MARRIED.

STEWART-FRENCH. Bloor Street United Church, Toronto, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday afternoon, August 24, when Ruth Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. French and the late Mr. A. French, became the bride of Robert Shaw Stewart, son of Mrs. Stewart and the late W. H. Stewart, formerly of Milton. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Pidgeon. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. R. Irvine, wore a blue moire velvet frock, with blue hat and shoes. She carried Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. The ushers were Mr. Norman Madoc, Mr. William Stewart and Mr. George Stewart, brothers of the groom, and Mr. Jack French, brother of the TORONTO bride. During the signing of the register Miss Elsie Stewart sang "Until." A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. French wore a " gown of black lace with a corsage bouquet of red roses and baby's breath, and Mrs. Stewart, gowned in black georgette, also wore a corsage of roses. Later Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left on a boat trip, the bride travelling in a figured crepe ensemble. On their return they will reside in Toronto, where the groom is on the staff of the Toronto Public Schools. Miss Marjorie Harbottle, of Nelson, Slice I quart of large cucum-bers. Halve I quart of tiny won first place for judging home furn-ishings at the Toronto Exhibition, and Albert Hunter, of Freeman, stood third judging beef cattle. The Halton class of young ladies competing in the judging was composed of Misses Hazel and Eva Booth, of the upper middle road. Trafalgar, and Miss Mary Rivaz, of Palermo. The anniversary services of Lowville

United Church on Sunday last, Sept. 8th, were a pronounced success. The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli, asters, roses and other flowers, and large congregations were in attendance. In the absence of the expected speaker, Rev. G. H. Knighton of Waterdown preached in the morning and Rev. C. H. Woltz of Carlisle in the evening. The music by 3 One guess a week to contestants. the church choir, augmented for the oc-casion, was indeed excellent and inspiring. The fowl supper and concert on Monday evening, Sept. 10th, was also thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience. While waiting for the regular program, Miss M.
