Local Intelligence.

THE Acton FREE PRESS has come out in a new dress and looks very well in it.

THE Acton Brass Band has been reorganized with sixteen members.

"WHO stole that bologna" is the question of the day at Acton just now.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. Messrs. Edward and Charles Scott are visiting their Milton friends.

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.—Don't forget the concert of the Nashville Jubilee Singers on Tuesday evening.

THE prospects for Acton Cricket Club are certainly very good this season. The club now numbers over 50 members.—Free Press.

The FREE PRESS says that the village council of Acton will strictly enforce their cow by-law this season What action is the Milton council going to take?

THE members of the village council have all donned "plug" hats. We must congratulate them upon the fine appearance this improvement gives them —Free Press.

AN armed watch patrols the town nightly and our citizens are preparing to form a vigilance committee, in case such a step is needed.—Herald.

NEW DWELLING.—Mr. John Hunter has his men at work on a new brick dwelling on Foster street. Milton is indebted to Mr. Hunter's interprise for many of her best buildings.

JUBILEE SINGERS.—The Original Nashville Students, the celebrated plantation singers, will appear at the Town Hall, Milton, on the evenings of Tuesday, 15th inst.

The roof of a H. & N. W. passenger car caught fire from a spark Tuesday between Hamilton and Burlington, but was speedily extinguished by the conductor.

LECTURE.—Dr. Freeman's public lecture on the English Constitution which was postponed in consequence of the inclemency of the weather will be given at the Temperance Hall, Lowville, on Thursday evening, 17th inst., at 8th o'clock.

MR. J. A. TRACY leaves town this week and goes to Alliston, where he will take the management of a new branch bank which is being opened out there by the Bank of Hamilton.—Herald.

OAKVILLE.—P. A. McDougall, Esq., Mayor of Oakville, has sent a cheque to Toronto for the amount of the expenses connected with taking a fire engine from Toronto to Oakville on the night of the recent fire.

SAWDUST VS. TROUT.—Proprietors of saw mills will do well to bear in mind that any person convicted of putting saw dust into any stream in which there are speckled trout is liable to be heavily fined, and as half of such fines goes to the informer they are particularly likely to be prosecuted.

THE Free Press says that Acton has a good many "rimmods" who go fishing. The rimmods of Acton must be different in their mendacious from the great original Nimrod, who, we have always understood, preferred hunting to fishing.

FRUIT TREES.—Mr. Charles S. Racey has been appointed general agent for the counties of Halton, Wentworth, Peel, &c., for the Oak Nurseries, Messrs. W. A. Cavers & Co., proprietors. Mr. Racey intends to employ a number of salesmen to handle nursery stock, and will give reliable men steady employment and liberal profits. Applicants will be expected to apply personally or not at their peril.

THE Acton Free Press wants to know whether another Queen's Birthday is going to be allowed to pass without a celebration. We are afraid that there won't be any more Queen's Birthday celebrations in Halton until 1885, when the Scott Act will have run its course, as we have noticed that the hotel keepers generally contribute a very large proportion of the funds subscribed for such occasions.

CONGREGATION.—The Bishop of Niagara intends to hold an Ordination on Monday, to officiate at the Confirmation ceremony in St. Alban's Church in the evening. The candidates for Ordination are all well known here, as most of them have been ministering to congregations in this Rural Deanery. Their names are Messrs. Bull, Forster and Hobbs, who were presented by Rev. W. H. Pigott, incumbent of the church, who certified that they had carefully examined, after which they were duly admitted. After the ceremony of Ordination a very able and interesting sermon was preached by the Bishop.—Free Press.

MR. D. F. Campbell, registrar for Peel County, sent out cards to his friends for a musical Tuesday last in honor of his birthday. He had invited about 60 for a week previous, but as death was unexpected Mr. Campbell did not entertain, but to those who were intimate in his own and family circle, being very popular, he received with a reception of the Hon. Mr. Campbell, of the Dominion Government.

THE REMNANT.—An entertainment will be given in Bell's School House on next Friday evening, May 23rd. The following ladies and gentlemen have kindly consented:—Misses Mary Leonard, Clara Eccles, Maggie Bell and Mr. A. Robertson, Proprietor. Readers, The Misses Kennedy and Anthon. Violin, Adam Bell. The following programme will be rendered by well known amateurs:—"The Night-man in Disguise," "Scene in a Backwoods School." A grand orchestra will be in attendance. Rev. Mr. Keefer, chairman. Doors open at 7:30; chair taken at 8. Admission, 25c.; children, 15c.

BURGLARY.—On Tuesday evening, at about 10 o'clock, Mr. Wm Vanallen, baker, proceeded to make his usual tour of inspection of fire exits before going to bed. The young man, Thomas Towns, who, about four months ago, was sentenced to six months imprisonment for stealing a horse and a quantity of jewellry, near Oakville from Mr. Charles Culham, was kept separate from the rest of the prisoners, and had the only occupied cell on one of the corridors. This arrangement was made for the reason that Towns was supposed to be less confirmed in crime than the majority of those confined in the jail, and it was thought best to keep him away as much as possible from the other prisoners, lest he should be corrupted by contact with them. When Mr. Vanallen entered the corridor where Towns was and went to his cell he found that he was not in it, and while he was looking for him, he heard Towns, who had been hidden in the corridor, shut the door, lock it, and run down stairs. Mr. Vanallen immediately gave the alarm and was released by Mrs. Vanallen. He then went out into the yard where he looked for Towns, but could not find him. Imagining that the latter had managed to get over the wall, he then went outside and looked for him there, as he thought he might possibly have hurt himself in jumping off the wall and been unable to get away. All this time however, Towns had been concealed in the yard and when he found that the jailer had gone outside, he took an old step ladder, put it against the wall and scaled it. Mrs. Vanallen saw him him just as he went over and gave the alarm, but Towns managed to elude Mr. Vanallen and escaped. On examination inside the jail it was found that Towns had picked the corridor door with a bent piece of wire which he had probably picked up in the yard, had then gone to the clothes room, which he entered by removing a couple of screws from the lock, had exchanged his prison garb for his own clothes which were stored there, and had then returned to the corridor and re-locked the door with the wire. He, of course, knew when Mr. Vanallen would make his nightly visit, and laid his plans accordingly. Telegrams have been sent in all directions, and it is hoped that Towns will be recaptured. When in the clothes room he appropriated a couple of rusty old pistols which had belonged to Thomas Corner who was hanged at Milton about twenty-five years ago, but as age has rendered them quite useless, Towns won't be able to hurt anyone with them unless he uses them as clubs.

MR. John R. Barber's eldest boy whilst amusing himself in the mill on Monday, fell through a hole in the floor into the water underneath. His father immediately jumped in and rescued him, but injured his leg in so doing. No other injury was received further than a thorough wetting.—Herald.

SUICIDAL ATTEMPT.—Mr. Samuel Congdin, who resides near Campbellville, Nassagaweya, and who has been in ill health and unable to work for some time, made a desperate effort to curtail his few days of existence on Monday, by inflicting with an old knife two dreadful cuts about two inches long on either side of his wind-pipe which had bled profusely before the arrival of Dr. W. F. Freeman, who, fortunately, had been sent for to see him professionally, and dressed his wounds shortly after the occurence. Mr. Congdin is in a very precarious condition, but may recover.

BAIRD & GORDON'S COMBINATION appeared at the Town Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings, producing "Nip and Tuck" on the first evening and "Col. Sellers" on the second. Both plays were thoroughly appreciated. Mr. Baird fully maintained his reputation as a first-class comedian and showed wonderful versatility, appearing in five different characters in "Nip and Tuck" and doing full justice to all. His performance as Col. Muberry Sellers is remarkably clever, and we trust that he may find "Millions in it." Mr. Gordon divided the honors with him, and Miss Louisa Manfred displayed talents of no mean order as an emotional actress, particularly on Tuesday evening, as Lousia Hawkins. The remaining members of the Company did very fairly.

CLOCKS, JEWELLRY, &c.—Mr. J. W. Fraser, the enterprising jeweller, has just received a very large stock of American Clocks, Gold Bracelets, Gold Rings, and also a lot of the celebrated Boss Spectacles. Mr. Fraser is a practical watchmaker and employs none but competent assistants, so that all parties having repairing to do may rely on having it done in a workmanlike manner.

To the Editor of the Champion:

SIR,—I observe in the News of the issue of the 12th ult. mention made of a "Fruit Basket" by the Rev. D. L. Brethour, who, I learn, is a Methodist preacher in Milton. Said basket I purpose to analyze.

Mr. Brethour states that from the first day of October, 1880, to September, 1881, there were 131 committals to the jail at Milton, of whom 109 were drunkards (that is about 16 per cent. of sober men). From 1st October, 1881, to 30th September, 1882, there were 147 committals, of whom 128 were drunkards. From October 1st, 1882, to April 10th, 1883, (six months and ten days) the Scott Act being in force, there were 68 committals, of whom 63 were drunkards, thus leaving only 7 per cent. of sober men, although the number committed during these six months was more than half as many as during twelve months, to wit: from October 1st, 1880, to Sept. 30th, 1881.

It appears to me that Mr. Brethour is very zealous for the Scott Act, but I think his zeal is not according to knowledge.

I cannot see why he did not give his lists exactly up to the time of the coming in force of the Scott Act, and also during the eleven months and ten days that had elapsed at the time of his writing, unless it was to mystify the public.

A LOVER OF TEMPERANCE AND FAIR PLAY.

The new shed at the Presbyterian church is now nearing completion.

Mr. Stokes, of Cargill, sister of Mrs. T. A. Mason, of Mason Bros., is here on a visit.

A rather handsome lady jewellery peddler gave the village a call on Tuesday last, but as far as we can learn did not do much business.

Mr. Crawford has commenced shipping shingle from the station here.

Business is not very brisk here just now, although we have three fine stores. Farmers are very busy seeding.

A special official train passed through on the C. V. R., but did not stop long. It contained James Ross and H. S. Hoit, formerly of the C. V. R., but now of the C. P. R., W. Whyte, Gen. Supt., and J. W. Leonard, Asst Supt of the C. V. R.

There is rocking with scandals. Some people delight to disseminate them, and in consequence, we had a lively time on Tuesday morning. There was some damage done, but it was not so bad but it might have been much worse. There was a family of five, armed with ugly weapons, chasing one man. More next week. Cannot say how much law will be required, but we certainly should have more protection in the way of police than we have. The citizens are not safe.

Waterdown.

The Messrs. Eager are putting their block in order again, and will soon be able to resume business. The amount received from the insurance companies, $2,600, will probably cover all loss. The stone walls of the building are considered safe, so the work of reconstruction will be less tedious.

The late fire has roused our village fathers to the necessity of providing a fire engine and of organizing a hook and ladder company. A very small engine would have saved the Eager block, for the fire originated in an outbuilding.

The Reeve of East Flamboro', Mr. Thos. Stock, is now recovering nicely from his long illness, and is able to get out a little.

During the week two deaths occurred in our midst, Mrs. Geo. Stock and Mr. T. J. Newman; the latter a superannuated teacher, quite well known throughout East Flamboro'.

From the number of exchanges and "movings" in our midst during the past week one would think our staid old villagers were renewing their youth by trying a game of "pussy wants a corner." Among the changes may be mentioned the following:—Dr. McGregor has taken possession of the manse and grounds formerly connected with the old St. Andrew's Church; Mr. Cooper, whom Mr. Cook succeeds in the hotel, has purchased the handsome residence formerly owned by Mr. J. K. Griffin, and has taken possession; Mr. Crooker leaves for Hamilton; Mr. Geo. Allison, ex-Reeve of Flamboro', has taken up his abode with us; Mr. Springer, of Nelson, also comes into our village.

The High School Literary Society still keep up there usual interesting meetings and the attendance is steadily increasing. Just now the energies of the students are taxed in preparing one of T. S. Arthur's plays for the annual entertainment on the 23rd inst. The programme of the summer examinations, too, has put all on the qui vive. The time allowed for the different subjects has been very much shortened and the general character of the work considerably changed,

Beware of Imitations.

Since Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to palm off Electron and Eclectric Oil for the genuine Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Beware of these similar named articles. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicines they would, like honest men, give them a name of their own, and not try to sell them on the reputation of another; but as they know their preparations have no merit, they resort to the most unprincipled mean of selling them by getting a name as near as possible to Eclectric. We therefore ask the public when purchasing to see that the name Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil is on the front of the wrapper, and the signiture of Northrop & Lyman's, the proprietors for Canada on the back.

A JUVENILE RHEUMATIC

Mr. J. G. Gross, Lake George, N B, says his son, aged sixteen, had acuter rheumatism from which he recovered, but was left crippled by a chronic rheumatism. He was getting drawn together, when he began the use of Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment, after which his cure was speedy and permanent. Young and old suffer from Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Burns &c, and are benefited by the use of Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment.

Senator O'Donohoe has shown proper public and patriotic spirit in urging upon organizations of Irishmen all over Canada the duty of doing what they can to mitigate the hardships which meet their poorer countrymen on their arrival here, and ere yet the immigrants have been placed and provided for. In this kind of work patriotic feeling cannot be carried to far. there being abundant opportunity for giving it effect by acts of kindness to those who need it.—World.
