The program will be in charge of the literary convener.
Ontario magistrates are seldom called upon to sentence women to gaol terms. Recently Pele's P.M. was compelled to discipline a woman for duty. A woman was given two months for violation of the Ontario Liquor Control Act. It seems too bad, but women have all the rights enjoyed by men, and many of them are just as willing as their male companions to disregard the liquor laws. When, occasionally, they are caught they must look for treatment the law provide.—Brampton Conservator.

OBITUARY.
WILLIAM JAMES FOX
The citizens of Milton and Hornby district were shocked to hear of the death of W. J. Fox, who died at his home in Georgetown on Friday, Feb. 4th, in his 37th year. He was well known for his kind actions and pleasant manner. He was a member of the Church of England, and also a member of Glen Williams L.O.L. and Past District Master of Hornby District L.O.L. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Miss Miss Maud Parton, of Georgetown. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Monday afternoon last to Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Members of the Orange Association of Halton County attending in a body.
INDIAN FINED $10 FOR BEING DRUNK
Irwin Peters, 28, Indian, of Esqueping township, was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate L. J. C. Bull, when he pleaded guilty to being guilty to being intoxicated in a public place. According to the evidence, Peters was arrested Jan. 30, in a cafe, and lodged in jail by Provincial Constable A. J. Oliver.
"I found Peters in company with two women and a woman who had driven him into town," the officer stated. Although I found a partly consumed bottle of liquor on his person, I did not charge him with 'having' because his companions had apparently used him as a 'tool' to buy the liquor and the meals."

Lagging Fair May Lose Ontario Grant
Agricultural societies in Ontario must show they are doing worthwhile work if they hope to receive adequate financial assistance from the provincial government this year, according to Hon. P. M. Dewman, minister of Agriculture.
Speaking to the 38th annual convention banquet of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies in Toronto last Thursday night, Mr. Dewman said the department is considering withholding grants from those so cities that are not making progress.

WEDDINGS

WILSON-BLAKE
Fall standards of spring flowers with a background of palms and ferns formed the setting for a pretty wedding ceremony at Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Blake, Woodbridge, Ont., when their only daughter, Vera Marjorie, was united in marriage to Frank Wilfrid Wilson, youngest son of Mr. George and the late Mrs. Wilson, of Georgetown. Rev. C. W. Barrett officiated.
The wedding march was played by Mrs. J. C. Brown, who played for the bride's mother. The ceremony took place in the room where the bride's parents were married forty years ago.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in silk chantilly lace over ivory satin, cut in princess lines, with high standup collar and buttoned in front from her neck. She wore a crepe turban with short veil and carried a fan bouquet of Butterfly roses and lily-of-the-valley.
The bride's attendant was Mrs. John Dea, who wore a Dubonnet frock of wine velvet, hat to match, and carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. Mr. Roy Blake, brother of the bride, was best man. The soloist, Madame Ethel Holland, sang "All Mine Alone," accompanied by Miss Marie Allen, of Westwood.
The reception took place in the living room, the bride's mother wearing navy blue sheer with a corsage of roses and sweet peas. The groom's sister, Mrs. C. G. Brown, received in navy blue printed chiffon with corsage of roses and sweet peas.
The happy couple left on a motor trip to Florida, the bride traveling in a two-piece suit of independence blue boucle in Schiaparelli style, top coat of blue tweed trimmed with grey, matching accessories and silver fox scarf. On their return they will reside in the groom's farm near Georgetown.

Oh dear sinner friend God loves you. Oh say you are not a sinner. Christ died on Calvary's cross for you. Oh you who do not believe and receive a pardon. Rom. 3: 23. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God. This is God's own word concerning you. If you say you are not a sinner you make Him a liar. Oh believe that Jesus loves you. Satan would not have you believe this, but what does St. John 3: 16 say? For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.
The proposal to amalgamate the town of Waterloo with the city of Kitchener is being considered. While Waterloo is being receptive, some believe there is little to be gained by such a move.

This year is the centenary of the great naturalist, John Muir, born in Scotland in 1838.
Traffic accidents in United States last year claimed 39,700 victims. At most the equal of a modern war with the casualty lists.
Twenty-six Goderich sportsmen went hunting wolves in the Pine River section on the Bruce-Norval border on Thursday—and came back with jack rabbits.
Harry H. Johnson, Secretary of the Ontario Liberal Association, sustained a broken arm and leg fracture when he fell. He was visiting with Premier Hepburn at his home at the time of the accident.
If every bachelor in Canada, between the ages of 20 and 35, made up his mind to marry, the world would not be enough brides to go around because there are 240,000 more bachelors than maidens in this age class. However, for the sake of our unmarried friends, we hope this news does not make the girls more desperate than usual.
