Mr. Drury eulogized the King gov ernment for giving an election law that is fair to both parties in provid ing that the enumerators who are to prepare the voters' lists, and deputyreturning officers be chosen in equal numbers from Liberals and Conservatives. He expressed his pleasure in coming back to Halton county to find the Liberals and Progressives so completely united. James Waldbrook, the standardlearer, is a native of Halton county. His birthplace was in Trafalgar township, near Milton. When a young man he removed to the farm on the Lake Shore, two miles east of Oakville where he still resides. He is a life-long Liberal, and has been twenty-three years a member of Trafalgar township council, always one of the most progressive members. As a member of the Ontano municipal board, he has suggested a number of important amendments to the Municipal Act that have been adopted.
