Halton Presbyterial W.M.S. Sectional Meetings

Eighty delegates from the eastern section of Halton Presbyterial W.M.S. of the United Church, attended a sectional meeting at Bethel Church on June 12th. Mrs. H. Turner of Bethel Church welcomed the delegates, to which Miss E. McKay, Georgetown, responded, and Mrs. H. Ingthart, past president, presided over the session. A feature of the morning session was an "Information Please" broadcast from station W. M. S., by Mrs. E. M. Clemons, Milton, who selected her questions from a "Treasure Box," several Presbyterial Secretaries supplying the answers. Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Burlington, in her talk on "Whatever things are lovely and laudable," painted word pictures of incidents in her life as a former missionary in India. The guest speaker, Mrs. J. I. Field, Dundas, illustrated her talk on "Pressing Forward with Headlights on Full," by a poster showing an automobile going up the hill 1939-40 by which were placed signposts of prayer, study, faith, enthusiasm and the forward look. The highlights of memory would not suffice to carry us onward. The Poster Parade, by the secretaries, was an interesting part of the program. Mrs. W. H. Shans spoke on Literature News, and Mrs. A. K. Leonard on Madras Echoes. Members of Wesley Auxiliary conducted the morning devotions. Several readers of Brevity, with enthusiastic singing and prayer, with Mrs. H. S. Fiddes speaking on Quietness, showed the relation and value of the afternoon worship period to the whole meeting. Miss Lee and Jack Ford of Bethel, medal winners in the Halton and Peel Music Festival, sang at the afternoon session. Mrs. G. Fox, presented the report of the committee. An invitation to Brevity for 1940 was accepted. The closing message was given by the president, Mrs. Wilson, during an address of appreciation for her untiring services. The report of the committee was presented to Mrs. Ingthart. Mrs. Miller, Hornby, closed with prayer. The ladies of Bethel Church entertained at luncheon at noon.

The following day at Appleby United Church the western section held their meeting, with Mrs. J. Chas. Readhead, 1st vice president, presiding. Mrs. J. Laughland, president of Hamilton branch, was the guest speaker. She also conducted an Open Forum.
