LOCAL NEWS

Get out the Christmas decorations. Statutory council meetings are being held today.

Watch for the Red Boxes in the grocery stores. Help to fill them up. Have your Christmas food delivered to the city by Haywards, Phone 318.

The Christmas displays are now prominent in the stores and are being sought by gift seekers.

Santa Claus is coming to Milton on Dec. 17th. Be out to meet him with all the children and enjoy the fun.

Farmers in this district have been plowing this week. Pretty good for about mid-December.

Eight Burlington citizens appeared in police court here on Friday last for failure to have radio licenses.

POSTPONED.—I.O.O.F. Old Timers' Night will be held to-night—Thursday, Dec. 15th—at 8 o'clock.

Liquor stores and beverage rooms must close on Christmas eve by eight o'clock, according to a ruling by the Liquor Control Board.

Rev. Horace Kaye has accepted a call to Drumore and the family moved their effects on Wednesday of this week.—Winton Echo.

Robert Bell, Pine Street, we regret to report suffered a slight stroke on Friday last. His many friends hope he will soon recover.

R. B. Dent, Sarah Street, who recently suffered a stroke, is holding his own today. His many friends hope he will soon be around again.
