METHODIST UNION. WHAT ONE OF THE IMMORTAL THIRTY

EIGHT SAYS. News representative called at the Methodist book-room the other afternoon, and addressing Mr. Watson, said :

upon church buildings?'
There's Mr. Donagh, of Sarnia,' said Mr. Watson 'Will any of the churches be sold?' asked the reporter. 'Yes, a great many of them. How many, or which; we don't know yet. A committee has been appointed to decide. It will affect villages, towns and country more than cities, for in some cases no doubt two churches not very far apart may be suspopulation, but some of them will no doubt have to be sold.' 'I suppose some of the city churches may theaters. They could be easily fitted up.

How would that effect of union strike printers for printing establishments and newspapers 'How about the Hamilton Christian Advocate and the Episcopal Methodist book-room there?" The book-room will be absorbed by the of moving the Christ an Advocate to Winnipeg, publishing it under the name of the Manitoba Christian Advocate. Dr. Stone the editor, is to come to Toronto as assogetting $1,000 a year, and he'll get $1,500 now. That's what he gains by union. Bishop Carman gains $500, too. He'll get
