VOLUME 42.

CANADIAN CHAMPION

1 - - No an Subscription - $1 a year in advance

S BEREITE No paper will be stopped to and all the back, except at the option

AUVIRTISING RATES.

space in cupied, measured by a scale of solic

Altertisements without special instructions in

And apertar Notice, the object of which is t

Nations of bitthe, deaths and marriages 25 cents

chaient advictiaementa ten centa per line, ex-will he will be inserted at in cents for first in section, and 25 reuts for each subsequent insertion

LEGAL.

 $oldsymbol{\it D}$, $oldsymbol{\it D}$ ewar.

sauer of Marriage Licenses, Conveyancer, &

C. E. Hallinrake, B.A.,

Thamas G. Muthusan,

(Notary Public, &c. Office In the Court

William I. Dick,

Darrister, Solicitor and Conveyancer, Money

D to loan Office Dewar's Block, Main st.

Vistar Chishalm,

Obrrister, Solicitor, &c., Notary Public

', W. Elliatt, B.A.,

Darrister, &c., Notary Public, Money to

E. W. Buyd,

Pairister Sometter, Notary, Conveyancer

Da hemoved from Milton to Speciation

Steers, Gadsan & Starey,

Danisters, Sometions, Notaries Office In

WILLIAM STEERS. T. EARNEST GODSON.

THINGAN S. STOREY.

MEDICAL.

 $R.~K.~m{A}$ ndursun, $m{M}.m{D}$,

P. Stuurt, M.D.,

M. C.P. & S., Physician, Surgeon, &c. Office of residence, opposite fown half, Million,

H. A. M:C:I:, M:B:,

hours, to 9 a.m., 12 to 2 p.m., and 6 to 8p.m.

1 Dhispenn, and Surgeon, Coroner Office

toffice, two doors, east of Bank of Hamilton

DENTAL.

В. БаНар, L.D.S., D.D.S.,

TAENTIST. (Lately associated with Dr.)

) Whales, of Chicago, Honor graduate

Toronto University Office: Dewar's Block.

T. T. Harris, L.D.S.,

[] ENTIST, Oakville, will visit Milton on the last Wednesday of each month. Office.

ARTHUR ZIMMERMAN,

Druggist

Successor to Featherstone's

School Supplies,

--FINE PHOTOS --

in all sizes.

Picture Frames and Mouldings all the way from 5c. per foot up.

We are also selling cheap, a lot or ramed Pictures. Come early to get a

E. C. Featherstone,

Photo Studio and Stationery,

Novels and Magazines.

FOR YOUR ----

7 King St. East, Hamilton

Stationery,

bargain.

Garland & Rutherford

timee nours stollam, the land, to spin.

TO P. Kalinburgh, Physician, Surgeon

come. Main at composite Martin at

Con Count and State statement C

Telephone communication with Lindsay and p

D grain s Brock Midland.

Beaver ton offices Telephone No. 36

Building James St. South, Hemilton Money

Wann & Los shoe factory, Main st., Milton.

Money to loan at lowest rates. Office

Next door to Bank of Hamilton, Mitton.

Surse, Martin.

Mit ton, Out.

Agent for our Fire Insurance and our on ngs and Loan Companies. Money to loan a lowest rates. Office Dewar's Book, Milton

Darrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, &c.

home of lost straved, stolen, and wants

WM. PANTON,

Editor and Proprietor

Office Town Hall, Milton

to trapitation A post-office notice to discon-

is the part $2 will be charged es a rostal

ca'd ogue.

ARMS CO.

YM FUB. CO.

· ere erill - committeet

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and

Rewritten and Rendered Into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR] Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Bowen-Merrill Company

"Yes, your grace, this is the gate."

him. The girls passed through a littl mary nan long wanten to see this "Yes, your grace, this is the gate," overcome a few flery dragons and a Grouche, at first out of mere curiosity, said the girl. "You can hide yourself company or so of giants would be a but Henry, who was very moral-with and watch them as they go. They will mere pastime to him. Yet see how other people's consciences—would not pass out on this path. As I said, I do she treated him. The girls had stopped think of permitting it. Two ladies, La- not know where they are going. Lonly when Jane called Brandon, and he was dy Chesterfield and Lady Ormond, both overheard them say they would go out at once by their side with uncovered good and virtuous women, had been detected in such a visit and had been disgraced and expelled from court in the

Now, added to Mary's old time desire to see Grouche, came a longing to know the outcome of the present momentous! complication of affairs that touched her so closely.

She could not wait for Time to unfold himself and drop his budget of events as he traveled, but she must plunge shead of him and know beforehand the stores of the fates, an intrusion they that was Mary's only object in going, nor that her heart was as pure as a babe's, quite as chaste and almost as innocent. It is equally true that the large proportion of persons who visited Grouche made his soothsaying an excuse. The thought of how wretched tife would be with Louis had put into Mary's mind the thought of how sweet it would be with Brandon. Then came the wish that Brandon had been a prince or even a great English noble- at this gate just before dark. I am man, and then leaved up, all rainbow sure they go on some errand of gal-

reason of his own great virtues, rise to learn, I make no doubt." all of these and she become his wife. He replied that he would take care But at the threshold of this fair castle of that. came knocking the thought that per- | Brandon did not see where Buckinghaps he did not care for her and had ham hid himself, but soon the two in deceived her to gain her favors. Then nocent adventurers came down the she flushed with anger and swore to path attired in the short skirts and bonherself she hated him and hoped never nets of orange girls and let themselves to see his face again. And the castle out at the gate. Buckingham followed faded and was wafted away to the them, and Brandon quickly followed Ah, how people will sometimes lie to postern in the wall opposite Bridewell themselves, and sensible people at that! House and walked rapidly up Fleet So Mary wanted to see Grouche, first, 'ditch, climbed Ludgate hill, passed! through curiosity, in itself a stronger Paul's church, turned toward the river motive than we give it credit for; sec-down Bennett hill, to the left A jewelry store is the place ond, to learn if she would be able to Thames street, then on past the bridge, to discover the state of Brandon's East Cheap to Grouche's house.

truth hardly knew it, so full are we of think. things we know not of. So she determined to go to see never flinched.

suade her.

nobody at Bridewell, so Mary thought He, however, kept as alose as possi- him from their saddles. Brandon had to carry the as I well knew the danger attending it, ceived information from a high source they could disguise themselves as ble and presently saw them turn down his best to save himself from being cut princess and help Jane until he thought. All things, however, must end, so that Brandon was the guilty princess and help Jane until he thought. orange girls and easily make the trip Grouche's alley and enter his house. to pieces and the girls from being tram-they were out of danger. Jane soon early in the morning I hastened to our That high source was evidently lines. Milton, Ont. | without any one being the wiser. | Upon learning where they had stop- pled under foot by the prancing horses. recovered, but Mary did not seen anx- rooms, where I found Brandon lying ingham. It was then, as now, no safe matter ped, Buckingham hurriedly took himfor even a man to go unattended self off, and Brandon waited for the through the best parts of London after girls to come out. It seemed a very dark, to say nothing of Billingsgate, long time that they were in the wretchthat nest of water rats and cutthroats. ed place, and darkness had well de-

Mary soon noticed that a man was She had threatened Jane with all following them, and as she did not; sorts of vengeance if she divulged her know who he was became greatly secret, and Jane was miserable enough alarmed. The object of her journey between her fears on either hand, for had been accomplished now, so the Mary, though the younger, held her in spur of a strong motive to keep her omplete subjection. Despite her fear courage up was lacking. of Mary, Jane asked me to go to Lon- "Jane, some one is following us," she don and follow them at a distance, un- whispered.

honor of the French envoys who had knew Jane was a coward from the top just arrived, bringing with them com- of her brown head to the tip of her mission of special ambassador to De little pink heels. MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York Longueville to negotiate the treaty of "Oh, if I had only taken your admarriage, and it was impossible for vice, Jane, and had never come to me to go. Mary was going partly to this wretched place! And to think, avoid this ball, and her willful per- too, that I came here only to learn the sistency made Henry very angry. I worst! Shall we ever get home alive, in my place, and he would answer the them taking less care to remain unseen him a man, but Jane, who was in step and saw his form persistently fol-

learn the particulars, and this plan was would give everything I have or ever Brandon went up to London and saw ter Brandon at this moment." Jane, and before the appointed time thought of him as the one person best hid himself behind a hedge near the able to defend her. private gate through which the girls This was only too welcome an opintended to take their departure from portunity, and Jane said: "That bers both Rim and Center Fire. | Bridewell.

They would leave about dusk and re- wait a few seconds, he will be here. turn, so Mary said, before it grew And she called to him before Mary The citizens of London at that time Now this disclosure operated in two ard barrel for rim fire cartridges, 24 inches. For center-fire cartpaid very little attention to the law ways. Brandon's presence was, it Scarcely was Brandon safely en- the need was gone when she found that sconsed behind a clump of arbor vitæ the man who was following them had a little gutter. Send stamp for catalog describing comwho was in attendance upon the prin- for having slighted her love, as she vantage, you may be sure, for one of Mary wept that night and mouned and Brandon was present, and upon my af-conceal from every one, and, worst of all, had been discovered by the very person from whom she was most anxious to hide it. So she turned upon Jane angrily: "Jane Bolingbroke, you shall leave me as soon as we get back to Greenwich for this betrayal of my confidence." She was not afraid now that the danger was over, and feared no new danger with Brandon at hand to protect head, hoping for and of course expect ing a warm welcome. But even Brandon, with his fund of worldly philos ophy, had not learned not to put his trust in princesses, and his surprise was benumbing when Mary turned angrily upon him. "Master Brandon, your impudence in following us shall cost you dearly. We do not desire your company, and will thank you to leave us to our own af. fairs, as we wish you to attend exclusively to yours."

This from the girl who had given him so much within less than a week! Jane, who had called him up and was the cause of his following them, began to weep.

"Sir," said she, "forgive me. It was not my fault. She had just said"-Slap came Mary's hand on Jane's mouth, and Jane was marched off. weeping bitterly.

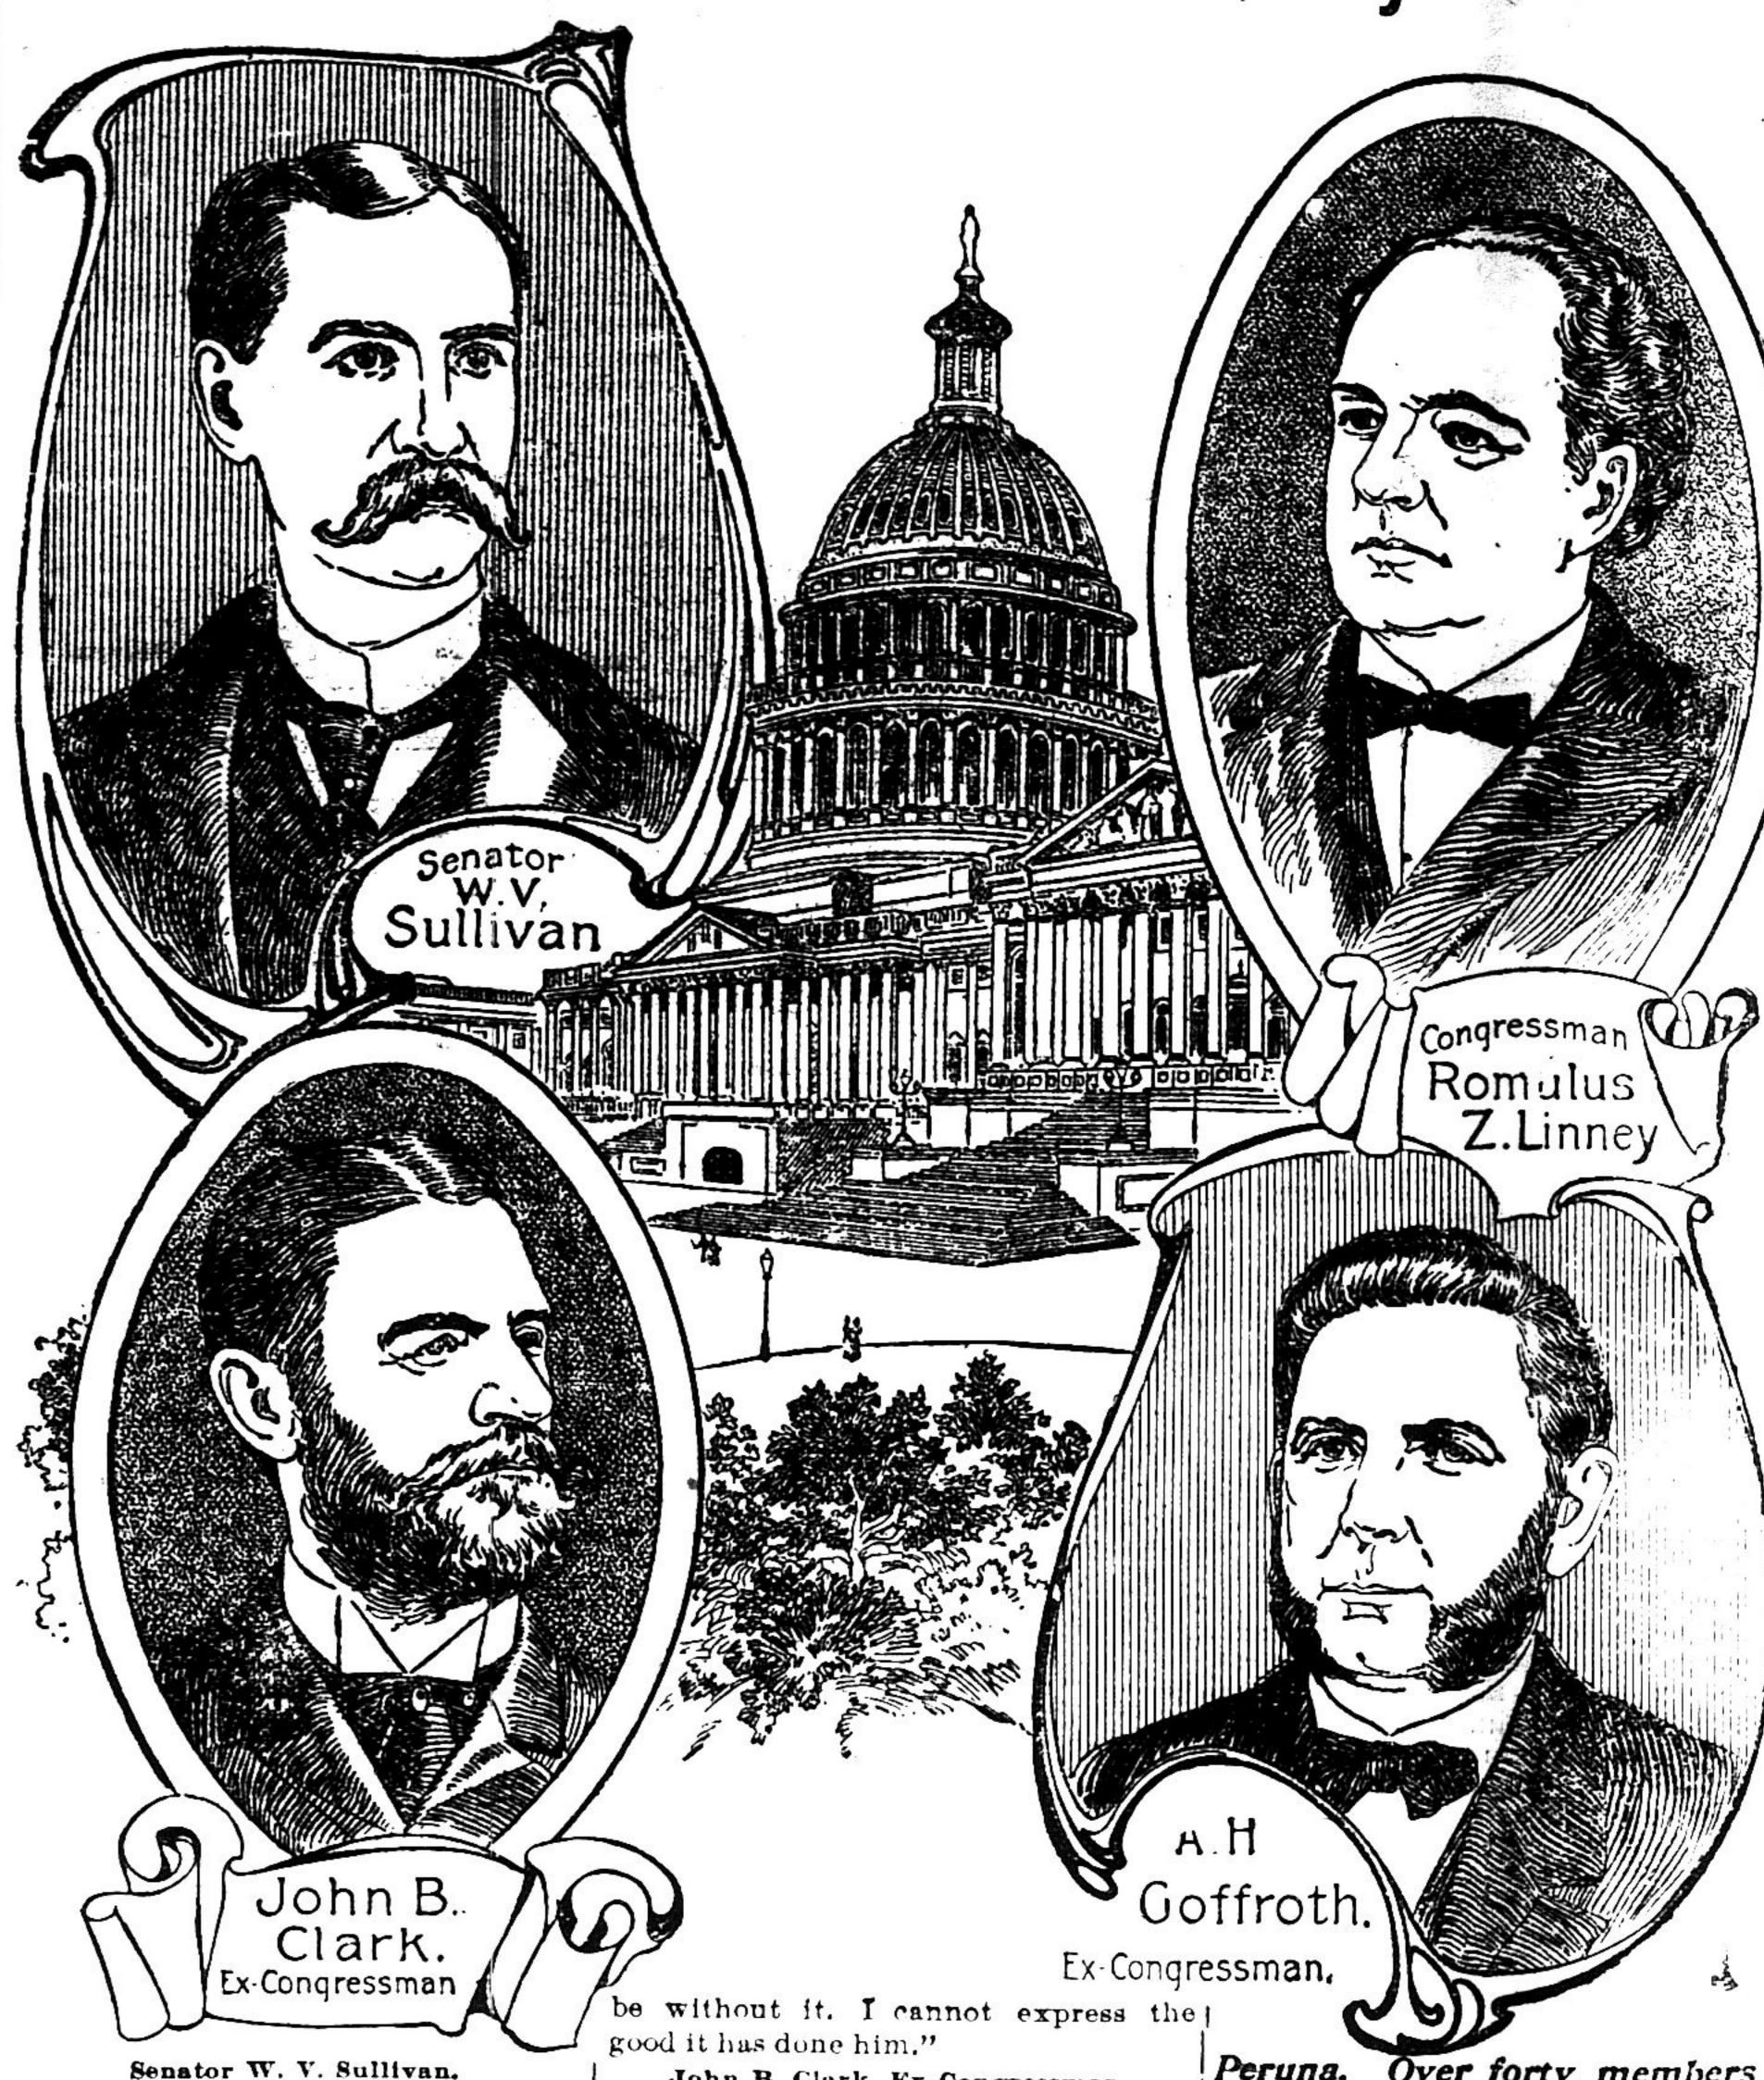

The girls had started up toward East Cheap when they left Grouche's, intending to go home by an upper route. and now they walked rapidly in that direction. Brandon continued to follow them, notwithstanding what Mary had said, and she thanked him and her God ever after that he did. They had been walking not more than five minutes when, just as the girls turned a corner into a secluded little street, winding its way among the fish warehouses, four horsemen passed Brandon in evident pursuit of them. Brandon hurried forward, but before he reached the corner heard. screams of fright and as he turned into the street distinctly saw that two of ing to overtake the fleeing girls. Fright dorsement of Peruna: lent wings to their feet, and, their short "I desire to say that I have been taking writes: skirts affording freedom to their limbs. Peruna for some time for catarrh and "I can recommend your Peruna as a in the humbler walks of life rely dissuade Henry from the French mar-following Lower Thames street to the little race, screaming at every step to giving me more relief than anything riage and perhaps catch a hint how to neighborhood of Fish street hill, where the full limit of their voices. How I have ever taken."-W.V.SULLIVAN. do it, and last, but by no means least, they took an alley leading up toward they did run and scream! It was but a moment till Brandon came up with the From North Carolina, writes: It was a brave thing for the girl to pursuers, who, all unconscious that using Peruna for catarrh. He had By this time the last named motive do and showed the determined spirit they in turn were pursued, did not exwas strong enough to draw her any that dwelt in her soft white breast pect an attack from the rear. The has taken one bottle he seems like a dit whither, although she would not ac- Aside from the real dangers, there was men remaining on horseback shouted ferent man. I don't think any man knowledge it, even to herself, and in enough to deter any woman, I should an alarm to their comrades, but so intent were the latter in their pursuit

Jane wept all the way over, but Mary | that they did not hear. One of the men on foot fell dead, pierced through the in the world is he who does not early Grouche's. It had added infinitely to Grouche secretly and was confident she. There were great mudholes where back of the neck by Brandon's sword, in life learn how and when to run. could arrange the visit in such a way one sank ankle deep, for no one paved before either was aware of his presthat it would never be discovered. the street at that time, strangely ence. The other turned, but was a sword stroke upon the wall, brief as ly wretched and unhappy. One morning I met Jane, who told enough, preferring to pay the sixpence corpse before he could cry out. The it was, Brandon recognized the face me with troubled face that she and fine per square yard for leaving it un- girls had stopped a short distance of Buckingham, from which the mask Mary were going to London to make done. At one place, Brandon told me, ahead, exhausted by their flight. Mary had fallen. Of this he did not speak some purchases, would lodge at Bride- a load of hay blocked the streets, com- had stumbled and fallen, but had risen to any one till long afterward, and his well House and go over to Billings- pelling them to squeeze between the again, and both were now leaning silence was almost his uncloing. gate that evening to consult Grouche, houses and the hay. He could hardly against a wall, clinging to each other, How often a word spoken or unspo-Mary had taken the whim into her believe the girls had passed that way, a picture of abject terror. Brandon ken may have the very deuce in it willful head, and Jane could not dis- as he had not always been able to keep ran to the girls, but by the time he either way! willful head, and Jane could not dis- as he had not always been able to keep ran to the girls, but by the time he either way! them in view, but had sometimes to reached them the two men on horse. The girls were nearly dead from more than anxious to see Brandon and hat had been found by the side of the

One of the men on foot fell dead. Brandon thrust his sword into the would soon marry a very great prince of time I cannot wonder that it drove horse's throat, causing it to rear back- or nobleman, the indications being in other things out of her head and made 27th to Sept. 12th, intending exhibitors when whom should be see coming down no evil intent. Two thoughts quickly A cry from the fallen horseman too, for going to him. His guesses my door, and upon opening in walked the path toward the gate but his grace. flashed through the girl's mind. She brought his companion to his side and were pretty shrewd—that is, admitting a sergeant of the sheriff of London, the Duke of Buckingham. He was was angry with Brandon for having gave Brandon an opportunity to escape he did not know who Mary was, which with four yeomen at his heels. met by one of the Bridewell servants cheated her out of so many favors and with the girls. Of this he took ad- she at least supposed was the case; so The sergeant asked if one Charles as a disinfectant.

Was the case, all of which Grouche had confirmed by telling her he was false. Then she had been discovered in doing what she knew she should have left

John B. Clark, Ex-Congressman, United States Senator Sullivan from Was ten years a member of Congress Congress have written their inthe men had dismounted and were try. Mississippi writes the following en- from Missouri and for six years Clerk dorsement of it. Scores of other they were giving the pursuers a warm have found it an excellent medicine, good, substantial tonic and one of the upon it as a family medicine. best remedies for catarrhal troubles." Ex-Congressman A. H. Coffroth, Congressman Romulus Z. Linney, Somerset, Pa., writes: "I am assured and satisfied that Pe "My private secretary has been runa is a great catarrh cure, and I feel that I can recommend it to those who as bad a case as I ever saw, and since he suffer from that disorder." Men of prominence all over the Peruna. Over forty members of of National House of Representatives, government officials speak in high praise of it. Thousands of people Send for free book of testimonials. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will ious to walk and lay with her head in his clothes, everything saturated. When the sergeant found Brandon upon Brandon's shoulder, apparently with blood from a dozen sword cuts. He covered with wounds, there was no contented enough.

No. 52.

life and more-and more a thousand fray.

ward, plunging and lunging into the favor of the former, and in place of her seem selfish in her frightened de- are advised to study the list carefully. pit-he and all his prophecies; herself, night I was awakened by a knock at Toronto, Ont

the pain of which her heart was al-

CHAPTER IX. PUT NOT YOUR TRUST IN PRINCESSES.

Fishmonger's hall, where some one is watched the night out. Upon awaken to London. sure to be standing at this hour." ing Brandon told me all that had hap! While Brandon was dressing I said Mary said nothing in reply to Jane, pened, but asked me to say nothing of I would at once go and awaken the but as Brandon fell a step or two be- his illness, as he wished to keep the king, who, I knew, would pardon the hind at a narrow crossing whispered: fact of his wounds secret in order that; offense when he heard my story but "Forgive me, forgive me. I will do be might better conceal the cause of Brandon asked the sergeant to leave to speak your name. I owe you my speak of Buckingham's part in the af- closed the door. times." At this she lifted her arm I saw the princess that afternoon and and placed her hand upon his cheek expected, of course, she would inquire and neck. She then learned for the for her defender. One who had given first time that he was wounded, and such timely help and who was sufferthe tears came softly as she slipped ing so much on her account was sure from his arms to the ground. She ly worth a little solicitude, but not a walked beside him quietly for a little word did she ask. She did not come Thousands of mothers keep the Table to time, then, taking his hand in both of near me, but made a point of avoid hers, gently lifted it to her lips and ance, as I could plainly see. The next would not be without them A to be laid it upon her breast. Half an hour morning she, with Jane, went over to of this Mrs. Geo. Kilgote, Western afterward Brandon left the girls at Scotland palace without so much as a Man., says "Having used Baby's Ober-Bridewell House, went over to the breath of inquiry from either of them. Tablets for some time, I can thurb a Jane's silence was at Mary's com- ;

be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. who is under a nervous strain should United States are commending The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of forthcoming. I told the sergeant that Brandon was confined to his had with illness, whereupon he asked to be shown to his room.

It was useless to resist or to evade. so I awakened Brandon and took the sergeant in. Here he read his warrant to arrest Charles Brandon, Esq., for THOUGHT the king's dance the murder of two citizens of London.

was very weak, and I at once had in a longer any doubt, and, although hard In a few minutes Jane said: "If you barber, who took off his shirt of mail by able to lift his hand, he was forced can walk now, my lady, I think you and dressed his wounds. He then to dress and go with them. A horse had better. We shall soon be near dropped into a deep sleep, while I litter was procured, and we all started any penance you ask. I am unworthy them. But, as I told you, he did not us to ourselves for a short time, and

To be continued. ____

BABY'S WELFARE. Every mother is anxious for the health land welfare of her little ones and Baby's Own Tablets is the best med

A medicine, like Baby's Own Table! guaranteed to contain neither on the Toronto Exhibition Prize List. As many important changes have been made in the Prize List of Totonto Exubition, to be held this year from Ang. Copies can be had on application to I.

Y-Z (wise head) has an advantage over , ther soap powders inasmuch as it also acts had succeeded in convincing herself his mottoes was that the greatest fool moaned because she had gone to firmative answer demanded that he be Daily Globe and Champion 1 year $4.25

MILTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1903.

Happening In the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

The trouble is your hair does not have life enough. Act promptly. Save your hair. Feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. If the gray hairs are beginning to show, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore color every

"My hair was falling out very fast and I was greatly alarmed.

then tried Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair stopped falling at once."-

Mrs. G. A. McVay, Alexandria, O.

time. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you send us one dollar and we will express

you a bottle. Be sure and give the name

Church Directory.

METHODIST CHURCH

REV. J. W. COOLEY, Pastor.

Sunday School and Bible Cass. 2.30 p.m.

KNOX CHURCH

REV EDW. F. Mcl. SMITH, B.A., Minister,

Sunday School: 230 p. in Judge Gorham

Prayer Meeting Wednesday, at 7:30, p.m.

W.F.M.S. meets on the second Wednesday

The Mission Band meets on the second We

GRACE CHURCH

Presents.

Our stock will help you

E. Marchand

JEWILLER

year: four months, $1. Bold by all newsdealers.

Stevens

No. 44.

Price Only $10.00.

ridges, 26 inches.

formation to shooters.

send it to you express prepaid.

tplete line and containing valuable

THE J. STEVENS ARMS AND TOOL CO.

Made in all the standard caliwith your choosing.

Sunday Services: Haim and 7 p.m.

Epoworth League Monday, at 8 p.m.

Pastor's Class. Friday, at 7.30 p.m.

Sunday Services 11 a m. and 7 p.m.

Bible Class in Church at 2 to p in.

nesday of every month at 4.30 p.m.

Bible Class in Vestry, 9.45 a.m.

Friday evening service, 7.30 p.m.

Sunday School: 3 p.m.

 σ come to.

profusion.

Prover Meeting Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

your nearest express office. Address.

J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

most cruel manner by order of the king himself.

REV. A. J. BELT, M.A., Rector. Sunday Services Il a.m. and 7 p.m. nued, the hope that he might yet, by lantry, which your grace will soon Holy Communion 1st Sunday of each mor ST. ANDREWS R. C. REV. FATHER O'RIELLY, P.P. Mass: Second Sunday of every month at I realms of airy nothingness.

to get them. This is the store, Nothing else, however cost- | heart toward her.

'y, can take the place of an illering of dainty richness, such as are here to-day in Hundreds of articles heren which are always in favor, and which win their way into the effections like nothing else

The court was all at Greenwich, and follow them by watching Buckingham. back were there also, hacking away at fright, and in order to make any sort learn the issue of the girls' escapade, dead men, and the authorities had no

But Mary did not realize the full dan-scended upon London when they ger of the trip and would, as usual, al- emerged. ow nobody to tell her.

known to the princess. I was to be on "Yes," answered Jane, with an un-duty that night at a dance given in concern that surprised Mary, for she mortal fear of Mary, would not listen lowing them, and she clutched Jane to it. So it was agreed that Brandon by the arm. should meet Jane at a given place and "It is all over with us, I know.

Also Portraits in Crayon and Water Colors | Weight about 7 pounds. Stand-promised Jane I would send Brandon They hurried on, the man behind A narrow jutting of the wall, a foot bridge where he had left his horse at This heartless conduct enraged me, but say that they are the best methan is or two in width, a sort of flying but- a hostelry, and rode down to Green- I was glad to the flerward that have ever used for little ones. purpose of protection far better than than he did when coming. Mary's tress, gave him a little advantage, and wich. I. I suggested that Brandon take with fears grew upon her as she heard his up into the slight shelter of the corner So Mary had made her trip to mand, that bundle of selfishness fearthus formed he thrust the girls and Grouche's, but it was labor worse than ing that any selicitude, however care which so many mothers praise it is with his back to them faced his un- lost. Grouche had told her nothing fully shown, upon her part might re- right one for your little ones. They are equal foe with drawn sword. Fortu- she wanted to know, though much that veal her secret. nately the position allowed only one he supposed she would like to learn. It seems that Mary had recent intel- nor other harmful drugs, and can be horseman to attack them. Two men on He had told her that she had many ligence of the forward state of affairs given to the youngest infant with it expect to have on earth for-for Mas. foot would have been less in each oth- lovers, a fact which her face and form in the marriage negotiations and felt fect satety. Good for teething tracking to the same of the face and form in the marriage negotiations and felt fect satety. Mas. 100t would have been less in each othe lovers, a fact which her face and form in the marriage negotiations and feet constipation, diarrhoea, simple fever. She er's way and much more effective. The would make easy enough to discover, that a discovery by her brother of what worms, and all the minor administration. men, however, stuck to their horses. He informed her also that she had a she had done, especially in view of the children. Sold by druggists, or may be and one of them pressed the attack, lowborn lover, and in order to put a disastrous results, would send her to had by mail at 25 cents a box, by writstriking at Brandon most viciously. It little evil in with the good fortune and France despite all the coaxing she ing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., being dark and the distance deceptive, give what he said an air of truth he could do from then till doomsday. Master Brandon following us. If we the horseman's sword at last struck the added to Mary's state of unrest more. It was a terrible fate hanging over wall, a flash of sparks flying in its than he thought by telling her that her her, doubly so in view of the fact that trail, and lucky it was or this story lowborn lover was false. He thought she loved another man, and looking would have ended here. Thereupon to flatter in by predicting that she back at it all from the vantage point

It these rines are not carried in stock by your dealer, send price and we will and when it was dark it was dark.

Scarcely was dark it was dark. by the leg against the cobblestones of wretched soothsayer in the bottomless. About 12 o'clock of the following O. Orr, Manager, Industrial Exhibition.

Good Tea is a tonic. RED ROSE TEA is good tea.