> HOW DOES IT SEEM TO YOU It seems to me I'd like to go Where bells don't ring nor whistles blow Nor clocks don't strike nor gongs don't sound

And I'd have stillness all around. Not really stillness, but just the trees Low whisperings or the hum of bees Or brooks' faint babbling over stones In strangely, softly tangled tones.

Or maybe a cricket or katydid

Or the songs of birds in the hedges hid Or just some such sweet sounds as these To fill a tired heart with ease. If 'twere-'t for sight and sound and smell, I'd like a city pretty well, But when it comes to getting rest

I like the country lots the best. Sometimes it seems to me I must Just quit the city's din and dust And get out where the sky is blue And say, Now, how does it seem to you? T . F - 200
