W. F. Dewar, of the Gordon Highlander's Band, is spending a few weeks at his home here. The band will go west in about three weeks and will play at the Clarke-Lewis Exposition at Portland, Oregon, and at other cities on the Pacific Coast.

Remember the Garden Party at the home of George Michie, lot 10, con. 4, Esquesing, on Thursday, July 13th, in the interest of Boston Church. The following talent has been secured: James Fax, Canada's greatest humorist; H. Ruthven McDonald, the first baritone soloist of to-day. Mr. McDonald has no peer as a baritone singer in Canada. For particulars see posters.

ODDFELLOWS' EXCURSION—Take in the Oddfellows' Excursion to Niagara Falls on July 13th. Special train will start from Guelph, reaching Milton at 6.45 a.m., thence to Toronto, where the party will take the boat to Port Dalhousie, thence by electric railway through the peach orchards, St. Catharines, Merriton, and Thorold and the old and new Welland canals. See large posters.

DIDN'T ADVERTISE.—A Milton man says that he was anxious to tender for part of the work of the erection of the electric light power house, the contracts for which were closed by the town council, and complains that he was given no opportunity to do so as the committee who received the tenders did not advertise in the newspapers or otherwise. What does the committee say to this?

Mr. Charles Tieff, of Freelton, was probably fatally injured on the Brock Road, near Morriston, Monday. He was driving, when an auto came up behind him and caused his horse to shy, throwing Mr. Tieff out of the buggy. ORDER NOW.—Under a special arrangement made with the publishers of the Weekly Sun, that paper and the Champion are offered to new subscribers for the balance of the present year for 50 cents, payable in advance. Send in your orders promptly. The Weekly Sun is a clean farm paper, giving the latest and most accurate market reports and farm information, while it is ably edited and thoroughly independent.

THEY SETTLED.—D. Albert Kerrington and Ambrose Telford, apple buyers, were taken from the jail to Georgetown last week to answer the charge of conspiracy to defraud apple growers on which they were arrested, as reported in the Champion last week. They paid all the farmers who had claims against them in full, also paying all costs, and the charge was withdrawn. Their mode of settlement after arrest was much more expensive than the usual one of C. O. D. to say nothing of the time spent by them in jail.

GARDEN PARTY—Grand annual garden party, under the auspices of Hornby Presbyterian Church, will be held on the lawn of John Huffman, lot 4, con. 9, Esquesing, on Tuesday, July 18th. The following will contribute to the programme: James Fax, humorist, Toronto; Miss Olive Norton, soloist, Toronto; Miss Annie Noble, Scottish soloist, Norval; Miss Annie Kay, soloist, Norval; Miss Pearl Cantelon, elocutionist, Clinton, and others. There will also be a first-class Ladies' Orchestra from Toronto. The Brampton band will be in attendance. Abundance of teat refreshments. Tea served from 7 to 8.30 p m. Admission 25c. Children 15c.

On Sunday morning, July 2nd, the death of Herbert Wilson took place at his father's home near Hornby. About a year ago he underwent an operation from which he had fairly well recovered, but his trouble returned and a second operation was undertaken. This gave him some relief, but it was only temporary, and for the past three months his condition has been practically hopeless. The deceased was born at Ashgrove twenty-seven years ago and was a son of Wm. A. Wilson. The family remaining consists of three brothers—William, near Georgetown, James and George, of Trafalgar. Mr. Wilson had for years been a prominent worker in the Sons of Temperance and last year was appointed to the office of Deputy Grand Worthy Patriarch. The burial took place at Ashgrove on Tuesday and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Revs. Mr. Cook of Georgetown and Mr. Tough of Hornby. The pall-bearers, who were chosen by the deceased some time previous to his death were: A. Wilson, E. Brownridge, R. J. Graham, R. Wright, M. Nixon, and F. Wrigglesworth.

AFTER 18 MONTHS.—On Friday night last, Joseph Hargrove waited on the magistrate at the Beach and swore out a warrant against his wife, charging her with false pretenses. The charge in the warrant read that she, by false pretenses, had made him believe that she was open by law to marriage, and that, as his lawful wife, she obtained possession of valuable property by these means. The story of the case is rather complicated. Hargrove married the woman at Waterdown 18 months ago. He is 70 years of age and she is 60 years old. He claims that at the time that she gave her name as Annie Gardner, and made him believe that she was eligible for marriage. There was a double wedding at Waterdown that day, her son, William Jenkins, also being married and later being charged with bigamy. After the marriage Hargrove claims that he deeded over a house and lot to his wife. After 18 months of bliss he is said to have got information that there was something wrong, and the warrant on Friday night resulted. Mrs. Hargrove came to Hamilton on her own account Monday and was taken into custody by Detective Coulter on her arrival. He was waiting at the station, having been informed of the lady's movements. Mrs. Hargrove did not appear to be alarmed at her arrest. The case was adjourned for a week.—Spec.

Wedding Bells.

Khar—Richards.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. S. M. Bell, 67 Grosvenor St., Toronto, at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon last, when Lottie, second daughter of the late Jacob J. Bell, Milton, Ont., and widow of the late Bennett Richards, of Boston, was married to William Grenville Kahr.

The Rev. Dr. McTavish performed the ceremony in the drawing-room, in the presence of the immediate family only.

Mr. and Mrs. Kahr left on the 7.30 train for Milwaukee and other American cities.

Winn—MacRae.

One of the prettiest of the many June weddings was that solemnized in Duff Church, Dunwich, on Friday evening, June 30th, when Miss Annie Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MacRae, Dutton, was united in marriage to Arthur Winn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Winn, sr., Milton.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Ellison, Dunwich, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chene over taffeta, with the customary bridal veil, and carried a large bouquet of lillies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. L. MacRae.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. E. Winn.

The ushers were Messrs. John MacRae and Alfred Winn.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Winn left for St. Thomas and points east.

Dennon—Burling.

In the presence of immediate friends, a very charming wedding took place on Wednesday, July 5th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burling, Milton, when their eldest daughter, Netta Maude, was united in the bonds of holy wedlock to William Bishop Dennon, of Cleveland, Ohio, by the Rev. W. M. McKay, of Knox Church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in ivory silk eolienne over taffetta, with yoke of embroidered chiffon and bertha to match, wore a tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms and carried white roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Cora H., who wore pale green embroidered crepe-de-Paris, and carried pink roses. The groom was assisted by his cousin, Percy Pegg, of Cleveland, O.

The younger sisters of the bride, Misses Helen and Vera, looked very pretty as flower girls in their dresses of white silk. They carried baskets of sweet peas and ferns.

After a dainty breakfast, the happy couple left on the 6 o'clock train, amidst showers of good wishes and confetti, for Montreal, New York and other points in the Eastern States. On their return they will reside in Cleveland, O.

Among those present from a distance were: Mrs. Dennon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dennon, and Miss Dennon, of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Wilson, Lloydtown; Miss Hall, of Toronto; Mrs. Baldwin, of Sunderland, and Miss Burling, Guelph.

Peacock—Dale.

Cedar Grove Farm, Palermo, was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday evening last, June 21st, when Miss Bertha May Dale, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dale, was united in marriage to James H. Peacock, late of Buffalo, N.Y. The marriage took place at seven o'clock, Rev. J. W. McNamara, B. D., officating. The room was prettily decorated with evergreens for the occasion. Mrs. W. W. Dale played the wedding march. The bridal party stood under a large arch of cedars sprinkled with orange blossoms, while the recess was banked with ferns. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming costume of royal blue corded silk with lace trimmings and a long tulle veil with orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss M. Maud Norton, of Palermo, who was daintly gowned in French organdie royal blue with appropriate trimming. The bride and bridesmaid carried magnificent bouquets of cream and pink roses. The groom was attended by his brother, J. F. Peacock, of Buffalo.

After the ceremony, about forty guests sat down to well filled tables, and partook of a delightful repast.

Many presents, beautiful and costly as well as useful, bore evidence to the good will and esteem of the friends of the bridal couple. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dale, of Janesville, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peacock, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. D. Buck, Palermo; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dale, Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Dale, Appleby; Geo. Dale, Georgetown; Messrs. Henry, Will and Geo. Peacock, and Mrs. and Miss Peacock, of Omagh; Messrs. Thompson and Elton Jordon and the Misses Jordon, of the Sixteen, and others.

The happy couple intend to reside on the fifth line, Trafalgar, where Mr. Peacock has recently purchased a farm.

Weese—Moore.

A pretty marguerite wedding took place at high noon on Wednesday, 28th ult., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Moore, of Milton, when their third daughter, Jean B., was united in marriage to Frank C. Weese, of Toronto.

The house and tables were prettily decorated for the occasion with marguerites, peonies, roses, carnations, ferns and evergreens, and the drawing-room was prepared for the ceremony with a bank of marguerites and a bell of the same flowers suspended from the ceiling.

The bride entered the place thus prepared, leaning on the arm of her father, while her cousin, John K. Moore, of Milton, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. She was prettily gowned in white silk eolienne and wore a veil caught with a wreath of lillies-of-the-valley and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Going away she wore a navy blue suit trimmed with lace, and a white chiffon picture hat. The bride was attended by Miss Nettie Weese, of Trenton, sister of the groom, who looked pretty in a white muslin de chine. She carried pink roses. The flower girl, Miss Margaret Moore, the bride's little sister, was all in white and carried a basket of sweet peas.

Donald A. Moore, of Toronto, brother of the bride, performed the duties of groomsman, and the knot was tied by Rev. W. M. McKay, of Milton.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, to her bridesmaid a crescent of pearls, to the flower girl a chain and locket, and to the groomsman a gold pin. The couple were then congratulated by the guests and best wishes were conveyed.

A wedding breakfast was afterwards served and the bride and groom were suitably toasted. A very pleasant afternoon was spent by all the guests, about thirty-five being present from Toronto, Trenton, Georgetown, Blyth, Cleveland and the vicinity of Milton.

The gifts were numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the couple are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Weese left on the six o'clock train for Trenton for a short honeymoon amid showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes. Upon their return they will reside at 51 Pearson ave., Toronto.

Where Disease Germs Breed.

No Need to Fear "Germs" if the Stomach Be Healthy.

The ideal breeding place for disease germs is a weak stomach and digestive system. The food, instead of being assimilated, turns into a sour, slimy, fermenting mass, causing gases, distress after eating, bloating, nausea and flatulency. The poisonous germs that are given off from this undigested food enter the blood, and pimples, boils, and blotched skin is the result. Nervousness and sleeplessness come more often from weakened digestion than from any other one cause. Rheumatism and gout are directly caused by an acid condition of the stomach.

No ordinary food digestive can give lasting relief. It is absolutely necessary, if one wishes to be well, to use Mi-o-na, the only known remedy that sooths and heals the mucous membrane of the stomach and digestive tract, stimulates the solar-plexus, and strengthens the nerves of the stomach. This remarkable remedy puts the whole digestive system in so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, any disease germs in the stomach will be destroyed, and all food will be so well assimilated that a rapid and healthy increase in weight will quickly result.

Mi-o-na is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer, a guarantee being given by Higginbotham & Field with every package they sell, agreeing to refund the money should the remedy not give perfect satisfaction.

SPECIAL VALUE!

WALL PAPERS!

We didn't sell every piece of our stock of Wall Paper last season. Neither did any other house engaged in the wall paper business, but we sold a very satisfactory proportion of it, and this year we have done a much larger trade in wall paper goods and are now closing out odd lots at bargain prices, and even the best and newest goods at reduced prices.
