Among other improvements in the art of war as attained by the world these later days is the abolition of the practice of sending children to sea, as was the case when the midshipmen of the old "oak walls" of England often were boys of less than fourteen years. The Marquis of Dufferin and Ava in telling about the siege of Bomarsund, in the Crimean war, which he witnessed from the frigate Penelope, related this story of one of these little fellows: "What pleased me most during the years of age. About the time when the fire became pretty hot I happened to come across him, and, as he seemed to be as much out of a job as myself, I Two observing that it was a fine day, to which he politely replied that it was. "Encouraged by his urbanity, I ventured to ask him how long he had been at sea, to which he answered, 'I have ! only left my mamma six weeks, but I

MILTON'S POPULAR STORE-

Every Day a Busy Day.

We're only going through the world once and there's no reason know to this generation why anybody shouldn't live and dress as well as their means will allow.

The great majority of people have no money to throw away in paying extravagant prices—and this is their store. With the great improvements we've made in merchandising conditions in Milton, the people can and do buy the very best of goods and pay extremely moderate prices.

Ladies' Silk and Lace Blouses.

In sizes only 34 and 36. This lot of thirty beautiful blouses comprises the choicest showing of blouses that we have ever had the pleasure to sell. They are travellers' samples, though from their appearance one would judge that they had just been finished by a splendid dressmaker; no two alike. They're splendid, and the best of it all is that we can sell them at a saving of $1.00 and $1.50 on every blouse, just the same as though you were huying them from the wholesale yourself-only a little cheaper. White and Black, Taffetta Silk, India Silk, Allover Lace and Net. Call and see them, only sizes 34 and 36.

Men's Spring Hats

Shown in all the prevailing styles, both in soft and stiff hats. The variety this season is quite extensive. It's hard to beat the best and the makers of the hats we sell stand at the head of the list. In buying a hat it is not so much the price or the material, but it is the block, the shape that is important. Good hats are made by good makers.

Men's Stiff Hats, correct American and English styles, black and fawn shades, special $2.00. Men's Soft Hats, in a complete and well selected range of latest styles, in colors black, brown,
