One of the most interesting of the speeches delivered at the Warden's dinner, two weeks ago, was that of W D. Gregory, chairman of the Public spoke chiefly on what he had learned by investigation and from evidence during his tour of Ontario with the Commission. He strongly criticised wholesale and indiscriminate appointments of justices of the peace. He said gality. In war, they cheer the Scotfew of the men who have been appoint. tish tenacity, and the Irish dash. Now ed have ever acted as magistrates and and again somebody remembers to fewer still have been competent to do speak of their own doggedness and All such appointments should be cheerfulness, but more often the To the Electors of the Townsubject to the approval of the County ludges. The greatest care, too, should references are to their slowness and be taken in the selection of police denseness to new ideas. But, as Rudmagistrates. Some said that every yard Kipling said, there is one time police magistrate should be a lawyer. Whether that was true or not, police magistrates were given powers almost qual to those of County Judges and should not be entrusted to any but year, Mr. Kipling was the chief sound judgment needed for its interpretation. Some unwise appointments In no county has less discrimination been used in the appointments of just tact the English race had with hutices of the peace than in Halton. This manity, he observed that the Phoecounty has a host of magistrates who necians taught the Englishman the got their positions by political favor, elements of shop-keeping; the Roman who have never sat on a case, never taught him love of sport, by hiring ntended to do so, and never will do so. him to fight beasts in the arena.
