Atmint Those of 1902. a recent report of erts of the past year, Alig interesting facts: crops, he said, had extent. Hessian particularly troubthe certain districts of pea Weevil has, howdamage in Ontario.

had confined their lly to Manitoba. scovered that cuteasily and cheaply g Paris green on bran fore recommended. ld be held in check Nowhere in crops suffered to Potato land, but in the had Various poisons at the Experimental ng better suited to as pisi.) ; all enlarged. han Paris green parsnip websaid, had done A Nova Scotia, ig is gradually e wireworm, noraware on plowings in and. The root and onlong were or the during the attributed to The bud maid only in Noe apple aphis prinward Island. The they were unto small fruits. a spirared, Fitche's Se Scale, Fruitok out for these larly destructive la forest trees, d from a sceleof which bore incausing the rranean flour

LE CARES

many may quitte com old ampl. ogether co he only rem ally, from acte with n that wil

公司

JOR.

经验公司公司

ness.

Bank

The farthe deenforced. not only ther insect able point.

. Winter Eggs. hungi atch fo e scere z, of eac

> as you can feed like my books? ick on two o

ws and get

Discouraging. such room at the top are lazily sunning, to when the sign

Odd and Even. she is twenty odd years ces her more than forty." figure that out?

The Saddest Thing of All. it is the thing they give

MILTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1903.

vate messenger.

pleasure," he said.

loped to the door.

noble benefactor.

It had so chanced that a number o

"Seize the old man and the son!" said

"It is the prince!" he exclaimed.

poff, falling upon his knees and clasp-ling the legs of the prince. "We are in-Neslerov made a movement as if to

Oh. let me see the letters!"

CANADIAN CHAMPION

HIS PUBLISHED-EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, MILTON, ONT.

VOLUME 42

TERM- OF SUBSCRIPTION-81 a year in advance; not so paid $2 will be charged SI BECRIBERS-No paper will be stopped un I all arrears are paid, except at the option o the proprietor. A post-office notice to discon

ADVERTISING RATES. | 1 YR | 6 NO | 3 NO. | 1 MO. . | $00 00 | $35 00 | $20 00 | $7 00 | 35 00 | 20 00 | 12 00 | 3 50 | 20 00 | 12 00 | 7 00 | 2 50

Business Cards of ten lines or less $5 00 per } statutu. The number of lines to be reckoned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid; (iv. riisements without special instructions interted till forbid, and charged accordingly. Any special Notice, the object of which is to mote the pecuniary benefit of any individual, upany, institution, or fund, will be considered ; an advertisement, and charged accordingly. Notices of births, deaths and marriages 25 cents Transient advertisements fen cents per line, except those of lost, strayed, stolen, and wants) watch will be inserted at 50 cents for first in-section, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertio. WM. PANTON, Editor and Proprietor.

LEGAL. D. Dewar. I ssuer of Marriage Licenses, Conveyancer, &c.

ngs and Loan Companies. Money to loan at . owest rates. Office .- Dewar's Block, Milton.)arrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, &c.

Agent for Sun Fire Insurance and Sun Say.

Office: Town Hall, Milton Thomas G. Matheson, Crown Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, O Notary Public, &c. Office-In the Court

William I. Dick, Darrister, Solicitor and Conveyancer. Money Office...Dewar's Block, Main-st.,

Victor Chishalm, Solicitor, &c., Notary Public | Money to loan at lowest rates. Office-Next door to Bank of Hamilton, Milton. loan. Office. First door east of Messrs

E. W. Bayd, Darrister, Solicitor, Notary Conveyancer. Money to loan. Office... Booth's Block, Main at , Milton.

Winn & Co's shoe factory, Main-st., Milton.

Darristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Office-In to get them. This is the store D grain's Block, Midland. T. EARNEST GODSON, WILLIAM STEERS, DUNCAN B. STOREY. Telephone communication with Lindsay and 1 Beaverton offices. Telephone No. 56.

MEDICAL. _____ Edinburgh, Physician, Surgeon, Court and Main str., near C.F.

pposite town hall, Milton. and 7 to 2 and 7 to 8 p m.

DENTAL.

B. Galap. L.D. S., D.D.S.,

Whatev, of Chicago Honor graduate

ARTHUR ZIMMERMAN.

Druggist

Successor to

AMERICA'S

Editorially Fearless.

Consistently Republican.

THE WEEKLY

INTER OCEAN

is a member of the Associated Press,

the only Western Newspaper receiving the entire telegraphic news service of the New York Sun and special cable of the New York World—daily reports

Subscribe for The Champion and

The Weekly Inter Ocean one year, throughout the country.

both papers for $1.45.

7 King St. East, Hamilton

Garland & Rutherford

office, two don't upstairs

Bennett House.

p.m., and 6 to sp.m.

· Bank of Hamilton.

JEWELER

DENTIST, Oakville, will visit Milton on the last Wednesday of each month. Office: No. 44.

Price Only $10.00.

bers both Rim and Center Fire. Weight about 7 pounds. Standard barrel for rim fire cartridges, 24 inches. For center-fire cart-Tridges, 26 inches.

If these rifles are not carried in stock by your dealer, send price and we will send it to you express prepaid. plete line and containing valuable information to shooters.

· THE J. STEVENS ARMS AND TOOL CO. P. O. Box 3255 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

"I had a terrible cold and could hardly breathe. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me im-Cherry Pectoral and it gave me im-W. C. Layton, Sidell, Ill.

How will your cough be tonight? Worse, prob-then a cough, then bronchitis or pneumonia, and at last consumption. Coughs always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency by taking Ayer's Cherry Pecremembrance of it.

burg, perhaps.'

and rode away.

ask for it?" he asked of Vladimir.

mir. "You have not lost the picture!

Why the lie about the fire?"

sale." Vladimir answered.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

METHODIST CHURCH REV. J. W. COOLEY, Pastor Sunday Services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School and Bible Class: 2.30 p.m. Epworth League: Monday, at 8 p.m. Prayer Meeting: Wednesday, at 8 p.m. Pastor's Class: Friday, at 7.30 p.m.

KNOX CHURCH REV. EDW. F. McL. SMITH, B.A., Minister. Sunday Services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m Sunday School: 2.30 p. m. Judge Gorham's Bible Class in Church at 2.45 p.m. Prayer Meeting: Wednesday, at 7.30. p.m. W.F.M.S. meets on the second Wednesday of every month at 3 p.m. The Mission Band meets on the second Wed nesday of every month at 4.30 p.m.

GRACE CHURCH REV. A. J. BELT, M.A., Rector. Sunday Services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School: 8 p.m. Bible Class in Vestry, 9.45 a.m. Holy Communion: Ist Sunday of each mont. at mid-day and 3rd and 5th Sundays, 8 a.m. Friday evening service, 7.30 p.m.

ST. ANDREW'S R. C REV. FATHER O'RIELLY, P.P. Mass: Second Sunday of every month at 1.

Presents.

A jewelry store is the place to come to.

v, can take the place of an offering of dainty richness, such as are here to-day in profusion.

which win their way into the of the uneducated Russian, and the old could I have in such a position? It is excellency?"

with your choosing.

Marchand

government of Perm was an inspector named Ignatz Jansky. He was ambitious to rise and was of that mental and physical must find a cause." caliber that makes a man successful when he bends all his energies, regardless of all scruples, to the attainment ed to obey, for he knew the power of one must do something worthy." Neslerov, and if there should chance to be promotion in his path at any time tion!" Neslerov, as a wealthy noble of Graslov, could further his possibilities. Inspector Jansky entered the palace of the prince with a humility that would have charmed the poor devils bilists." whom his eagerness had sent to Sibebut her name?"

Old woman, what about that dinner?"

"It awaits," said Mamma Paulpoff.

speaks to me to disturb me eating, I

CHAPTER III.

VLADIMIR SENT TO SIBERIA.

TTACHED to the police of the will use my foot."

man and ate in silence.

"Sit down," said the prince, and the that proved his desire to please his road leading out of Perm to the south?" pockets of the other three of the circle. sponsor. "I sent for you." "You did, your excellency. I received Four message and made all haste to.

"I trust it did not inconvenience you to a great extent," said the prince, who was quite familiar with the peculiarities of the inspector's nature. "Not at all, your excellency-that is, not so much but what it gave me pleasure to obey. I am always busy, as you news for you. But first I should be needed a chief. The chief would have pleased to receive from you an answer to a question. What do you wish for most unless the prince was disposed to meeting in a few nights."

cellency. Of course, I make no claim.

lighted a cigar, leaving the inspector were to materialize into a fact.

"As I said before, it is a possibility Tears came into his eyes now at the said Neslerov and relapsed into silence. "I suppose it 's always a possibility "I will buy this. How much do you to one so powerful as your excellency," "On second thoughts, it is not for flattery.

By Ashley Towns

He shot a glance at Papa Paulpoff "Duty, only duty," broke in the prince.

"I do not wonder," he said. "It is a easily accomplished than at any other beautiful face. We do not have them time." in this part of Russia. In St. Peters-"If your excellency will explain-if anything is expected of me, I would"-

as he spoke, but the old man was bend- "But I will explain. You are already ing down putting the hot shoe on the aware that when you were made inspector of police in Perm the field of The job finished, there remained police activity extended but little farnothing but to pay the Paulpoffs and ther east. The Cossack guards and the depart. The prince did this, bade them Tartar cavalry composed the police a pleasant farewell, mounted his steed over the border. But this new railway "Explain the mystery!" cried Vladi- is revolutionizing all that. In each government through which this line of travel passes or is to pass a department of police is to be established. of the steed ridden by the prince. You commanded me never to lose it! There will be new cities develop. There turning white under his thick beard, will be railway stations. The popula- the shops of Paulpoff," said the prince. "is that of a noble lady who was a tion of Siberia will increase and, though "I met there, just leaving, a man who friend of my family and whom we as complex enough at all times, will now was, to say the least, discreditable in children worshiped as a saint. I do present a far greater variety than ever appearance. I spoke to him, and he before. The entrance of foreigners, of was frightened. I saw him crumple a conspirators, will have to be made less paper in his hand. I snatched it from , difficult. The escape of a convict will him. It was a message addressed to now be almost a mere act of stepping 'Number Five' of some mysterious cirupon a train and saying farewell to his cle, calling upon the person bearing that name to come to the shops at a "It will be, therefore, quite necessary certain hour tonight. We shall be in, guards. to establish a system of police with time. Let us ride." than the Cossacks who now command accidents to horses had taken place the rude guards who stand sentinels that day on the forest road. When the inspector of police and Neslerov arover the czar's great dominion in Asia. "Such a department of police has al- rived, four men were within the shop, ready been established in Tobolsk, their horses standing outside, and all were apparently in the greatest eagerthrough which the railway is now completed. It is time now for us to think ness to have their horses shod. Paulpoff was visibly disturbed by this of such a department in Tomsk." As the prince and governor paused sudden influx of the horseshoeing busithe inspector's breath came short and ness, but the giant Vladimir, who never refused a request if he could help a have befriended you. I desire to do so Neslerov, upon arriving at the shop, whispered to the inspector, and both leaped from their horses. low that the leap from it to the posi-Neslerov. "I will search these felnot want to lose it. That prince seem- tion of superintendent of police of the ed to know who she was, and I did not government of Tomsk would excite the lows." Poor old Papa Paulpoff turned white want him to get the picture, so I lied. imaginations of certain people at St. and sank in horror to the ground, suspecting what was coming, but Vladi-"Superintendent of police of Tomsk!"

mir, in whose innocent mind there was "Then come. I am famished. If one Jansky cried. "Certainly. That is the position for no suspicion, stood gaping at the newwhich I intend you. I have watched comers. Once at the table, Papa Paulpoff at- your career. You are eager, ambitious "What have these poor men done, your tacked the meal with the rude manners and resourceful. What better man woman sat with downcast eyes eating upon you whom I must rely to prevent the encroachments of our enemies. It turned to the nearest of the four, wres-Vladimir, though devoured by curios- will be the superintendent of my police, ity, knew the peculiarities of the old who will be my closest confidant. Who others showed evidences of terror, and could be more acceptable to me than then pulled from his pocket a letter.

> "I thank you, your excellency. "Wait. Thank me with deeds when We have here the five constituting the we succeed. As I said before, there are circle." lifficulties. One cannot leap too great a distance at once without a cause. We while Vladimir still looked on uncon-played with himself as its center. "A cause, your excellency?" "What I mean is some potent reason for this great promotion. The chief of ber Three" to attend a meeting of the the Tomsk police will have a palace, a circle at the shops at that hour. Inspector Jansky, having received a large income and will be second only. The name of Vladimir Paulpoff was 1. message from Prince Neslerov, hasten- to myself in power. To obtain that signed.

"Oh, if I could but win that distincname of the czar!" "I think it even now within your "You have discovered something?"

and crashed their skulls together. But "Yes-a very nesting place for m "Good! Give me an idea where this mity of the thing with which he was place is, your excellency. There will charged. "Do you know a forge on the forest sky, while the prince went through the be no more nesting."

is kept by a man named Paulpoft. shoes with his thumbs and forefingers? done this thing! The name is not in "He is their leader," Neslerov said hand the letters to the old man when he scented we do not know. sat there waiting. The police of Tomsk "Yes." continued Nesletov, "this Paul 1 poff, as I accidentally discovered, is the leader of a band of nihilists who meet, the chief of the Tomsk police."

and we shall be ready to act. We must said Neslerov calmly. At this point Mamma Paulpoff came | "Oh!" she cried. both go to Perm from here." Jansky, not being asked to remain in. In consternation and helpless horlonger, took his departure. And then for she saw her husband in the grasp Nicholas Neslerov, who stood there, suddenly from his repose the prince be of an inspector of police. came a man of quick action. He called "What is this?" she cried. from his estate four men in whom he

"It is nothing, mother," said Vladiknew he could place the most implicit mir. "These men have found some let- and smile. confidence. He spent some time at his ters, but I did not write them. Have "Where are the Paulpoffs?" she askdesk writing. To each of the four he peace. We shall soon set ourselves ed gave a letter, unsealed, unstamped, but free." addressed to each and apparently hav- The three Paulpoffs were thrust into formed of their misfortune?"

or told their stories-clear, lucid, con- misfortune. What has happened?" "Go with me, do what I bid you, and vincing-to the governor of Perm. The "They are dead." you will have gold rubles for a year's word of a prince and governor and of "Dead! All the Paulpoffs dead! Iman inspector of police was not to be possible! Papa Paulpoff and Mamma Inspector Jansky, happy and yet agi- doubted. There was no trial, no hear- Paulpoff might die, they were so old, tated at the result of the conference ing-nothing but a report to the minis- but Vladimir! Impossible! So young with the prince, sat in his office in ter of justice at St. Petersburg. Perm on the following afternoon. It In three days the Paulpoffs-old man, of an enemy could kill him in this was growing late, and he had looked old woman and the unresisting giant- healthy place."

hours for Prince Neslerov. "He was mistaken or he has failed." way which Gordon had helped to build. be said. "He would have come if there CHAPTER IV. was a possibility of success." THE MEETING AT THE FORCE. As he spoke the prince's horse gal-T was characteristic of Frances Gordon that, no matter he w great "Good! Then success is possible!"

said Jansky, grasping the hand of his "l'ossible! It is certain. Come with for such favorite schemes as were clos- bit into the tender flesh of her clinch. Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large est to her heart. de It was by reason of this characteris- of the governor of Tomak. Jansky's horse was soon by the side

"I made it my business to ride past deep in the mysteries and intricacies of the Moscow conference, the subtleties of which increased as the time for separation and departure drew nearer, Frances bethought her of a fitting opportunity to make good a promise she had made to Vladimir Paulpoff, the blacksmith. During a conversation held several weeks before Vladimir had expressed a desire to study certain books which were apparently beyond his reach. Frances promised to obtain the books, and she did so. These made quite a respectable package, and a drosky was called to convey her to the railway sta-It was nothing new for Frances to travel alone as far as from Moscow to Perm, but on this occasion her father. with some sort of premonition, begged her to send the books by messenger. "Oh, no," she said in her quiet manner of insistence. "We are about to return to the east, and I shall not see ness of your heart you have thought the shoes. The men did not apparently poor Vladimir for a long time." "Hang Vladimir!" exclaimed Gordon . as he saw his self willed young lady continually at the others for being step into the drosky.

Having alighted at Perm, she hired Graslov and rode by here at the time of our highest nobles. My with another drosky to take her and the precious books to the forge. The driver was a buge, surly individual, whose face was covered with a thick mass of beard and whose voice. when speaking to one not established as his superior, was heavy and inso-Responding to the call of Frances, he swung his heavy drosky in toward the door of her hotel. A police inspector stood near, and the driver saluted in "I hate women!" he said to himself. "They pay nothing and have things happen to them. I shall get into trou-

Neslerov did not answer him. He ble before I lose her." Frances stepped toward the vehicle. and the driver's mouth opened. "Such a woman!" muttered the dros-"See!" he cried, waving it in the air ky driver. "She must be English or an and then showing it to the inspector. American. If she was a Russian, she "It is a message to 'Number Three: would be a princess." Frances had had ample experience with his class in all parts of Russia. "Let me read," said the inspector, She calmly stepped into the drosky and handed him a silver coin. scious of the tragedy that was being "I want to go to the iron shops of the Paulpoffs, on the South road," she said. The letter simply commanded "Num-"Paulpoff-Michael Paulpoff and his son Vladimir. Do you know them?" "Yes, I know them. But do youknow-what has happened?"

"No. Has any one been ill?"

"It is enough!" cried Jansky. Paul-"No; but"poff, I make you my prisoner in the The police inspector came up. "Any trouble here?" he asked sharp-The young ironworker could, had he exerted his strength, have thrust the "Trouble? Oh, no!" replied Frances. entire shameless crew from the place was just asking the driver some even now he did not realize the enor-"Where is it you wish to go?" "To the ironworkers'-Faulpoff." A warning look that meant volumes "Attend, Paulpoffs!" commanded Jan-to the initiated shot from the inspector to the driver. The horses were whipped up, and the vehicle rolled clumsily over the road. "You said something had happened said Frances. "Is any one sick at the nocent. I swear it! Some enemy has "No; it wasn't that," answered the driver. "But the rain yesterday broke , up the road. I did not think you would ; wish to come."

In truth the way was as safe and pleasant there if you wish." way to get there." comfortable as it had ever been, but "Let the police tell their own tales- is great need of such ironworkers now. the knowledge he had of the Paulpoffs. they are always true then-according to police standards." muttered the driv-passed through the wild and almost unsettled region between it and Perm. Frances was struck with an air of calm. mystery that seemed to have suddenly enveloped the place.

to ber door to see every arrival, but she caped."

ingly. He seemed to feel that he had Frances stepped to the door and push-

She had opened the door on Prince about to depart, evidently, with a painting under his arm. "Mlle. Gordon," he said, with a bow

"Why, you have not, then, been ining been delivered by the hand of a pri- a dungeon. The prince and the inspect- "Misfortune! I knew nothing of any and powerful! Nothing but the weapon were on the way to Siberia on the rail- "I spoke as we speak, mademoiselle. The Paulpoffs are not really dead. We speak of a man who is caught in crime and sent off-exiled-as dead. He is dead to his friends and to the world. You understand?" Frances stood rigid and white, the the stress of social or other due package of books forgotten in the not only in his own State, but throughties, her mind never lost room hands of the drosky driver. Her nails out America. He was elected to the ed hands. Her eyes studied the face majority, and is the acknowledged leader

"Vladimir has not been caught in any Only one flaw marred the otherwise tic that, while her busy father was crime," she said, with a sort of gasp. complete success of this rising slave "Impossible! He was so simple and man. Catarrh with its insidious in honest! What crime?" "Conspiracy against his imperial only unconquered foe. For thirty year majesty the czar." "And where is he now?" "On the way to Siberia." "Siberia! Vladimir Paulpoff sent to Siberia! And where are his parents?"

condemns all. The old people are also feel encouraged to believe that if I in a Frances swayed a little. She had to eradicate the disease of thirty years' studied Russian customs and Russian standing."-David Meekison, Member justice and shuddered as she realized of Congress. the horrible torture in store for these If you do not derive prompt and satisimple work people who had never, she factory results from the use of Ponther, praise of the czar. The face of Neslerov was inscrutable. He held the picture loosely and care. The Hartman Sanitarium, Columna, lessly, and the girl caught a glimpse of Ohio.

"That is Vladimir's picture!" cried. "What are you doing with it?" "I am sending it to him," was the reply of Neslerov. "It so happened that I had occasion to visit my chateau near the inspector of police was making the arrest. I remembered what you said to him, because he was nich, edited and me at Moscow and tried to do what I could for the poor fellow, at first doubting his guilt. But the inspector was . certain, and so all that was left to me was to ask Vladimir what favor could perform for him. He asked me to send him this picture, and I have arranged with the governor of Perm to permit it to be passed along to him. "It is a beautiful face," said Frances. "Vladimir has the soul of a great artist in him. But in Siberia he"-She shuddered and ended her sen-"I have done more for him, for you," prise, permitted ham to be continued Neslerov. "There is another picture-he painted from memory. I have beautiful women a litt have arranged to purchase it for a good price, and he shall not lose the money . I promised him. It was a beginning to Will you be my write, my to and certain steps I had thought of to assist "My own face!" cried Frances in astonishment as Neslerov showed the it took him but a short time. I described you, and he remembered you, and picture while I live. again, looking at the sweet yet strong is yours. Refuse me. you if here young face the blacksmith artist had into deep despair. I do not care to lose placed upon the canvas. "And all from without you" "Yes, from memory and my description," said Neslerov. "Your face is so indelibly imprinted upon my memory that I could describe each line, each feature, with the utmost accuracy. She looked at him in astonishment. He had made frequent attempts to make love to her, but she had always skillfully repulsed him. That this could be true-that this man whose life was one round of pleasure should have her ed to her incredible. "But you will befriend him," she said. without answering his remark. "You . are powerful in Russia. A large part "Nousense! There must be a safe of Siberia is under your control. You He bowed, and his eyes were hidden

"Believe me. I have already taken steps to befriend them. In Tomsk there . Obi, and I have sent my petition to the It was a long drive to the forge, and to Tomsk. They will not be treated as mad passion in his eyes. when the drosky drew near, having convicts, but as honorable workers." "What was the crime?" asked Fran-

> "Why, it became known to Inspector reach within two miles of the health t Jansky of the police that a certain number of men congregated here and seem- of which would be pollution. W

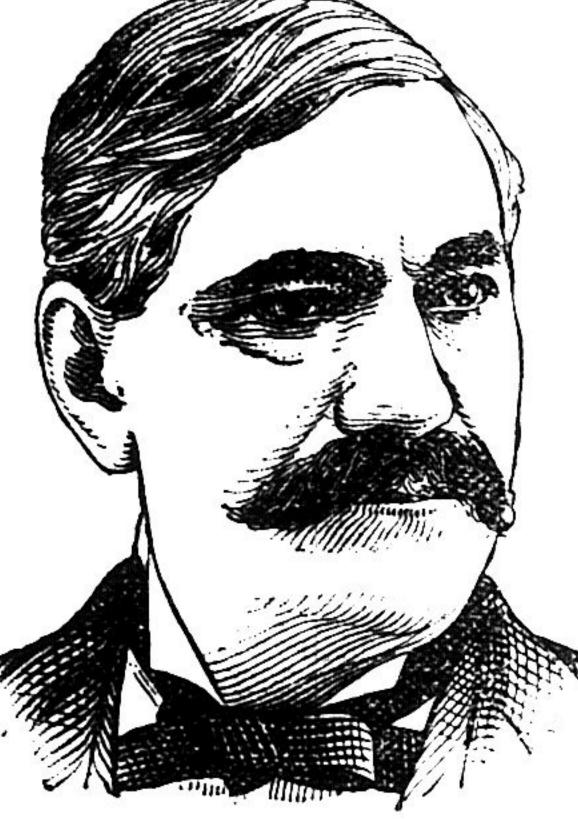

"And the proof?" "Letters from Vladimir found on

Frances sighed and turned sadly

Prominent Statesman-Congres - man Meekison Gives Pe-ru-na a High Endorsement.

No. 36.

Congressman Meekison of Chio. Hon. David Meckison is well known of his party in his section of the State. proach and tenacious grasp, was les he waged unsuccessful warfare again this personal enemy. At last Perums came to the rescue. He writes:

"I have used several bottles of Pe-" runa and I feel greatly benefited there-"One in a family taken red handed by from my catarrh of the head. it a short time longer I will be fully able felt convinced, harbored an evil thought write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving it against any man. To her they had al- full statement of your case and he was ways spoken in terms of loyalty and be pleased to give you his valuable has vice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of and contented will his lot should to to be an assass n. This same so permentes our lest society. P to the surface even among the fall was sent to Siberat. I had to had no reason to complain 11 " Paulpoffs - now that I know "I thank you," said Frations Neslerov slipped a contractor of the drosky driver, and ately had cause to go to which were standing pea-where he left them. T wish to speak one work since the day i saw you none like you. I am tich, poster' am not offering you can charter has "Prince Neslegon" said 1 a see 2 vantage of my situation, no be as t your mercy. You meet a selection. "Yes, and the remarkable part of it is Please leave such words for a main is "All occasions are the same to a men between the two he managed a very who loves as I do," ansatched Newson creditable work. I shall cherish this "I asked your father the field t matter as of no concern the factor of a "My picture!" murmured the girl my life. Make me happy the way

To be continued.

face so impressed upon his mind seem-"You shall not go tall you us.

She was very pale, but quite "Stand back, you insulted she said.

He arrested them all, but many es- with a cold, steely voice. The shining barrel of a revolue to be thrust into his face. It was not a long staggered back, taken by summer. "You are an American," continued Ne-"You she devil!" he cried slerov, "and cannot understand how a man who appeared to you to be simple is the highest type of uncolored green Tea. It is fast displacing Japans.

The wolfhound that had been Vladicried. "It is a message to and was evidently weak with hurger. "Old Boris!" cried Frances, lemping 'Number Three!'" one of the wretches who had brought from the drosky. "Where is your handthem there sprang forward, seized some master?"