BASEBALL. Last Saturday's second game, Rodney vs. Milton, in the third round of ' ies, was to have begun here at 3 p.m., downpour of rain, set in at 2.30 and Ltd. (T. McJannett, Manager), in lieu pools of water on the diamond and a small pond in right field. An hour was spent in getting the grounds into shape for play, with a ground rule that should the ball land in the right field water the hit should go as a single. Play began with a recordbreaking crowd of spectators. The grandstand was crowded and many of the fans had only standing room. There was a goodly contingent from Rodney. Despite the mud, the game was well played. It was a pitchers' Green-At his home, Toronto, Sept. 1939. battle, in which Marsh had a shade the better of Miller and got the better support. Each had twelve strike outs to his credit. Marsh issued two passes to Miller's one and held the visitors to eight hits, two of them due to infielders slipping in the mud and thus failing to handle easy grounders, while a third came from the ball dropping into the right field water hole. Otherwise it should have been caught. Mil ler allowed nine hits. He had puzzling curves with good control, but the errors behind him were costly. Rodney scored the first run in the second inning, when Miller fanned, Mistele drew a pass, Sherman bunted for a sacrifice, but got a single, the fielder slipping in the mud, Dorland hit to Marsh, who headed off Mistele at third, but Toletzka dropped the ball and the bases were all inhabited. Marsh pitched himself out of a bad situation by fanning Campbell and compelling Crawford to raise a foul which Fetter captured, making a great catch after a run into Marsh fanned, Fetter was safe on Dor- 438, Guelph, Ont. land's error.
