THE STORE FOR VALUES

TE are still able to keep up our supply of goods, though for how long we cannot say. A leading manufacturer advised us this week as follows: Owing to the very great increase in the price of Wool and Yarns, we are compelled to withdraw prices on all woolen goods.

The new prices on Crockery and China are 40 per cent. higher, so our stock at present prices will be considered Bargains.

This week's Grocer says: Cream of Tartar advances. Price on this is now "way up." Corn and Peas increased in price. Sugar more active. Syrup may go higher. Raisins are higher, and Currants will be very scarce. owing to Greece not allowing cargoes to leave that country.

So the question of to-day is not, Have the money? but, How can we get the goods?

Onr advice is-Buy now. Our stocks are complete.

Dress Goods, Silks and Velvets, Hosiery, Gloves and Underwear, Sweater Coats, Tams and Toques, New Supplies of all kinds. Best Groceries, always fresh, China and Glassware of all kinds in the Basement.
