SUNSTROKE.—On Saturday evening John Widwell was sunstruck on Pearl Street as he was on his way from the brick works to his boarding house, A.B. Chisholm's. People who saw him reeling on the street carried him to the house, where he died within an hour. He was a powerful man, about 35 years of age. He wore two shirts, one a heavy woolen one, two coats and a tweed cap, and the physician who attended him says that his unseasonable clothing may have been the cause of his death. came from Toronto last week and had worked three days for the Milton Pressed Brick Co. A man who came with him worked and boarded with him did not know his name, but it was found in the books at the brick works. Widnall was a native of Whitehaven, Northumberland, England. As he had said that he had a brother travelling with Barnum & Bailey's circus, a telegram was sent to the managers of the show.
