MILLINERY OPENING

0000000

Our Spring Millinery Opening takes place Saturday, 3rd April, and an invitation is extended to the public to call on us and inspect our display of choice in and fashionable millinery goods. We spare no pains to make our millinery department what it ought to be, and the success of this portion of our business is ample proof that our efforts in this direction have been and are appreciated by the best people of Halton, and especially Milton. Our goods are right, prices right, and milliners unsurpassed in city or country.

Our Dress Goods Department is overflowing with the newest and most desirable goods the markets afford. We can supply any price from 5c. per yd. up, but as is well known to the public, our trade in Dress Goods is in the better lines, such as do credit to ourselves and justice to our customers. Our better lines of dress goods are all sold in costume lengths; no two alike.

Our Dress-making staff is already crowded with orders. This department has become an important factor in our business and we can now with all confidence in guarantee satisfaction to every customer.
