Ar Tuesday's meeting of the county council, after the presentation by Public School Inspector Deacon of his annual report, there was a discussion about the too common practice of teachers in giving their pupils tasks to do at home. It was condemned by several members, and Mr. Deacon was asked for his opinion. He said he believed that to require children to puzzle their brains at night over arithmetical or other problems was dangerous. It was likely to make them sleepless and to affect their health. He decidedly disapproved of it. The children who suffered were the brightest and most ambitious. was possible that the reading at home well for each applicant to make a of history and similar subjects would

James Kennedy, clerk in Mr. Roche's law office, gave evidence similar to that of his employer. James Anderson Frazer, bailiff of the First Division Court in the County Halton, being sworn, and shown the statement used by the prisoner, denied that the signature attached to it had executions in his hands on 22nd Nov. last against the prisoner's chattels. On cross examination by Mr. Heyd, prison er's counsel, witness said that he sometimes varied his signature, writing it

'James A. Frazer," "Jas. A. Frazer" and "James Anderson Frazer," but he did not vary the spelling of his name. Wm. Panton, Clerk of the First Divi- SATURDAY sion Court in the County of Halton, swore that he was familiar with the BARGAIN writing of the last witness, that the signature attached to the statement produced did not resemble that of Mr. Frazer, that the bailiff's name was wrongly spelled and that the initial of the second name was omitted The jury, after about two bours' deliberation, brought in a verdict of "guilty of uttering a forged document." THE mild weather last night induced some hot blooded people to raise the windows. At one house on Bay Street South two young ladies quite forgot it was Lenten season, so were singing darkey songs-"A Hot Time," "My Gal's a High Born Lady," "Mistah Johnsing," and so on, and had just sung in an audible vaudeville pitch (a trifle worse than concert pitch), "I Want Yer, Ma Honey, Yes I Do," when a real Irish face appeared in the window and a voice full of deep emotion said, "Ef yez wantsh me, here I 'yam." It was Policeman Mahony, who thought they were singing "I Want Ye, Mahony, Yes I Do."
