MILTON, Nov. 9, 1939.

Halton Fall Assizes

Halton fall assizes opened here on Monday last, Mr. Justice Greene presiding. There were five cases, including one criminal case, three civil jury actions and one civil non-jury action.

The King vs. Kenneth L. Barker, of Buffalo, a motor-manufacturing case, was the only criminal action. Barker was charged with manslaughter and reckless driving in connection with the highway death on October 5, 1938, of Phyllis Shaver, of Burlington. The accident occurred on the Queen Elizabeth Way, near Burlington. Barker was acquitted last Tuesday afternoon.

The three civil jury actions are: Albert Patterson, Trailgar, vs. Halton Telephone Co.; James Croft vs. Eric Oille, both of Nelson township; Joseph Harris vs. Daniel Smith, both of Nelson township. The civil non-jury case is a divorce action.

Pedestrian Hit by Bounding Car

Shock and undetermined injuries were suffered by Edith Cash, 17, of Stewartstown on Sunday when she was thrown into the hood of an automobile which was allegedly out of control. The accident occurred on the seventh line at Stewartstown. A car driven by Joseph G. Ganner, of Norval, veered into the ditch, bounded to the highway again, then struck Edith Cash, who was walking along the sidewalk on the other side of the road, according to police. Dr. C. V. Williams, of Georgetown, rushed to the scene to treat the girl for injuries.

Provincial Constable George Cookman, Milton, and Chief Wm. Marshall, Georgetown, are continuing investigations.

Young Refugee Suffers Broken Leg and Collarbone

Mojik "Mike" Korbowol, aged 7, escaped from the war in his native Poland by a narrow margin. He reached Canada safely, but was injured by an automobile on Mill St., Acton, as he ran home ahead of his mother from a motor accident. He suffered a broken leg and a broken collarbone in collision with a car driven by H. McKenzie, of Waterloo.

It was two months ago when Mike escaped from the war in his native Poland by a narrow margin. He reached Canada safely, but was injured by an automobile on Mill St., Acton, as he ran home ahead of his mother from a motor accident. He suffered a broken leg and a broken collarbone in collision with a car driven by H. McKenzie, of Waterloo.

People Must Be Convinced

(Toronto Telegram)

In Toronto there has been a suggestion that hospital costs must go up—that the hours and pay of subordinate hospital help must be improved. It is very possible that the hours of hospital workers are too long and their pay too short. If so there can be no desire to resist an improvement in their working conditions. But there will be strong resistance to any increase in costs to paying patients until the suspicion is dispelled that hospitals are extravagantly and im-providently administered.

THE RED CROSS

True to its history, the Canadian Red Cross has responded to the call for service in the present international crisis in a manner that is in keeping with its fine traditions of the past. Upon the outbreak of war, the Red Cross swung into action across Canada, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific rapidly organized for the tremendous tasks which lie ahead.

Soon Canadians will be on their way to foreign soil. The Red Cross organization will be there, waiting to help, its organization ready and willing, properly equipped, guaranteeing efficient aid when they require it to those who have left their homeland. And while work is being done in the theatre of war, the great services built up in Canada during the years of peace must be maintained as well.

Great responsibilities, therefore, face the Red Cross, and today it is asking Canada for funds necessary to meet these responsibilities. A national campaign has been organized to raise $3,000,000 to finance this war-time work of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Need For Funds

On November 12th, the Red Cross National War Appeal will be launched. Great numbers of volunteer citizens have indicated their desire to help Red Cross "over the top" in this great war effort. The need for the money is greater than ever before, as the Red Cross will have a heavier burden to carry in this war than in any previous world conflict, due to larger allied troop mobilization, increased destructiveness of war weapons, and the extension of warfare into civilian districts.

Based on experience in the last war and on present indications, Canadian Red Cross services in the present conflict will include the following, for all of which funds will be required:

1. Provision of raw materials, wool, etc., for making up by volunteer groups across Canada.
2. The building and equipping of a number of hospitals in England and France for the care and treatment of Canadian wounded. Arrangements are already under way for the building and equipping of a Canadian hospital at Cliveden, Lord Astor's estate in England.
3. Providing medical supplies for use by Red Cross workers in the theatre of war.
4. Provision and maintenance of ambulances and auxiliary services for first aid to Canadian soldiers who have been wounded.
5. Supplies for the special care of soldiers in all Canadian hospitals.
6. Extra comforts to soldier patients (a service which warmed the hearts of thousands of "Tommys" in the last war).
7. The addition of recreation rooms, special wards for chest treatments and gymnasia to Canadian hospitals in England and France.
8. Supplies for Canadian prisoners of war in enemy countries.
9. Support of international liaison offices for exchange of information on prisoners of war, casualties, etc.
10. The provision of rest homes for nurses.
11. Continuation of peace-time programs (such as 43 outpost hospitals on Canada's frontiers, crippled children's aid, Junior Red Cross health instruction, help for sick and needy veterans of the last war, disaster relief, etc.).
12. Emergencies arising from war activities.

War Refugees

From the International Red Cross Committee at Geneva, as well as from the British, French and Polish Red Cross Societies comes word of the desperate plight of hundreds of thousands of Polish and other war refugees in Europe. Canada, as always, will want to do her share in mitigating the suffering of these people.

The Red Cross Organization

Founded in 1863 to give succor to the wounded in war, the Red Cross has grown into a world-wide organization, endorsed by 85 nations and counting more than 15 million adult members. It is always at peace, as indicated by the fact that it maintains communications and transportation between warring countries, thus providing a medium through which prisoners of war can be reached and supplied with food and comforts.

Knowing no bounds of sex, race, religion or colour, the Red Cross is so constructed that effort from every possible quarter is utilized to carry out, in the most efficient manner, the humanitarian work to be done. It seeks to co-ordinate the efforts of all persons who undertake voluntary war work, such as the manufacture of hospital supplies, the knitting of garments, the packaging of this material, and the shipment of these packages to the depots from which they are distributed to His Majesty's forces.

This work is carried on in the home front, while on the war front the Red Cross messengers of mercy act to bring relief and comfort to the actual victims of war. Because of its automatic appointment to the official position of an army auxiliary by the declaration of war, the Red Cross is the recipient of official information as to needs, and of official instructions as to packaging, shipment and distribution of relief goods.

Restrictions on the sale of sugar have been removed, which will be good news to housewives, who have had their troubles purchasing sugar for canning purposes, let alone for everyday use.

The Conservator has not devoted much space to rejoicing over victories, but the defeat of the Duplessis combination in Quebec made glad the hearts of Tories in every part of Canada, and in their joy and rejoicing we most heartily join.—Brampton Conservator.

Anniversary services were held at Knox Presbyterian Church here Sunday. Rev. Neil Miller, B.D., Brampton, being the special preacher. The choir, together with soloists Mrs. F. Ellis, of Woodstock, and Miss Marjory Dawson, of Milton, and the Action male quartet supplied special music for the occasion. The anniversary concluded with supper and concert Monday night.

SHOT PHESANTS—MEN ARE FINED

—Found guilty of shooting pheasants out of season, Wm. Fothergill and Alex. Neal, of Burlington, were fined $20.00 each and had their guns confiscated when they appeared before Magistrate Woodliffe in Fishery court. L. M. Bray, Game and Fishery officer, prosecuted the case.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Currie in honor of their mother and sister, Mrs. E. Ferrier, who is 80 years of age, and Mrs. Sherwood, age 55, on Nov. 1st. A pleasant afternoon and evening was spent enjoying music and games. Guests were present from Guelph, Hamilton, Milton Heights, Milton and Campbellville. A buffet lunch was served. Mrs. R. Currie cut the large birthday cake which was trimmed with roses and lily-of-the-valley. Mrs. Isaac Hilson and Miss Jean Anderson, granddaughters, poured coffee. Many useful gifts were received.—Com.

NORVAL RIFLE CLUB

High scoring was the order on Monday night, as many possibilities were made on practice cards, and in the aggregate event, the members are improving very fast. It goes to show what constant practice will do, as our lowest score in last week's shoot compiled a nice 99, one point short of the possible 100. Keep it up Frank is the wish of us all.

The North Toronto Rifle Club is expected to visit our range next Monday, November 13th, and by the way our boys are shooting, we expect it will be a close and exciting contest.

The firing point has been recently bolstered up with a new platform and made so that there are no vibrations to annoy the shooters. The lighting on the target has also been changed and on the whole the improvement is very noticeable.

The scores made in the aggregate event follows: M. Atkinson 100, C. Meredith 100, C. Cantelon 100, A. B. Robertson 100, A. W. Wilson 100, H. Walker 100, F. Stark 99, F. Hustler 98, H. Nurse 99, W. Lisk 97, Dr. Stevenson 94, A. Reeve 93.

MILTON GAIN 6 POINT LEAD OVER G. H. S.

Last night in the rain and dark of Milton Park the County Tuxedo rugby squad handed Georgetown High School a 7-1 pasting. The Blue and White were full value for their win and shaded the local squad in every department.

After Milton scored an unconverted touch in the first period, McMenemy kicked the Scarlet and Blue's only point from mid-field. Milton added two points in the last quarter on a safety touch. Cumberland scored on both sides but Milton were much quicker in recovering loose balls.

The final game of the series and of the season is scheduled for the High School grounds on Friday afternoon at 3:45, when the locals will try to overcome Milton's six-point lead.

Campbellville Women's Institute

The Campbellville W. I. met at the Orange Hall on Nov. 1st. The president conducted the meeting. The roll call was responded to by "Favorite Subject in School." The motto, "Do not walk this year in last year's ruts," was given by Mrs. J. Red. The Current Events by Mrs. Thos. Hilson were read by Mrs. J. K. Mahon. It was decided to give a donation of $5.00 to the Ontario Society of Crippled Children. Reports were given by the Flower and Fruit Conventers. Assembly singing "O Canada" was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Skuce, our guest speaker, gave a talk on "Happiness." Her idea was that happiness does not depend on health, wealth, power or personal position, but solely on the thinking and possessing of interesting thoughts. A solo was rendered by Mrs. J. K. Mahon. We had a display a number of simple Christmas gifts. Wool for knitting into socks for the soldiers was distributed among the members. The program was then taken over by our visiting ladies from the Acton Branch. A contest, led by Mrs. J. Gamble, was enjoyed, and a paper and demonstration on "Gellophane" was given by Mrs. W. J. Reid. The meeting closed with the playing of the National Anthem. Lunch was served and an enjoyable half hour spent.
