PLOWMEN MET.—The annual meeting of the Halton Mouldboard Association was held at the Hotel McGibbon on Saturday last, with the President, A. McGibbon, in the chair. The large number that turned out showed that the plowmen were taking a greater interest in the society. After the minutes of the last annual meeting were read the report of the Sec.-Treas. was received. It gave the officers good encouragement to go ahead, as the society is now in a flourishing condition. The following officers were then elected:—President, A. McGibbon; Sec.-Treas., J. Houston; Directors, J. D. McGibbon, Jas. Murray, Allen Dixon, Thos. F. Chisholm, Robt. Walden, Thos. Chisholm, J. J. Wilson, J. H. Wilson, Wilbert McCurdy, Geo. McMillan, Fred Robinson; Hon. A social and entertainment will be given by the Epworth League and Young Men's Bible Class in the school-room of the Methodist Church on Monday evening, the 19th. A good time is expected and a special invitation is extended to all strangers in town to-day. Male Quartette, Milton orchestra, refreshments. There will be a silver collection.

The social and concert given in the school-room of Knox Church last Thursday evening was worthy of more liberal patronage. The program was far above the average. Miss Ethel Arnott, of Norval, made her first appearance before a Milton audience and won golden opinions for herself. Her first number was an exceedingly difficult selection, but Miss Arnott made it appear easy. She will always be welcome here. Mrs. McGregor, C. E. Robinson, W. F. Dewar and R. E. Gollins also sang, and as usual all were greatly enjoyed. An industrial tableau was part of the program and provided a good deal of laughter. Rev. H. A. Macpherson, of Chalmers Church, Toronto, gave an address on "Fishing," which was full of good sound sense, with just enough nonsense added to give it relish. Refreshments were served at the close and the 100 who were there had a very pleasant evening.

On Tuesday night next Marion Slavin, supported by a competent cast of clever artists, will appear in Charles Townsend's successful comedy drama, "Birds of Prey." This is a comedy drama of the highest order and is a brilliant, dashing, exciting play. Its thrilling situations quicken the pulse, and its tender pathos touches the heart. It shows vice as it is, with no false glitter; and it presents noble men and women for our admiration. The humor is abundant, and the whole original dialogue is written in the author's happiest vein. Miss Marion Slavin, who directs her own company, has won signal success in the role of Lilian Marsten, a character of quiet intensity, deep feeling. Power expressed more in action and expression than in mere words; ready to suffer, to die, if need be, for the sake of the man she loves. The company carries 15 people, including its own orchestra. Sale of seats commences Feb. 15th at Smith's drug store. Performance 8.15 sharp.

PRESENTATION.—On the 7th inst. members of Ashgrove Methodist Church presented J. F. Brownridge with a watch and chain and Mrs. Brownridge with a fine muff in recognition of their long and valuable services to the church, also with an address, which was read by S. K. Ruddell.

MASQUERADE BALL.—The masquerade ball at the town hall last night could hardly have been a greater success than it was. The attendance was about 175. The decorations were tasteful and the music of the Milton Orchestra particularly good. There was a large turnout from the town and neighborhood and there were guests from Toronto, including a contingent of Varsity students, Hamilton, Oakville, Guelph, Bradford, Georgetown, Waterdown and elsewhere. There was a wonderful variety of costumes, ancient and modern, fancy and comic, in which good taste and originality were displayed. The general effect was brilliant and striking. Up to the time of unmasking, about 11 o'clock, there was a great deal of fun among the dancers in trying to identify their partners, something impossible in most cases, and identification after unmasking led to more fun.

HOCKEY.

Milton beat Georgetown here on Thursday evening, 7 to 0. This was the first defeat for Georgetown in two seasons. Mr. Walsh, of Georgetown, was an impartial referee. He let a good many offside plays escape him, but he had a sharp eye for rough plays and rushed the offenders to the fence. The line-up:

Milton.		Georgetown.
Sinclair	Goal	Watson
Ryder	Point	Cole
Maude	Cover	Finlay
Panton	Rover	Devereaux
Durnan	Center	Clark
Ford	Right	Bowman
Chisholm	Left	Cleave

On Tuesday evening Milton defeated Acton here, 9 to 5. Tiny Lott was the best referee seen on Milton ice this season and was as satisfactory to the visitors as to the locals. The line-up:

Milton.		Acton.
Sinclair	Goal	B. Clark
Farlow	Point	H. Williams
Chisholm	Cover	J. Williams
Maude	Rover	Malone
Panton	Centre	Garden
Durnan & Parks	Right	Beardmore
Ford	Left	C. Clark

Milton will play at Georgetown next Monday evening and at Burlington on Tuesday evening. Galt O. H. A. junior team is expected to play here on Thursday evening.
