The lead findings help us to determine the age of the earth at 2,000,000,000 years."

Old Story Disproved credited to the historian, Harvey Rice, that Moses Cleaveland's exploring and surveying party started up the Chagrin river, mistaking it for the Cuyahoga, and that upon discovering the error Cleaveland gave it this name as rep sentative of the state of his feelings. -It appears, however, that this story made before the Revolution the river was called the Chagrin. The name is no doubt from an Indian word given as "Shagrin" or "Shaguin" and said to mean "clear." One map issued in 1755 calls it the Elk river.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
