were both about as tired of far and near, and everybody said that Benlah as we could be, but a chance you were going to resign in his favor.' This was a very satisfactory state of | 'The scoundrel!' I cried, grinding my mind to be in; at the same time the teeth with rage. Why, one might marsh lower down on our way back

And he did, too. I never could win where the Ruddocks (I was awfully will please me, and I shall feel that spooney on Hilda Ruddock then) were our reconciliation is sincere."

back the advantage he got in having the block of the start of me. My own side looked to me like enormous suspiciously upon me, and no! ody supported me warmly. I made desperate figures were: -Gimball, 8,765; Wal-

Since then I've been living abroad. estate to nurse. As for Lucy Gimball she married a cotton prince from Manchester-and I wish him joy of her. -Belgravia.

Sport on the Gold Coast.

(From the Daily News, Feb. 21.)

A correspondent who recently visit-

"No sooner was I comfortable settled at Acera than I at once acquisced in a friend's invitation to go to Benlah for a couple of days to shoot, and catch Wednesday. 18th inst., the Preentomological specimens. &c. His black servants were called in, and described Beulah as a place abounding in all the luxuries of life, containing a beautiful river, lovely gardens and a handsome mansion, in which sleeping accommodation could be obtained; the miles. I felt this statement to be overdrawn-statements about show places always are overdrawn; however, when the heat of the day was over, the two of us started, accompanied by three servants to carry our gear. After walking round the lagoon that skirts Acera, we struck off to the with casada plantations, from which partridges and bush fowls rose in considerable numbers; but we scorned such humble sport, and diverted our immagination with dreams of deer. hare and guinea fowls. Nor had we gone far before we saw on a hill, about 2 a mile and a half to the right of us, a fine red deer. My friend turned quickly round to me, and said, 'I suppose it is no use firing at him with No. 6 at this distance.' I said, 'Not quite; but nd performing any amount of work as shall meet so many more, it's not r be required of them. worth while going a couple of miles ew process of arriving at the out of our way after him.' We walk. list of the voters is as set forth ed along quietly enough for about an Mowat, as tollows:-The Clerk hour and a half, when I exclaimed. the municipality is to prepare a list ·We ought to be at Beulah by now, surely. But what's that?' The en-

swer came from our guide. 'That, sar, plenty of water live, bimeby we for her husband, after the novelty of the | walk along, and the stink of the thing was over; and this consideration | African swamp in our nostrils; but there was some satisfaction in the J I dreamt I was buried alive in | not grumble too much. It now grew Just before daylight I had a draggle-tailed condition. How much old man with a long white beard ap- last, after crossing some rising ground, were given at the then last election of ly at me for a few moments he said- long responded to by a set of dying spectively. Objection to the list will men to acquire, you fling away for wo- Beulah were before us! The mansion thing so fiery and life-like about the old | height was about nine feet. depth six | The l man-I recognized him at once as my feet, and breadth forty feet, and parts being produced, because if an objecof it were enclosed by a mind wall, the th that I was involuntarily staggered and heaven and the strong smell of the voter refuses to attend, his name shall affected. I couldn't sleep after that, adjacent River Seccoom. A half-nak- be struck off the lists. The-cost ocand rose and dressed and went out into ed negro with fever on him stood at casiomed by errors of the Assessor or the hole in the wall by which we entered, shading the light of one tallow candle with his shivering fingers. The poor man was civil, and told us we were welcome to all he had -which was well meant on his part; but as his wordly goods seemed to consist of a couple of chairs, an old table, two tarantulas or other loathsome spilers If the on the roof thatch, a very ancient female, and a possibility of plenty of be in snakes on the mud floor. I still felt the fine be paid or imprisonment in the somewhat disheartened. My friend, however, set me a noble example. We a period not exceeding six months, or pulled off our muddy clothes, clad to both such fine or imprisonments, in ourselves comfortably in flinnels, got in the discretion of the Court. our provisions, lighted a couple of order to prevent bgons leases and other gandles, and sat down to make the transactions of a similar character. best of it. But our troubles had only they are made penal offences. There is no dou't the Bill will be begun. We had heard a distant buzz. then a rush, and in a second the room made law with the hearty consent of was full of winged ants-insects near-! ly two inches from wing to wing, will be not only to simplify the revisi-They knocked out one of the lights, on of the voters lists, but to make this charming natural grotto defaced by absolutely filled our cups, and swarmtwo huge staring placards posted on ed over our plates. The harpies were alter scruting of votes necessitated by either hand on the face of the rock. nothing to them. This last stroke an election protest.

ir, and then found out I was no my researches-close to th tarks of the deer was the track of eopard. I then reflected that ly buckshot, and that leopard

d large claws. I thought it was lean of that leopard to come between me and my antelope; but then again remembered that he was probable oce I met my friend. He looked But he was ill in bed all the time, sad and said there was no butterflies: he had tried to bathe, but the aligators of our host somewhat revived 'Savages or not, sir, everybody says in the course of time reached the dismal swamp, and saw some glorious white birds of immense dimensions They looked to me like enormous white heron, but our guide said they were flamingoes. For four solid hours I crawled about that swamp, and could within 100 vards of one of them. Had I been crawling about till ow I do believe I should have been successful. At last a happy struck my attendant. He ested that I should lie on my while he went to the other end ightened them down. His noas ingenious, but as I was then lerably more than knee deep in and slush I rejected it. At last we emerged on the other side, and as we crawled home shot with considerable zeal at partridge and pigeon, which we had previously treated with ich contempt. No words can express gratitude I felt when we regained I have not been to Beulah

VOTERS' LISTS.

I do not think I shall go there moved the second reading of a ch the Opposition not only did se, but heartily supported .very important one, being into do away with that tamperg with voters' lists which has become nt occurrence in Ontario conies. by providing means for on the lists the name of all en'itled to vote, and of none tled to yote. The existing mable to prevent the creation lse votes, and the ignoring of true , and the present machinery for rision of the lists is, unfortunatecapable of being worked in the of political parties to be proof correct results. In England is given in charge of a revising , but Mr. Mowat very properthat in this country a Barappointed by the Government h a work would not receive confidence: To place the r process beyond suspicion, he es to place it in the hands of unty Court Judges-that valuss of officials who are supposed mable of bearing unlimited burd-persons who appear on the asot rolls to be entitled to votehis list shall be subject to re. by the County Judge. The list printed, and copies posted in uspicuous place in the Clerk's and copies transmitted to the llowing persons: Every member of ricipal council of the munici xcept the reeve; every teacher Public School in the municipalery postmaster in the municithe treasurer thereof; the f the county; the county judge. of the county judges in case be more than one county the Electoral Division. erk of the peace; the member House of Commons, and the of the Legislative Assembly Electoral Division, respectivewhich the municipality lies; necessful candidate or each candidates for whom votes ber for the House of Commons. and for the Legislative Assembly reo be made within thirty days. no objection be made within ne the list is to be confirmed. ill affords facilities for witnesses tion is made to the vote of any person, should be his duty to attend; if such k may be ordered to be the guilty parties. For every erroneously inserted or omitted. afty is $10. This provision is e purpose of preventing mistakes night not to occur, with the air and ordinary diligence by cers concerned in this matter. Assessor wilfully inserts or fine not exceeding $200 may posed, and imprisonment until n jail of the county or city for both sides of the House, and its effect much easier and more eff c'ive any the coverlet, and he took mine in his similar placard. He was coming out of get at me. Their wrath was music to ary wife and five children. He then my ears, and even gave me sufficient sat down to dine, and as often as he "Sorry to see you in this way," I 'Evans,' I cried, pointing to the ad- spirit to laugh, and lulled me to sleep belied himself to food he put the same said. I really was a little touched at dress, 'Evans, what's the meaning of as I lay. I woke at sunrise next quantity on each of the other plates, morning, and looked out. The scenery and surveyed the prospect, at the sam.

"Canadian Champion" IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

Of each week, at Milton, County of Halton Ontario, by J. D. MATHESON, - - - Proprietor.

OFFICE, -ON MAIN STREET. one month from the date of subscribing, if NUMBER 39.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Eight cents per line for the first insertion. Eight cents per line for each subsequent J. ZIMMERMAN. Business cards of eight lines or less, $5 per The number of lines to be reckoned by the pied; measured by a scale of solid liberal discount allowed on advertiseints inserted for extended periods. lvertisements without special instrucinserted till forbid, and charged accord-Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any Hamilton, 7½ miles east of Kilbride, 4 miles wast of Palarmo

Bismess Directory.

DEWAR, Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Office-Town Hall, Mil TIT H. YOUNG, ISSUER OF MAR-W. riage Licenses, Union Arcade, Oak-

Milton, Ont. Office at their Drug Store, Main street. D. ROBERTSON, M. D., C.M.; A. P. ROBERTSON, M D

G. MATHESON, B. A., BARRISter, &c. Office-Corner of Main and Church streets, Georgetown. TOHN DEWAR, BARRISTER, I hanty Grown Attorney, Notary Public, E., E., Town Hall, Main street, Milton.

McGIBBON, Barrister, Attorney-at-law, Solicitor in Chancery, invevancer, &c. Office -in Town Hall,

Solicitors in Chancery, etc.

Milton, County Halton. ", " Money to loan. CHISHOLM & LAIDLAW. BARRISTERS ATTORNEYS AT LAW

.. 34 JAMES STREET. MAIN STREET and Mr. Laillaw will attend at the "Milton Office" on Friday of each week.

Robert Swanton Appelbe, Barrister and Attorney-at-Law,

Solicitor in Chancery, &c. Official Assignee for the County of Halton. OFFICE. - Main Street, Milton, and Brarch Office in Oakville. I. C. GREENE, BARRISTER AND

Bry, Vitary Prilic, &c., &c., Wellington ware. Money to loan on moderate terms. S. THOMAS, L. D. Surgeons, Ontario, will visit Milton on the Thompson's Hotel, where he may be consulted by those requiring his professional, JOHN NEWTON & SONS, Spinning, Cloth Dressing, promptly done. Blankets, Flannels, Tweeds, Fulled Cloths, Satinets, of their own make, always or

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY TONEY to loan in sums to suit I'L borrowers. No commission. JOHN DEWAR hand, for sale for cash or wool.

Barrister. &c., Town Hall, Milton. DORTRAITS IN OIL LIFE SIZE from Life or Phot BRIDGMAN & FOSTER. 39 King St. West.

Prices ranging from $35 to $60. JONATHAN BLACK,

WATCHMAKER & JEWELER, MAIN STREET, MILTON. All work done promptly, and war-

Entrance through Mr. Hanham's shop. Motel Cards.

FARMERS' HOTEL. Joseph H. Jackson

ExchangeHotel

THOMAS CLARK, Georgetown, Ont. USSES to and from the Station, regularly. Every attention paid to the ervelling public. Good stabling and at-ditive hostlers.

JOHN WALLACE - - Proprietor.

A Careful Hostler in Attendance

TAMES DARRAH having leased this and other Farm produce taken in exchange popular hotel respectfully solicits public patronage. Table and bar well kept and FARM FOR SALE. HOW I LOST THE COUNTY ORTH EAST HALF OF LOT 5 and in good cultivation, good out buildings after the division presaging the dissoluand fences. For quality of soil and con- tion which was imminent, "to have venience to good markets, this farm has no superiorin the county. Immediate possession given. For terms and particular and par JOHN R. LESLIE,

THE FOLLOWING LANDS WILL be sold by Public Auction viz .

PARCEL NO. 1. The westerly half of lot No. 29, in the 11th concession of the township of Esquesing, covered with hardwood timber. The above property is within 3 miles of Glenwilliams, and 5 miles of Georgetown. PARCEL NO. 2. A lot in the village of Bronte, on the house thereon. o'clock in the afternoon at Cook's Hotel in 2 on Wednesday, the 8th day of April next upon the property

J. A. FRAZER,

JOHN DEWAR.

County Court wishing to leave town just then, and it was with great reluctance that I orderthat the Couny Court of the TOWN OF MILTON, making of Gimball, and to think of him coming forward against us! Pooh! for the county, is it all a lie the people of don't see how that applies to me, he would be laughed out of the are telling about you?"

Evans: poor old Gimball isn't likely to be the county of t Monday, the 6th Day of April 1874, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon by the County Judge without a Jury.

Ontario Statutes, 1869, of which parties interested will take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. G. CRAWFORD McKINDSEY. Sheriff County Halton Milton, March 4th, 1874.

Auction Sale.

The Farm Stock, Implements, &c. will be sold on Thursday and the Household Furni

Sale each day at 10 o'clock. H. M. SWITZER. DR. BUCK, DR. CROOKER,

A VALUABLE LIFE INTEREST In Farm Property. IN PURSUANCE OF A DECREE made by the Court of Chancery in a suit of WHITE VS. HALLODAY, There will be sold by Boot and Shoe Department Public Auction.

> IN THE Town of Milton,

IN THE COUNTY OF HALTON,

The 28th day of March A.L

SATURDAY,

From having bought largely and well in 1874, at twelve o'clock noon, the following An annuity of twenty pounds per annum, issuing out of and charged upon Lot number eight, in the 11th Concession. New Survey. TOWNSHIP of TRAFALGAR, in the How do they get on in London, Sir, County of Halton, and Province of Ontario. in favor of MARY HALLODAY during the period of her natural life.

in one month thereafter without interest.

Offices of T. G. Matheson, Esquire, Georgetown, and to Messrs. Blake, Kerr & Boyd,

T. W. TAYLOR.

ditions of the Court of Chancery.

Dated 26th day of February, 1874.

STREET, OAKVILLE, We intend to adhere stretly thereto. Many years of age. The annuity is payable to her tresh butter, all made at home Sir." a deposit of ten per cent. of the purchase money to the Vendor, and the balance with-The conditions of sale are the standing con- next?" "The next thing is a general election, and pressed it feebly. For further particulars apply at the Law

I was waiting for him in the business bore you with their clatter. She divinroom, a little room looking out on the ed my purpose in a moment. as I think, which I generally use when Edward my brother-such a disappoint-I am at Penwalyu. As soon as he came ment! Yes; it's no use making a secret in he deposited his basket on the floor, about it now. He fully intended his umbrella across them. When he thoughts are entirely weaned and at the Parliament house? Indeed, attacks—so distressing. I daresay I am very glad to see you. Sir. I have he'll see you. I'll go and prepare one side Welsh, the other English. despondent even for invective. I "Came to his death while being his The said Mary Halloday is now Sixty-Six brought you a few eggs. Sir, and a little him for your visit." "Thank you, Evans. Yes, I'm all the sick room. It was shaded and was a stirring Radical programme, and floor, and to arrange the mosquito diet of an Illinois jury. doing business on the old style of long credit, and the land upon which it is charged is a stached to the manifesto the name of have adopted this plan, are earrying it out the sick man's great housed successfully with profit to themselves as well successfully with profit to themselves as well successfully with profit to themselves as to be pout the sick man's great housed the time of sale of the purchaser is to pay at the time of the purchaser is to pay at the time of the purchaser is to pay at the purchaser is to pay a "Dear me, Sir Richard; and what a nose, his prominent drooping exclids. In considerable agitation I hurried on flying plagues. I sately entered my ticularly the expense of maintaining a pity—such a fine Parliament as it was! He was surrounded by a battery of to the house of Evans, the steward. On strong-hold, and heard my enemies family, set the table in his lonely abode Well, indeed, and what shall we do physic bettles. His hand was outside the gable end of his barn was posted a vainly raging outside and trying to with plates for himself and an imagin-

"Master's very unwell," said the man; "My business is very important," "Who is the mistress of the establish ng room, where Mrs. Pendergap joined She was a very pleasant, little rown woman, one of that jolly sort who do all the talking the mselves, and don't "About the election, isn't it?"

this sorrowful house, "I had no idea. "Not immediate; O. no; but these

"How trivial," he whispered. "in 'O, don't you know all about it, Sir was certainly charming. The palatial time computing the cost. He is still a such seasons of sickness, do our little Richard?' said Evans, looking at me mud residence was situated in the bachelo

To the free and independent electors of mildly requested the servants to make with a long-handled stewpan in the By and by 1 was ushered up into the County of Cadnant; below that a bed on the table, high up from the hands of his wife, is the expressive ver-