T. C. Robinette, the defeated Liberal candidate, said last night: "The election in Centre Toronto will certainly be protested. Phalen will look after the legal proceedings. He has been making them all day. Already we have evidence of money being paid for votes." Mr. Phalen said: "All that I care to say at present is that we have definite information that things were done in connection with Mr. Bristol's election which were irregular." Vincenzo Cuchero, 8 Henry street, and Stanzio Zincera, 73 Elm street, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning charged with personation in the Dominion election on Monday. The charges will, however, be changed during a week's remand to attempting to vote while not fully naturalized. Renfrew despatch says that Montreal detectives were in the riding for the last two weeks on behalf McGarry, the Conservative candidate, and that they have evidence that bribery took place.
