The death from pneumonia of Allan V. Bowman, at his home in Milton, last Thursday was a great shock to his many friends in the town and neigh borhood. He had been in the best health until two days before his death. He was a son of the late David Bowpan, of Esquesing, and he lived i that township until his removal to Milton about twenty years ago. was an upright man, respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the United Presbyterian Church until he came to Milton and joined the congregation of Knox Church. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Kerns Agnew, of Richmond Hill. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from Mr. Bowman's residence to Evergreen Cemetery. The attendance from the town, Esquesing and elsewhere, was very large. Rev. J. N. McFaul conducted the Dominion tourney just closed. Thin Underdeveloped Kids. There were thirty-two entries, and after six days of bard play the high four in each class were: Class A-Irwin and Andrews, of Toronto, Gibson, of Hamilton, and Garvin, of Barrie. Irwin won first money and the Canadian championship. Mr. Gibson got 2nd prize. Mr. Gibson also won a special prize of a bushel of peaches for the best shot in the tourney. In Class B the four winners were: Lawson, of Milton, Risch, of Montreal, Watson, of Hemilton, and Clow, of Owen Sound. In the semi-finals Lawson won from Risch by 2-0. Watson won the same
