RED CROSS SOCIETY

The local branch is in receipt of the following message from the National Office:

"Red Cross reports indicate at least 500,000 refugees from Northern France and tremendous numbers of military and civilian casualties imposing terrific tasks on the Red Cross. The National Executive this morning voted $100,000 in cash and 100,000 surgical dressings to the French Red Cross. News and radio pleas are being made for forwarding as much as possible of supplies on hands of Branches in Canada. Please use every effort to get these supplies into our war-chouse immediately. We assure that your branch will meet this request as expeditiously as possible."

Boy Scouts Hold Jamboree

Despite downpours which occurred at intervals throughout the event Halton county's annual Boy Scout jamboree, held at Blue Springs Scout reserve in Niagara township over the week was a great success.

Some 350 Boy Scouts took part in the event which was opened officially late Friday by Fred J. Mann, of Toronto, honorary secretary of the provincial Boy Scout Association. Best wishes from headquarters were brought by Frank C. Irwin, assistant provincial commissioner. The jamboree concluded on Sunday, following presentation of ribbons and awards.

Supervising the event was Halton Scout Commissioner George E. Elliott, of Milton, who presided over the troops in attendance: The 9th, 70th, 71st, 72nd and 112 Rover Crew troops, all of Toronto; 1st and 3rd troops of Mimico; 4th and 5th troops of Oakville; a troop from each of Oakville, Burlington, Weston, Port Credit, Brampton, Milton, Beamsville, Acton, Bronte, Campbellville and Clarkson.

Hundreds of scouts were present on Sunday to see the presentation of awards by the scout master, Dean Wilkes, of Oakville, assisted by Commissioner Elliott. The Town of Milton shield for the troop earning the highest number of points in competition was won by the 1st Mimico troop, with 1st Oakville troop second, and 70th Toronto and 4th Oshawa troops tied for third place. Five boys of the 1st Mimico troop were also winners of the knotting relay award.

Woodcraft competitions and other inter-troop activities were of necessity held in the council chamber, Acton, on Saturday, when heavy rains all but swept tents and other equipment from their moorings.

The Scouts and scores of spectators heard the special sermon preached on Sunday by Rev. E. A. Brooks, of Acton, who told his congregation, seated on the ground about him, to "pray for victory."

CAMPBELLVILLE

The May meeting of the W. M. S. of St. David's Presbyterian Church met at the home of the Misses McPhail, president, Mrs. R. C. Menzies, in the chair. A very interesting paper on the late Dr. Goforth was given by Mrs. Wm. Vansickle, and the scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Peacock. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Porter, will preach on the subject of "The Holy Spirit" at the biennial rally held at Eden Mills at which a number of members attended, and also stressed the importance of daily prayer in these critical times, after which the members stayed for a social cup of tea.

David Elliott, little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott, wandered down to the banks of Lloyd Crawford's pond one day last week and climbed onto a raft which drifted quite a distance out. Miss Joan McPhail noticed his plight and called W. H. McPhail, but by the time she arrived the boy had fallen into the pond and rescued him.

Miss Anna McPhail, of Thamesville, was home over the week-end.

Mrs. B. B. who has been undergoing treatment in Galt Hospital, returned home Monday much improved.

Miss Jean Snyder, of St. Paul's United Church, has invited Rev. John B. Moore, B.A., of London, to be stated pastor during the absence of the pastor, Rev. Gordon Porter, who is Chaplain of His Majesty's Air Force at St. Thomas. Mr. Moore has accepted, duties to commence Aug. 1.

FLASH! Dance again to Doris Hull's orchestra in Hornby Orange Hall, Friday, May 31st, under auspices of Hornby Women's Institute. Admission 50c. Refreshments.

An unidentified man made a fruitless attempt to pass a Mexican peso note here Saturday night. The stranger presented the bogus bill to Ernest Hendershot, a policeman, who spotted the note and demanded Canadian money. After the visitor left the store, Provincial police were called but the man had vanished.

SUITS and Top Coats made to order. Latest styles and new imported cloths. Alterations and Repairs on Ladies' and Gents' Clothes by an experienced tailor—E. Wilkinson, Court Street, Milton.

Alex. Greig, Georgetown poultry farmer, shot down a horned owl on a four-foot wing spread, during the week-end. Sportsmen of the district believe that a pair of owls had been responsible for the scarcity of rabbits and other small game during the winter, and Greig had previously lost young owl to winged marauders. He used a .22 calibre rifle to bag the owl.

SCENTED ADVERTISING.—A St. Louis newspaper has printed a "scented" advertisement for pens. This was done by using scented ink in the press on which the newspaper was printed. While this might work for a perfume advertiser, we shudder to think of the consequences should the fertilizer manufacturers follow the perfumer's example.—Georgetown Herald.

We are glad to note that the Highway authorities are putting their road in shape for summer travel. More than ever we need tourist facilities if we are going to keep our Canadian dollar near par. But we can't get tourists without first class roads, a point that county and township authorities should not forget.

LOWVILLE

A number of people from here attended the graduating exercises of Toronto General Hospital, in Convocation Hall, Toronto, where Miss Margaret Thomas received her diploma on Wednesday evening last.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reed when they entertained a number of their friends and neighbors in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Auckland (newly weds) who were presented with a miscellaneous shower.

The Salvation Army

The Red Shield War and Home Service Campaign

A Nation-Wide Campaign to Raise $1,000,000.00

No one person can win the war. No individual can do more than help. There are many ways in which you can help win the war. One way is through the Salvation Army.

You cannot do all that the Army is doing, but you can participate in the Salvation Army Program. In this manner you can help win the war. You can help maintain the morale of our soldiers.

The Campaign in Milton and District has been arranged. Canvassers will call on you between June 1st and 8th. Give all you can. Your contribution will help.

The Salvation Army Record in the last war: 153 Service Centres and Huts, 77 Hostels and Naval and Military Homes for Servicemen, 30 Motor Ambulances, 300,000 Servicemen cared for weekly in Army Institutions, 100,000 men and more attended meetings weekly in army huts, Help the Army "Carry On" in this war.

It is one thing to urge the United States to keep out of war. The trick is to keep war out of the United States should the Allies lose.

Canada is spending two million dollars per day on the war effort. Surely this is an unbelievable figure for a people of some thirteen millions.

Up in Camp Borden, military headquarters staff are going to make war-late a non-aggression pact until the conquest of Denmark may look like moral turpitude, but it must be admitted that the Reich never violates a non-aggression pact until the ink is perfectly dry.—The New Yorker
