Rural Mail Couriers and Others

Recently it was announced that the federal Government had decided on a scheme to provide rural mail drivers with special license plates. It would have been music to the ears of those faithful mail couriers "if a few more holidays and an increase in salary" had been included in the announcement. There are plenty of civil servants employed at Ottawa who do not work half as hard as the rural mail courier, and who are not nearly as necessary, but who are paid a good fat salary. It's high time that some wedding out be done in our Civil Service, and also some attention paid to salaries of those servants who really do the work.

Faces Charge of Manslaughter

Crown Attorney A. G. Davis, K.C., of Brampton, announced a charge of manslaughter had been laid against Wm. Yarratton, superintendent of the Peel-Halton Highway, following the death of James O'Neil. The commission in charge of the home met and ordered the suspension of Yarratton. An official investigation has been ordered for the death of James O'Neil, aged inmate of the home, who died on September 16.

Walk Safely

Pedestrians are involved in approximately forty per cent. of automobile fatalities. Statistics show that in more than two-thirds of the fatal pedestrian accidents last year, the pedestrian was walking in an unsafe manner, walking across highways, between intersections and jay-walking at intersections. Many people think that the automobile driver is the only one who needs to practice safety, but of course, that isn't true.

Decoration Day and Service

The annual decoration day and service was held by Branch 136, Canadian Legion, on Sunday afternoon last. The parade was led by a band not only by ex-service men but by a good representation of fraternal societies which included Sons of England, Loyal Orange Lodge, I.O.O.F., Elks Lodge, and other. The parade, headed by Burlington Legion Band, marched to the cenotaph, where a wreath and flowers were placed in remembrance of the fallen. The parade then proceeded to Evergreen Cemetery, where forty-two graves of our departed comrades, also brethren of the respective fraternal societies were decorated. The service which followed was well attended by the general public, with every member of the town taking part.

May 1, on behalf of Branch 136, Canadian Legion, express our sincere thanks to all who participated to make this day one of the most outstanding during the past few years. The spirit of co-operation that was shown by all was worthy of the best British traditions.

During these critical times may we in the future stand as one so that the wonderful heritage that is ours cannot be taken away, ever remembering those who gave up their lives so that we may enjoy all the privileges that we as Britishers inherit.—Com.

St. Paul's Church Evening Auxiliary

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 3rd, St. Paul's Evening Auxiliary entertained the Oakville Evening Auxiliary and the local W.M.S. and local Circle Girls in the school-room, when over forty members and guests were present. During the devotional period Mrs. Wilmut read from the 3rd chapter of the First Epistle of Peter, and spoke of the Ideals for Christian living in modern times and Mrs. Kibler offered prayer. The guest speaker was Mr. Porter, who had chosen for his subject "The Ideals for Modern Conferees." Mr. Porter emphasized the miracle of having such a world conference when all the nations were so unsetting in their divisions. The conclusions of the conference made, stressing the importance of Bible Study, the necessity for regular worship and the witnessing of the Christian life. In this task it will need of more musical numbers were enjoyed. Mrs. K. Foster sang beautifully and Mrs. E. W. Foster entertained with a violin solo. Dainty refreshments were served and a social half hour enjoyed.

RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Red Cross will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 8th, instead of Monday on account of the meeting of the Y.W.M.A.

The Tap Day appeal was much appreciated by the society and the results were most gratifying. The Red Cross has a stupendous task ahead of it. In this task it will need of more support and co-operation from every Canadian community. The effectiveness and efficiency of the Red Cross in time of war is largely dependent on how fully its members work with and co-ordinate all elements within a community. Even though there are many existing organizations in our community, it is the duty of the Red Cross Branch, in this suggestion, there is no thought that such a branch will usurp the work or identity of any other organization doing useful war work.

PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY

A highly esteemed and well respected resident of this district, Charles E. Twiss, passed away suddenly on Friday evening while out in the field. He had been home to drive home the cattle. Falling to return home, the family became anxious and went in search. His lifeless body was found a short distance from his home, where he had fallen when suddenly stricken with the fatal attack. The deceased, who was 63 years of age, was the seventh son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Twiss. Born on the homestead, he had lived all his life in this district, where he was well and favorably known to a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a faithful member of St. George's church, Lovellville, serving as warden and synod delegate for a number of years. For fifteen years he was superintendent of the Sunday school, a class teacher and a valued member of the church choir. About five years ago he was obliged to retire from these offices on account of ill health, due to a fall. Up to that time he had also taken a keen interest in community affairs. In politics he was a staunch Conservative. Besides his wife, the former Annie Blakelock, he is survived by one daughter, Bernice, and three sons, Mack, George and Claude, all at home; also one sister, Mrs. O. Morse, of Campbellville, and three brothers, Robert, of Campbellville; Frank, on the homestead, and Ralph, of Dundas. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, with private service at the family home and public services in St. George's church. Rev. Allan Hill officiated, assisted by Rev. Canon Natel, of the Milton. Interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Pall-bearers were: George Gattis, George Richardson, George Brad, William Coulson, Matthew Job and Edwin Baldwin. The floral tributes were very beautiful.

Winning Plowmen to Visit Old Land Salada Tea Donates

A new feature of the International Plowing Match which will be held at Brockville this year is the Trans-Atlantic Class, sponsored by Salada Tea Company. As a result of the generous contribution of this company the Plowmen's Association, plans for the first time in its history, to send Canadian representatives overseas to compete in matches in the British Isles. Consequently, much new interest has been aroused among farm-ers throughout the province. In addition to the trip and Gold and Silver medals to the two trans-Atlantic winners, Salada is donating twelve cash prizes for the event, totaling $150.00.

Furthermore, branches throughout the province will each have a Salada special event, the first prize being $10 in cash and the right to compete at the subsequent International Match.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

AUTUMN PICTURES

The changing foliage and pleasant weather of autumn make it an ideal season for outdoor snapshotting—whether in black-and-white or full-color.

AUTUMN, with its bright hues, pleasant weather, and feeling of seasonal change, is one of the most delightful times of the year to be outdoors. And it is a time rich in picture material—a perfect season to load up your camera, climb in the car or put on hiking boots, and go afield with an eye alert for picture chances. Look for these picture opportunities in harvest scenes . . . on the farms . . . wherever there is rural activity. Watch the skies for cloud formations that will add glory to your landscape shots. As leaves begin to fall, and bonfires are burning, look for atmospheric effects—sunbursts slanting through trees and smoke—for these too will make fine pictures.

If your camera can be loaded with full-color film, by all means plan to take advantage of the brilliant colors as leaves begin to change and assume their autumnal hues. And look for color-film opportunities in the orchards where bright-colored fruit hangs against the green of trees. If you go on group hikes that in this ideal hiking season, see that members of your crowd wear suitable costumes—with bright touches of color that will add appeal to your full-color shots.

In black-and-white shooting, keep a color filter on your lens to bring out the clouds in landscape shots and harvest scenes. Don't confine yourself to general scenes and views—keep an eye open for close-ups that reflect the spirit of the season. Let your pictures show people at work . . . plucking fruit, husking corn, perhaps sowing winter cover crops . . . so that your autumn record will really portray this time of year, and its typical activities.

If you picnic at this season—and you should—you'll find the camera an ideal means of recording your outdoor fun. Wherever you go . . . whatever you do . . . picture opportunities are waiting—and the wise snapshotter will try to utilize them all.

John van Gulder

PHOTO-TIP: On outings, hikes or picnics, carry a roll of high speed film—the kind for night snapshots. It's four times as fast as regular daylight film, and comes in handy for snaps in late afternoon, or in shady spots such as the picnic grove. 255
