We are going to talk Suits now as the Overcoat time is nearly over with us, but if there is a man in the vicinity of where this paper is published who needs a coat, he could not have waited for a better time to buy one cheap. We have just reduced about fifty coats to $4.50 and $5 that sold before at from $5 to $7.50. It is the money we want now. Then we have a lot of very fine coats reduced to actual cost price and a few more that we want a small profit on; but it's suits and pants that we are going to write about after this.
