Upper Canada Bible Society

The annual canvass for funds for the Milton Branch of this Society is about to commence. The extensive work of this Society is supported by voluntary offerings. While no gift is too small, individual subscribers to increase as far as possible their givings this year. Owing to the depression there was a substantial reduction in the amount last year and it is desired that this branch do its share to make up the deficiency. Liberal giving will be very much appreciated. We may say that there were 280,000 volumes of the Scriptures by the Upper Canada Bible Society to year and is of incalculable benefit to all communities, especially those out on the margin of settlement.

Dr. W. E. Willmott, President,
J. S. Willmott, Secretary.

Teachers' Convention.

The annual convention of the Halton Teachers' Institute was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Milton, on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 7th and 8th. All the sessions were fully attended, and the program proved to be both enjoyable and profitable. The president, Miss Ella Levey, Oakville, was in charge during the latter sessions.
Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. A. B. Irwin and Canon L. J. R. Nafte, who also delivered inspiring addresses.
Miss I. Phillips, British Exchange Teacher, Maeglas Senior School, Newport, England, who is on the staff of Burlington Central School, gave a splendid address on "Welfare of the child." The organization of Senior schools in England.
The main feature was the study of the New Course of Study, Grades 1 to VI. Interesting and helpful discussions were inspired in each subject by the following leaders: Health, Miss Eleanor MacDonald; English, Inspector J. M. Denyes; Social Studies, Miss Charlotte Tanner; Natural Science, Mr. C. R. Pruster; Arithmetic, F. L. Barrett; Music, Miss Adeline Fraser; Art, Miss Margaret Young.
Mr. Denyes paid tribute to the work of the late Miss E. Douglas, former teacher of this Inspectorate, and to the work of Miss E. B. Brown and Mrs. P. R. McAskill, of Oakville, who have retired from the profession.
The retiring officers were: President, the Institute was sent to Mr. E. F. Sanderson, of Oakville, and to the family of the late Miss Mary E. Douglas, in their recent sad bereavement.
The retiring officers were: elected for next year: Honorary President, J. M. Denyes, B.A., Milton; President, Miss Edith Donkin, Burlington; Vice President, Miss Charlotte Tanner, Oakville; Secretary, Miss Margaret Gemmill, Milton; Treasurer, Miss Christina Elliott, Milton.

DO YOU KNOW?

Know what? Why that these ladies of Lodge Trafalgar, 382, Sons of England, are holding a great and glorious euchre drive and draw on Tuesday, Oct. 19th, at 8 p.m.
Now, good people, I would advise you to pay a visit to the old cedar chest, draw out the "woolies," for its going to be cold, also leave its date clear on your going out date.
Then if you want to enjoy a good evening, meet some fine folk, just top along to the Farmers' Club Building around 8 to 8.30 this evening of the 19th.
It is a known fact that not one of our citizen's froze to death last winter, owing to the number of quilts, blankets, etc., that these ladies put up for draws.
For this opening party said draw will consist of a fine electric lamp that will guide the footsteps of the unwary but lined and out.
Now, ladies and gentlemen, if you desire a good hard game with a little fun thrown in turn out, and if any party, residing not getting enough for their money, I respectfully ask that they enter protest before 11 p.m. of 19th, then it will be my solemn duty to appoint two boys with large capacity to devour before all present one full size bale of hay, plus three felt hats for good measure, and for the information of those interested I beg to state I have early 21 inches of rain of a felt hat left over from January last, which I would dearly like to digest before taking part in any more wagers. Tough going laddie, I am, Yours truly,
Public Enemy No. 1.
