a the first and

regular .38-55 Marlin re-

, flat trajectory and great er as the twist of the rifles

やされていたれてによるのの

Verilly in n the county;

MILTON, THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1903.

No. 3.

MILTON, ONT.)

31 a year in advance

office notice to discon

ared by a scale of solid

the object of which is to fund, will be considered

and marriages 25 cents

each subsequent insertion

enses, Conveyancer, &c.

I hwar's block, Milton.

Notary Public, &c.

other Town Hall, Milton

and Conveyancer, Money

Dewar's Block, Main st.

&c., Notary Public.

Notary, Conveyancer

from Milton to Spectator

Notaries. Office-In

Midchand, Jeweier.

and to spm.

. I Bank of Hamilton,

conce Dewar's Block,

T EARNEST GODSON,

ontion with Lindsay and

Money

MEDICAL.

H A Masaul, M.B. ,

DENTAL.

ARTHUR ZIMMERMAN,

Druggist

Same of the

it lowest rates. Office

Money to loan at

Editor and Proprietor

WM PANTON,

LEGAL.

D. Dawar.

g i Hilliake, B.A.,

V ...... Shishalm,

Las to tory, Main st., Milton.

"Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a d bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out." Miss Minnie Hoover, Paris, Ill.

Perhaps your mother had thin hair, but that is no reason why you must go through life with halfstarved hair. If you want long, thick hair, feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, and make it rich, dark, and heavy.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

METHODIST CHURCH REV. J. W. COOLEY, Pastor. Sunday Services: Il a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School and Bible Class: 2.30 p.m. Epworth League: Monday, at 8 p.m. Prayer Meeting: Wednesday, at 8 p m. Pastor's Class: Friday, at 7.30 p.m.

KNOX CHURCH REV. EDW. F. McL. SMITH, B.A., Minister. Sunday Services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School: 2.30 p. m. Judge Gorham's Bible Class in Church at 2.45 p m. Prayer Meeting: Wednesday, at 7.30. p.m. W.F.M.S. meets on the second Wednesday The Mission Band meets on the second W nesday of every month at 4.30 p.m.

GRACE CHURCH REV. A. J. BELT, M.A., Rector. Sunday Services: Il a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School: 3 p.m. Bible Class in Vestry, 9.45 a.m. Hory Communion: 1st Sunday of each mor at mid-day and 3rd and 5th Sundays, 8 a.m. Friday evening service, 7.30 p.m. ST. ANDREW S R. C.

REV. FATHER O'RIELLY, P.P.

Mass: Second Sunday of every month at 11 you?

Presents.

to get them. This is the store | it is a lie or I will have your miserable popular in London and had almost as |. to come to.

Nothing else, however costly, can take the place of an let her see herself as she was. offering of dainty richness, Isuch as are here to-day a

Hundreds of articles here not; she was past that now. Jane went duce him to do anything. He was alwhich are always in favor, and which win their way into the

Our stock will help yo with your choosing.

E. Marchand

JEWILER

'ranch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D.

THE MOST POPULAR GUN MADE

No. 110 . . 8.50

No. 120 . . 10.00

Send stamp for large catalogue illustrating complete line, brimful of valuable informatio.

STEVENS reatherstone s

School Supplies, Novels and Magazines.

FOR YOUR ---

HE PHOTOS --

in all sizes.

Powder and fully guaranteed. as from 5c, per foot up. We are also selling cheap, a lot of ares. Come early to get a

E. C. Featherstone, Photo Studio and Stationery,

1. STEVENS ARMS AND TOOL CO.

WAS IN FLOWER Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening In the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth Rewritten and Rendered Into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Bowen-Merrill Company

waiting room of the king's counc

cut a pretty figure! I hoped, though,

seems to be particularly sensitive a

had passed a few angry words at one that direction. One would think not go to Grouche's.'

Jane parenthetically. Mary continued, I will tell you how it was. You re-"You, too, have been home an entire member the day you left me in I began to soften at the sight of her when they were discussing my margrief and concluded with Brandon that, riage without one thought of me, after all, her beauty could well cover if I were but a slave or a dumb brute a multitude of sins, perhaps even this, her great transgression against him. The princess was trying to check her self. "While waiting for you to weeping and in a moment took up the turn the Duke of Buckingham came in thread of her unfinished sentence: I knew Henry was trying to sell me to 'And Master Brandon, too, left with- the French king, and my heart was Church Directory. and not come near me, but me, but if I did not care or he did not. Of him on, and Henry himself was anxcourse he did not care or he would not have behaved so, knowing I was in so much trouble. I did not see him at all after—one afternoon in the king's about a week before that awful night in London, except that night, when

was so frightened I could not speak

one word of all the things I wished This sounded strange enough, and began more than ever to suspect something wrong. I, however, kept as firm grasp as possible upon the stock of indignation I had brought with me. "How did you expect to see or hear from him," asked I, "when he was ly ing in a loathsome dungeon without one ray of light, condemned to be hanged, drawn and quartered because of your selfish neglect to save him who at the cost of half his blood and al-

Her eyes grew big, and the tears was in the commandments, Thou sha. were checked by genuine surprise. continued: "Lady Mary, no one "Well, I knew I could do nothing could have made me believe that you with Henry if he once learned of tha would stand back and let the man to visit, especially as it resulted so fawhom you owed so great a debt lie so tally. Oh, why did I go? Why did I to be true in some respects. long in such misery and be condemned go? That was why I hesitated to tell to such a death for the act that saved Henry at once. I was hoping some othyou. I could never have believed it!" er way would open whereby I might "Imp of hell!" screamed Mary, "What save Charles- Master Brandon. Wh.

most his life had saved so much for

"It is no lie, princess, but an awful thought came to me that he might help truth and a frightful shame to you." us. I was determined to tell her all and "I knew that he and Master Brandon, She gave a hysterical laugh and, time in my ballroom you rememberthrowing up her hands with her accus- but I also knew that the duke was in tomed little gesture, fell upon the bed in love with me, you know, or pretendin utter abandonment, shaking as with ed to be he always said he was and a spasm. She did not weep; she could felt sure I could by a little flattery in-over to the bed and tried to soothe her. ways protesting that he would give In a moment Mary sprang to her feet, exclaiming: "Master Brandon conaffections like nothing else demned to death, and you and I here talking and moaning and weeping! Come, come; we will go to the king at once. We will start to walk, Edwin-I must be doing something - and Jane can follow with the horses and overtake us. No; I will not dress; just as I am; this will do. Bring me a hat, Jane-any one, any one." While putting on hat and gloves she continued: "I will see the king at once and tell him all-all! I will do anything.. will marry that old king of France or Milton, Ont. forty kings or forty devils! It's all one to me. Anything, anything, to save him! Oh, to think that he has been in that dungeon all this time!". And the tears came unbeeded in a del-She was under such headway and spoke and moved so rapidly that I ready to go; then I held her by the arm while I said: "It is not necessary now. You are A look of horror came into her face,

MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York

en me time. As to the pain it gave rights and much aroused on account of you"-this was the last charge to my the killing. Especially, he said, that at large magazine of indignation-"I care that time great caution must be used I do not know what explanation you the city in order to procure a loan for believe the holy creed. have to offer, but nothing can excuse some purpose-my dower, I suppose. you. An explanation, however good, "The duke said it should be as I when she expressed her determination ing with Buckingham, and his promise. to that old satyr, to be gloated over strain. would have been little comfort to you wished; that Master Brandon should to go to Brandon. She had been in the Still Brandon said nothing and stood would have been little conflort to you and remain away from London wrong so much of late that she was as if politely waiting for her to with-time and sat in reverie, staring at noth-royal proclamation. ing. Then the tears came again, but "I saw Buckingham the next day, for one was away from Greenwich it partly of vexation, I think, moistened This gun is fully up to the more softly. quality of our rifles, which for 38 "You are right; nothing can excuse and he said the keeper of Newgate had cretly. quanty of our rules, "Tell me at least," she said, "that years have been STANDARD. me. I am the most selfish, ungrateful, told him it had been arranged the years have been STANDARD. me. I am the most selfish, ungrateful, told him it had been arranged the She told Jane she need not go; that you know I speak the truth. I have alme. I am the most because it was more quiet she, Mary, did not want to take any ways believed in you, and now I ask by day. Then there was something by addressing The Dr. Williams Medi-16 and 20 gauge. Bored for NITRO 1.

then return. We shall want to see you —to see—I thought, perhaps Master when she told me while riding over to to me, and I want to know that you again," said Jane. Upon my return Mary was more to—see Jane and me. In fact, I wrote som into a full blown passion she doubt all else. You see I speak plainly touch was a spark dropped into a heart persons who can speak nothing but composed. Jane had dressed her hair, him before I left Greenwich that I would wreck everything and every- of what your love is to me, for alcomposed. Jane had dressed her hair, him before 1 left Greenwich that I would wreck everything and every- of what your love is to me, for all full of tinder, which had been lying left and she was sitting on the bed in her should be here. Then I heard he had body, including herself perhaps, to at though by remaining away you made there awaiting it all these years. In and she was sitting on the bed in her great and she was sitting of were nervously toying at the ribbons all my troubles have come upon me at were nervously toying at the ribbons all my troubles have come upon me at them. It looked now as if she were on the favors—that is every woman's fear—I tense I could not withstand it. My and her eyes cast down.

"You are too late." and I continued slowly: "I procured half his blood to serve me. As if any I did what you should have done, and blood. Poor Master Brandon! His thought he would come to her at the and ceased to marvel that she had alhe is now at our rooms in Greenwich." blood"— and tears came, choking her palace, and when I had again said no, ways been able to turn even the king, was lame, I am told, for some time aft- self have promised each other before Mary looked at me a moment and, words for the moment. "So I told the turning pale, pressed her hands to her duke I had promised you and Jane to heart and leaned against the door procure Master Brandon's liberty, and me and I did not speak of it. asked him to do it for me. He gladly After a short silence she said: "Ed-| consented and gave me his knightly) win Caskoden-fool! Why could you word that it should be attended a not have told me that at first? I without an hour's delay. He said it thought my brain would burn and my might have to be done secretly in the way of an escape-not officially -as the "I should have told you had you giv. Londoners were very jealous of their

I was very anxious, you may be sure. would not be found out if done se- her eyes. It is made in 3 styles, and in 12, month in that dungeon!" And she to Windsor because it was more quiet. risk of compromising her.

distressing detail, you may be sure. During my recital she sat with downcast eyes and tear stained face playing with the ribbons of her hat. When I was ready to go, she said. "Please say to Master Brandon I should like-to-see-him if he cares to come. if only that I may tell him how it hap- HAD not been long in the room your failure to save him. He trusted "You know I would not go," said have no excuse. I can have none, but you so implicitly. At the time of l arrest he refused to allow me to tell the king, saying he knew you would see to it-that you were pure gold." "Ah, did he say that?" she asked, as a sad little smile lighted her face. "His faith was so entirely withou > respondingly great. He goes to New Spain as soon as his health is recovered sufficiently for him to travel." This sent the last fleck of color from her face, and with the words almost choking her throat, "Then tell him

doubt that his recoil from you is cor

what I have said to you and perhaps he will not feel so"-"I cannot do that either, Lady Mary. ious that the marriage should be When I mentioned your name the other brought about. He thought it would day, he said he would curse me if I ev-strengthen him for the imperial crown. er spoke it again in his hearing." "Is it so bad as that?" Then, medita-He wants everything and is ambitious to be emperor. Emperor! He would tively: "And at his trial he did not tell; the reason for the killing? Would not I should be able to induce him not to compromise me, who had served him sacrifice me to his selfish interests, as so ill, even to save his own life? Noble. I have done before, but I knew only noble!" And her lips went together as too well it would tax my powers to the she rose to her feet. No tears now; utmost this time. I knew that if I did nothing but glowing, determined woanything to anger or to antagonize him manhood.

"Then I will go to him wherever he it would be all at an end with me. You know he is so exacting with other peo- may be. He shall forgive me, no matple's conduct for one who is so careless ter what my fault." Soon after this we were on our way of his own- so virtuous by proxy. You remember how cruelly he disgraced to London at a brisk gallop. We were all very silent, but at one and crushed poor Lady Chesterfield, who was in such trouble about her hus. time Mary spoke up from the midst c band and who went to Grouche's only a reverie: "During the moment when a thought Master Brandon had been executed-when you said it was too lateit seemed that I was born again and all cannon is sometimes changed by too not for every man?"

in London except to give the horses "You know that is not true. You are months, suffering with partial paralysis write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a A jewelry store is the place | tale is this you bring to torture mer I was waiting along came the Duke of hever marry the French king-never." any favor from me, even the slightest. | weighing only 85 pounds. Mary was but a girl pitted against a Wantonness is not among my thousand "Up to this date I have taken Peruna The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, little tongue torn out by the root!" much influence there as the king a rather heavy odds for one woman. of coming and going at will.

is like to keep it up.

extra 100,000 to be devoted to his own find it in your beart to make of it a are so cruel in turning to evil the high-now." private use. When we arrived at the palace the proud?" this window we often sat and read, and woman as Mary carries ber indulgence "You did well to employ my Lord of "Shall we tell them?" here was Brandon with his book. I had in her face.

should reach the king's ears there because he was wrong in part.

I had said as much to the Lady Mary rest to ask his release, and of the meet- I was being sold like a wretched slave of other mothers speak in a sum at for a few weeks until the king pro humbled, and I was brave enough to draw. She had fallen into a chair by this cured his loan and then be freed by say whatever I felt, but she said she She remained silent a little time, had thought it all over, and as every waiting for him to speak, when tears, covered her drooping face with her and my heart was full. It is quite a Jane would have gone, though, had in the faintest shading of a thoughtdistance from London, and I thought she known that all her fair name would not for heaven itself-not even for your "Go away for awhile, Edwin, and it might afford a better opportunity to go with her. She was right, you see, love and forgiveness, much as they are marriage—others have lived through almost as many people as speak Welsh. Brandon might come-might want to- Windsor that should Mary's love blos- are sure of my truthfulness, if you er will, stronger and infinitely better controlled than her own, and I did not Peculiar know how it would all turn out.

> CHAPTER XII. ATONEMENT.

when a knock at the door an-"I greatly fear, in fact, I know he citing moments! My heart beat like a ing refreshed and rested. they entered, but never so much as heartily endorse Peruna."-C. S. Rhoads. looked up from his book. You must remember he had a great grievance. Jane and I had remained near the door, and poor Mary was a pitiable princess, standing there so full of doubt in the middle of the room. After a moment she stepped toward the window and. with quick coming breath, stopped at the threshold of the little passage.

"Master Brandon, I have come, not to make excuses, for nothing can excuse me, but to tell you how it all happened -by trusting to another." Brandon arose and, marking the place in his book with his finger, followed Mary, who had stepped backward into the room. "Your highness is very gracious and kind thus to honor me, but as our ways will hereafter lie as far apart as the world is broad. I think it would have been far better had you refrained from so imprudent a visit, especially as anything one so exalted as yourself may have to say can be no affair of such as -one just free of the hangman's

"Oh, don't, I pray you! Let me tell you, and it may make a difference. It must pain you. I know, to think of me D. C., writes from 213 N. Capital street, so well in five years, having walked as you do, after-after-you know; aft- Washington, D. C.: er what has passed between us."

"Yes, that only makes it all the harder. If you could give your kisses"-and she blushed red as blood-"to one for whom you care so little that you could made over; that I was changed in the leave him to die like a dog, when a very texture of my nature by the word from you would have saved him, shock, as they say the grain of the iron what reason have I to suppose they are violent an explosion." And this proved This gave Mary an opening of which ity, and heart trouble. Have had four known to the medical profession.

she was quick enough to take advan- doctors; all said that I could not get We rode on rapidly and did not stop tage, for Brandon was in the wrong. | well. I had not walked a step in nine | factory results from the use of Peruna, not honest with me nor with yourself, and palpitation of the heart every full statement of your case and he will After crossing the bridge Mary said, and that is not like you. You know that other day, and had become so reduced be pleased to give you his valuable adualf to Jane and half to herself, "I will no other made ever had, or could have, In flesh as to be a mere skeleton, vice gratis. body of brutal men, two of them rulers faults. It is not that which angers for seven months. It has saved my life Ohio. of the two greatest nations on earth- you. You are sure enough of me in that respect. In truth, I had almost come er, the only business of state in which She hung her head a moment in si-thing in life to her and be proud of it, was lost, lost." est. Subsequently, as you know, he be ready for tears, continued: "A man has in your love for me, else I surely ing toward him and caught her to his came interested in the divorce laws no right to speak in that way of a wo- should not be here. You see I trust even breast. adopted a combined policy of church what that—first—kiss was to me? Had falsely about such things, and when if it had taken my life to buy your and state craft that has brought us a I possessed all the crowns of all the that which I now do is full of shame freedom."

shame to me-that of which I was so est, purest impulse a woman can feel- "No, no. Just forgive me. That is all girls went to their apartments and I She stood there, with head inclined a the sweet, delightful privilege of giving "Let us step out into the passageway, to mine, where I found Brandon read-little to one side, looking at him in-where she loves. How can you? How Edwin," said Jane, and we did. There ing. There was only one window to quiringly as if awaiting an answer. He can you?" our common room-a dormer window did not speak, but looked steadily at How eloquent she was! It seemed to spired. set into the roof and reached by a lit- his book. I felt, however, that he was me this would have melted the frozen. When we went back into the room, tle passage as broad as the window it- changing, and I was sure her beauty, sea, but I think Brandon felt that now Mary and Brandon were sitting in the self and perhaps a yard and a half never more exquisite than in its pres- his only hope lay in the safeguard of window-way on his great cloak. They long. In the alcove thus formed was ent humility, would yet atone for even his constantly upheld indignation. rose and came to us, holding each other a bench along the wall, cushioned by so great a fault as hers. Err, look beau- When he spoke he ignored all she had er's hands, and Mary asked, looking up Brandon's great campaign cloak. In tiful and receive remission! Such a said.

intended to tell him the girls were com- I now began to realize for the first more interesting when I tell you it was. Mary was willing, and looked for ing, for when Mary asked me if I time the wondrous power of this girl, he who attacked you and was caught Brandon to speak, so he said, "This she reiterated her intention of going the most violent, stubborn man on erward. I had watched him following the good God to be husband and wife to him at once; but my courage failed earth, to her own wishes. Her manner you from the gate at Bridewell and at if fortune ever so favor us that it be made her words eloquent, and already, once recognized him when his mask possible." I knew that Mary ought not to come with true feminine tactics, she had put fell off during the fight by the wall. to our room, and that if news of it Brandon in the wrong in everything You have done well at every step. I would be more and worse trouble than Then she quickly went over what she "Oh, God; to think of it! Had I but ever, and as usual Brandon would pay had said to me. She told of her great known! Buckingham shall pay for this good word for Baby's Own Table A the penalty for all. Then again, if it dread lest the king should learn of the with his head; but how could I know? the age of two months my buly and were discovered it might seriously com- visit to Grouche's and its fatal conse- 1 was but a poor, distracted girl, sure dreadfully constipated. He could not promise both Mary and Jane, as the quences, knowing full well it would to make some first over. I was in digest his food and screamed increased world is full of people who would rath- render Henry impervious to her influ- such agony-your woulds believe me. ly. I was almost in despair, but were er say and believe an evil thing of an- ence and precipitate the French mar- 1 suffered more from them, than you giving him the Tablets he has been well very little about that. You deserve it, as the king was anxious to conciliate other than to say their prayers or to riage. She told him of how she was could. Every pain you felt was a pang and is growing splendidly."

"Tell me at least," she said, "that for your faith. I would not lie to you once, and this the greatest of them, highroad to that end. Nothing short knew in my heart you loved me; that throat ached; I could scarcely breathe, pans, Lever's Dry Soap (a powder), will "You are surely right, Sir Edwin. I because it is my fault. I can ask no of chains and fetters could have kept you could not have done and said what and it seemed that my heart would remove the greatest ease.

Your Hair WHEN KNIGHTHOOD* forgiveness from any one, for I cannot forgive myself." She then inquired about Brandon's health and spirits, and I left out no her from going to Brandon that even-ing. There was an inherent force about her that was irresistible and swept everything before it. In our garret she was to meet anoth-

Prompt and Permanent Relief.

C. S. Rhoads, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "For the past two years I have hardly known what it was to have a sweet, nounced the girls. I admitted restful night's sleep. Cares and overwork seemed to weigh me down more than them, and Mary walked to it should er would had I been able to get my proper rest. My doctor was unable the middle of the floor. It was just to help me and ordered me South for a complete rest and change. As this was growing dark, and the room was quite simply out of the question, and as I had heard several of the men under me speak dim, save at the window where Bran- of how much Peruna had helped them, I decided to try it and am glad indeed that don sat reading. Gods, those were ex- I did. Six bottles made a new man of me. I eat well, sleep well and get up feel-

"My official duties are not half so hard and I certainly have good reasons to Vigor by Pe-rn-na. He New Man of Me."

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."-Wm. T. Zenor. Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 130 Reid street

Elizabeth, N. J., writes: "I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debil- prostration caused by systemic catarrh fed cattle are prized. No matter how ing now-"I might have been able to

C·S·Rhoads·

"Pe-ru-na made a Judge Wm. T Zenor, of Washington, as I can safely testify. I have not felt over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."--Mrs. Amanda Morrill.

> Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous If you do not derive prompt and satis-

Address Dr. Hartman, President of

We rode down to Greenwich and en- to believe you were too sure, that I had you did otherwise. Now you see what burst." Here the tears gushed forth as ered the palace without exciting com- grown cheap in your eyes, and you did faith I have in you, and you a man, she took a step toward him with out ment, as the princess was in the habit not care so much as I thought and whom a woman's instinct prompts to stretched arms and said between soles. hoped for what I had to give, for after doubt. How does it compare with your "I wanted you, you, for my husband -The king and queen and most of the that day you came not near me at all. faith in me, a woman, whom all the in- for my husband, and I could not bear courtiers were in London at Bridewell I know it was the part of wisdom and stincts of a manly nature should dis- the torturing thought of losing you or House and Baynard's castle, where prudence that you should remain away, pose to trust? It seems to be an un-enduring any other man. I could not Henry was vigorously pushing the but had you cared as much as I your written law that a man may lie to a give you up after that—it was all too loan of 500,000 crowns for Mary's dow- prudence would not have held you." woman concerning the most important late, too late; it had gone too far. I at that time he took any active inter-lence, then, looking at him, almost but you see even now I have all faith. He sprang to where she stood lean-and the various methods whereby a man whose little favors be has taken, your unspoken word, when it might. She held him from her while she man, especially a king, might rid him- and make her regret that she has given without much blame to you, be a spo- said: "Now you know-now you knowself of a distasteful wife, and after he a gift only that it may recoil upon her. ken lie; yet you do not trust me, who that I would not have left you in that saw the truth in Anne Boleyn's eyes he 'Little,' did I say? Sir, do you know have no world given right to speak terrible place had I known it. No, not deal of senseless trouble ever since and earth I would have given them to you for me, and what I have done full of "I do know; I do know. Be sure of as willingly. Now you know the value guilt, if inspired by aught but the pur-that. I know it and shall know it al-As to Mary's dower, Henry was to I placed on it, however worthless it est truth from my heart of hearts, ways, whatever happens; nothing can pay Louis only 400,000 crowns, but he was to you. Yet I was a cheerful giver Your words mean so much so much change me. I will never doubt you made the marriage an excuse for an of that gift, was I not? And can you more, I think, than you realize and again. It is my turn to ask forgiveness > the glowing pride in self surrender and I ask." And her head was on his breast. were times when Jane seemed to be in-

Buckingham. It will make matters "As you like, my lady."

To be continued.

WHAT A MOTHER SAYS.

going to the king the day after the ar-rest to ask his release, and of the meet-

and feasted upon. No man can know | Summer is here and mothers should the horror of that thought to a woman take special pains to guard then have -to any woman, good or bad. To have ones against illness. At this season make her desirable only-only as well diarrhoea and summer complaints worse than all"-she was almost weep- cine Co., Brockville, Ont.

bear the thought even of that hideous | Irish is to-day the living tongue of the like-but-but after-that-that Greek, Bulgarian, Servian, Norwegian day-when you-it seemed that your or Danish. In Galway alone are 17.838

Never varies in quality RED ROSE TEA BLACK, MIXED AND GREEN CEYLON.