Halton Musical Festival.

In the Music Room of the Public School here on Monday afternoon representatives of the seven schools in which the subject of music is being taught by Mrs. F. G. Russell, of Toronto, including Milton and Bronte, met to arrange for a musical festival this spring. John Wilson, of No. 18. Trafalgar, was made chairman of the committee in charge and Miss Mary I Hume, of No. 13, Nelson, secretary. The date set for the festival was May elst, at 8 p.m., in the Princess Theatre here. There will be contests for boys and girls and mixed choirs, besides solo contests by both girls and boys. Valuable cups will be offered by well known Toronto firms to the winners of choir contests and gold, silver and bronze medals for the soloist. This festival is a new departure in public school work in this county and those in charge are enthusiastic over the prospects of success.
