From Africa. The War Office has received the foltion to the cycling list. She handles the lowing dispatch from Lord Kitchener, silent steed quite skilfully.

dated Pretoria, Sept. 22nd : "Kritzinger, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Oranger river near Herschell at one o'clock Friday morning, rushing the camp of a party of Lovat's Scouts. He failed to cross the river, but the scouts lost heavily? Lieut.-Col. the Hon. Andrew Murray and Capt. Murray, his adjutant, were killed. Deeply regret the loss of Col. Murray, who throughout the war had led Lovatt's Scouts with great gallantry. Under cover of darkness the Boers managed to carry off a gun. They were promptly followed up, and the gun was recovered in a smart engagement in which Kritzinger lost two killed and 20 taken prisoners.' ord Kitchener also reports that the British captured by the Boers in the ambush near Scheeper's Nek, Sept. 17. have been released, and that the British casualties in the recent Vlakfontein engagement, when the Boers captured a company of Mounted infantry and two; guns, were one officer and five men killed, 23 men wounded, and six officers and 109, men taken prisoners. He annonnees that these prisoners have since bren released. He further reports the capture of two commandoes-one consisting of 55 men under Commandant Koch, who were taken, together with their entire transpost, west of Adenburg, and the other, consisting of 54 men, including P. J. Botha, who were taken with 48 wagons and their belongings, 45 miles southeast moved to Bronte.
